OUTLINES.

Offers of volunteers in case of war are being received at the War Department; Baron Fava is sick and was unable to take his departure for Italy yesterday. Electric motor cars in New Orleans have been abandoned as a failure. Octavius Coke has been appointed Secretary of State by Gov. Fowle. Over 100 deaths from "grippe" are reported out of 400 miners at the Holmes mine in Nevada. Chinese ministers at San Francisco protest against the appointment of Mr. Blair as Minister to China. The grip is epidemic at Oskosh and other towns in Wisconsin to an alarming extent. Warner Miller arrived at Greystone, N. C., on the 2d inst., safe and well. The Merchants National Bank of Savannah, Georgia, loses $70,000 by its cashier, Galdeen, who committed suicide. New York markets: Money easy at 3 per cent.; cotton dull; middling uplands 9 cents; middling Orleans 9 7-16 cents; Southern flour dull and unchanged; wheat quiet and lower; No. 2 red, $1 15 1/2 @ 1 16 1/2 at elevator; corn dull and lower; No. 2, 78c at elevator, rosin quiet and firm; spirits turpentine steady and quiet at 41 @ 41 1/2 c.

Signor Crispi, ex-Italian Premier, predicts a European war. As he is equipped with hip pocket artillery, he is prepared for it.

When Italy hears from those Montana mountaineers and Kansas City et Conteds she will be apt to draw in her horns, and sing low.

Gov. Hill wants it distinctly understood that he is a tariff reformer, not a tariff abolisher, and now probably somebody will want to abolish Gov. Hill.

Harry A. Garfield, oldest son of the late President Garfield, ran for city councilman in Cleveland and was scooped by his competitor, a beer venter.

When Texas divided off her 244 counties she didn't have inhabitants enough to go round. The census enumerators found four without inhabitants.

A New York capitalist has purchased 25,000 acres of land in Georgia which he proposes to colonize with thirty people from the North and Europe.

One of the candidates for a city office in Chicago is named Freshwater. They ought to get some more of his family and put them into the Chicago river.

It is time to organize some indignation meetings about that killing business at Morewood, Pa. There were several subjects of foreign governments cut off there.

It has not yet been suggested that the McKinley tariff may be the moving cause of Italy's haste to get mad at this country. McKinley don't like macaroni and doubled the duty on it.

Mrs. Henry M. Stanley says she likes the South better than any other section of this country, which shows Mrs. S. to be a lady of observing powers and discriminating judgment.

Edwin Booth's withdrawal from the stage is not permanent. He simply proposes, at the urgent solicitation of his daughter, to take a year's rest. He will spend the year travelling with her in Europe.

A paper "gig" is the latest kink in the U. S. navy. They have been experimenting with them, and find that while they are much lighter than wooden gigs they stand submerging for an indefinite length of time without injury.

As a feud settler the Arkansas shot gun when properly loaded and cleverly handled at short range is quite efficient. It proved so the other day when two prominent citizens of Little Rock brought their shot guns to bear and one had his head shot off and the other was filled with lead.

Hereafter the married man in Wisconsin who wants to have a dead sure thing on his wife, had better not get so far away from home that he can't get back in three years. Absence for that length of time is sufficient grounds for divorce to the wife, if she wishes, without further proceeding.

During 1890 the United States imported from Italy merchandise amounting to $30,330,051, and exported products to the amount of $13,048,846. A break with this country would be seriously felt in Italy. She couldn't very well afford to lose that trade, nor to look elsewhere for the breadstuffs, cotton, naval stores and petroleum which she imports from this country.

If Italy wants to smite this country hip and thigh and bring it to its knitting with lightning dispatch let it seize our great ex-Czar Tom Reed when he gets over there. If he should play shy, pending diplomatic parley, they might inveigle him in and shut the gates so he couldn't get out. He's too hefty for a good climber.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Pertinent Paragraphs Pertaining Principally to People and Pointedly Printed.

Messrs. A. M. Woodall and W. L. Radford, of Smithfield, N. C., were in town yesterday.

General Manager Nolan, of the Wilmington Seacoast Railroad, is wrestling with the "grip," but if a robust appearance counts for anything the G. M. will come out on top.

Capt. Jas. Nolan, Superintendent of the Carolina Beach Railroad and property, was on one of his rare visits to Wilmington yesterday. He is the "picture of health."

Squire Newman, C. F. D., who has for several days been the victim of a mild-mannered form of grip, is now well enough to issue a warrant or respond to the music of the fire-alarm.

