OUTLINES.

The Ministerial crisis in Brazil is thought to have ended. Schooner Nathaniel Lank went ashore yesterday morning near Hatteras, and is a total loss; the crew were saved by the life-saving men. Wm. F. Vilas, Postmaster General under Cleveland, has been nominated for U. S. Senator by the Democratic members of the Wisconsin Legislature. In the Senate yesterday, the Vice President ruled that Mr. Aldrich's motion to consider the Closure rule was in order, and over-ruled all points of order made by Democratic Senators; notices of amendments to the rule were given and a recess was taken at 6 p. m. till 10 a. m. tomorrow; in the House, the District of Columbia Appropriation bill was passed, and the Naval Appropriation bill was taken up, but had not been disposed of when the House adjourned. New York markets: Money easy at 4 1/2 per cent; cotton quiet; middling uplands 9 1/2 cents; middling Orleans 9 1/2-16 cents; southern flour dull and weak; wheat lower; No. 2 red 1 1/2 @ 6 1/2 cents; No. 3, 6 1/2 @ 6 1/2 cents; spirits turpentine quiet and steady at 39 3/4 @ 40 1/4 cts. Resin quiet and steady; strained, common to good, $1.40 @ 1.42 1/2.

While the increase of population in the State of New Hampshire since 1880 has been 29,639, or eight and one-half per cent., the increase being mainly in the three cities of Manchester, Concord and Nashua, out of the two hundred and forty-nine townships and cities, one hundred and fifty-four show an actual decrease of population. If Porter's figures don't bungle badly Bill Chandler must be fizzling out.

It wasn't a Sioux warrior that Miss Elaine Goodale captured, but a full fledged, educated Indian pill mixer, with a big M. D. In Phœnician phrase this is a good dale better than an unadorned buck. She's pretty, if the pictures don't flatter her, and would make a daisy squaw.

The Mobile Register, commenting on the defalcation of Southern State Treasurers, asks why it is that so many of them, the list amounting to half a dozen, prove defaulters. Suffering from the speculative grip. Too much fooling with futures; that's all.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

The British steamship Mandalay, Tyndall, sailed from Liverpool January 2d, for this port. Messrs. S. VanAmringe & Co., auctioneers and real estate brokers, have opened for business at No. 7 Market street. Stockholders of the Wilmington Seacoast railroad will hold a special meeting, Saturday, Jan. 24th, at the office in this city.

Rev. C. W. Maxwell preached last night at St. Andrew's Church, and will hold services there at night the remainder of this week. The schooner Harbeson Hickman, which put in at Southport yesterday last in distress, came up to the city yesterday. She will have to discharge cargo to repair.

Mr. I. Shrier has bought the lot on Mulberry street between Front and Water, on which there is a blacksmith shop. The price paid was $1,200. The lot is 2 1/2 by 66 feet.

The name of Mrs. T. Donlan was unintentionally omitted from the published list of ladies who presided at the refreshment tables at the Hibernian Society's ball Wednesday night.

Rev. Jacob S. Hartzell, of Sumter, S. C., will preach in St. Paul's Episcopal Church next Sunday morning and night. It is understood that Mr. Hartzell has been called to the rectory of that parish, but has not yet accepted.

The bill to fund the city debt passed the Senate as proposed by the Committees of the Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance, except that the clause making the bonds non-taxable, was stricken out, being unconstitutional.

Richmond Turner, a colored lad about 15 years of age, was arrested yesterday in Brooklyn on suspicion of having stolen three rustic chairs which he was trying to sell. One of the chairs was subsequently identified as belonging to Col. Atkinson. Turner was locked up.

A synopsis of the Bible Readings given by Rev. W. J. Erdman in this city under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., has been carefully prepared by a lady of this city, and has been published in pamphlet form. A number of copies have been placed at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, in order that those desiring to, may get them.

BOLD BURGLARY.

A Daring Raid Made on a Private Residence Yesterday Morning.

The residence of Mr. Schloss, on the corner of Fourth and Dock streets, was visited about three o'clock yesterday morning, by a bold burglar, who got away with a suit of clothes, a gold watch, a diamond scarf-pin and thirty dollars in money, belonging to Mr. Aaron Nathan. The room occupied by Mr. Nathan is on the second floor, front, and the windows open on the roof of the piazza. The burglar made his entrance and exit through one of the windows of Mr. Nathan's room, and it was the noise the fellow made in taking what was no doubt a very hurried departure—the crackling sound of his footsteps on the tin roof of the piazza—that awakened Mr. Nathan, who found the window raised and his clothes and valuables gone. How the thief managed to climb to the roof of the piazza cannot be ascertained. None of the other rooms in the house was visited by the burglar, the door of Mr. Nathan's room being found locked as he left it on retiring for the night. There was a light in Mr. Nathan's room—the only one in the house—and this no doubt was a tempting allurements to the robber.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

Last Night's Entertainment at the Opera House.

