The Republicans in Ohio say that Gov. Campbell uses too much brass band in his campaign. Perhaps he is offsetting McKinley's tin horns with brass horns.

Ignatius Donnelly, of St. Paul, who sued somebody for $100,000 damages for libel got a verdict for $1. He wasn't half as mad at the loss of $99,999 as he was at the estimate the jury put upon his good

A spontaneous combustion fire came pretty near doing serious damage in the Pension office in Washington the other day. It started in a mass of waste. Raum should have more of his refrigerators around there to stuff his waste into.

The rainfalls in England during the past month have been the heaviest and accompanied by the Heaviest floods since 1875. If some of those rain-persuaders in this country had made their experiments over there what a grand success they might have achieved.

A contemporary asks, "are we a nation of liars?" We wouldn't like to believe we are, but we very much fear that the stranger who formed his opinions from reading the speeches of Republican campaign orators and protection editors would come to the conclusion that we are.

The "Empire State Express" on the New York Central road is said to be the fastest in the world. Its schedule time between New York city and Buffalo, four hundred and forty miles, is eight hours and forty minutes, its average speed being more than fifty-two miles an hour and as high for stretches as seventy

We never see announcements of balloon ascensions now that we don't expect to read of some one getting his bones all mashed up The last comes from Raleigh where a negro got tangled in the ropes and was carried some sixty feet and fell to the earth, receiving fatal injuries. That dangerous tom-foolery ought to be prohibited by law.

The registration of voters closed in the city of New York Saturday night. The lists show 261,917 names, only 16,753 more than were registered last year, and 24,653 less than in the Presidential election in 1888. The Advertiser, Ind., says the Republicans concede Mr. Flower 50,000 majority in New York city and 15,-000 in Brooklyn and other towns adjacent, and these 65,000 they must overcome west of Harlem River to elect their man, Fassett.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1891.

WHOLE NO. 7,744

The wife of Capt. Lewis A. York, ex-paymaster of the U.S. army, was very much surprised the other day to see the announcement of her husband's marriage to the New York widow of a Russian nobleman. This looked like rushin' matters to her, but she was even more surprised to hear that she herself was now a single woman, her husband having gotten a divorce on the sly out in

Dakota last summer while she was recuperating and trying to keep-cool

at a New Jersey summer resort.

The United States authorities at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, have secured a lot of indictments against the officers and managers of the Louisiana lottery for sending circulars &c., into that section, and have sent a deputy marshal to arrest them, and among them, Gen. Beauregard. Beauregard has nothing to do with sending circulars. His business is simply to inspect the wheel and the drawings to see that there sn't any gouging in it.

Most Ingenious Handiwork.

J. W. Boskins, a greaser at the Caro lina Central depot, has constructed with his pocketknife, out of wood, a perfect fac simile of a Baldwin engine, with the tender, employed on that road. It is beautifully symmetrical in all its proportions and contains every part, including all the wheels, trucks, drivers, air-brakes, bell, bell-cord, throttle, lever-in short complete in every detail.

It has been painted so as to make the semblance perfect of brass and tron and wood wherever these ought to be. Even the oil can and all the tools usual in the engineer's cab are in place. This marvellous piece of handiwork ought, by all means, to be sent to the Raleigh Exposition with its wooden track, cross-

RIVER AND MARINE. A Schooner's Encounter With a Gale Off

Hatteras.

A telegram from the Weather Bureau observer at Southport, N. C., reported the arrival at that place yesterday afternoon of the schooner Martin L. Smith, Capt. Robt. Marshall, from Charleston, S. C., bound to Baltimore, Maryland, loaded with phosphate rock. The captain reports that he encountered a severe northerly gale off Hatteras, last Tuesday morning, during which his vessel sprung a leak and he was compelled to turn back for a harbor. Capt. Marshall came up to the city in the evening and was seen at the office of Messrs. Geo. Harriss, Son & Co. The schooner will probably be brought up to the city to be recaulked. Steam Yacht Silver King, from New York for Jacksonville, Fla., put in here yesterday for water and coal. She is 60 feet long and 11 beam, and belongs to Mr. Hughes, of New York. She is commanded by Capt. E. H. Lewis, with Mr. N. B. Ezzell as chief engineer.