Capt. Sellers, who left Southport yesterday morning, brings the gratifying information that Capt. Harper is much improved. His sickness, as stated in the STAR yesterday, has not been of a serious nature, and it is confidently expected that he will be "ready for action" in a few days.

The P. P. of the STAR is Dunn for. But it was his informant who led him into the error of placing Capt. B. R. Dunn on the sick list. It should have been Maj. Morrison W. Divine. Well, mistakes are sometimes unavoidable. But remember the old and touching quotation: "To err is human; to forgive, Divine." Patent applied for.

Messrs. Halstead, Andrea, Homans and Huestis, prominent citizens of New York, arrived here several days ago, "fatally bent on mischief," which means determined to have a good time. Having spent several days very pleasantly with Mr. Fred. Kidder, at "Kendall," they are now enjoying the hospitality of Mr. Pembroke Jones at his pleasant home on Wrightsville Sound.

That "Prince of good fellows," Capt. A. D. Brown, reached home Friday night from New York, where he has been on a protracted visit in the interest of his business. He had a very slight attack of sickness while absent, but he is all right now, and ready to raise a company of artillery, wide right across the "big creek," and knock the Italian iron-clad "Lepanto" into a cocked hat.

Treating the Orphans.

The Oxford Orphan's Friend says: "Orient Lodge, of Wilmington did the handsome thing in sending two crates of oranges and one of lemons to our children. Wilmington, up to date this year, has been more liberal than any other place in providing for the necessities of the well and the comfort of the sick. Three hearty cheers for Wilmington."

RIVER AND MARINE.

Capt. Haskell of the schooner J. H. Cottrell, which arrived here April 3d from Navassa, reports the schooners J. A. Campbell and Lena F. Dickson at that port. Also, the barquentine Freeda F. Wiley and the barque Sicilian. The Wiley was partly loaded, had lost an anchor and thirty fathoms of chain. On the 2d March, thirty miles south of Crooked Pass, spoke the schooner Roger Drury, for Boston, Mass.

"A Long and Honored Career." Fayetteville Observer: The Wilmington Star has just passed the half-way turning on its way to the completion of its 24th year, and it is gratifying to know that its prosperity is undiminished and its influence is unimpaired. No paper has retained more effectively its individuality through a long and honored career. It has been dignified and conservative without ever has ever steadily refused to subordinate the higher aims of journalism to the latter-day newspaper sensationalism. Its enterprise has consisted in building up for itself an enviable character as a safe guide and counsellor, and its section and State could never know its true value unless they should have the misfortune to lose it.

OUR BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS.

WHAT THEY ARE DOING FOR WILMINGTON.

Facts and Figures of Interest to Hundreds of Readers of the Star—How Small Weekly Savings Run Up Into Hundreds of Thousands.

It is safe to say that no system of savings by the weekly payment of small instalments has ever been devised that so fully meets the needs of the masses as the Building and Loan Association; and equally advantageous is it to the borrower of limited means, who wishes to buy or build a house of moderate cost, as he pays back his loan and interest in weekly sums so small that in some cases they are but little in excess of the amount he would pay the landlord if he rented his house in the usual way.

There are scores, perhaps hundreds, of persons in Wilmington to whom the money they pay to the Building Associations is so much clear gain. To many of them this would apply even if they never received a dollar of interest, as this class, even if they do not waste their substance in "riotous living" would spend the money in some profitless way. But after taking their stock they are compelled to keep up their weekly payments of 25 cents per share, or become subject to a fine of five cents per share for each week of default, and a forfeiture of stock if default is continued for a specified time. Any stockholder, however, may, at any time, sell his stock to the Association for the sum actually paid in and a large proportion (sometimes as high as three-fourths) of the net profit.

In view of the great importance of these Associations to the comfort and happiness of people in moderate circumstances, and of the additional fact that they are a potent factor in the growth and prosperity of the city of Wilmington, the STAR has undertaken to procure and publish such information as was thought to be of general interest. This information is given below; and it is to be regretted that the most important item desired (the gross amount of receipts and loans) could not be obtained from the "Mechanics' Home," though applied for by a representative of the STAR. That Association, however, has been in operation nearly two years, and is in a prosperous condition.

The statement of the Southern Building and Loan Association could not be had for publication to-day, but may appear hereafter.

Industrial Manufacturing Company. This is one of the most important and useful industries ever established in Wilmington. It is based on the plan of the Building Association as to payments on stock, viz: 25 cents per week on each share. The par value of the stock is $25.00 per share, which will be reached next June when the paid-up capital stock will be $80,000. Number of shares, 1,200. The works of this Company are now running to their full capacity, with large orders ahead. The stock is already selling at a premium.

SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

Alex. Green Shot by Isham Thompson, a Short Distance Beyond the City Limits.

Information was received at the City Hall late last night that a colored man was lying mortally wounded with a bullet shot in his breast at the corner of Seventh and Wooster streets. Upon investigation by Chief of Police Hall, it was ascertained that the man was one Alex. Green, and that he had been shot by Isham Thompson, colored, living on Middle Sound nine miles from the city. The shooting took place about a mile from the city limits, Green and Thomas and the latter's wife being on their way home together from the city. The cause of the shooting was not definitely known but it is believed to have resulted from jealousy on the part of Thompson.

The wounded man was taken to the City Hospital, and Sheriff Stedman being apprised of the facts called at the hospital about eleven o'clock last night. Dr. Lane, the surgeon in charge, said that Green was shot in the right breast; that there was no internal hemorrhage, and that while no attempt had been made to find the ball it was not likely that the wound would prove fatal.

Later in the night deputy sheriff Wm. Sheehan and special deputy J. B. Brinkley went out to Middle Sound to arrest Thompson.

OPERA HOUSE.

Rico's Corsair Company, Wednesday Night—A Splendid Performance Promised.

A bewildering wealth of scenery, dazzling lights, thunder and lightning effects, old gold and burnished silver, and troops of handsome girls in ravishing costumes, is what will be seen at the Opera House on next Wednesday evening, April 8th, when the curtain rings up for the first time here on the greatest spectacular production that has ever been presented in Wilmington, the famous "Corsair." Adjectives are inadequate to describe the dazzling succession of scenery and beauty. Stage picture follows stage picture with bewildering splendor. The music, like all of Rico's music, is tuneful and melodious, the dialogue is bright, and the comedians know how and when to ring in the funny things. Those who are disposed to enjoy a couple of hours or more of genuine comic opera burlesque, should make it a point to be present.

Reserved seats at Yates' Tuesday.

Police Record for March.

The police records for March show that 77 arrests were made during the month—whites 18 and colored 59.

The Police Court fines collected during the month amounted to $227.28. No pound fees were received. There were nine alarms of fire during the month.

The police reported nine places of business found left open at night.

Library Association Lectures.

Charles Dickens is a favorite author with Wilmingtonians, and the "Old Curiosity Shop" is one of his best stories. Twenty-four pictures and quotations from its most interesting parts will form the lecture to be given at the Library Association Rooms next Tuesday night.

ACCIDENTS YESTERDAY.

Two Boys and a Man Painfully Injured. The thirteen-year-old son of Mr. S. J. Bryan was badly hurt at the Wilmington Cotton Mills yesterday while trying to stop the "picker" he was working at. His hand was caught in the roller, and a fellow employe attempting to knock the belt off caused the "shafter" to fall, mangling young Bryan's left hand and arm.

Herbert, the sixteen year old son of Mr. George Peterson, was severely hurt yesterday at the Industrial Manufacturing Co.'s works. He was feeding one of the saws when the board he put in flew back, striking Peterson in the stomach and knocking him senseless. He remained unconscious for half an hour, but recovered with medical attention, and last night was much better.

Mr. Cooper, Sr., employed at the sawmill of Messrs. S. & W. H. Northrop, was struck on the elbow by the shaft of the engine, yesterday, and painfully, though not seriously injured.

Confederate Veterans' Encampment. Col. E. D. Hall returned yesterday from his visit to Raleigh on business connected with the encampment of Confederate veterans which it is proposed to hold at the State Guard encampment grounds this summer, immediately after the encampment of the State troops. Gov. Fowle proffered his aid and assured Col. Hall that he would do all in his power to make the gathering of the veterans a most pleasant and enjoyable affair to all concerned.

Cure for "La Grippe." Dr. Mortimer Grant, of London, England, cables physicians of Chicago to try five grains of camphor in twenty minims tincture of iodine, and one drachm of glycerine with syrup, frequently, for influenza. Strong meat juice is also recommended. No antipyrine. Experiments will be made with this prescription by Chicago physicians in an effort to check the unprecedented ravages of the grip.

Yesterday's Weather. The weather records of the Signal Office give the following report of the range of temperature, etc., yesterday: At 8 a. m., 46°; 8 p. m., 49°; maximum temperature, 53°; minimum, 42°; average 48°. Prevailing wind, northwest.
