

OTTERBURN LITHIA and MAGNESIA WATER!

IT NOT ONLY CURES "BRIGHT'S" DISEASE BUT ALSO DIABETES.

MANNSBORO, Va., April 7, 1888.
For a year I have been suffering with a form of Kidney Disease which my physician (Dr. J. A. Hillman) thought was Diabetes, and advised the use of Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water. The quantity of urine passed was greatly in excess of the natural amount, and I lost forty pounds of flesh in a few weeks. The use of the Otterburn Water corrected the excessive flow entirely in six weeks, and I am again a well man.

I tried many medicines without avail, and I attribute my cure to this trouble and dangerous disease entirely to the use of the Otterburn Water.

PERSONS OFTEN ASK "WILL IT KEEP?"
AMELIA COUNTY, Va., Feb. 24, 1888.
I have been suffering for several years with a complication of Liver and Kidney trouble, suffering great pain in the region of the kidneys, and having my attention called to the Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water, I commenced to use it, and never experienced such relief from anything. The very first half-gallon I used cleared the flow of urine and cleared it up. My appetite has been restored, and I feel that I cannot command the Water too highly.

RICHMOND, Va., April 8, 1887.
I have been suffering for years with a complication of Liver and Kidney trouble, suffering great pain in the region of the kidneys, and having my attention called to the Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water, I commenced to use it, and never experienced such relief from anything. The very first half-gallon I used cleared the flow of urine and cleared it up. My appetite has been restored, and I feel that I cannot command the Water too highly.

MANNSBORO, Va., March 17, 1888.
When I commenced the use of the Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water, on the 28th of January last, I had been suffering for over three years with a disease that was pronounced by a prominent physician of Richmond to be an affection of the Kidneys, after making a scientific test.

I had only used the Water one week when I was entirely relieved of pain, which before had been constant and distressing, and I have gained nineteen pounds of flesh with a restoration of strength and energy. I saw the Water a fair test, using no other water and taking no medicine.

AMELIA C. H., Va., December 15, 1888.
I have been a Diabetic for the past fifteen years, and have suffered with Derangement of my Urinary Organs, evidenced by great difficulty in voiding my urine. About six months ago I commenced the use of the Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water, and since that time it has been marked and constant improvement in my entire condition and state of health. My digestion is better than it has been for many years, and the urinary trouble is entirely cured, and has been for the past two months.

A PRAYER.

WILLA LLOYD JACKSON.

Lord! by Thy mighty aid I can and do withstand My great temptations, bearing on the face Their face the hideous wrong. But, oh, against the petty foes That haunt my soul, I sorely need Thy grace.

They come with tender smiles and loving words, or jests. Oft times they wear the dimpled beauty of a child, Or gaze upon me with the grave, sweet looks

From duty's own severity beguiled. They hide beneath a rosy leaf, lurk within a breath; Assume with boldness of compassion's name; Are sometimes, but a haunting thought or secret wish,

I, sighing, put away for very shame. They are so small, so plausible and light, It seems that I might crush them with one blow.

Their very weakness—dancing, glancing sprites— Appeals to me to laugh and let them go.

And yet it is these little foxes 'mongst my vine That leave the vineyard ruined and bleak and bare.

I bar the gates against the sturdy robber chieftain, But only smile to see the roguish host play there.

Lord, send Thine aid against the little sins, Whose tiny arrows find my armor's weakest part, And venturing where the larger cannot find a hold, Efface with petty spite Thine image in my heart!

SUNDAY SELECTIONS.

Not every one is physically handsome; but all may be morally beautiful.

Satures are moulded with little touches. Characters are formed in the same way.

To neglect to start toward heaven means that you are already on your way to hell.

If head religion could take people to heaven, somebody would get there in a balloon.

Give what you have. To some one it may be better than you dare to think.—Longfellow.

There are demons that go not out without prayer, and a bad temper is one of them.—George Macdonald.

There are too many people in the church who always look as though they had been baptised in cold water.

This universe has its laws. If we walk according to the law the Lawmaker will befriend us; if not, not.—Carlyle.

Men must judge of their own religion by examining its foundation; if that fail, the superstructure is perishable and worthless.—Frost.

Endeavor always be patient to the faults and imperfections of others; for thou hast many faults and imperfections of thine own that require a reciprocity of forbearance. If thou art not able to make thyself that which thou wishest to be, how canst thou expect to mould another in conformity to thy will?—Thomas a Kempis.

Religious hypocrisy indirectly pays homage to true piety by the effort to appear as such, just as a counterfeit coin is a recognition of the value of genuine coin. The man who, for the sake of the advantages to be derived therefrom, seeks to appear religious when he is not, is in this respect a hypocrite, and uses the appearance to gain selfish ends. Impostors not infrequently resort to this deception.

Religion is a personal matter, and the less time a man gives to philosophizing and generalizing the sooner he will come to understand that he, as an individual soul, needs to have direct communication with God, in order to get the best and the most out of this, and to look forward with joyous anticipation to the life which is to come. Let men, severally, seek first the kingdom of God; personal faith secures comfort and contentment, while the fruit of the philosophical is unrest.—The Interior.

