

BRONCHITIS

As a inflammation of the bronchial tubes—the air-passages leading into the lungs—for other complaints are so prevalent, or call for more prompt and energetic action. As a neglect or delay may result seriously, a timely remedy should be used. Apply at once a mustard poultice to the upper part of the chest, and, for internal treatment, take frequent doses of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. My little sister, four years of age, was so ill from bronchitis that we had almost given up hope of her recovery. Our family physician, a skillful man and of large experience, pronounced it useless to give her any more medicine, saying he had done all it was possible to do, and we must prepare for the worst. As a last resort, we determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and I can truly say, with most happy results. After taking a few doses she began to breathe easier, and, within a week, was out of danger. We continued giving the Pectoral until satisfied she was entirely well. This indisputable evidence of the efficacy of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has given me, unbounded confidence in the preparation, and I recommend it to my customers, knowing it cannot disappoint them.

Young Children

As the medicine is known among them as "the consider" for the affliction—James Vidal, San Cristobal, San Domingo. A short time ago, I was taken with a severe attack of bronchitis, which failed to give me relief. Almost in despair of ever finding a cure, I bought a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was helped from the first dose. I had not finished one bottle before the disease left me, and my throat and lungs were as sound as ever.—Wm. B. Hunter, Altoona, Pa.

OTTERBURN LITHIA AND MAGNESIA WATER

UNUSUALLY CURES "BRIGHT'S DISEASE" BUT ALSO DIABETES. MANASSAS, VA., April 7, 1888.

I have been suffering from a form of Kidney Disease, and the use of Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water, has been a great relief to me. I had lost forty pounds of flesh in a few months, and the use of the Otterburn Water effected a cure. I have not had a relapse since I began to use the Otterburn Water. I am now as well as usual. I have been advised to use the Otterburn Water, and I attribute my recovery to its use. I am now as well as usual. ## SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Asheville Citizen: Mr. Thrash recently sold his farm in Cherokee county, which four years ago he bought for $4,000, for $25,000. He was yesterday offered $35,000 for the Lowlands farm situated near the town of Blount.

—Concord Standard: Mr. Jim B. Wincoff, of No. 4, brought in an egg. The hen is just starting out, but seems to be an improvement on the old edition. This hen numbers her eggs. The one we have has a figure "5" on it in such a manner that a blind man could read it—it is a raised figure.

—Salisbury Watchman: Mr. J. A. Clodfelter, a native of Davidson county, but for many years a citizen of Salisbury, died at his home in this city last Friday of pneumonia. —Angeline Bell, an old colored woman, was burned to death in the southern part of the city Monday night. Her dress caught fire accidentally.

—Tarboro Southern: The barn, stables, ten barrels of corn and two mules were burned on Dr. J. H. Baker's Bell Place, six miles from town this morning at about 5 o'clock. At this writing there seems to be no reasonable grounds for suspecting incendiarism, though it is unusual for a fire to occur in a stable at that hour.

—Smithfield Herald: Charley Alford, a young mulatto boy, who has been in the employ of Mr. Wm. M. Sanders for some time, was placed in jail Wednesday night, charged with stealing a watch. —Mr. Robt. W. Pridden, for some time a resident of Selma, committed suicide last Friday by taking laudanum. He was about 55 years old and report says drank considerably.

—Winston Sentinel: At a called meeting of the Broad Street Baptist Church last night, Rev. P. H. Pernell tendered his resignation as pastor, in order to accept a call to two churches in Eastville, Va. —John Russell, Calvin Robinson and Martin Holt, employed on the construction train, engaged in getting material for improving the R. & D. depot grounds, were seriously hurt this morning, five miles from Kernersville, by the embankment they were digging under falling on them.

—Raleigh Chronicle: Bill Haywood, a negro man, was knocked down and robbed on Hargett street night before last. A horrible tale comes to us that on night before last, at Gibson Station, on the Augusta & Raleigh Extension, the barn and stables of Mr. Edward Gibson were totally destroyed. They contained seventeen horses, the burning of which caused the air to be poisonous with their unearthly and horrible cries. Every one of them was killed in the flames.

—Charlotte Chronicle: The city is infested with tramps. They go begging from store to store and house to house. Their favorite ruse is to carry an arm in a sling and represent it as broken in a railroad wreck or badly scalded in a boiler explosion. Whitehall Seminary was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning at 5 o'clock. The fire originated in the ceiling and is attributed to rats and matches. —The Chronicle, a week or so ago, called attention to an old time bedstead of the unusual proportions, 18x30 feet, which was in auctioneer Walker's store. Mr. Walker yesterday informed a Chronicle reporter that he had sold it to a lady in Raleigh, who had seen the Chronicle's notice of it. It was a handsome piece of furniture and brought $70.

