That Park Again,

The Public Park question is beginning to attract attention. If it be true that the city can secure a suitable site "for the asking," it would seem to be wise for the authorities to take immediate action. It is believed that the land necessary for the Park will be donated if the city will obligate itself to make all proper improvements within a reasonable time. Will not the Board of Aldermen, at its next meeting, appoint a special committee-a Park committee-to look into this question and make a full report.

The Fayetteville Excursion. The excursion of the Methodist Sunday Sunday School from Fayetteville to Carolina Beach, to-day, is expected to be a great success. A gentleman from that town, who was here Monday, thought there would be 600 or more persons on the train, which will arrive here about 10.15 a. m, over the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley road. They will go direct to Carolina Beach, where they will spend several hours, returning in time to take the homeward train this

OBITUARY.

Death of Mr. James W. King, a Well Known Citizen of Wilmington.

Mr. Jas. W. King died vesterday at noon at his residence on Princess street, after a long illness of consumption, aged about 43 years. For many years he was engaged in business as a druggist and subsequently as a cotton and naval stores inspector, until failing health compelled him to seek lighter employment. He was a sterling Democrat, always standing up bravely for the principles of his party: a fine political organizer, his services were of inestimable value to the party in every campaign as long as his physical condition permitted active work. He was Chairman of the Democratic County Executive Committee during the campaign of 1884 which resulted in the election of Grover Cleveland. He filled the office of county treasurer | tive yesterday called on one of the genfor two years, and was subsequently elected Alderman from his ward, and

Mr. King, in his church relations, was ever zealous in good works. He joined Front Street M. E. Church at the age of 20 and was an earnest Christian worker for 25 years. He was a trustee of Grace M. E. Church and Superintendent of the Sunday School for four years. 'He was, also, a charter member and Past Chancellor of Stonewall Lodge No. 1 Knights of Pythias. His wife, six children and two grandchildren survive him.

He was conscious almost to the moment of death, suffering but little pain and buoved up by the hope of eternal life.

Thus has gone out into the great beyond one who lived a busy life, and died a triumphant death, with no fear of the grave, as he had put his trust in Him who doeth all things well.

The funeral will take place Thursday at 4 p. m.

THE DIRECT TAX.

The Work of Transcribing the List Nov in Progress.

The Raleigh News and Observer says: "The lists of taxes paid the United States by our citizens in 1865 and 1866 on land, having been received from Washington, Gov. Holt is now having them transcribed. When the transscripts are completed they will be sent to the Superior Court Clerks of the forty-one counties in which the taxes were paid. The names of the counties have been previously published, and will be again announced in due time. The Governor is making every effort to expedite the work, and will publish a circular of instructions to Superior Court Clerks, to be sent with the transcripts, giving the requirements of the acts of Congress and our General Assembly as to the payment of the money, which will contain full information to the taxpayers, or their legal representatives, as to filing claims and the collection thereof. The work is very important, as the lists have to be carefully reviewed. There are more than thirty thousand names on the lists."

Work to be Done on the Streets,

Mayor Ricaud, and Alderman Fishblate, Chairman of the Committee on Streets and Wharves, took a drive around the city yesterday for the purpose of making an inspection into the condition of the streets. As a result of their trip it was decided to increase the working force on the streets by the employment at once of ten extra carts and ten additional street hands, and to press the work of puetting the streets into a cleanly and proper condition.

THE SEWERAGE QUESTION.

Columbia Decides to Organize a Joint Stock Company for a Complete System of Sewerage.

The following is published not for the purpose of urging the adoption of the plan suggested for Wilmington, but simply to bring the matter to the attention of the public, in the hope that it may be instrumental in keeping this important question under consideration. It may be that Wilmington will be compelled to adopt some plan like that outlined in the article below, which is taken from the Columbia State:

"The sewerage question in Columbia is likely to be settled at last. In all probability a large home stock company is to be organized, and will put in a complete system. Having heard of the proposed scheme, the State representatlemen interested in the matter. He said: "I have watched with interest of served as a member of the Board for two late the discussion in reference to a sewerage system for Columbia. Private parties have endeavored to lay a large amount of sewer pipe, but upon considering the privileges granted b they city, requiring it to be taken up should it be deemed necessary when the city determined to put in a regular system and the contractors to connect the city property free of charge, it has been thought best to work on some other plan, especially when the petitions of the presidents of the two female colleges had been refused. This scheme is now in the hands of one of the best business men and lawyers in the city, who is at present engaged in preparing the proper papers to go before the council, as well as an application for a charter for a joint stock company which will be formed, or in fact is already under way, with ample capital to carry out the work. All that will be asked of the city is to have her engineer lay out such a system as it requires, and then grant a tranchise. This done, the sewerage question will be settled right here at home. The whole matter of whether Columbia is to have a sewerage system or not now rests with the city council.'

