One of the most accommodating villains we have heard of for some time is in jail now in New York. He was accommodating enough to kill a glazier named Goldschmidt because he had a dispute about pay for work done in the saloon of his friend Koenigsberger.

It is not known whether Mr. Blaine has any views on the silver question or not. He is too busy with his reciprocity business now to talk much about silver. In the meantime it is safe to conclude, however, that he keeps one eye, at least, on the big dollar.

OPERA HOUSE.

John L. Sullivan and Duncan B. Harri son in "Honest Hearts and Willing Hanas." Mr. John L. Sullivan, though widely known as a pugilist, has so recently become an actor as to lead us to produce the following criticism from the Philadelphia North American, concerning his appearance in that city:

"John L. Sullivan, the champion pugilist, made his first appearance in this city as a legitimate actor at the People's Theatre last night in Duncan B. Harrison's sensational drama called "Honest Hearts and Willing Hands," and taking into consideration the limited time he had to prepare himself for his new departure, he acquitted himself most credtably. His part, that of a young Irish blacksmith, suits him to a dot, and as the author wisely furnished him with no long and tedious speeches, there is no tax made on his declamatory abilities. But he delivered the lines that belong to the part with an ease and a naturalness that were surprising, and if he were to be judged simply upon his performance last night, without any reference to his skill and fame as a pugilist, the verdict would be a favorable one, of the Year-A Cold Wave Coming. escorted to the City Hall by a police-For the past two or three days the weather has been altogether summer like, the maximum temperature, as recorded at the Signal office here ranging from 70 to 80°. A cold wave was predicted yesterday, however, with notification that the temperature will fall to about 38° by 8 o'clock this morning. A special bulletin issued vesterdry from the Weather Bureau at Washington, reports that last Tuesday was the warmest on record for this season of the year, in Maryland, the District of Columbia, Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia. The following are some of the maximum temperatures with their relation to the highest previously recorded, during the second decade o' February, viz : Baltimore, 74°-2 above ; Washington, 74°-1 above; Lynchburg, 74°-1 above; Raleigh, 76°-5 above, Chattanooga, 76°-2 above; Atlanta, 76°-1 above. The temperature has been over 20° above the average over the past two days, and yesterday morning was from 20 to 30° above; the greatest departure being at Washington City, where at 8 a.m. the temperature was 66°, or 33° above the mean. But a decided cold wave will occur over the Atlantic States from the Carolinas to Maine by Thursday morning. The Art of Advertising. A Nebraska editor who evidently knows a thing or two has this to say on the art of advertising : Advertising seems to be an art yet to be discovered by some people. That is, the practical part of it. A constant stream of water from one or more fire engines will soon extinguish or get under control a very large fire, while a few buckets of water, dashed on here and there, have little or no effect. The modern fire department is practical, and has outgrown the old bucket system; and so with modern advertising-plenty of it, used in a practical, common sense and judicious manner, pays. If you want to catch a certain kind of fish you use a certain kind of bait; not all fish bite at all kinds of bait. Not all people respond to every advertisement. The newspaper is a medium indispensable to the majority of advertisers, because of its wide and repeating circulation. As a promoter of trade and profit newspaper advertising is no longer an open question; that is, when done in a practical and intelligent manner, and pays because of its effectiveness and cheapness.