Faith is truly a light in the soul, but it is a light which shines only upon duties, and not upon results or events. It tells us what is now to be done, but it does not tell us what is to follow, and accordingly it guides us but a single step at a time, and when we take that step under the guidance of faith, we advance directly into a land of surrounding shadows and darkness. Like the patriarch, Abraham, we go, not knowing whither we go, but only that God is with us. In man's darkness we nevertheless walk and live in God's light. A way of living by fire and glorious, however mysterious it may be to human vision.—Thomas C. Upham.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

Dallas Eagle: Mr. J. P. Summey, of Haden, sent us the other day, a wheat head that was out the 23rd day of April. The head is large and the grains are well developed.

Salem Press: We learn that a company has been formed to buy the Bob Reynolds' tract of 92 acres near Sunnyside. The electric car line will cross the Roanoke & Southern R. R. extension through these grounds.

Morganton Herald: On Tuesday evening the steam shingle mills of Mr. T. A. Seals at Bridgewater were completely destroyed by fire. About 75,000 shingles and blocks were destroyed, and the entire loss was, we understand, between $1,600 and $2,000.

Salisbury Watchman: In 1886 only 77,550 pounds of manufactured cotton goods were shipped from Salisbury. Last year 995,283, or about thirteen times more than in 1886. This is a gratifying statement, and better still the fact that by next year more than two millions pounds will be shipped by the several cotton mills here.

Columbus News: Mr. G. W. Lennon brought us a sample of some sugar that he made on his farm from the ribbon cane and, although it is not white, it is a good article and can take the place of refined sugar in cooking. Mr. Lennon informs us that he has, about 400 pounds of it on hand now, a sample of which can be seen at this office, and that it is a profitable crop even at the present low price of sugar.

Miss Numberine—Miss Lake-side has the fatal gift of beauty. Jack Lorner—How is that? Miss Numberine—It makes her husband so fond of her that she hasn't the nerve to apply for a divorce.—N. Y. Herald.

A Wonder Worker. Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used half a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it until he was able to walk across the street with ease and good health. If you have any Throat, Lung or Chest Trouble try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at R. R. BELLAMY'S Drug Store.

Washington Gazette: Mr. S. W. Woolard, an old and respected Christian gentleman, was found dead in his chair, his head resting on his hands, in his workshop near Washington, Tuesday.

A young man named George Robertson, while cutting timber near Scranton, fell a tree which lodged, breaking a limb of an oak, and striking him. He was taken out of the woods, but he died in about two hours, before they got him home.

Salisbury Truth: The Dunn's Mountain Granite Quarry, owned by a corps of gentlemen in Salisbury, is about to be sold to a Washington syndicate. Another quarry on the same mountain has been leased by the company to a syndicate to be worked at the sum of $5,000 per year. We regret to state that Mr. John I. Shaver met with a serious accident on last Saturday, getting his leg broken in two places. Mr. Shaver was doing a humane act of helping a man and his horses out of a hard pull, when the accident occurred.

Asheville Citizen: The large granite slab to be used as a mail platform in rear of the Government building was brought up to town last night by a freight car over the street railway. The slab came from Winnsboro, S. C., is 11 1/2 feet in length, 6 feet 8 inches in width, and weighs 9,600 pounds.

Edgar Freeman, who was for a long time employed in the Western Union office in Asheville, was brought home last night from Knoxville, where he had been employed for several months. Freeman is suffering from insanity, caused, it is said, by the excessive use of cigarettes. He will probably be sent to the Morganton Asylum.

Raleigh News and Observer: Gov. Holt yesterday appointed I. R. Hays a notary public in Chatham county. Yesterday Mr. E. B. Engelhard and Mr. Alex. McPheeters, Jr. were out on Walnut creek, and as they were walking along the path Mr. Engelhard discovered a rattlesnake in the middle of the path, all coiled up and ready to strike, and within a foot of them. Calling out to his companion to be jumped, and so did Mr. McPheeters, while the snake sprung his rattle. Having gotten out of the way they shot ten times and killed the reptile. It was a rattlesnake, five feet and a half long. Nearly by they found a snake nest with eggs in it, which they destroyed. It was a narrow escape for one of the young men, at least.

Weldon News: Ex-Governor P. H. Bell, of Texas, now living at Littleton, was very recently pensioned by the State of Texas and granted twelve hundred and eighty acres of land in recognition of his services to that State in its war of independence. He was the first governor of Texas after it became a member of the American Union, and bears now wounds received at San Jacinto and other hard fought battles. He is now about seventy years of age, but of good health and likes to talk about his success in the Lone Star State.

The Rev. W. B. Morton, who sometime since tendered his resignation as pastor of the Baptist church in this city, to affect the first of July, at the earnest and unanimous solicitation of his congregation has reconsidered his resignation and will remain here.

Statesville Landmark: Probably the finest cow in Dr. J. Mott's herd of Jerseys, a 6-gallon-a-day cow, got to a lot of white lead one day last week, ate it and died.—Mr. J. C. Frost now has his newly patented tobacco case ready for use and tobacco men pronounce it a success. Unless some disaster overtakes it yet, the apple crop this year will be a full one. There will be a good many peaches, though probably not as many nor as good ones as some people expect.

A monster rock, of Winnsboro, S. C., granite has been laid down, this week in the rear of the new United States court-house and postoffice. It is to be the mailing platform, upon which the mails are to be loaded and unloaded to and from the mail wagon, and is 12 feet 2 inches long, 8 feet 5 inches wide, 8 inches thick, measures 63 1/2 cubic feet and weighs 11,264 5/16 pounds.
