OUTLINES.

The Senate was in continuous session for thirty hours on the Election bill; a ote on the measure was defeated by the Democratic members, and the body adourned vesterday at 6 p. m. until Monday, the bill having been temporarily down to business as if she had never and aside on Mr. Hoar's motion. In the House there was a long political debate on the District of Columbia Appropriation bill. -Mr. Geo. Bancroft, the historian, died yesterday at his home in Washington, D. C., of old age, he was born in 1800. - Developments are anticipated in the Senatorial night in the Kansas Legislature which will result in the choice of Ingalls for United States Senator. ----Latest advices from Buenos Ayres are that the revolutionary outbreak is rapidly subsiding. -Berlin advices say that Prof. Koch has probably reached the climax of his career; dissatisfaction is expressed at his statement of the composition of lymph; doctors differ as to its curative powers. - New York markets: Money easy at 3 per cent., closing offered at 3; cotton easy: middling uplands 9 7-16 cents; middling Orleans 978 cents; southern flour duil and weak; wheat firm and dall. The Albany, N. Y., Times nominates James Gordon Bennett, of the Harald, for United States Senator to succeed Evarts. This is an offset to the Herald's nomination of Mr. Dana of the Sun. The Times didn't wan't the Herald to have all the joke and fun to itself. By the way, wouldn't J. G. B. make a daisy Senator, if he could be persuaded to live in this country a few months on a stretch?

Some preachers are right hard to please. There is one in Maine who has resigned his charge just because he wasn't resigned to boarding himself, sweeping out the church, making the fires, ringing the bell, and being cursed at by members of his flock who are peanuts, whittled in time of meeting, fired pistols and threw stones at his horse, and laughed aloud during service. From his statement he was lucky that they didn't fire pistols and threw stones at him instead of his horse. This was up in Tom Reed's State.

There is a racket in the Republican Central Committee of Missouri, over the disposition of a $30,000 campaign fund. The new Treasurer elected finds only $8,000 accounted for and the fellows who had charge of it refuse to tell what became of the rest. As a Republican Committee they did remarkably well to account for $8,000. Usually the per-Tentage accounted for is not so large.

The Charlotte News has moved into new quarters, has got a new press and is booming right along. A ittle while ago it was enlarged and put on a brand new suit. OPERA HOUSE.

The Pearl of Pekin To-Morrow Night-Reserved Seats at Yates'.

The sale of seats for this production, which will be given at the Opera House to-morrow, (Monday night), and which will undoubtedly prove one of the most brilliant events of the season, announces a very large audience, The New York Herald, speaking of its 250 nights, run in that city, says: "The success of the 'Pearl of Pekin', at tle Bijou Opera House, is one of the most substantial in the annals of that favorite house, and nothing in the career of this theatre has proved so satisfactory to the management. It is universally acknowledged to be the greatest sight in costuming that has ever been seen on the New York boards. The piece is delightfully fresh, piquant and amusing, and the music most tuneful and catchy."

day, January 28th, promises to be a great of their best selections and Prof. J. G. Miller's string band will furnish music for the dancing. PEOPLE'S NATIONAL BANK.

Judge J. C. McRae Appointed Receiver-A Committee to Investigate the Cause

> The Fayetteville Observer says that at the meeting of stockholders of the suspended People's National bank of that place "Bank Examiner Tate was requested to make a statement of the System: real condition of the bank, which he did -so far as consistent with instructions from Washington-showing that it would require $106,000.00 to meet the demands of depositors, and resuscitate the institution. It was then agreed that the appointment of a receiver had befor that position. "A committee of three, consisting of Dr. H. W. Lilly, G. A. Overbaugh and J. W. Hollingsworth, was appointed to assist the receiver in winding up the affairs of the bank; and another committee of five, consisting of Messrs. Barker, Slocumb. E. L. Pemberton, Simmons and Gilbert, was appointed to investigate the causes of its failure, and report to a subsequent meeting of

was recommended by the stockholders

The Observer adds, "we must be content to await that committee's report in February. The fact is patent that fearful blame attaches somewhere:-the moment the official investigation locates that blame the Observer will give it to the public without fear or favor.'

The "Romeo and Juliet" of Miss Alberta Gallatin and Mr. Creston Clarke at the Theatre last night, was an enjoyable performance. Miss Gallatin's impersonation of Juliet showed her to be an artist of histrionic ability. Her voice is sweet and sympathetic, and in the impassioned passages it is under perfect control without a touch of rant. In appearance she makes a charming Juliet.

Mr. Creston Clarke was the ideal Romeo-handsome, of a graceful figure and courtly manner. His voice was deep and musical, and gave great intensity to his love passages. He is a better actor than Miss Gallatin.

The potion scene was the greatest of all, and Miss Gallatin triumphed as one of the queens of tragedy. The playing of the company was even and good.

Trophy of the Hunt.
