CAMP FOWLE.

Preliminary Penciling on the Preparations for the Troops.

It was very quiet at Camp Fowle yesterday. Col. Olds' famous detachment of workers were off duty, as the last stake has been driven; and now nothing is lacking except the boys.

THE HOSPITAL is in very excellent condition, but we cannot what it is for, as it is against all precedent and reason to have use for it. To one who knows the healthfulness of camp life at Wrightsville, the hospital looks very lonesome, and must be considered more as an ornament for the grounds or place of repose for the boy than a place for the

His Sad! and Untimely Death-Funeral Ceremonies at St. James' Church-The W. L. I, and Knights of Pythias Escort the Remains to their Last Resting Place. The announcement of the death of

Lieut, DuVal French yesterday morning saddened a thousand hearts and threw a gloom over our entire commu-

DuVal French is dead! A harrowing thought, when we think of the untimely end of a man just in his youth and with such bright promises; sorrowful, when we think of his high moral character, his gentle, attractive manners, his kind and genial disposition. Having watched his career with the pride of a friend and knowing that he was good and true; aware of his regard for the little amenities of this life that found for him a host of friends, knowing of his high regard for woman, his manly unequivocal defense of them at all times-the death of such a man has saddened our hearts and we mourn his loss. DuVal French is dead; but he died a true Christian gentleman, the soul of honor and of truth. What nobler attributes could one possess; what truer or more beautiful epitaph could be inscribed above his last resting place?

DuVal French was a son of the late Judge Robt. S. French, and brother of Mr. W. R. French and Mr. B. Tucker French, and at the time of his death was first Lieutenant of the Wilmington Light Infantry, and upon several occasions had acted as Adjutant of the Second Regiment, N. C. S. G. He was very much beloved by the members of the company, and had attained his honors by reason of his fine soldierly qualities and great popularity. When ginte a boy he showed some taste for journalistic work, and edited a small amateur paper. He has upon many ons made special reports for the STAR, and showed an aptitude for this kind of work. His death is peculiarly sad just upon the eve of the Encampment, as he had looked forward to it with great pleasure and had thoroughly interested himself in everything apper-

His death throws a shadow over his comrades of the company more particularly, but it will be felt throughout the camp. To those who had known him in his capacity as a soldier—his courteous treatment and great consideration for those under him in command; and his respectful obedience to those who were of higher rank, his death will be a great blow, and will be felt for a long

The Funeral Ceremonies.

The funeral ceremonies over the late DuVal French were held at St. James Episcopal Church yesterday afternoon by the Rev. Robt. Strange. A large concourse of friends had assembled to pay their last respects and to take part in the beautiful ritual of the church. The services were very beautiful and impressive and the two hymns, "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Just as I Am" were sung by the choir.

The Wilmington Light Infantry, with full ranks, under command of Capt. W. R. Kenan, and with a detachment from the Second Regiment Band, was marched to the late residence of Mr. French, who was First Lieutenant of the Company at the time of his death and escorted his remains to the church Immediately after the services the Company took its position at the head of the procession and marched to the cemetery. After the services at the grave, conducted by Rev. Mr. Strange, Clarendon Lodge K. of P., of which Mr. French was a member, and which also escorted his remains to the cemetery, held a service conducted by Prelate Washington

After the services were concluded the military fired a salute of three volleys over the remains of their dead comrade. There were a great many BEAUTIFUL FLORAL TRIBUTES, conspicuous among them being the design offered by the Wilmington Light Infantry-a large shield surmounted upon a pedestal and with the inscription, "Our Comrade, W. L. I."

The pall-bearers were Maj. Walker Taylor, Lieut. Douglas T. Cronly, Adjutant H. H. McIlhenny, Mr. Robert Lee Holmes, Mr. G. Herbert Smith, Mr. E. P. Boatwright, Col. W. C. Jones, Mr.

Donald McRae, Jr. There was also present at the funeral ceremonies Col. Fred. A. Olds, Quartermaster General, and Col. Arthur L. Smith, Inspector General N. C. S. G., who came up from Wrightsville to be

The first step towards testing the constitutionality of the "Schedule B" tax was taken yesterday, when proceedings were instituted by the Board of County Commissioners against the mercantile firms of Worth & Worth, Jas. Resolutions of Respect to the Memory of DuVal French.

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father in his inscrutably wise dispensation has taken from our midst the spirit of our departed brother, DuVal French, in the vigor of manhood and amid the buoyant expectations of life, and recognizing in him, as we do, his worth as a brother Knight, his honor as a man, and his unswerving constancy as a friend;

Resolved, That we feel deeply and tenderly his loss to our Order, as well as to the community at large; that as we esteemed and honored his friendship in life, so we cherish and revere his memory in death.

Resolved, That we offer our sympathies to his bereaved family, who bemoan his early death.

Resolved, That a page in the Records of the Lodge be set apart to his memory. Resolved, That a page in the Records.

Resolved further, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our deceased brother, and that they be published in the daily papers.
