A number of petitions were present-

Financial bill was considered, and Messis. Blackburn and Morgan made speeches in favor of Mr. Stewart's amendment, providing for the free coinage of silver; the calendar was taken up in the House, but nothing of interest was transacted. -All commands in the field have been ordered to advance from three to six miles nearer the hostile Indians, and at intervals of two or three days the cordon will be drawn more tightly around them until they agree either to come in peaceably or be whipped into submission; the coming in of Red Cloud is variously interpreted, and his good faith is doubted by many. -Toledo, Ohio, reports an earthquake shock yesterday at noon, which shook houses, rattled windows and frightened horses; a considerable section of the country round about, was also severely shaken. - Both parties in each House of the Illinois Legislature are threatening to unseat members in order to secure a majority on joint ballot, but the matter is held in abeyance, as the action of the one House can be neutralneed by the other. - A singular state of affairs exists in Nebraska; all of the newly elected State officers have been sworn in except Gov. Boyd, and Powers the Alliance candidate, it is said, will be recognized as Governor by the Legislature; the Supreme Court has declared in favor of Boyd, and everything seems to be in a regular muddle. -The Lower House of the Minnesota Legislature was organized vesterday by Alliance-Democratic members. -The cash surplus in the United States Treasury, which was recently reduced ligion. to about $5,000,000, has increased sincthe 1st instant to about $18,000,000, and the Department will soon be in a position again to go into the market for the purchase of four per cents. -Gen. WEEK OF PRAYER. Services This Afternoon at the First Baptist Church. The service at the First Presbyterian Church, last night, was attended by a good audience, in spite of the inclemency of the weather. Rev. J. R. Sawyer conducted it, in the absence of Rev. R. C. Beaman who was unable to be present. The topic, "The Church Abroad," was briefly opened, and then those present were invited to discuss it.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard responded in a very striking and vigorous address, presenting the condition of China as a mission field, and showing the nature of some of the difficulties to be encountered by the missionaries there.

After this address some of the ministers present requested prayer for the various missionaries, sent out or supported by the churches or denominations. A prayer was then offered by Rev. Mr. Miller, and after a hymn, the meeting was dismissed. The services this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, at the First Baptist Church, will be conducted by Rev. R. E. Peele. Topic: "The Family." These officers have so carefully and watchfully guarded the interest of the Association that no change could be thought of.

Starting upon a new term of office, one which will probably see the Association in its new and prominent house, these officers earnestly desire the interest and hearty co-operation of not only the committeemen and members of the Association, but of all the good people of the community, for they feel that the entire community has an interest in the organization which they are called upon to represent during another

STEAMER SYLVAN GROVE.

Burned to the Water's Edge Last Night The well-known excursion steamerthe Sylvan Grove-belonging to the New Hanover Transit Company, and plying on the river between Wilmington and Carolina Beach, was destroyed by fire last night about twelve o'clock. She had been laid up for the winter on the west side of the river at a point about opposite Kidder's mill, and was beyond the city limits; but as soon as the flames were seen an alarm was sent in from box No. 53, at the foot of Dawson street, and the Fire Department turned out. The bright glare of the burning boat illuminated the river and was viewed by many persons from the wharves on the river front of the city. The cause of the fire is not known, but it was probably of incendiary origin. The Grove was a great favorite with the excursion-going people of Wilmington and many summer visitors to the city, who will regret to learn of her destruction.

The tug Marie went out at about half-past one o'clock this morning and got her engines at work throwing streams on the burning boat, and it was thought would save the hull, and perhaps preventing its sinking.

ARMOUR PACKING CO.

The Agent of the Company Charged with Violating the Market Ordinance.

Mr. Jesse Harkness, local agent here for the Armour Packing Company, was arrested yesterday for selling beef at retail, in violation of section 5 of the Market Ordinance of the City of Wilmington, which declares it to be unlawful, and punishable by fine of fitty dollars, for any person to sell or offer for sale any fresh meats, beef, pork, mutton, etc., in any quantity less than quarters at any other place within the corporate limits of the city of Wilmington, than the stalls of the public market houses of

When the case was called before Mayor Fowler yesterday, Mr. Marsden Bellamy appeared as counsel for the defendant and requested a postponement of the investigation until he could get certified copies of opinions recently delivered in similar cases tried in the U. S. Courts at Norfolk and Raleigh. The continuance asked was granted and the hearing was postponed for one week. The defence suggested by counsel is that under the Inter-State Commerce Law the ordinance in question is unconstitutional.

