Annual Encampment.

MORE RAIN AT WRIGHTSVILLE.

Camp Fowle Under a Cloud, but the Military Undaunted--Work Goes Steadily Onward--Visit from the Southport Band--Gov. Holt in Camp--Important Matters Discussed with the Officers.

Rain, rain, rain! When the history of the Wrightsville encampment of 1891 is fully written up "rain" should be named as the beginning of every day's proceedings, and an occasional shower should be interjected as a part of the day's work.

The guard mounting yesterday morning, as conducted by all the regiments, was exceptionally fine and was the subject of much favorable comment by the lookers-on, both military and civil.

Col. Olds is indefatigable in his efforts to make the Quartermaster's department all that it should be, and he has been eminently successful in his efforts.

During the forenoon the Southport Cornet Band arrived in camp and marched immediately to the headquarters of the Second Regiment, where they were most heartily welcomed.

At the state meeting of the First Colored Baptist Church to-night addresses will be delivered by Rev. Dr. W. H. Thomas, pastor of St. Stephen's Church and Rev. D. J. Sanders.

The meeting held last Monday at St. Luke's Church was well attended and great interest in the matter was shown by all in the project.

Early yesterday morning a bear was discovered about three miles from Wrightsville, on the Gordon road, leading from the old plank road to Frank's landing, and the neighbors were soon notified and started in pursuit.

The annual picnic by citizens of Onslow county at Alum Springs, near Catharine Lake, will be given on Tuesday, August 4th.

THE LIVERY MEN are doing a thriving business in transporting soldiers and civilians to and from camp. Waggonettes and other vehicles are generally crowded, both going and coming, and although the fare is but five cents for the soldiers and ten cents for those in civil life, the number of passengers who had rather pay for a ride than walk through the mud and water is so great that a golden harvest for the carriage owners is the result.

AT WRIGHTSVILLE and all along the route from the station to the camp ground a spirit of quietude seems to have settled down like a calm after a storm. There was no excitement, no unusual commotion, nor anything to show that the encampment of the State Guard was almost in sight.

MEETING THE GOVERNOR. At 8 p. m. yesterday, upon invitation of Brig. Gen. John W. Cotton, all the commissioned officers of the State Guard met in the tent of the Young Men's Christian Association for the purpose of considering matters pertaining to the interests of the organization as to promoting its efficiency and service.

Brigadier General Glenn stated that he felt the necessity for a State organization of the Guard as a branch of the National Guard Association. He gave many excellent reasons as to the value and importance of such an organization and upon motion of Maj. E. F. Young, it was resolved that a STATE GUARD ASSOCIATION be organized immediately.

On motion of Capt. Leo D. Heatt a committee of seven was appointed by the chair upon organization in which he included all branches of the service.

Gov. Holt made a few remarks upon the matter of better subsistence of the State Guard. The State cannot overestimate the value of the Guard and its importance in securing the peace and prosperity of the State.

Gen. Glenn did not think he had the right to organize or move in the matter until the question should be brought regularly before the Legislature. He was heartily in favor of a marine militia for North Carolina.

Col. Anthony stated that it was his opinion that the present laws of the United States permitted the organization of the naval militia at any time.

Inspector General Smith favored a board for the examination of officers elected before they should be commissioned. This would be the sure way to make the companies more efficient.

SKIRMISH DRILL by the Virginia regiment at twilight was a magnificent success. The bugle and whistle were used in giving commands, and flags for signals.

GOV. HOLT SERENADED. A very pleasant and much enjoyed part of the day's happenings was a serenade to Gov. Holt at the headquarters of Adjutant General Glenn by the Second Regiment Band. Their were several prominent military officers with the Governor, besides those of his staff. After the serenade, Governor Holt thanked the members of the band for the compliment in a very happy and pleasant way, and was frequently heartily applauded by the crowd.

OFFICERS FOR TO-DAY. Field Officer of the Day--Major E. F. Young, Fourth Regiment. First Regiment--Officer of the Day, Capt. James B. Lloyd, Co. A.

THE BRIGADE DRESS PARADE and the review by the Commander-in-Chief, Gov. Holt, will come off this afternoon at 5 o'clock. It will be under the command of General Cotton and promises to be the most brilliant and interesting feature of the whole encampment.

IN AND AROUND CAMP. Peace and quiet still reign. T. H. Partrick is a very efficient officer. No remarks hereafter concerning the weather.

There is some talk of wanting a "booby" prize in the target contest. The three restaurants just outside the camp are doing a good business. The "fresh-fish alliance" has concluded to give a hearty support to the soldiers.

