Queen Natalie, who a few days ago was banished from Servia, was the daughter of a Russian father and Roumanian mother. There was just Russian enough in her to keep her scheming in the interests of Russia, which caused a racket in the royal family, her divorce from her husband, King Milan, who afterwards abdicated, and her banishment, which was part of the agreement made with Milan when he abdicated in favor of his son, Alexander, a

During his recent visit to Bonn Kaiser William got on a bender with the boys, and concluded he would play a practical joke on the guard at the barracks, by passing without giving the countersign. He was dressed in student's costume, and the guard who didn't know him was about to pull trigger on him, when his attendants called out his rank in the nick of time and saved him. He got mad, ordered the guard under arrest, and afterwards released him. But the guard demanded a hearing which brought out the facts.

In the election for the call of a constitutional convention in Dela ware the other day there were 17,000 votes for it and 119 against it, and yet the call may be defeated because it requires a majority of the qualified voters of the State, not simply a majority of the votes cast, to call a convention. A similar of provision in the old constitution of Kentucky several times defeated the effort to call a convention in that State. In the last effort, however, the advocates of the convention succeeded in getting people enough to the polls to carry it.

The Committee on the state of the Church made a report, as did J. B. Bonner, special agent for the raising of funds for the Diocesan College. Mr. Bonner reports progress, and was continued. He has set the wholesome example of giving one thousand dollars himself.

A NEW RAILROAD.

The Norfolk, Wilmington and Charleston Railroad-Will it be Built? A citizen of Wilmington who is entirely disinterested, recently had a long conversation with Mr. A. S. Cadwalader, who was here last week in the interest of the Norfolk, Wilmington and Charleston Railroad. Mr. Cadwalader, who represents a syndicate of capitalists, and is a man of large means himself, accompanied by two of the engineer corps and the attorney, was sent to Norfolk to travel through the country which would be trayersed by the proposed railroad, between Norfolk and Wilmington. This was done by private conveyance, so as to give ample time for making observations, as the character of the report to be made would determine the question of building the road.

Mr. Cadwalader says he started with unfavorable impressions of the section through which it was proposed to run the road, regarding it as unsuited to successful farming; but he was most agreeably surprised. Instead of a comparatively poor and unproductive country, as he expected, he found lands of great fertility, forests of magnificent timber, and a population intelligent, thrifty and industrious. Mr. Cadwalader and party started back from Wilmington to Norfolk by the same conveyances, but by a different route, and on his return to Pennsylvania, he will make a full and comprehensive report, showing the advantages of the section which the road will penetrate, and recommending that the work of construction be begun immediately. The road will probably connect with the Wilmington, Onslow and East Carolina at Jacksonville, but the exact direction beyond there has not yet been determined. It will run near the coast between Wilmington and Charleston.

The Seamen's Bethel. The regular Sunday services at the Seamen's Bethel will be held at 3:30 p. m. to-day, and will be conducted by Rev. W. S. Creasy, D.D., pastor of Grace M. E. Church of this city. All are cordially invited to attend, especially seamen, Masters of vessels are requested to have this notice read to their crews, and urge their attendance upon these meetings.

Marsden Bellamy, Esq., returned yesterday from New Orleans, where he has been in attendance on the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Honor. Mr. Bellamy reports the order in a healthy condition, both as to a good increase, and financially. Mr. Bellamy was elected Supreme Vice Dictator, the second highest honor THE PARK AGAIN.

A Thrice Told Tale, but the "Star" Proposes to Keep Up the Fight, if it "Takes All Summer."

The opening of Latta Park in Charlotte on the 20th of May, and the consequent enthusiasm which has been excited in that city over the advantages to accrue to it from this movement, forcibly reminds us how slow our people and our public officials are to act in previding for Wilmington that much needed place of resort.

Will our people never awaken to the importance of a park as a health giving recreating necessity? Will they not learn from the example set by more progressive, yet less pretentious towns?

We have at our doors several locations well adapted as sites which can be procured for reasonable prices.