A small, but a refined and appreciative audience, enjoyed "As You Like It" at the Opera House last night. The exquisite humor of this comedy, which was interpreted with such charming naturalness, was heartily enjoyed by the audience. In the expression of their appreciation Miss Galatin's auditors frequently called her before the curtain. In Resolved Miss Galatin has a role in which she easily excels. Mr. Clarke's Orlando was a creation of power, which was quickly recognized and appreciated.

Festival To-night.

In another column the Ladies' Mite Society advertises a festival to-night at the school room, back of St. James' Church, and will have on exhibition, and for sale if any one is brave enough to take one home, a collection of O. T.s. and R. O.s. Everybody should go and see these curiosities. Refreshments will be served; ice-cream if the weather is very cold. [Take our advice, young man, and don't say the weather is cold unless you want the Mites to make it warm for you.] Doors open at 7. Admission 10 cents; children half price.

A BIG BLOW.

The Storm Yesterday Morning—Wind Velocity 43 Miles an Hour.

The Signal Service prediction Wednesday night of a severe storm was fully justified. The wind blew at a great rate about daylight, and at 8.30 a. m. attained a velocity of 43 miles an hour from the southwest. The barometric pressure at the Signal station here at 8 a. m. was 29.56. The storm passed off before 9 a. m., and the day was clear and pleasant. The total rainfall was only 38-100th of an inch.

Southport reported a wind velocity of 54 miles an hour and a rainfall of .80 of an inch. High winds prevailed all along the Atlantic coast.

The Signal Office here it was learned that at 8 a. m. yesterday the storm was central in Virginia, and was moving rapidly in a northeast direction to the coast, causing high winds and excessive rainfalls in its passage. An area of comparatively low temperature followed closely in the track of the storm and it was predicted that by this morning the weather would be decidedly colder.

The storm caused very little damage here. A few fences and trees were blown down, and the tin roofs on two or three buildings were lifted. A dispatch from Southport reported that the steamer Benefactor which sailed for Georgetown, S. C., Wednesday night, returned yesterday morning at 11 o'clock and anchored in the harbor.

At 10:30 p. m., signals were ordered down at City and Washington, N. C. The storm at that hour, was central off the New England coast.

The Oyster War.

A dispatch to the Norfolk Virginian, from Elizabeth City, N. C., Jan. 21, says: "One or two hundred vessels owned and manned by non-residents of this State, have been poaching upon the oyster beds in the lower sounds of North Carolina. About 2 o'clock to-day, the Pasquotank Rifles, Capt. Griffin commanding, left on the steamer Vesper for the purpose of driving off the poachers, and enforcing the laws of North Carolina. There is great excitement here, but nothing very serious is apprehended.

The same paper says: A detachment of ten members of the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues, under command of Capt. M. C. Keeling, left yesterday morning for Elizabeth City, N. C., with one of their guns, to assist the North Carolina militia in driving oyster pirates out of the sounds and rivers of the Tar Heel State. They were met by Col. Wood, and after a conference the Blues returned to Norfolk. The cannon and ammunition brought from Norfolk were turned over to Colonel Wood and placed on board the steamer Vesper, which left Elizabeth City at 1 o'clock with fifty members of the Pasquotank Rifles aboard for a trip through the oyster-producing section of North Carolina.

The steamer will go to Newberne, Washington, and Beaufort, notifying dredgers of the passage of the law. As she proceeds on the return trip if any dredgers are found continuing to ravish the oyster beds they will be arrested, even if their boats have to be blown out of the water and their crews killed.

The Cowhiding Case.

Margaret Taylor, the colored woman charged with cowhiding a little boy—son of Mr. Tate Croom—was arraigned in the Mayor's Court yesterday, but the case was continued until to-day, on account of the absence of witnesses.

Dr. Richard H. Lewis, of Raleigh, will make his regular quarterly visit to the city on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, (27th, 28th and 29th insts.), and can be consulted at Dr. Wood's office by those suffering from the diseases to which his practice is limited (Eye, Ear, nose and Throat.
