Brayer Shepard, of New York, is finding fault with Porter's census because there were so many unenumerated asses. He feels slighted.

Natural gas has been struck in the village of Wellsburg, N. Y. And Chauncey M. Depew is still in Europe. It was an accidental strike, as they were boring for water.

C. H. Freeman, the champion checker player of this country, is said to be a mulatto with a dash of Indian blood in him, from which he seems to be somewhat checkered himself.

The United States Treasury is said to be guarded by seventy soldiers, divided into three squads. But this wasn't enough to prevent the Billion Dollar looters from getting away with the surplus.

The parachutist still continues to kill himself or herself. It was a woman this time who went up in a gale and came down in a hurry into a lake at Peoria, Ill. It was her ill luck. The parachute didn't work, as usual.

California hasn't got many flies on her, but she has myriads of little spiders which are playing havoc with the fruit orchards in some sections. They lay their eggs on the leaves where they hatch and the young spiders suck the leaves dry.

Californians don't object to man's killing himself if he can't get out of the State any other way, but when he blows himself to atoms with dynamite, and goes up into the top story of a hotel and jars the whole neighborhood, they think he might take his departure in a less uproari-" ous way.

by Rev. Alexander Sprunt, whose preaching has attracted so many interested hearers. He is engaged in evangelistic labor in the Synod of North Carolina, and by his earnest and practical expositions of God's word is doing a most successful work. His evening discourse was a solemn appeal for decision in becoming a Christian."

Former Wilmingtonian. Mr. Herman L. Schreiner, proprietor of a music house in Savannah, Ga., and > one of the best known business men of that city,died near Leipzig,Ger.,last Sunday. Somewhere in the fifties Mr. Schreiner came to this country and settled in Wilmington, where he taught music, and is well remembered by some of our older citizens. He afterward moved to Macon, Ga., and during the war his was the only regular music publishing house in the Southern Confederacy. He was the composer of several well-known works and was a recognized artist in all musical circles.

> Grand Opening of the Opera House. Next Monday evening for one night only, the much-talked of Barlow Brothers' Minstrels, late of Barlow, Wilson, Primrose & West, appear at the Opera House. Engine Practice.

The "Atlantic" boys had their engine out for practice last night at the foot of Market street, and they made her hum. Through 200 feet of hose connecting with a Siamese coupling, the "Atlantic" threw a stream fully 275 feet. This is a conservative estimate-though some thought the distance 280 feet-and her performance shows that the little fire fighter is in first-class condition.