THIRD PARTY SCHEMERS.

Col. Polk's Political Speech at a Farmer's Meeting at Elizabeth City, N. C.

NORFOLK, VA., October 29.-Col. L. L. Polk, President of the Farmers' Alliance, in speaking at Elizabeth City to-day, said in part: "I have known farmers to leave their crops knee-high in grass to go to the court house and for hours sit in a hot room to hear a pot-house politician speak and tell them to stick to the party. They stick and the dance of death goes on. After election day," the speaker said, "all is darkness down here. What of the night? The answer comes, 'all is well, plow on.' They talk about failures; the Alliance is as full of politics as an egg is full of meat. Yes, sir, we are into politics and in there stay. They talk about party. What is party? It is a nice little collar with a I don't care who is nominated. I will vote as I please. Who has a patent right on politics? It depended on whether either party recognized the far-mers as the balance of power whether there would be a third party. The people have arisen in their might and assert that they have the right to help rule this country, and they are going to do it."

Mr. Polk then advocated the sub-treasury bill, and when he called for pledges to support it nearly every hand went up. He said eighteen States were pledged to his scheme.

Mayor's Court.

Officer J. L. White, before the Mayor's Court vesterday, charged Abram Hankins, colored, with being drunk and very much down. It was calculated by the Court that $5 and $2.35 costs was the proper amount of penance.

Larry Lane, a colored boy, arrested by the same officer and charged with disorderly conduct and fighting. His sentence was $5 fine and $3.15 costs.

- Net receipts of cotton at all the U, S. ports vesterday 53,815 bales.

WESTERN, NORTH CAROLINA-

Baptist Convention-Beauty of the Country-Rapid Growth of Asheville, [Star Correspondence.]

Thirty-five years ago the Baptists West of the Blue Ridge became tired of the difficulty presented by the mountains in meeting their brethren in the East, and formed the Western Baptist Convention. From feeble beginnings it has grown to be a body of considerable mag nitude, controlling twenty counties and numbering about 35,000 members.

It had a spirited session this year in Waynesville, Haywood county, and discussed the usual topics of Missions, Education, Sunday Schools, &c. One whole day was given to Judson College, located at Hendersonville, a mixed school, presided over by Dr. R. H. Lewis, and prosperous but unfortunately in debt, like many other colleges iu their early history. It is an almost universal expression that the people of the South have to be taught that a college cannot live without an endowment, They start a college, erect buildings at heavy expense and expect the school to make money enough to pay the instructors and wipe out the debt contracted for the buildings, which is a most unreasonable expectation as history has shown. Judson College owes about $8,000-after a hard struggle it friends thought enough had been secured to pay it out of debt. Another enterprise that claimed the attention of the convention was the Asheville Baptist, edited by the Rev. J. A. Speight. The brethren rallied to the support of the paper and it is now believed that it will prosper.

A very enterprising and successful school is one at Mars Hill, conducted Mr. T. M. Hufham, son of Dr. J. D. Hufham. Still a third is taught by the Rev. Mr. Hoard, at Hamburg; I think in Transylvania county. All are doing well.

Haywood is one of the most fertile counties in the State. I don't think ever saw finer corn grown than now stands in the fields of its rich valleys, and this part of the State is certainly a magnificent country, while they tell me that the land and scenery is even finer

