OUTLINES.

The farmers of New England and New York do not endorse the People's party. U. S. revenue officer Cutler was shot from ambush near Edmondton, Ky. The Old Dominion steamship Guyandotte and the British steamship Lamington were both damaged in a collision near Newport News. The Birmingham (Ala.) soap works burned; loss $25,000; insured. The Chilean steamer Itata has been seized by U. S. marshals at San Diego. Fresh revolutionary disturbances have occurred in the Argentine republic, which the government is taking vigorous measures to repress. The advent of colored men at mines in Iowa has caused great excitement. New York markets: Money easy at 1 1/2% to 2% per cent; closing offered at 2; cotton dull and easy; middling uplands 8 3/4 cents; middling Orleans 8 1/2-16 cents; Southern flour quiet and steady; wheat lower and fairly active, with free sellers; No. 2 red 1 03% to 1 03% in store and at elevator; corn quiet, lower and unsettled; No. 2, 70 1/2 cents at elevator; spirits turpentine quiet and steady at 87 1/2 to 88 cents; rosin quiet and weak.

Ingalls facetiously alludes to himself as a 'statesman out of a job.' If he had been a better statesman his job might have lasted him longer. King Milan won $25,000 at bacarat recently in a forty-eight hours' buck in Paris. The Prince of Wales should go and take some lessons from Milan.

According to the cable dispatches Grandma Victoria isn't going to let the frisky Kaiser William shoot off his mouth among her subjects until she finds out what is it loaded with.

Ex-Chief Justice Daly, of New York has written a paper on "Who discovered the Pygmies." Perhaps this will bring to the front some of the numerous men who discovered Benjamin Harrison.

Gen. Alger rises to remark that the soldier will "cut more of a figure" in the Republican Convention of '92 than ever before. The soldier now cuts a figure of about $150,000,000 a year. As a figure-cutter the old soldier is a success.

Senator Chandler advises the Republican party to "hold fast to its integrity." About the best thing the Republican party can do with all there is left of its integrity will be to wrap it up in a nice little parcel, label it and put it in its vest pocket.

The Democrats of Ohio are going to press J. M. Blaine into the canvass and make him do some campaigning for them. He will not be there in person, but by proxy, in his declaration that the McKinley bill didn't open a market for another bushel of wheat or barrel of pork.

Hon. Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio, favors the nomination of Cleveland, and thinks that ex-Gov. Gray, of Indiana, or Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, should be on the ticket with him. He favors free coinage of silver and says tariff will be the issue in '92, and this will be the Democratic slogan.

A machine has been invented by which fifty pounds of dynamite can be thrown three miles. If they give fifty pounds of dynamite half a showing it will throw itself and everything around it three miles without the assistance of any machine. All it will ask is a little tap for a starter.

Charles Mason, who had served a term in Sing Sing prison, N. Y., for larceny, and was then nabbed in Baltimore and sentenced to four years and two months for forgery, was arrested on his release and brought back to Lynn, Mass., to be tried for a crime committed eleven years ago. He didn't mind being tried for the crime but he thought it pretty rough to have to go back to Massachusetts again.

Berk county, Pa., proudly comes to the front with Rebecca, Benjamin and Samuel Roller, triplets, who celebrated their joint seventy-seventh birthday anniversary a few days ago. They are yet as frisky and vigorous as kids and from all appearances expect to triple this celebration. They are three of thirteen children and make the good solid baker's dozen.

Scotchmen are making a vigorous kick for home rule. Heretofore the women have been doing most of the home ruling and the men think that it is about time that they had a showing.

OUR COUNTRY FRIENDS.

Excursionists From Along the Line of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. Seven coaches filled with excursionists from Fayetteville and other points between that place and Wilmington arrived here yesterday on the C. F. & Y. V. railroad. About half of the visitors embarked at Point Peter on the steamer Wilmington for Carolina Beach, and of the remainder some went to the Hammocks and Ocean View and some remained in the city. The weather was cool and cloudy, but no rain fell and the excursionist had a pleasant time, no doubt. They left on the return home at 7 o'clock last evening.

