Mr. Cleveland will preside at the Flower ratification meeting to be held in New York to-morrow night.

This seems to be a bad year for the B's. Balmaceda, Boulanger, and about a dozen balloonists have taken sudden departures.

The next Civil Service examination of applicants for positions in the Government service will be held at Charlotte on the 22nd inst.

The discussion of the suicide of Boulanger was discontinued in Paris on the rumor that the hoop-skirt fashion was to be revived. This was looked upon as a matter of graver importance.

Candidate Fassett says there are 128,000 acres of Republicans in Northern New York who stand as a menace to Manhattan Island. And he seems to think he has a mortgage on the last one of them.

It is rumored and denied that Jay Gould is sick. It would be well for gentlemen who run up against him to be careful how they do it for he has a habit of making imprudent people very sick, sometimes.

The first joint meeting between Governor Campbell and Mr. McKinley will take place to-morrow at Ada. From the way Mr. Campbell handles Mr. McKinley this ought to add a considerable to the Democratic

The late W. S. Scott, of Pennsylvania, died worth between $15,000, 000 and $20,000,000. He was a great sufferer from dyspepsia and was often heard to say that he would give all his millions for a sound digestive apparatus.

According to the report of Commissioner Harris, of the Bureau of Education, there were enrolled during the fiscal year 1889-'90 in the public schools of elementary second grade 12,686,973 pupils as against 9,867,505 in 1880.

The Philadelphia Times thinks "it is something to even lock the stable door after the horse has been stolen but here it is not yet certain whether they have not stolen the stable door." Considering the gang they had to deal with they may consider themselves fortunate that the stable wasn't stolen.

A teather reform is on the move in London, headed by some of the bon-ton ladies, who have pledged themselves not to wear feathers from any bird that hasn't been killed for food. The ostrich, however, is not in it, as it is not of the edible variety and producing feathers is its regular

The Norfolk Landmark remarks that the proper way to treat a burglard when found around one's house, is "to shoot him." This is at least a very effective way to remind him that he is not welcome, and it has the merit, from an economic standpoint, of saving court expenses. Powder and ball are cheaper than

WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1891.

If there is to be a racket with The New York Press informs us that the Republican party is to be re-organized in Texas. Texas is a big State, and the fellow who finds enough of the Republican wreck in it to re-organize will have to go out on the hunt equipped with a microscope.

Firmly Entrenched.

Baltimore Manufacturers' Record. The oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, the Wilmington MORNING STAR, celebrated its twenty-fourth birthday and commenced on the first year of its quarter of a century September 23. During all this long period the STAR has been under the management of Mr. William H. Bernard, who has been successful in his efforts to conduct a clean paper, morally, politically and typographically. It is firmly intrenched in the hearts of its readers, and enjoys a liberal patronage.

A Monumental Tribute.

Fayetteville Observer. The Wilmington STAR is twenty-five years old. There are a great many men in this world who are a long way over twenty-five years old-who, if each one had accomplished as much for humanity in his individual life as the STAR has in its journalistic career, would have monuments reared above them as high as the spire of Strasbourg Cathedral when they died-but then, you see, the STAR is not going to die for a long while yet.

REV. SAM P. JONES.

The Evangelist to Begin His Meetings Here Next Friday.

Rev. Dr. Creasy received a letter yes terday from Rev. Sam P. Jones, stating that himself, Rev. Mr. Stewart and Mr. Excell would be here in time to begin the meetings at the Tabernacle next Friday evening.

Last night a meeting of the Choir was held at Grace Church, and adjourned to meet to-morrow (Thursday) night at 8 o'clock, at the Tabernacle, for thorough organization and practice.

The committee of arrangements have had the Tabernacle put in order. The roof repaired wherever needed; fresh sawdust put down, and the electric lights put in position. The Atlantic Coast Line and the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley R. R. have made liberal concessions in rates from all points on their roads, and the Carolina Central has announced special rates from Laurel Hill and other points. Major T. D. Love, agent of the Fayetteville and Wilmington line of steamboats, has given a rate of $1.25 from

OPERA HOUSE.

