vigor in restoring gray hair to its origina. solor, promoting a new growth, preventng the hair from falling, keeping it soft, siky, and abundant, and the scalp cool, healthy, and free from dandruff or humors. The universal testimony is that this preparation has no equal as a dressing, and therefore, indispensable to every well-furnished toilet. -1 have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for some time and it has worked wonders for me. I was troubled with dandruff and was rapidly becoming bald; but since using the Vigor my head is perfectly clear of dandruff, the hair has ceased coming out, and I now have a good growth, of the same color as when I was a young woman. I can heartily recommend any one suffering from dandruff or loss of hair to use Ayer's Hair Vigor as a dressing." - Mrs. Lydia O. Moody, East not only prevented my wife from becoming hald, but it also caused an entirely new growth of hair. I am ready to certify to this statement before a justice of the peace."-H. Hulsebus, Lewisburgh, Iowa. Some years ago, after a severe attack of brain fever, my hair all came out. I used such preparations for restoring it as my physicians ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively several articles recommended by druggists. and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The last remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think I used eight bottles in two years; more than was necessary as a restorative, but I liked it as a dressing, and have continued to use it for that purpose. I believe Ayer's Hair Vicor possesses virtues far above those of any similar preparation now on the market."

Sixteen Live Rattlesnakes Turned Loose in the Dead-Letter Office.

A few years ago, says a Washington letter to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, there came to the deadletter office, a tin can on which no address was found. The can was opened and sixteen lively looking rattlesnakes made their escape. There was a scene in the dead-letter office office for a few minutes. Everybody got on the chairs and tables and the rattlers were left in ful possession of the floor.

Finally they were dispatched and fifteen of them were pickled in alco-

One was missing, but nobody knew it. It was supposed that fifteen was enough and that none had escaped. A few days later, one sunny afternoon, a long, sleek-looking rattlesnake crawled from among the papers in the chief clerk's office, and, unobserved, made his way to where a young lady visitor was sitting.

His snakeship slyly crawled to her feet, and, gracefully winding himself about her slender ankle, tightened his folds. The young lady noticed the intrusion and, hastily looking down, saw the wily serpent, was horrified, and very properly fainted.

The rattlesnake offered no further insult or injury, but fled in alarm. He was killed and, artistically incased in a glass jar, he now adorns the cabinet.
