In the House the conference report on the Fortifications bill was agreed to, and Indian Appropriations were considered. - Another ballot was had in the Illinois General Assembly for United States Senator, but there was no election. — Disastrous floods are reported in West Virginia and Pennsylvania, caused by the rapid rise of rivers; great damage has resulted and many families have been driven from their homes. - New York markets: Money easy at 2@3 per cent., closing offered at 21/2; cotton weak; middling uplands 9 1-16 cents; middling Orleans 91/2 cents; southern flour dull but steady; wheat, stronger, but dull; No. 2 red $1 111/2 at elevator; corn fairly active and a trifle higher; No. 2, 62% c at elevator; rosin dull but steady; strained, common to good, $1 421/2@145; spirits turpentine quiet and steady at 4014@41c.

A writer in the North American Review discusses the question, "Can lawyers be honest?" Well that depends a good deal on which side they Pennsylvania's militia costs her a good deal of money. But a highly protected State like Pennsylvania, which believes in cheap labor, needs a good sized militia to keep down labor riots.

The late Wm. H. Vanderbilt is quoted as saying that he was happiest when he was worth only $300,000. That's our experience. Great wealth brings a world of worry and trouble with it.

A large majority of the Republican editors of Ohio are for Bill Mc-Kinley of the McKinley bill for Governor, but as the majority of the people ain't, and there are not Republican editors enough to elect him, his chances of being Governor are not the most encouraging.

Within the past thirty years the rural population of Massachusetts has decreased 24,000, but the population of the cities and towns has increased $1,032,000, from which it may be inferred as a bouster of the prosperity of the farmers the protective tariff has proved a signal failure.

H. E. Spaulding, late cashier of a savings bank at Ayer, Mass., has disappeared. He had been speculating in stocks and came out short. When a bank cashier gets to speculating in stocks it is only a question of a short time when the stockholders and others interested will be speculating as to the whereabouts of the cashier.

LOCAL DOTS.

It is only a question of time when the salmon of the Oregon and California rivers will become extinct at the rate at which they have been taken for years and are now taken. The shipments from Astoria last year numbered 1,768 car loads of canned salmon. There are twentythree canneries on the Columbia river. The salmon of commerce weighs about 45 pounds, but they are sometimee caught weighing from 85 to 100 pounds.

Mr. John C. New, who is talked about as successor to Secretary Windom, is not hankering for that berth. As Consul General to Liverpool his salary with perquisites amounts to about $25,000, which is a good deal more pay with less work than he would have as Secretary of the Treasury, and he is level-headed enough to know when he has a good

The New York Press, idiotic Republican, rises to remark that "the life of the black man in the South is held of light value since he is no longer property." The Press is mistaken. He is property. The Republican party claims that it owns him, and the Republican bosses drive him as a chattel.

The London police haven't caught "Jack the Ripper" yet, but they've got a clew to the fellow that killed "Carrotty Nell."

Yesterday's Weather.

The weather records of the Signal Office give the following report of the range of temperature, etc., yesterday: At 8 a. m., 67°; 8 p. m., 64°; maximum temperature, 75°; minimum, 64°; average 70°. Prevailing winds, southwest. Total rainfall, .23.

Industrial Mfg. Co.

The works of the Industrial Manufac turing Company are running on full time. Their principal work now is on butter dishes, of which they are turning out 30,000 per day. They will soon resume work on berry baskets, for which they expect an active demand. Their diamond market baskets are conceded to be the best ever-sold in the Wilmington market.

Citizens' Meeting.

A meeting of citizens called for the purpose of uniting on some man to be recommended to the Legislature for appointment as a railroad commissioner, was held at the Produce Exchange vesterday at noon.

Mr. M. Cronly was called to the chair and Mr. J. C. Stevenson was requested to act as secretary.

After remarks by several gentlemen present, on motion the meeting adjourned to meet at the county-court house Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

There was quite a large crowd at the depot of the Wilmington, Onslow and East Carolina Railroad, on Surry street, when the train rolled in on schedule time yesterday afternoon. There was not much freight, but about half the the building, with the aid of a ladder taken seats in the passenger coach were occupied. Both the freight and passenger traffic on this road are increasing, and before the end of the current year the safe-key was kept, unlocked the it is probable that a train will be put on for mails and passengers exclusively.

OPERA HOUSE.

Sullivan and Harrison on Thursday being taken.