Jim, the Westerner," Plays To-night. "Jim, the Westerner," will make the acquaintance of a Wilmington audience to-night, and it is interesting to read what the papers say of him. The Brooklyn Daily Eagle, for instance, hits off the play as follows:

"It was at Holmes' Star Theater, and the house was almost packed. There were no vacant seats in either of the galleries at any rate. Everybody seemed probably highly pleased with himself over the reception. "Jim, the Westerner," is a product of Western talent, but the scene is laid entirely in New York. Many people, no doubt, expected pyrotechnical dramatics, judging from the flamboyant title which is suggestive of red shirts and pistols; but they were gratefully disappointed. The play is a very interesting one, not unlike "The Henrietta" in style. The comedy portions of it scintilate with the genuine wit of the race track and base ball field of to-day, and the serious scenes are neither too long nor too numerous to offend or bore any reasonable theatregoer.'

FIRST KILLING FROST.

The Weather Bureau Will Promptly No tify the Public of Its Appearance. The following circular has been is sued by the Weather Bureau, viz:

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, OFFICE OF THE OBSERVER, Wilmington, N.C., Oct. 6, 1891. The public is hereby notified that the U. S. Weather Bureau has arranged to have the observers at all the sub-stations in the cotton belt telegraph to the different centers the occurrence of the first "killing" frost at their stations. This information will be collated at the different centers and telegraphed all over the country, with the reports from the regular stations.

It will be noted on the cotton region bulletins and on the next issue of the This is to be done at an extra ex pense to the Weather Bureau, but it is thought that the benefit derived will justify the expenditure.

Mr. J. E. Montague, the clever and affable manager of The Orton, in a conversation with a STAR reporter yesterday, said that he had now rooms for two hundred and fifty guests, and that the hotel had just been renovated and fixed up in tip-top style to accommodate the crowds which are expected to attend the series of meetings to be held requesting that delegates be appointed by the Rev. Sam. Jones, which will begin on the 9th of October, and no pains had been spared to arrange everything to suit the visitors. His rates are from two dollars upward. Business at this house has been steadily increasing for months past.

8.96@8.97. - Spot cotton was quiet in New York yesterday at 8 11-16 cents for middling; the net receipts at all the ports was 11,171 bales.

- The total receipts of cotton here

esterday were 1,624 bales, against 2,057 the same date last year. Sales yesterday in this market were at 81/4 cents for middling; same date last season, 934

- Bennetsville item: Great quantities of cotton are being gathered, and the cotton gin whistles are heard in every direction. Cotton comes in steady and prices are rising a little. Experienced farmers say, however, that where it is picked off there is no more to come, and predict a short crop.

- Boston Commercial Bulletin: Cotton goods are doing well and the mills manufacturing them are running busily. It is an encouraging fact to know that the question of cutting wages of the operatives at Fall River has been settled. at least for the present, and that the wages will not be reduced. This has been brought about by the improved condition of the market, and so long as there exists a good market wages will not be cut.

- New York Commercial Bulletin: A correspondent writes from Fall River, Mass., Oct. 2d: "It does not follow because the spinners of the world have bought of the last crop 8,000,000 bales that they have used it. At all events, in this city our spinners had on hand Sept. 1st, in excess of amount same time 1890, at least two months' supply, and we believe this fact is true of many of the spinning sections of the world, notably of the Continent of Europe; and we believe that a crop of 7,100,000 bales American will be enough, not to keep prices at the abnormally low prices of last spring, but to prevent any lasting rise from present basis. Last season's crop, in round numbers, 8,700,000; this season's crop, inside guesses, 7,100,000: giving supply 15,800,000 for two years, or 7,900,000 bales allowed for each year, which is more than the world will con-