Mr. J. A. King, of Fayetteville, was manager of the excursion, and was much pleased with the success of the affair. The rates were $1.25 for the round trip from Fayetteville to Wilmington, and $1.50 from Fayetteville to Carolina Beach or Ocean View. Most of the excursionists were from places this side of Fayetteville; eighty-nine getting on the train at one station.

Yesterday's Weather. The records of the Weather Bureau give the following report of the range of temperature, etc., yesterday: At 8 a. m., 62°; 8 p. m., 66°; maximum temperature, 68°; minimum, 61°; average 64°; prevailing wind, southwest. Total rainfall .80.

LOCAL DOTS.

One hundred and forty-six dog badges had been sold up to yesterday, against 766 for the same period last year.

Cloudy and partly cloudy weather, with occasional traces of rain, prevailed yesterday all along the line of the Carolina Central Railroad.

The First National Bank and the Produce Exchange were draped in mourning yesterday in respect to the memory of Mr. George Chadbourn.

Spirits turpentine sold yesterday at 84 cents per gallon. The day before a few cases sold at 84 1/2 cents and the price then declined, buyers offering 84 cents.

The annex to the Ocean Beach hotel at the Hammocks will be completed in time for the Encampment. Some of the rooms now are finished and occupied.

The Hornet's Nest Riflemen, of Charlotte, are said to be drilling every night preparatory to the Encampment. The Wilmington Light Infantry will please take notice.

ODD FELLOWS' ORPHAN ASYLUM.

A Committee from the Grand Lodge Invite Inducements for Its Location in Wilmington. Members of the committee appointed by the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the State of North Carolina to locate the Orphan Asylum which the Order proposes to erect in the city or town offering the greatest inducements, arrived last night, and will to-day consider the inducements offered by Wilmington. Those of the committee who arrived last night are, Hon. A. H. A. Williams, chairman, Oxford; Col. John F. Bruton, Wilson; W. C. Douglass, Esq., Carthage. Mr. N. Jacobi, of Wilmington, who is also a member of the committee, met the party on arrival, in company with other resident members of the Order. Messrs. Jonathan White, of Greenville, and C. D. Benbow of Greensboro, did not reach here last night.

To-day, at 11 o'clock, the committee will visit and inspect a site near the Mineral Spring proposed to be donated by the heirs of Mr. W. A. Wright, and also a tract of sixty acres of land offered by Oscar Pearsall, Esq.

With proper effort on the part of public spirited citizens the location of this great charity may be secured for Wilmington; but that effort must be timely and energetic. Other competitors are in the field—Goldsboro, Raleigh, Winston and Carthage—and will make every inducement in their power to secure the prize.

The proffer of land for a site is not sufficient. It must be supplemented with money, and to secure this a local committee will call on citizens to subscribe. One list is in the hands of Mr. Oscar Pearsall, one with Mr. N. Jacobi, and another with Mr. Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr.

A COLD WAVE.

A Fall in Temperature of 15 to 20 Degrees—Heavy Rainfall. The cold wave that swept over us yesterday sent the mercury down to 61°, the minimum reported by the Weather Bureau for the Wilmington station. At Charlotte and Raleigh it was down to 56°, at Wadesboro, Weldon, Lumberton and Cheraw 58°, and at Florence Goldsboro and Newbern 60°.

Heavy rainfall was reported at Cheraw, Florence, Raleigh, Lumberton, Charlotte, and Weldon. The average for the district was .80. The storm centre, mentioned yesterday, passed off the Middle Atlantic coast. It caused high winds and heavy rains along the South Atlantic coast, and for some distance in the interior, and was followed by a cool wave from the Northwest, which lowered the temperature from 15 to 20° over the entire cotton belt.

Weather Forecasts.

The following are the weather forecasts for to-day: For Virginia, fair till Saturday night, warmer, variable winds. For North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, fair Friday and Saturday, slightly warmer, north winds. For East Florida, fair Friday, stationary temperature, north winds.

THE LATE GEORGE CHADBOURN.

Funeral from the First Presbyterian Church—Impressive Services. The funeral of the late George Chadbourn, Esq., took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock from the First Presbyterian Church, the remains of deceased being interred in Oakdale Cemetery.

