OPERA HOUSE.

Fitzpatrick's Spectacular Representation of Rip Van Winkle To-night. Rip Van Winkle will be the attraction at the Opera House to-night and the Baltimore Herald noticed its production by the Fitzpatrick Company in that city as follows. "The old but ever popular play, "Rip Van Winkle," was greeted by a large audience at Front Street Theatre last night. The play was well staged and the mountain scene was made realistic by a stream of real water and a grand spectacular performance by the members of the company. Two bright little children rendered some pleasing songs. Mr. J. W. Carner made a good old "Rip," and was ably supported by a good company."
