VOL. XLVII.--NO. 141.
Maj. James H. Wilson, of the roalroad commission, is a resident of Morganton, a civil engineer by profession, and a man of large raitroad eepperience. Mr. M. E. C. Beddingfieid is a resident of Wake county and Secretary of the State Alliance.
Thos. W. Mason, is a resident of Northampton county, a farmer and an able lawyer.
Durango. Colorado, has been Dnowed under and cut off from communication with the rest of the morld for seventeen days. Why will foolish people persist in moving westward to freeze out and run the risk of starving, when they might come south, bask in the sunstine, be happy and grow fat?
