Europe is progressing. — Railroad smashups are getting to be common over there.

With about 40,000,000 gallons of rice, corn juice and such on hand, the average Kentuckian can manage to keep warm next winter.

While the President is up in Vermont he can make her solid for him and thus be sure of one State anyway, even if Senator Farwell does keep up his caloric denunciation.

The life of a Chicago denizen was saved from the bullet of a shootist by a thick wallet he had in his pocket. This shows that the Chicago man who has a thick wallet in the right place is lucky.

One of the latest discoveries in Chicago is an architectural blunder in the construction of the World's Fair buildings which will cost $250,000. There may possibly be some plunder as well as blunder in this belated discovery.

Dr. J. B. Hummcutt, elected Professor of Agriculture in the State University of Georgia, is a practical as well as a theoretical farmer. A few years ago he bought some land for $10 an acre, and has made it so productive that it now rents for $10 a year per acre.

"Jack the Ripper" is over in London and Yellow Jack is down in Vera Cruz. We want them both to stay where they are if they have got to stay anywhere. But if either is to migrate in this direction we would rather herald the arrival of two Jack the Rippers than one Yellow Jack.

An absent-minded Berliner who walked off with another man's umbrella, committed suicide when he was charged with purloining it. While the umbrella goes off very suddenly in this country it is not responsible for any such sudden goings off of citizens as this.

We are indebted to The Progressive Farmer for an excellent group-picture, 19x24 inches, containing the pictures of all the Presidents of the State Alliances, with the President of the National Alliance and Industrial Union in the center. The picture is presented to all new subscribers to The Progressive Farmer.

There is something the matter with Indiana. With her bowels all honey-combed and lit up with burning gas, and impromptu volcanoes which cause such sudden rises and fall in real estate, it is not an inviting field for investment. Indiana will never be a well settled State until she becomes thoroughly Democratic.

C. C. Shayne, a New York hair and skin man, of the Republican persuasion, rises to impart the startling intelligence to the country that the silk importers of that burg are raising a fund of $500,000 to help scoop McKinley. If this be so McKinley may as well crawl into his hole for the virtue of the Republican voters of that State can never withstand the seductive blandishments of a whole lot of money like that dropped in amongst them. But Mr. C. C. Shayne forgot to tell us how he earned all this.

Col. Clarkson keeps on making discoveries. He has discovered that they must get up Republican clubs, and make them attractive and seductive to keep the young men from going over into the Democratic party, and that there must be more Republican papers that the people will read. Col. Clarkson does not realize what a difficult task it is for the editors to make Republican papers that the people will read, while they have to rack their brains to do the necessary lying for his party. A man cannot be cheerful and edit a good, bright, cheery paper when his conscience is gnawing at all the inside of him and his brain is dazed trying to make one issue of his paper fit in with another.

Phil Armour, the Chicago meat king, thinks of something besides hogs. He has established in Chicago and supports a day nursery for the care of infant children of the poor. On a lot large enough to pasture seven cows he has erected a comfortable building, and laid out the grounds especially for the use of the children, with play-grounds, seats, hammocks, &c., has attendants enough to look after all the children that come, and all that do come are well fed on fresh milk, bread and crackers. The average attendance is ninety children a day.

"Tell the Truth" is the title of a malicious pamphlet which is being largely circulated the object of which is to injure Mr. Cleveland. It is not in keeping with its title for it rehearses all the exploded slanders that were ever started against him, and with a little truth mixes a great deal of falsehood. The man who circulates it either lacks the cheek or the courage to put his name to it.

Something About Peas.

The pea is unquestionably the fruit for this section. It seems to reach the highest degrees of excellence on the Sounds near Wilmington, where some as fine specimens have been produced this season as are grown anywhere. Mr. W. S. Warrock had a small lot in market yesterday, from his farm on Masonboro, which sold for $28.00. He prefers the Keifer and LeConte varieties, thinking the soil and climate here better adapted to their growth than that of other kinds.

Peanuts.

A telegram to Messrs. Mitchell & Son from Norfolk, Va., reports that 19,000 bags—about 85,000 bushels—of peanuts were destroyed in the recent fire in that city. Prices, however, had not been affected, so far, by this large withdrawal from the stock of peanuts, and it was not likely that there would be any advance, on account of large supplies still on hand and the lateness of the season. Farmer's stock here is quoted at 50 to 60 cents per bushel of 28 pounds.

