Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhosa, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. Archer, M. D., 111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y. "I use Castoria in my practice, and find it specially adapted to affections of children."

ALEX. ROBERTSON, M. D., 1057 2d Ave., New York.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowe's and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

DO CHILDREN PAY?

'Do children pay?" said the old man Scruggs, a leaning on his hoe, Just wait till you've been married, say some twenty years or so.

You'll have more sense than to stand up there and throw your time away
By asking such foolish questions. Pay? Great gosh! Of course they pay!

We go home tuckered out at night; they climb upon our knees. And when we try to put 'em down they cry for one more squeeze,

And roar and pitch about us all until, fust thing we know, Our joints are free from aching and our hearts are in a glow.

'They pay us when their frank young love shines in their jolly eyes; Even when our ears are deafened there's a music in their cries

Sweeter than all the fiddles and pianners ever made-Don't think it's so? Well, now, you wait, and 'member what I've said. "The man whose children's hearts are his is the man who is truly blest. The sight at home of his boys and gals is more to him than rest.

I swow! There wouldn't behalf the fools in this weary world to-day If all men could only understand what big intrus' children pay.

- Greensboro Record: Mrs. Jos. Spivey, of Randolph county, gave birth this week to triplets-two girls and one boy-two are living and doing well. Mrs. Spivey is the mother of twelve children, but has never given birth to but one at a time before.

- Lincolnton Courier: A discovery of a "red paint" vein has been made at Cherryville, and it is thought that there is paint there in great quantities. There is also a "mine" of fire-proof clay in the edge of town, but it is not yet known what quantity is there.

- Scotland Neck Democrat: Tom Dickens, a reliable colored man of the community, is now wearing a silk vest, (and it still looks well) which Mr. Noah Briggs sold to a colored man named Peter Smith, who belongs to Mr. Moses Smith. The vest was sold thirty years agoTom thinks, and Tom says that they do not make such goods now. - Asheville Citizen: Some person or persons forced an entrance to the store of S. M. Redman, on East street, North Asheville, on yesterday, during Mr. Redman's absence, and stole over $30 in cash from the drawer. Two colored brothers, Luther and Lon Mc-Clarty, were arrested yesterday afternoon on suspicion. Part of the money was found secreted in the pants-leg of one of the boys.

- Washington Gazette: The two most venerable and esteemed citizens in our town are Col. J. H. McCluer and Dr. F. Gallagher. On June 4th they celebrated Col. McCluer's birthday. On the 11th of October, Dr. Gallagher's birthday, a banquet was enjoyed at the Doctor's. On each recurring birthday these two good friends hold a re-union and grow young again in recounting the reminisences of their younger days.

- Charlotte Chronicle: A considerable ripple was caused in church circles yesterdayas the fact became generally known that Rev. Dr. A. W. Miller had tendered his resignation as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city. Dr. Miller has been pastor of the First church for about 39 years. What action the church will take is a matter of interesting conjecture, both in the social and religious world of Charlotte.

- Statesville Landmark: The mandamus issued against the county commissioners commanding them to issue retail liquor license to O. Witter or appear and show cause, came up before Judge Armfield at Chambers last Tursday. At his suggestion the facts were agreed upon and a case made up for a jury and Tuesday of the second week of November term of the Suweather, just as good as if built on rock. perior Court was fixed for the hearing

- Raleigh Chronicle: R. A. Wilhams, the well known negro exodus manager, is here. He says he has joined forces with the turpentine men who in Pender county have made a test case of the legality of the act in regard to the taking of laborers out of the State. Mr. Williams, who is popularly known as "Peg Leg, the emigrant's friend," says that while there is such a law in Georgia, the officials dare not enforce it or make an arrest, and that he has taken several hundred negroes out of that State in the past year. He declares that the law is unconstitutional and will not stand a test. As soon as the crops are gathered he proposes to take away a number of negroes. He will take none who are un-

- Smithfield Herald: We are very sorry to announce the death of Mr. M. Hales, at his home near Wilson's Mills on last Friday night, of that dread disease, typhoid lever. - The assignment of Mr. Jack Rains, one of Selma's largest merchants, a few weeks ago was quite a surprise to nearly everybody as he was considered sne of the wealthiest merchants in the county. It is also said to be largest failure ever made in Johnston county. It is said that his liabilities amount to something near $25,000 and that he has assets enough to pay the indebtedness in full. -- We learn that James H. Kennedy, a respectable white man and a member of the Primitive Baptist Church here, who lives about six miles from this place, left his home and family last Monday. He passed through town Monday morning and told the church clerk to erase his name off the church book as he was going to leave this country, as he could not live at home.

- Raleigh News and Observer: Gov. Holt has authorized a special term of Montgomery court for the trial of civil and criminal cases. It will be a one week's term, and will begin December 7th, and Judge Armfield will preside. -A Greensboro special says: Gen. A. M. Scales, who has been very ill for some time, was taken worse a few days ago. The General is suffering from Bright's disease and is expected to die very suddenly. -Gov. Holt has authorized an exchange of courts by which Judge George H. Brown will hold the December term of 1891 of Guilford court and the January term of 1892 of New Hanover in place of Judge R. W. Winston, and Judge Winston will hold the May term of 1892 of Craven court and the January term of 1892 of Northampton. -Several of the members of the State Democratic Executive Committee who have been in the city for a day or two past have agreed upon an address to be issued in pursuance with the resolution passed at the recent meeting of the committee, and it has been signed Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of | by all the members of the committee Burlington, Ohio, states that he had who have been here. OUNDED IN 1864 by the present executive— 27 YEARS of continuous and successful man agement—Increased annual attendance—Now occupying four buildings—Stands unrivaled in facilities for educating YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN for success in life. In deciding upon a school for their children, PARENTS should send them to THE BEST, because it pays. It may require the expenditure of a few dollars more at first, but it will prove the cheapest in the end. CHEAP tuition is very dear, because it means cheap teachers, cheap surroundings, inferior facilities, and offers NO opportunities for securing POSITIONS for its pupils and graduates. This institution, owing to its HICH standard of excellence, has placed in desirable positions more young men and women from gement-Increased annual attendance-Nov positions more young men and women from Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Caro-lina and Georgia, than all similar institutions combined.