The land boom through this section has lulled somewhat, but the old proverb "dirt cheap," must apply anywhere in this country, for land is worth from fifty to a hundred dollars an acre anywhere within four or five miles from the towns and villages of this section. About Asheville lots bring fabulous prices, and houses rent for a third more, it not twice as much as they do in Wilmington. Asheville used to be a cheap place to live in, but the great influx of rich Northern people and the immense number of visitors winter and summer, especially in winter, make all food supplies high. I was in Asheville a year ago, and can see marked improvement in many directions. I should judge that there are at least a hundred fine residences going up there at this time-they are building a fine City Hall and Market House; the Baptists are building the largest church in the State, and the city has appropriated $600,000 for street improvementsthat looks a little like progress. The Kenilwotrh, said to be more magnificent than the Battery Park Hotel, is in full blast, and Mr. George Vanderbilt is spending several millions of dollars in the erection of his massive and superb palace, the like of which is hardly to be seen in the whole country. Major Ringbow's school has started off well, and the Female college is full to overflowing. Judging from the style of buildings they have erected for their public schools, and the character of their school commissioners, one of the most active of whom is Dr. Millard, a native of Sampson county, one might suppose that they have an excellent system of public instruction in this the most progressive city of North Car-

Asheville was a revelation to me Years ago I knew it, but I had no conception of the extent and splendor of its development. It is next to Birmingham, Ala., of all the cities I have seen making the most rapid progress. DIDYMUS.

How It Takes. Chairete-pantes! Why, what does it mean? was the great and momentous question that agitated the city from centre to circumference yesterday. One tellow wanted to know if it had anything to do with charity pants. Another observed that it had given him decided symptoms of lockjaw.

But the best yet comes from the wharf. A well known business man had ordered a somnolent colored man, who was loading a vessel for him, to "wake up and get a move on him," all in vain. His snail-like locomotion was not accelerated. Finally, losing patience, he caught the colored man by the scutt of the neck and stormed into his ear, "Why don't you move out, you blanked chairete-pantes, you?" The darkey moved and hadn't stopped at this writing last night. Chairete-pantes moves things; and please permit that to linger in memo-

Section 20, Revenue Law.

The case of Perry C. Murray, charged with violating Section 20, Revenue Law of 1891, in that Murray was soliciting 'likenesses of the human face to be enlarged," without obtaining license. Herbert McClammy, Esq., repesented the defendant, and moved the usual affidavit being filed before Justice Bunting that the case be removed, who sent it to Jno. J. Fowler, Esq., for trial. Justice Fowler, after hearing the evidence, dismissed the case on the ground that defendant had not completed the offence, as it was not shown that any likeness had been actually enlarged.

THE RICE MARKET.

A Promising Outlook for Factors and Farmers. Dan Talmage's Sons, in their circular of October 26, say of the rice market

Domestic-During past two weeks there has been a marked enlargement of demand and fractional advances are being obtained on all styles. The assortment is much improved. Relative values between the different grades are now fairly established and qualities can be had at prices to suit the wants of any class of trade from common to fancy. Reports from producing sections South are not as favorable as at the opening of the crop. The late or June plantings are yielding at the thresher and the pounder much less than the earlier cuttings, and although the crop will be a large one, yet it will fall far short of the amount required for consumption from now until the new crop is reached (September, 1892). Planters are in good shape financially, and have not been obliged to force sales and thus crowd and depress the market On the contrary, appreciating somewhat the value of their product, they have adopted the wise policy of feeding the demand, without unduly pressing sales. Foreign-All kinds are in active request, with Japan in the lead. Prices are reasonable and quality excellent. which accounts for the large inquiry at the present time in the face of the new crop domestic. Advices from abroad uniformly point to a hardening of valures in the near future, as repleted stocks can only be replenished at much higher cost.

We would call attention to the fact that after the 1st of January the market almost invariably advances and planters who are able to hold until that time will secure prices which will undoubtedly more than recompense them for the cost of carrying. The market this year is under the planters' control and by judiciously feeding the demand they will be able to get full value for their product until it is all marketed, which should be done at good prices.

- The Aiken county, S. C., Farmer's Alliance decided to reduce the acreage planted in cotton next year and to plant more grain, corn, peas and grasses and also to raise more meat. They will await the action of the Cotton Growers' Convention which meets in Atlanta soon to determine the acreage of cotton to the plough, The farmers were advised to hold back all the cotton they could to bring better prices.