TAKING THE CENSUS. The Police Returns Give the Population

According to the returns of the police officers the total population of the city of Wilmington is 20,762-an increase of 674 over Commissioner Porter's census, which gave the population as 20,088 Divided as to races, there are 8,731 white and 12,031 colored. Mayor Fowler thinks there is a considerable percentage yet that the enumerators failed to get, from the fact that they were police officers; people seeming to think that the enquiries were for some other purpose than verifying the census, and in some instances refusing to give information sought.

On one block bounded by Seventh and Eighth and Walnut and Red Cross streets, the enumerator found eightyfour colored people living, and no whites. There are seventeen small frame dwellings on the block."

Receipts of Naval Stores. Receipts of naval stores at this port for the crop year-from April 1st to January 9th—as compared with receipts to same date last season are as follows : Spirits turpentine, 59,172 casks; last year, 59,407. Rosin, 266,486 bbls.; last year, 195,833. Tar, 42,730 bbls.; last year, 48,230; crude turpentine, 15,398 58 | barrels; last year, 16,619.

FATAL SHOOTING.

A Colored Boy Accidentally Shot and Killed by His Brother.

Josh Payne, a very black and dirty little negro, apparently about twelve years of age, but who said that he was fifteen, accidentally shot and killed his half-brother, Richard Merrick, aged sixteen, yesterday about noon, in the woods near the county poor house. The weapon that fired the fatal shot was an old army musket, and the entire charge lodged in Merrick's head, killing him instantly. The body of the dead boy was taken to the home of his father Henry Payne, a carpenter, living on Sixth and Nixon streets, and Josh, the boy who did the shooting, was marched off to the City Hall, under the escort of Duncan Hall, Henry Nichols and Willy Sanders, colored, and given into the custody of Police Sergeant Skipper.

In the afternoon Mayor Fowler investigated the case, at his office in the City Hall and in the presence of Coroner Walton and others. There were several witnesses. Henry Glavin, a white lad, and Willie Sanders, colored, said they were standing at a fire the boys had made in the woods, Heard the gun go off, and turning, saw Payne holding the gun in his hands, his mouth open with astonishment, and gazing at Merrick lying dead on the ground. Payne cried out, "I didn't go to do it," and threw down the gun and started to run, but was stopped by Sanders. They also testified that a few minutes before the fatal shooting, Glavin asked Payne to let him shoot the gun. It was given to Glavin, who tried to fire it, but it failed to go off. Payne then took the gun and examined it, and finding some of the white fulminate from the cap in the ipple, accused Glavin of putting flour in it, and pointing the gun at him said, "I'll make you rack for it." Glavin dodged out of the way, and the Payne boy then turned his attention to picking what he thought was flour out of the tube, and the gun exploded, killing his brother, who was standing in about six feet of him.

There was plainly no ground upon which to hold Payne for the killing of Merrick, but the testimony showing that Payne had pointed the gun at Glavin (although he did not attempt to fire) the Mayor under the law which makes it a criminal offence for one person to point a gun or pistol at another, required a bond of $50 for Payne's appearnce at the Criminal Court, and the bond not being forthcoming the prisoner was sent to jail.

ANSON COUNTY.

LILESYILLE, N. C., Jan. 8th, 1891. Editor Morning Star. Wilmington, N. C. DEAR SIR-I see in the STAR of the 7th inst. a communication headed

"Affairs in Anson," and signed "Barry."

"Barry" says that the farmers are in no better condition than they were last year. That liens and mortgages forced the sale of cotton before the holidays, and that there are two hundred and fifty bales of cotton laying around loose, &c., exposed to the ravages of rogues. Every one acquainted with the affairs of this county ought to and cannot help seeing and knowing that the farmers are in far better condition than they were last year. Amounts that were carried over last season on account of short crops have been settled, together with the expenses of 1890, and many are not asking credit until February, and some that have been borrowing heretofore will be able to avoid that necessity this year. We have yet to hear of the first lien and mortgage being forced in this community; and as for rogues, if I had to find a first-class thief out of jail, I would not know where to look for one.