—Greensboro Record: Sam Brooks, an inoffensive colored man who near the colored graded school, was assaulted last night, about 8:30—terribly mangled and robbed. Brooks keeps a small grocery and sleeps in the house, having no family. Some colored people were in his store at 8 o'clock, and left Brooks sitting by the stove. About half hour afterwards they heard a noise in his store, but as Brooks is very fond of playing and scuffling, thought nothing of it. He was found, however, soon afterwards, beaten and cut in several places about the head and face, and lying on the ground with an axe or some iron instrument. Brooks was unable to give any account of the affair, when he was found, and remained unconscious up to the hour of his death, which took place at 9 o'clock this morning.

—Raleigh Capital: The police authorities are waging a war of extermination against taxless crows. On Tuesday, Mr. S. F. Telfair, Secretary to Governor Fowle, and General Woodward, Secretary to Governor Hill, of New York, spent the night together at the Yarrowburgh house near the city, and turned out far, allowing the gas to escape, and but the timely discovery by a servant serious consequences would have followed. As it was both gentlemen were only slightly affected. —Jimmie Harrison, son of the proprietor of the Harrison House, here, was slain yesterday in his yard by a vicious dog and had his arm badly lacerated. The brute would have killed him but for the interference of a colored man who came to his rescue. The brute was killed by order of the Mayor.

—Raleigh News and Observer: The Meherin Valley Railroad has been purchased by the Seaboard and Roanoke and the Petersburg Railroads, and will hereafter be operated in connection with them. —Gov. Fowle yesterday pardoned P. D. Griggs, who was convicted of slander at the fall term of court in Cleveland county in 1889 and sentenced to eighteen months in jail. Pardon was granted upon the certificate of the county physician that Griggs was threatened with insanity. —The first nickel ore ever shipped from North Carolina was sent from Murphy last Monday by Col. Henry E. Colton. It was sent to the metallurgical works in New York city to test its richness by a local smelting process. —Governor Fowle yesterday appointed L. D. Stark and W. B. Martin Commissioners of Affidavits for North Carolina at Norfolk, Va.

—SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS. Health seekers should go to Sparkling Catawba Springs. Beautifully located, in Catawba county, 1,000 feet above sea-level, at Scenery magnificent. # TWINKLINGS.

—Why do you have two beaux on your string? —"Well, you see, Charley is my society man, while is my steady-go-round." —Judge.

—Miss Prima—Mr. Plunkett is very brusque and short with people. Isn't he a gentleman? —Mr. Leanders—Hardly, I fancy. He only calls himself a gent, you know.—Free Press.

—"Has any one sworn to this statement?" said the president of the company, when the treasurer presented his report. —"No one but the stockholders," was the reply.—Lowell Citizen.

—He—One kiss is worth a hundred letters. —She—Oh, you're very sentimental. —He—Oh, no, my dear, you know, can't be introduced in a breath of promise suit.—American Stationer.

—Wool—I think the talk about the McKinley bill prices is all bosh! —Van Pelt—Why so? —Wool—Can't raise the price of a drink any easier than I could before.—Brooklyn Life.

—Edwin (tenderly touching her cheek).—Sweet one, let me be like this lovely hair. —Angelina (tremulously)—What—dearest—what would you be? —Edwin (rapturously)—All your own.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

—Young husband—Well, my dear, did you succeed in getting a stove to suit you? —Young wife—Indeed, I did. Such good luck! I got a stove that will never cost a cent for coal. The dealer said it was a self-feeder.—N. Y. Weekly.

—Lord Fitzgibbon—Gad! British noblemen furnish the money to run your American industries. —Miss A.—Yes, but American wives furnish the money to run your British noblemen.—Life.

—"Then," said Mr. Tenderfoot, thrillingly, describing his western adventures, "the Indians stole upon us." —"And—what did they do?" breathlessly asked a friend. —"Then they gradually stole everything else."—Washington Critic.

—Mert Wins. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits.

—CARD FROM SENATOR VANCE. United States Senate, Washington, D. C., February 27, 1888.

I take great pleasure in saying that I am well acquainted with the waters of the Sparkling Catawba Springs in Europe, and am free to say that I find the "Sparkling Catawba" to excel in their curative properties, all of them, as far as I am personally concerned, I always look forward with pleasure to the time when I can spend a few pleasant days at these Springs.

—Very respectfully, J. W. VANCE.