Night. I went to Niblo's Theatre last night, not to see "Honest Hearts and Willing Hands," particuliarly, or Duncan B. Harrison, but I will confess it, I went to see John L. Sullivan. I went prepared to be horribly bored, but was agreeably disappointed, and highly amused. With great event, and in the beginning of the O'Connor's premises in rear of Messrs. impatience all waited for the evening's second half of the first act, the great pugilistic hero appeared. I had expected to see a modern Goliath, but instead beheld a large, fine looking . man, with his chest and muscles marvellously de-

How they applauded. So intent was I in criticising the magnificent physique of the man that I forgot all else. John bowed and bowed again, seeming taken aback by the enthusiasm of his reception. His voice is full and rich in tone, and when he becomes proficient in the art of gesture, he will be a decided acquisition to the stage. The company supporting him is an unusually excellent one, strong individually and collectively. The above is from The New York Tribune's famous lady critic "Edda." Reserved seats for the performance at the Opera House, Thursday evening, will be for sale at Yates this morning.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

- The "Morning Glory" is right

-The New York Cotton Exchange vill close to-morrow at noon.

- A negro minstrel tropue, composed of home talent, expects to play here next week.

- The trailing arbutus and flowering moss are in bloom in the woods and fields around town.

- Lunch will be provided for parties who attend the sale of lots at Stedman Park to-day. - Every shaft and wheel in the

- The work of paving Nutt street with granite blocks was begun yesterday at the junction of this street with Mul-

- A broken wire is said to have been the caus of the failure of the street electric lights to shine last Monday - Flags on government buildings and on the revenne cutter Colfax were at half-mast yesterday in respect to the memory of Gen. Sherman. - The flower garden of Mrs. Polvoght, on Princess between Fifth and Sixth streets, was robbed Monday night of a number of choice plants. - Jane Simpson was fined $20 in the Mayor's Court yesterday; William Totten $5, and Sarah Tucker $5. All for disorderly conduct and all colored.

- A large crowd will no doubt attend the big sale at Wrightsville today. To say nothing of the sale of lots, a free ride and a free lunch are bound

- Mr. L. A Coulter will conduct a meeting for young men at the Y. M. C. A. Rooms this evening at 8 o'clock. The subject will be "The Brazen Ser-

- Julius Wilson, a young man from Merry Oaks. Wake county, N. C., who has been in town several weeks, was sent out of town yesterday by the police authorities. A few days ago Wilson stole the little boy of Gustavus Holt, the umbrella mender, and had him with him begging around town. The boy was recovered yesterday.

A BOLD ROBBERY.

A Front Street Store Entered-The Safe Opened-$200 in Money, a Watch and Other Property Taken.

One of the boldest and most adroit obberies was perpetrated during the dark hours of Tuesday night or yesterday morning at the store of Messrs. Chestnut & Barrentine, on North Front street, a few doors South of Princess. The robbery probably took place after the heavy rain about 2 o'clock, as the tracks of the thief were plain enough on the ground back of the store after daylight, when the discovery was made that the robbery had been committed. The thief or thieves got away with over $200 in money, a gold watch, a number of pairs of shoes and a rubber overcoat. Altogether about $300 dollars worth in money and goods.

Entrance was effected through a window on the second floor at the back of from Mr. O'Connor's lot adjoining. The thief then went down stairs to the office of the firm, broke open a desk where safe and secured the money-something over two hundred dollars-and a gold watch. The stock was then plundered of several pairs of shoes, even some of the display goods in the front window

There is no clue to the thief, although two young colored men were arrested on suspicion. One of them was afterwards released, the other was detained at police headquarters to await possible developments. He is a house painter, named George Richmond, who had recently been doing some work on Mr. Chestnut & Barrentine's store, and whose shoes it is alleged fit the tracks found at the foot of the ladder yesterday morning. The other "suspect" was in the office of the firm Monday evening when the money was put in the safe, saw the safe locked and the key placed in the drawer of the desk. Monday night was dark and stormy, and for some reason (probably because the moon ought to have been on duty) the street electric lights were not lit.

Second Adventists. The religious awakening at the Second Advent Church continues, and meetings are held every night. There are already fifty-five converts who are candidates for baptism next Sunday. Great interest is manifested in the meetings. FIREMEN'S ANNIVERSARY.