There is but one case of sickness in the camp hospital--a slight fever case. Gov. Holt was in camp last yesterday afternoon and seemed to enjoy himself.

Mr. J. A. Parker, of Goldsboro, is in camp, the guest of the Goldsboro Rifles. Too much can not be said complimentary about the cleanliness and order in camp.

There were more visitors in camp yesterday afternoon than at any time since it began. H. Russell, of the Virginia Regiment, is considered one of the best drilled men in camp.

A. Cohen, Co. V, First Regiment, challenges any man in camp for a championship game of checkers. A genuine pig-fish was caught by a crowd of Virginia boys yesterday while coming through the camp field.

Some extravagant dancing by a colored man excited some attention at the pavilion yesterday afternoon. Skinner and Pendleton of the Oxford Company rush things in camp. They are known as sun-flower men.

D. L. Robertson, Co. F, First Regiment, Warren Guards, has a record as the highest kicker among the Guards. Sheriff J. A. K. Tucker, of Pitt county, arrived in camp Tuesday night, and is the guest of the Greenville Guards.

Edgecombe Guard call their street in honor of Gen. Pender. The First Regiment did not contest for the Walters' Trophy yesterday.

The Hornets Nest Rifles gave another one of their very enjoyable open air entertainments last evening. It was very good. The singing was very fine.

There are no flies on the respective claims of Co. G, First Regiment, Capt. W. B. Rodman, Jr., and Co. D, Second Regiment, Capt. H. R. Thorpe, for the finest looking Captain.

Capt. W. T. Clements has been promoted. He is now, in addition to being inspector of L. A. P., inspector M. S., L. A. and G. G. He is a capital officer. He will report to-morrow.

A very pleasant surprise to the headquarters of the different regiments was an official visit by all the Virginia officers in full dress. They are not only fine looking, but exceedingly social and entertaining.

Corporal O. E. Dudley, Co. A Third Regiment, from Winston, has been appointed inspector of Rifle practice, Fourth Regiment. This is a very good appointment.

Knights of Honor. Fifth Biennial Session of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. The Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor of North Carolina convened yesterday morning at the hall of Carolina Lodge No. 484, with the following officers present:

A Boston newspaper says "Wanamaker will stick." And so will his stamps--if you put 'em in your pocketbook.

It is said that the interior of the White House is to be put in much better shape by a New York man. Another New York man will add to the improvement about March 4th, 1893.

The Raleigh Evening Mirror, published by Messrs. Roberts, Betts and Cheek, made its first appearance Monday. It is a neatly gotten up and sprightly paper. It has the STAR's best wishes.

It has been discovered that cotton seed oil applied to metallic surfaces will prevent corrosion. The Republican party has a large stock of brass in its cheek. It should apply a good deal of cotton seed oil and also take some internally.

Out of the $60,000,000 of gold coin exported from this country to Europe this year $175,000 got back to New York on the Umbria last Saturday. Our business men won't take any umbrage at that if the amount was small.

Portugal has made a reduction of about nineteen cents a bushel in the tariff on wheat. Last year we exported 3,000,000 bushels to Portugal, and as the price will be that much reduced to purchasers by taking off this much of the tariff, the exports will probably be larger this year.

Miss Kluffkuffsky, a denizen of Brooklyn, is charged with alienating the affections of another girl's fellow. The conduct of Miss K--skya should be judged with considerable leniency, for there are few girls who wouldn't break the regulations or even do something desperate to get rid of a name like that.

Virginia honored herself Tuesday in the noble tribute she paid to the memory of her immortal son, Stonewall Jackson. Aside from the fact that his name is honored by all Southerners for his brilliant achievements and noble virtues, North Carolina honors him and lays special claim to him for the additional reason that his "better half" is a North Carolinian.

In an Ohio town a few weeks ago a local minister, who belongs to the church militant, headed a mob which demolished a saloon, and then the saloonists, not to be outdone in courtesy, reciprocated the Rev. gentleman's attention by demolishing his house. When it comes to real demonstrative courtesy it isn't easy to get away with the Ohio man.

The Augusta, Ga., Chronicle says it is estimated that 90 per cent. of the cotton crop this fall will be covered with jute; reason because the jute trust has collapsed and come to terms with the farmers. To the North Carolina Alliance belongs the credit of being the first to kick against the jute trust and initiating the organized opposition that finally got it down and brought it to terms.

The Western farmers of this country are not making very faces over the failure of the rye crop in Russia.

Bunting yesterday, charged with selling tobacco from other than original packages--selling manufactured plug tobacco from a cracker-box. Hewitt was not arrested for "selling without license," as previously stated. Tobacco dealers are not required to have license now.