Weather Forecasts.

The following are the weather forecasts for to-day:

For Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina, continued warm weather, variable winds, scattered showers; local rains and continued high temperature Thursday.

For Virginia, generally fair weather, except probably local showers in the evening, no decided change in temperature; continued warm and fair weather Thursday.

Cotton Region Bulletin.

Moderate rainfall was reported yesterday in the cotton region, the heaviest being in the Savannah, Montgomery, Augusta, Atlanta and Wilmington districts. There was very little rain in other districts. The temperature was high, the average maximum ranging from 90 degrees for the Atlanta district to 96 for the districts of Little Rock, Memphis, Mobile and New Orleans.

The Orton.

The recent reduction of rates at The Orton seems to be appreciated, as it should be, by the travelling public. Excellent accommodations are given for $2.00 per day, the rooms furnished at that price being among the pleasantest in the house. The Orton ranks with the best hotels in the South, and the efforts of the owner should be substantially encouraged.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

List of Members—Why Not Double the Number and Thus Give Us the Best Library in the State?

The following is a correct list of the members of the Wilmington Library Association up to August 10. It embraces many of the leading citizens of Wilmington, every vocation being represented; but it is deficient in numbers. Let us all go to work and see if the number cannot be doubled within twelve months. The material is here, and it seems that a strong, determined and concert effort ought to attain the desired end:

The Mutual Insurance and Aid Society of Wilmington has been reorganized, and a new Board of Directors elected, consisting of S. W. Noble, S. V. Bunting, Jno. Haar, C. I. Comfort, W. H. Howell, Jno. G. Oldenbittel, Wm. H. Chadbourne, H. M. Bowden and J. D. Hanby.

Mr. S. V. Bunting resigned the Vice Presidency of the Society, but his successor has not yet been elected. Mr. E. F. Johnson, General Agent and Treasurer, has also resigned, and Mr. Walker Taylor has been elected to succeed Mr. Johnson. Other minor changes will be made soon.

To Help Her Father.

Miss Kate E. Williams, a young lady of Atlanta, Ga., has on exhibition at Messrs. Chesnut & Barrentine's store, Front street, a large oil painting, which she is endeavoring to sell to enable her to purchase a home for her father, a paralyzed Confederate veteran, and his family of children. She has letters from General Gordon and Gov. Northern of Georgia, Gov. Holt of North Carolina and many editors of newspapers, strongly endorsing the young lady and the worthy object she has in view. The picture will be sold by subscription, and is valued at $150.

Big Freshet in Black River.

Capt. Black of the steamer Lisbon reports a big freshet in Black river. The water is higher than it has been for years, and has pretty well covered all the lowlands. The Cape Fear river is pretty full and a freshet in this is not at all unlikely.

SNOW'S MARSH CHANNEL.

A Recent Survey Shows that it is Steadily Improving.

Capt. W. H. Bixby, U. S. Engineer in charge of our river and harbor improvements, furnishes the following:

U. S. ENGINEER'S OFFICE, WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 18, 1891. During the past ten days a new survey has been made over the new Snow's Marsh Channel, near the mouth of the Cape Fear River. This survey shows that this channel is steadily improving in general, having greatly widened and deepened over its upper portion; and this improvement is gradually working its way down stream. At present the lower portion has slightly narrowed so that for a short distance at the lowest entrance, the sixteen-foot-depth channel is only about one hundred and fifty feet wide; the deepest portion being on the western side. Boats can easily carry sixteen feet at low water through this lower entrance, without touching, if they run on the first range stakes to the westward of the center line of the buoyed channel.

The old Horse Shoe Channel and the old Snow's Marsh Channel seem to be steadily shoaling and closing up, and the volume of water, formerly moving through them, is daily going more and more into the new Snow's Marsh Channel, so that there is every indication of latter's steadily expanding to eighteen feet depth and about eight hundred feet width within the next one or two years.

The train from Raleigh consisted of seven coaches, two of which were for whites, and all were filled. There were but few whites on the train from Greensboro.
