THE Y. M. C. A. GYMNASIUM.

To be Equipped with Apparatus, etc., to Make It Attractive to Young Men of the City.

The following announcement of the Young Men's Christian Association will be read with interest:

The gymnasium room in the new Y. I. C. A. building is seventy-one feet long, fifty-eight feet wide and thirty feet high, and will be thoroughly equipped and placed under the control of a competent instructor in gymastics as soon s a sufficient number of the young men of the city will become members of the gymnasium classes. The directors of the Association are desirous of having the young men of the city avail themselves of the privileges of the Association and the benefit of the gymnasium, and Dr. T. F. Wood, ever willing to do anything in his power to excite an interest among the young men in the Asso-ciation, will carefully examine each ap-plicant for membership in the gymnasium and give directions as to what kind of exercise is best suited to the phy sical development of each member, as well as define the quantity of exercise each member may safely take.

The physical instructor and director will be one specially trained for this work; will direct the members what apparatus to use and how to use the apparatus; will keep a record of the measurements and note developments and will give special instructions to such members as desire and are adapted to take part in the public exhibitions from time to time.

The gymnasium will be equipped with wands, Indian clubs, dumbbells, trapeze, parallel bars, horizontal bars, pulley and chest weights, ladders, breast bars, quarter circle, shoulder machine. neck attachment, striking bag, swinging rings, etc., such as would be prescribed by a competent director.

Also, a bowling alley, affording both exercise and an anjoyable game. Also, bath rooms free to the use of every member of the gymnasium de-

Also, lockers for each member of the gymnasium, wherein will be placed his provement has extended so far as to clothing, towels, etc., for use in the gymnasium, which will be aired and dried and can be ready for use whenever the owner may desire.

In order to accomplish this it is necessary to ascertain whether the patronage of the young men will justify the undertaking. A yearly fee of eight dollars will entitle each man to membership in the Association, including the use of the reading room, the library, he game rooms, the parlor, the literary society, the gymnasium, baths, bowling alley, and attendance upon the educational classes at reduced rates. A yearly fee of ten dollars will secure all of the above privileges and also free admittance to the entertainments of the As-

The "F. F." Successfully Launched.

The expressive face of Capt. Walter Tast broadly beamed with satisfaction yesterday afternoon. His new tug boat, christened the F. F., had slid from the ways and was riding the water like a thing of life at the dock, foot of Orange street. When she touched the water, the toilers who had been straining and tugging-no pun malice aforethoughted -to get her off and the bystanders entered into the spirit of rejoicing with

Capt. Taft has been working on the beat for about six weeks, and the hull is entirely new. The boiler and machinery have been entirely rebuilt and it is the same that was in the old tug Pet. In about three weeks the F. F. will be fully equipped and ready to enter into the purpose of her existence, which will be towing lighters and kindred occupations on the Cape Fear. She is about fifteen tonnage, and her engine will be equal to thirty-horse power. She will be, when completely rigged out in her Sunday clothes, one of the prettiest craft on the Embezzlement.

T: J. Norton, the young white man mentioned in yesterday's STAR as have ing been charged with embezzlement by a representative of Conway & Co., o Charleston, W. Va., and committed in default of bail for his appearance yesterday morning, was again brought before Justice Robt. H. Bunting yesterday. John' D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq., represented the prosecution and Marsden Bellamy, Esq., appeared for the defendant. Upon motion of the attorney for the prosecution, to enable the State to procure the attendance of the general manager of Conway & Co., the case was continued until Tuesday, 27th inst., at 10 a.m. The bail was reduced to $100, and in default of this, Norton was again committed.

Receipts of Naval Stores.

Receipts of naval stores at Wilmington since the beginning of the crop year, April 1st, 1891, as compared with receipts for the same time last year are as follows: Spirits turpentine, 40.664 casks; last year, 47,834. Rosin, 154,990 barrels; last year, 201,686. Tar, 27,378 barrels; last year, 29,174. Crude turpentine, 10,835 barrels; last year, 12,214.

Change of Schedule on Seacoast R. R.

The Wilmington Seacoast railroad will change its schedule on Monday, October 26th. Trains will leave Princess street at 9.00 a, m, and 3.00 p, m. Returning, leave Ocean View at 10.00 a. m. and 5.15 p. m. This is the regular winter schedule, not likely to be changed, and it would not be amiss to cut this out and paste in your Knox.

COTTON FACTS AND FIGURES.

- Futures closed steady at New York: sales 129.000 bales: November 8.21@8.22; January 8.55@8.56.