The attendance was very large, both at the church and the cemetery, and the services throughout were very impressive and solemn.

The church was crowded with people some time before the hour appointed for the funeral ceremonies to take place. At 5 o'clock Rev. Dr. Hoge, the pastor, accompanied by the Elders, Messrs B. G. Worth, B. F. Hall, Samuel Northrop, Chas. H. Robinson, A. A. Willard and Jas. Sprunt, entered the church, followed by the Deacons, Messrs. D. G. Worth, H. C. McQueen, C. P. Mebane, H. H. Munson, W. R. Kenan and Jno. McLaurin, bearing the casket, covered with black broadcloth, and placed it before the pulpit. Mr. Chadbourn's Sunday School class, composed of young girls, then entered in a body, bearing superb floral offerings.

Mr. Hoge, in his remarks, dwelt at length upon the life and character of the deceased, enabled by Christian virtues and marked by usefulness and honor. A large cortege followed the remains to the grave.

PRODUCE EXCHANGE.

Action of the Body on the Death of Mr. George Chadbourn. A meeting of the Produce Exchange was held yesterday afternoon, upon call of the President, to give expression to the feelings of that body at the death of Mr. George Chadbourn.

The President, Mr. Wm. Calder, called the meeting to order and stated the object.

Mr. T. D. Love moved the appointment of a committee of five to draft suitable resolutions, and the chair appointed as such committee Messrs. T. D. Love, E. Peschua, H. G. Smallbones, B. G. Worth, Roger Moore.

Mr. D. L. Gore spoke feelingly in regard to the loss sustained in the death of Mr. Chadbourn.

He was followed by Maj. T. D. Love, Mr. B. G. Worth and Col. Roger Moore, in the order named. The resolutions prepared by the committee were read by Maj. Love and adopted by a rising vote, as follows:

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. George Chadbourn, late President of the First National Bank, Wilmington has been bereft of one of her leading and most estimable citizens. As a business man he was industrious and methodical; just to all men, liberal and reliable, with a hand ever ready to help and encourage.

Resolved, That as a citizen he was public spirited, held broad views on all questions and shirked no responsibility; as a Christian he was humble and charitable, never forgetting his vows, and his means he consecrated unsparingly; as a friend he was cordial and confiding; affectionate. "A good man gone to his reward" was on the lips of all when the news of his death was announced in our community.

Resolved, That the rooms of this Exchange be draped in mourning thirty days, and these resolutions be spread upon the records and furnished the city papers.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The Plant System—Bennettsville and Hamlet Railroads Sold Out. The Bennettsville and Hamlet Railroad Company has been organized, with A. A. Howlett president, M. L. Dolby vice president, and J. K. Livingston secretary, to build a railroad from Bennettsville to Hamlet, N. C., a distance of twenty-one miles.

At a recent meeting of citizens of Mt. Carmel, S. C., the organization of a company to build a railroad from Tampa via Dupont, Eastman, Milledgeville and Washington, Ga., Abbeville and Greenville, S. C., to Asheville, N. C., or further north was discussed, and steps were taken to secure the formation of such a company.

The Railway Age says: During the first six months of the year six completed railroads, with a mileage of 3,590 miles and representing in bonded debt and capital stock $106,531,000, besides many millions of unpaid interest and floating debt, have been sold out to satisfy the claims of creditors. If the rate of the half year is continued to the end the totals will considerably exceed those of either three previous years. As in the case of foreclosure sales the number of roads placed in the hands of receivers during the six months is also larger than was expected, there being sixteen roads, representing 1,512 miles and about $56,200,000 capital.

There is a good deal of gossip in railroad circles in Birmingham about the proposed consolidation of the Richmond and Danville and the Central freight depots there and the appointment of a new agent. It is stated that Supt. Ryder has tendered the joint agency to John W. Webb, now agent of the Richmond and Danville at Salisbury, N. C. It is known that Mr. Ryder tendered Mr. Webb another position on the Georgia Pacific division some time ago and that he declined to accept it.