Hilton suggests itself with its beautiful grove of live oaks. The Mineral Spring tract, near the turnpike, affords attractions. A tract between the southern boundary of the city and Greenfield pond presents one of the most attractive locations in this vicinity. There are from fifty to one hundred acres of land, undulating, with a natural lake for boating, with trees standing in the water, festooned with moss, presenting a tropical scene as picturesque as any that Florida affords.

New why do not our city authorities appropriate a few thousand dollars and secure at once one or more of the above locations, or some other suitable one, and proceed immediately to improve it. The city convicts and carts could be used to advantage at all times, and then our people would have a resort in which they could take pride, instead of profaning that most solemn, sacred and beautiful city of the dead, Oakdate, by converting it into a place of merriment and joy.

The test will be made by the Atlantic and Cape Fear engines, and the Mayor, the Fire Committee and all persons interested are invited to witness it.

I. O. O. F. Orphan Home, Attention is called to the article on page second of the STAR, in reference to the location of the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home. Mr. Oscar Pearsall, it is understood, has offered to give the Odd Fellows a site embracing forty acres of land on Greenville Sound. Other inducements will no doubt be offered by the citizens of Wilmington.

CITY ORDINANCES

Relating to Fast Driving, Etc.-How to Turn Corners-Hitching Horses to Trees or Lamp-posts Prohibited-Driving on Sidewalks or Stopping at Street

For the benefit of the public generally, the STAR publishes below the ordinance in relation to fast driving, amended at a recent meeting of the Board of Aldermen, so as to prohibit all vehicles being, driven around corners at a gait faster than a walk. On the adoption of the amendment, Mayor Ricaud stated that the new clause in the ordinance would not be enforced until this woek. The ordinance in question now reads as follows:

SEC. 11. Every person who shall ride on horseback or drive any omnibus carriage, buggy or pleasure vehicle of any kind at a gait faster than an ordinary trot, or who shall drive any wagon. cart or dray, faster than a walk, except when such wagon, cart or dray may be unloaded-then it may be driven no faster than a trot-in any street or alley. or any person driving any vehicle who shall turn a corner in any street faster than a walk, shall forfeit and pay ten dollars for every offence.

Other ordinances in relation to driving and riding in the city, not generally known by the public, are as follows:

SEC. 6. No person shall hitch or tie any horse or mule to any shade tree or lamp-post in any street; nor shall any person hitch or tie, ride or drive, any horse or mule upon any sidewalk. All persons violating this provision shall forfeit and pay ten dollars for every

SEC, 8. Every person driving any carriage, buggy, wagon, cart, dray, or other vehicle, who shall stop the same on any of the crossings of the streets so as to obstruct it, shall forfeit and pay five dollars for every offence.

BAPTIST MISSION CHAPEL. An Institution That has Accomplished

Much Good in the Community. The Mission Chapel of the First Baptist Church, organized about six years | tractors, Messrs. Anderson and Barr. ago, has done a good work in this community. It is situated in the southern part of the city on Fifth, between Dawson and Wooster streets, and two years ago it was found necessary to remodel and enlarge the building to twice its original capacity. Mr. W, A. French, Dr. A. M. Baldwin, Mr. J. W. Collins, Mr. S. W. Holden and Mr. J. W. Lowe were active in its establishment.

With this chapel there is an industrial school for the benefit of the girls, who learn to sew and to do other handiwork They also have a widow's home where the old and infirm widows of the denomination are taken care of. The International lessons are taught and the Gospel Hymns used as their song book. Mr. John S. McEachern, up to the time of his death, was a very zealous supporter of this branch, which at that time was the only Mission Chapel in that part of the city. The officers in charge now are as follows: P. B. Manning, Superintendent; W. A. French, Assistant Superintendent; R, B. Moore, Secretary and Treasurer; Miss Maggie Burruss, Organist. Services are held every Tuesday night, which are conducted by Rev. Mr. Swaim.

The closing exercises of this school, consisting of music, essays, recitations, declamations and dialogues, took place last Friday night. At an early hour the house was filled to its utmost capacity, large numbers being turned away for the want of room. The exercises were of intense interest from beginning to end, and reflected credit upon the school and teachers and showed that hard work on the part of both had been done. Lucy Butler (a little girl) born away the honors of winning the prize for the best recitation, which she accepted with much grace amidst hearty applause.