- Total receipts at all U. S. ports since the beginning of the crop year are 1,783,900 bales, against 1,702,683 received up to same date last year.

- Killing frosts reported at Charlotte yesterday morning, with temperature down to 36 degrees, and light frost at Wilmington, temperature 38 degrees. - Receipts of cotton at Wilmington for the week ended vesterday are 9.911. against 11,186 bales for the corresponding week last year. Receipts since September 1st, are 54,023, against 83,734 bales for same time last season. - Cotton advanced an eighth in this market yesterday; middling was quoted steady at 7%c. The receipts for the day were 953 bales; receipts same date last year, 1,356 bales.

- The Mobile Cotton Exchange has taken action in the matter of the Liverpool conference of June last relative to cotton bills of lading, at which was adopted a regulation requiring that bills of lading shall not be signed until the cotton is actually delivered to the steamers. The Mobile exchange deems this impracticable for these reasons: It would require an enormous increase in the capital engaged in the cotton buying business; the exporter at the port will have to pay interest and insurance on an unknown amount for an indefinite time; it places the port exporter at a disadvantage as compared with an interior exporter; it would be ruinous to shipowners, and place tramp steamers at the mercy of the cotton buyers.

- Lehman Bros. say in a recent cotton circular: "That the condition in Texas has improved we do not doubt, but as for the statement that the imoring the crop for that State up to last year's, we do not believe that the present movement is any indication of what the crop will be this year, nor do we believe that it is the basis for increased estimates, the unprecedented favorable picking season, and stringent money market throughout the South forcing the cotton in as quickly as it can be gathered. The falling off, therefore, when it does come, will be all the more severe. Then we believe in a sharp and speedy recovery. Until then, however, the chances are rather in favor of soft and low markets."

- New Orleans Picayune: This rapid movement of the crop is rendered the more extraordinary by the general belief that the yield is considerably short of last season. The rapid marketing of the staple is attributed, in the first place, to the splendid weather, which not only facilitates picking and harvesting, but permits the ready hauling of the bales from plantations and ginhouses to the railroad depots and stations. It must also be remembered that transportation facilities are constantly improving. Another incentive to the rapid marketing of the crop is the condition of the money market and the financial condition of the rural districts. As a result of the poor prices or cotton last season money has been somewhat scarce in the country, hence it is natural that there should be a desire to ship and sell cotton as freely as possible during the early part of the season. Until very recently also, there has been a steady improvement in prices which undoubtedly helped to attract cotton to market.

THE SOUTHERN EXPOSITION. Under Full Headway-The Programme for

Next Week. A circular letter issued by the managers of the Southern Exposition at Raleigh calls attention to the fact that it is now under full headway. It gets better and better each day, as every day new attractions are added. The programme for next week it is announced will be one of the most interesting, and visitors will miss a great deal if they are not present.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the 26th, 27th and 28th, are the special days for Alabama. On these days addresses will be delivered by Hon. John G. Harris, State Super ntendent of Public Education, of Alabamai, Milton A. Smith, Esq., Anniston, Ala.; Dr. Wm. LeRoy Brown, President of the Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical College, and other prominent speakers from that State.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the 29th, 30th and 31st, are the special days for Mississippi. On these days some of the most prominent men from that State will be present, and will address the people. Mississippi has one of the best and most novel exhibits on the grounds, and it is well worth seeing. October 29th, 30th and 31st are also special days for Southern manufacturers. A large number of prominent Southern manufacturers have consented to be present on these days. His Excellency Thos. M. Holt, Governor of North Carolina, and one of the most successful cotton goods manufacturers in the South. will deliver the opening speech and address of welcome. Every community or town that is thinking of engaging in the manufacturing business should send a delegation of its most practical business men to meet with the Southern many facturers, as they will get some valuable information. Mr. R. D. Gatling, the inventor of the famous "Gatling gun," has written to Gov. Holt that he will arrive in Raleigh on next Tuesday, the 27th, for the purpose of visiting the Exposition. He will deliver an address in the Exposition ding on Wednesday, the 28th, Mi Gatling is a native North Carolinian and an immense crowd should assemble to do honor to this distinguished man whom the "Old North State" is proud to claim as her son.

Seeking Damages. .

The Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen, consisting of Mayor Ricaud, chairman, and Aldermen Post and Adrian, met in the Mayor's office yesterday, for the purpose of passing upon the damages resulting to Capt. R. E. Orrell from the death of a horse he had hired to the city for the Fire Department. Capt. Orrell valued the horse at $200, but considerable testimony was taken touching the question whether the disease from which the animal died had been contracted before entering the service of the city. Pending the taking of testimony the committee adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman.