The joint agency of the Richmond and Danville and the Western North Carolina at Salisbury, N. C., is a good thing, and it is hardly believed Mr. Webb will leave it. Robt. W. Hunt of Augusta, the popular traveling passenger agent of the Augusta and Asheville Short Line, spent yesterday in the city. Mr. Hunt is now directing his efforts to attracting the attention of the public to a new schedule from Savannah and Augusta to Cincinnati and Louisville via the Port Royal and Western Carolina, by which the time is shortened only thirty hours from Savannah to Cincinnati and twenty-four hours from Augusta to Cincinnati.

The route is almost an air line, and necessitates only one change between Savannah and Cincinnati, which is made at Asheville without loss of time. One of the most pleasant features of this route is that it affords a daylight ride through the beautiful mountain scenery of Western North Carolina, "the land of the sky."

CREMATORIES.

Mayor Ricaud and Alderman Post's Visit to Savannah. The Savannah News of Wednesday says: "Hon. A. G. Ricaud, mayor of Wilmington, N. C., and Mr. Jas. F. Post, an alderman of that city and treasurer of the Wilmington and Weldon and Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta railroads, arrived in Savannah yesterday morning, the object of their visit being to inspect the Savannah crematory with the view to erecting a similar one at Wilmington. They were taken in charge by Mayor McDonough and shown over the city. After that they were taken out to the crematory, and its workings were fully explained to them. The result of their visit will probably be the establishment of a crematory at Wilmington."

Mayor Ricaud and Alderman Post returned to Wilmington yesterday morning. They were well pleased with their visit to Savannah, but are not very enthusiastic on the subject of crematories. The principle is all right, Mayor Ricaud says, but the cost is too great. Mayor McDonough, of Savannah, regards the crematories in use there as being far from perfect; but at the same time he is in favor of building an additional one, in a more satisfactory manner, however. He is evidently of the opinion that cremation affords the best solution of the question of disposal of waste matter. Savannah has two crematories—one for garbage and the other for night soil. They have been in operation about twelve months and the cost has been about $11,000. They already show signs of giving way under the intense heat they are subjected to, the walls having cracked in several places. They are operated night and day, requiring seven or eight men to run them. One great difficulty is the separation of garbage from matter that is practically indestructible—such as tin cans, ashes, etc. The cost of removal of this debris is considerable.

The city of Savannah spends annually an income of $600,000; on police, $60,000; fire department, $54,000; sanitary, $50,000. She pays good salaries; the Mayor, $3,500; City Attorney $3,100; Chief of Fire Department, $1,800; Assistant Chief, $1,500, and policemen $60 per month. Her bonded debt is about $3,000,000.

The Bank of Commerce of Sheffield, Ala., which has been embarrassed for the past two days has provided arrangements to meet all its obligations in cash as called for and resumed business yesterday as usual.

Theatre and a German at the Hammocks To-Night.

The first german of the season in the new pavilion at the Hammocks will be given this evening, immediately after the performance at the Theatre Hammocks. The pavilion will be decorated with Chinese lanterns. Prof. Whitely's band will furnish the music. Persons leaving the city on the 7.15 train on the Seacoast road will be in ample time for the performance at the theatre, which will begin at 8.30 o'clock.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the First National Bank, held July 9th, (B. F. Hall in the chair and H. M. Bowden secretary.) the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to Him "who doeth all things well," we sincerely mourn the loss of one who as presiding officer has greatly lightened the care and responsibilities of our position by his cheerful bearing and gentle Christian courtesy.

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to Him "who doeth all things well," we sincerely mourn the loss of one who as presiding officer has greatly lightened the care and responsibilities of our position by his cheerful bearing and gentle Christian courtesy.

Resolved, That these resolutions be enrolled on the minute book of the Bank, and that his name, date of birth and death be recorded on a page reserved for that purpose.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere sympathy to his bereaved family, and send them a copy of these resolutions as expressing our appreciation of his Christian character and friendship; and that we also ask the daily newspapers of the city and the N. C. Presbyterian to publish the same.

B. F. HALL, Chairman. H. M. BOWDEN, Secretary.
