A few days ago William Shakespeare was arrested at a railroad station in New York charged with petty larceny, with appropriating to his own use without permission some little things that belonged to a fellow passenger on a train. This effectually disposes of the contention of that Detroit cypher man who maintained that Bacon murdered Shakespeare.

Base Ball,

A game of base ball was played yesterday between the "Metropolitans," Capt. Jno. Burkheimer, and the "Clarendons," Capt. Wm. P. Oldham, Jr. The score was 5 to 2 in favor of the "Metropolitans." About two hundred people were out to witness the game. The clubs are composed of the best players of the city, and after practice will give the citizens the benefit of some very fine games. On account of Mr. W. P. Oldham, Jr., being sick, Mr. Ed. Moore acted as captain of the "Clarendons."

DEATH OF P. E. KILEY.

Died Yesterday, of Consumption, in New York City.

A telegram from Capt. Fred. Pennington, of the steamship Fanita, announced the death of Mr. Pharon E. Kiley, of this city, in New York yesterday forenoon. After a brave struggle, he fell a victim to that insidious disease, consumption, from which he had been a great sufferer for many months.

Mr. Kiley had been a citizen of Wilmington several years, being first employed as manager of the Atlantic Coast Line dining rooms, next as assistant to Mr. T. E. Wallace at the Gem saloon and restaurant, and latterly becoming proprieter of that establishment. He died young, being only 31 years of age.

Early in 1890 he married a young lady of excellent family, of Portage, Wisconsin, who, with one child, survives him, He was a member of the Wilmington Light Infantry and of Clarendon Lodge, Knights of Pythias, and was very popular in both organizations. "Pete" Kiley was a man who possessed many exexcellent traits of character. He was honest, patient, generous, and always true to that large circle of friends who now sincerely mourn his loss. As a husband he was tender and affectionate, and his brief married life was characterized by all that can make domestic life joyous and happy. Efforts were made by the members of Clarendon Lodge K. of P. last night to communicate with members of the order in Few York by telegraph, but up to a late hour they had been unable to do so.

The female infant left at the house of a colored woman on Second street, between Market and Princess, (as reported in the STAR) was, on investigation yesterday, found to be the child of a young dates on the third Sunday in May, in | woman who left the City Hospital-Black river, at Sucker's Landing, Samp- where the child was born-last Friday.

The Foundling.

- The mascotte of the Island Beach Hotel has arrived, in the shape of a 150-pound St. Bernard dog, and has already become a great pet among the visitors to that excellent resort.

- The County Commissioners met yesterday alternoon to consider plans for the new Court House; but two members of the Board being absent no action was taken in the matter.

- The Postal Telegraph Company are at work now connecting one of their Wilmington wires with a through wire at Raleigh. When completed they will have a direct wire between Wilmington and New York.

- The Wilmington took quite a crowd down the river yesterday, nearly all stopping at Carolina Beach, When she came in to her wharf about 5 p. m., a STAR reporter observed on her lower deck one Harper John and five Demi

Johns. - The Seaboard Air Line will sell reduced rate tickets to Charlotte for the land sale to take place there May 19th and 20th. Henderson $8.80; Maxton $5.00; Rutherfordton $4.05; Shelby $2.65; Wilmington $7.80; Raleigh $7.45; Lincolnton $1,90; Sanford 6.30; Weldon $11.00. Tickets good till May 24th.

- The STAR is the recipient of many compliments on the completeness of its Local Department, Sunday, for which it feels very grateful. It feels still more grateful for the more subtantial recognition shown by the additions to its subscription list. There is a material increase also in the sales of the Sunday edition.

A Section House Robbed.

The services were opened with a fervent and touching prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. Jas. Carmichael, D. D., after which the choir rendered most beautifully that exquisite hymn, "Lord, Make Me to Know Mine End."

Rev. George Patterson, D. D., was then introduced by Mr. E. S. Martin. Mr. Patterson, who, for many years was rector of St. John's Church, in this city and during the war was Chaplain of the Third N. C. Infantry, expressed his gratitude to the ladies of the Memorial Association for bringing him to the city, and then, in a sermon of some thirtyfive minutes held the attention of his hearers with an admirable discourse, well suited to the day and the occasion. The STAR would have been glad to give the sermon in full to its readers, but the reverend gentlemau declined to furnish it for publication.

After the services, the choir sang "For a Season Called to Part, Till We Meet Again," and then Mr. E. S. Martin read the roll of honor. A hymn was then sung, after which the floral offerings were laid upon the mound, the benediction was pronounced by Bishop Watson and the congregation dismissed. The mound was adorned with wreaths of laurel and small Confederate flags, and the bronze figure of a Confederate soldier on the monument held aloft the battle-flag of the Third N. C. infantry. Another historic flag displayed-timeworn and battle-stained-but carefully cherished and preserved, was the colors of the Rutledge Mounted Riflemen, of

After the conclusion of the exercises the Light Infantry fired three volleys over the mound and the ceremonies

A Steamship Crosses Cape Fear Bar Draw ing Twenty Feet and Ten Inches.

The STAR calls the attention of all its contemporaries that feel an interest in Wilmington to the fact that the steamship El Monte, referred to elsewhere in this department of the STAR, crossed Cape Fear bar, vesterday, drawing twenty feet and ten inches.

This is something of which Wilmington has reason to feel proud. Likewise, Capt. W. H. Bixby, the accomplished engineer in charge of our river and harbor improvements. It shows what progress has been made in the work of making Wilmington one of the best of the South Atlantic ports, and augurs well for her future as a commercial metropolis.

This important item, in eonnection with the facts concerning the cotton fire on the El Monte, was yesterday

When the ship was about one hundred 53, Eighth and Market, W. H. Green LT NEEDS miles south of Southport fire was discovered among the cotton, between the upper decks and bunkers. The cotton was flooded and the ship headed for Southport. The fire was apparently under control. As soon as the steamer anchored opposite Southport, the work of taking out the damaged cotton was began, and at the time the steamer Wilmington left for this city, about three hundred bales, badly charred, had been taken out and placed on a lighter alongside. Capt. R. B. Quick, master of the steamer, telegraphed Messrs. Geo. Harriss, Son & Co., of this city, that he needed no assistance. The El Monte has no passengers; she is a large four-masted steamer, registers' 2562 tons, and came over the bar drawing twenty teet and

MEMORIAL CELEBRATION

At Fayetteville Yesterday-Address by Major T. D. Love, of Wilmington.

A dispatch to the STAR from Fayetteville says the Memorial celebration there yesterday was one of the most imposing ones ever held in Favetteville, in spite of the heat and dust. Thousands were in the line of march. Capt. John H. Robinson was chief marshal. Major T. D. Love spoke to an immense crowd at the cemetery. He was introduced by Capt. E. J. Edwards, an old veteran. The opening prayer was made by Rev. W. H. Moore, of Hay Street Methodist Church. Major Love's speech was admirable; dignified, entirely Southern, but untinged with bitterness.

Among the distinguished persons on the stand were Judge Armheld and Gen. LeDuc, Commissioner of Agriculture under President Hayes. The military was fine, music excellent and floral decorations superb.