WILMINGTON LIGHT INFANTRY. Prizes Presented to the Winners in the Target Contest. At the meeting of the Light Infantry last night, in the Company's armory, the prizes awarded to the best marksmen at the target practice on the 20th inst. were presented by Rev. Jas. Carmichael, D. D., chaplain.

The first prize—a gold star and a season ticket to Carolina Beach-was presented to Sergeant E. W. Moore, who responded happily, and expressed his pleasure at being able to beat Capt. Kenan in at least one thing, and that was, in shooting.

The second prize—the Company's gold medal-was presented to Capt. W. R. Kenan, and the third prize-a handsome ebony cane with gold head-was presented to Private J. W. Ives. Both made fitting response in graceful acknowledgment of the presentation.

At the regular meeting of the company to be held the second Monday in June, reserve corps medal will be preto Col. W. L. DeRosset, Major Walker Taylor and Mr. Wm. Ulrich, who have served five years as active members. The newly elected officers will be installed at this meeting also.

RIVER AND MARINE.

A British Barque Wrecked and Burned on Currituck Beach.

- Capt. Hintz, Master of the German barque Ober Burgermeister von Winter, arrived yesterday from Rotterdam; reports having passed, May 18th, Lat. 24° 30 N., Long. 66° 29 W., an English steamer showing letters DLR., bound to Vera Cruz, under sail. Signalled that machinery was damaged since May the 12th and was repairing the same.

-A Press dispatch from Norfolk, Va., yesterday says: "The British barque Virbilia, Capt. H. Beveridge, of Yarmouth, N. S., went ashore at 10 o'clock last night one and a half miles south of fendants gave bond for their appearance. | Perine Hill Life-saving Station, on Currituck beach. She was bound, in ballast, from New York to Savannah, Ga., to load lumber. Her crew consisted of ten men, and the captain's wife was also on board. They were all saved by the surf-boat from the station. The weather was thick at the time and the captain lost his bearings. The vessel afterward caught on fire, and will prove a total loss. The British Vicc Consul, at Norfolk, has been notified, and has ordered the vessel sold and the crew brought to Norfolk.

- The steamer Hudson ashore at Nag's Head, floated Monday evening, about 7 o'clock, and proceeded on her way with her passengers with few exceptions. Those passengers who requantity of groceries, and $180 in money | fused to go back on board, have arrived at Norfolk.

Yesterday's Weather.

N. C. S. G. ENCAMPMENT.

Soldiers and Visitors Will Have a Royal

The editor of the Charlotte News, who has recently visited Wrightsville, says of the approaching encampment of the N. C. State Guard:

"The encampment this year promises to be a real, sure enough success, and altogether the most pleasant that has yet gone down on the records of the State Guard. The improvements to the grounds of the permanent encampment have not yet been completed, and the usual encampment grounds on Wrightsville sound will be used again this year. A feature of this season's encampment will be the presence of Virginia and South Carolina military. The people of Wilmington are already at work in the interests of the encampment, and they are ready now with their guarantee that the soldiers and visitors will have a royal good time.

The New River Excursion. The tickets for the excursion to New River on June 5th have already been called for in considerable numbers. Requests have been made to have tickets good on all the trains of that day in order that those desiring to have a full day fishing may have the opportunity o doing so. Such arrangements will be made, if it is possible to do so.

The Conoley Murder.

The Maxton Union of yesterday says: "A gentleman of Maxton received a private letter from a friend in Laurinburg on Monday, in which he says that Dan McDougald was seen in the woods above Laurinburg on Sunday last, Deputy Sheriff Livingston, of Richmond, was at once notified and went in search of the fugitive."