Celebration by Howard Relief Fire Engine Co. No. 1-Parade, Banquet and ard Relief Fire Engine Co. No. 1 was celebrated yesterday morning by a grand parade and banquet and last night by a ball at Howard Relief Hall. The procession was formed at the engine house at half-past ten o'clock, Germania Cornet Band, with about twenty-five members, under Prof. J. Miller, Jr., in the lead. Then came Howard Relief Engine Company with about fifty members under Foreman Oldenbuttel and Asst, Foreman Schnibben. Next in line was Mayor Jno, J. Fowler and Assistant Chief of Fire Department Cazaux, in carriages, and then the engine aud hose reel, handsomely decorated. After parading through some of the principal streets, the firemen assembled at Adrian Hall, where a sumptuous table had been set by the ladies. Short speeches were made by the following gentlemen: Mr. M. Rathjen, of Germania band; Mr. J. M. Cazaux, Assistant Chief of the Fire Department; Mr. J. D. Kelly, and Mr. Ed. Daniels, representatives of Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1; M. T. Davis, Esq., of the "Atlante"; Mr. Wm. Sheehan, of Fifth Ward Bucket Co.; Mr. Jno. G. Oldenbuttel and Mr. Chas. Schnibben, of the Howard Relief. Master Ino. Blomme, of the same company, read an original essay entitled, "Advice to Young Firemen," which was much applauded. The hall was prettily decorated by the lady friends of the company, some of whom also presented them with a handsome banner. The ball at "Adrian" Hall last night was well attended; there being about on arrangements, composed of the following gentlemen, Messrs. Charles Schnibben, H. Haar, Jno. Boesch, Wm. Blomme and Peter Finch, spared no pains to make the ball a success. Prof. Miller's band furnished the music for the occasion. Dancing was kept up antil a late hour this morning. BY RIVER AND RAIL.

WRECK ON THE C. & L. R. R.

Three Persons Killed and Several Others Injured. Intelligence was received here yesterday morning of a wreck on the Chester & Lenoir Narrow Gauge Railroad, in which five persons were reported killed and one fatally injured. The accident was caused by the train-mixed passenger and freight-going through a trestle two miles south of Newton, N. C. The ocomotive passed over in safety.

A later report says W. W. Ross, flagman, of Chester, S. C., and D. M. Morrow, of Cleveland county, were killed in the wreck and J. Hogg, fireman, of Chester, died two hours later from injuries. Rev. M. L. Little, of Dallas, is very seriously injured on the head and has been unconscious since the accident. Conductor C. C. Durdap, of Chester, C. S., and a Mr. Johnson, of Gastonia, and Frank Coulter, of Catawba, N.C., are also seriously injured.

Guests of the City.

A very black bear and a very dirty man, woman, and three small children, were the guests of the city yesterday at Police headquarters. The bear was the most respectable looking member of the party. The man said they were on their way to Baltimore, and would take in Newbern on their way. Being considerably under the influence of liquor he was locked up until he could "soberoff," and the bear in the meantime was chained to a cart in the City Hall yard,

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

The Committee on Streets at Work-Some Recent and Some Projected |m-

The Committee on Streets, Mayor Fowler and Aldermen Post and Pearsall, have been quite busy of tlate. Among the improvements which have occupied their attention are the follow-

Improved sewerage of "Jacob's Run," from southwest corner of Fourth and Princess to Second and Market streets. The paving of Nutt street between Mulberry and Walnut streets with Belgian block, commenced yesterday.

Gutters have been constructed on Mulberry from Seventh to Tenth, and pipe laid under ground from Ninth to Tenth which will give excellent drainage.

Fifth street from Dock to Castle has been greatly improved and the committee expect to continue this work, using "ballast," from Dock street to the track of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, which will make a fine roadway more than a mile in length.

The intersection of Second and Mulberry streets has been raised and sewered, giving thorough drainage to that Sidewalks have been laid on Princess street, between Eighth and Ninth streets; on Third, between Mulberry and Chestnut streets, and on Fourth between Hanover and Brunswick and between Brunswick and Bladen streets. Alderman Post has been specially active as a member of the committee on streets: and this may be said, too, without any reflection on the other members, all of whom are doing the best they possibly can with the limited facilities at their command.

The following are the weather forecasts for to-day:

For Virginia and North Carolina, southwesterly winds, fair Wednesday, colder. Cold wave by Thursday morning except in North Carolina. The temperature will fall slightly below forty degrees by Thursday morning.

For South Carolina, generally fair weather, southwesterly winds, slightly cooler except in the vicinity of Charleston, stationary temperature.
