OUTLINES.

There are 92 patients in hospital at Cork suffering from wounds received in the rioting Thursday night in that city; many others are under treatment at their homes. The reported discovery of a plot to murder Ino. Dillon and Wm. O'Brien, has created a sensation in Irish circles. In the Motz trial at Shelby, N. C., the examination of the three defendants was concluded and Miss Maggie Motz was put on the witness stand.

A test of a new cotton picker was made yesterday near Atlanta, Ga., greatly to the satisfaction of hundreds of planters. J. Talbot Jackson, of the University of Kentucky, was awarded the medal in the oratorical contest of college representatives at Charleston, S. C. Simonson & Weiss, cloak manufacturers, New York, failed with liabilities for $180,000. A factory in Brazil, Ind., burned; loss $35,000. Nashville, Tenn., had a $35,000 fire yesterday. The business portion of the town of Loda, Ill., burned; loss $75,000. An incendiary fire at Newbery, Ind., destroyed a score of dwellings; loss $50,000. The fight of Alliance farmers at Bucksport, Ark., created intense excitement throughout the State; it was caused, by State Treasury Bryan's utterances in a speech at the meeting. New York markets: Money easy at 3@4 per cent, closing offered at 4; cotton easy; middling, 8 3/4 cents; low middling 7 1/2-16 cents; Southern flour dull and heavy; wheat unsettled; No. 2 red $1 02 1/2 @ 1 03 in store and at elevator; corn unsettled and weaker; No. 2, 70 @ 73 cents at elevator; rosin quiet; strained, common to good, $1 83 1/2 @ 1 87 1/2; spirits turpentine dull and easy at 36 1/2 @ 37 1/2 cents.

It is so hot in Chili that the natives don't move around much in the day time. Perhaps this will account for the suddenness with which Chilean mobs warm up.

In addition to the floods and storms on the coast, which have put England through the racket, the influenza has arrived and is taking a fresh grip on the Britons.

A Saint Louis paper offered a prize to the person who would guess the name that would be given to Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland's baby. Out of seven or eight thousand not one guessed Ruth nor Bob.

Since Buchanan every Democratic nominee for the Presidency has been from New York. They were not all native New Yorkers, but were regarded as New Yorkers and supported in the conventions as such.

Her mahogany timber is one of the great sources of wealth for Honduras. The estimated value of the trees now ready for market is put at $200,000,000. That timber is so abundant that it is used for railroad ties.

Gen. E. Burd Grubb, of New Jersey, Minister to Spain, is soon to be married in Edinboro, to a young Scotch lady whom he met abroad. E. Burd is going to have the knot tied in swell style, if his name is Grubb.

Editor Murat Halstead is opposed to damming Niagara Falls. He believes that when the Republicans feel like indulging in any exercise of that kind they can find enough of the Democratic party around to practice on.

Prof. Virchow of Germany has been presented by his admirers with a gold medal weighing five pounds. The supposition is that he is an able-bodied gentleman, otherwise toting around a five-pound chunk of gold would not be any fun.

The Philadelphia Inquirer rises to remind the Republican campaigners that "Honest money must not be lost sight of in this campaign." This was entirely unnecessary, for there is no instance on record where the Republicans ever lost sight of money.

A convention in one of the Pennsylvania counties nominated a man named Lynch for judge, and thereupon there was a kick by a lot of people, who declared that gentleman was holding office in too many places, and they didn't like his kind or law anyhow.

A lot of Republican politicians in San Francisco swindled the Government out of $500,000 in securing a site for the new postoffice. Considering the fact that they were Republican politicians, the Government may consider itself lucky that it was not swindled out of the site, too.

LOCAL DOTS.

How does this sound for the protective tariff helping working men and poor folks? The Springfield, Mass., Republican, says that Massachusetts in 1860 expended for the support of paupers less than $500,000, while in 1890 it cost over $2,000,000. In the meantime the population doubled, while the cost of caring for the paupers increased fourfold. In 1864, there were 5,945 paupers, in 1890, 11,226.

It is hard to get ahead of the hustling politician. Since under the Australian ballot law, which now prevails in a number of Northern States, buying votes isn't such a sure business the Republican hustlers are resorting to the dodge of paying men whom they can buy not to register, which isn't quite as good as buying the vote, but it is the next thing to it.

D. H. Dickinson, a Connecticut farmer, who found a package of 100 thousand-dollar bills under his barn, which had been there a long time and sent them to Washington to have them exchanged for bills of smaller denomination, was a very much disgusted man when they came back to him all punched up and stamped "counterfeit."

MOTZ MURDER TRIAL. Miss Maggie Motz Placed on the Witness Stand. Special Star Telegram. SHELBY, N. C., Oct. 30.—In the Motz trial to-day, examination of the three defendants was completed, and Miss Maggie Motz was placed on the witness stand. She told of her relations with Michael, and charged him with her seduction and ruin. During the recital she was overcome several times and had to stop. Her examination will be continued to-morrow. The trial will last the greater part of next week.

CHAIRETE-PANTES.

The Ball Rolls on Gathering Accretions as it Goes—Will be a Grand Success of Boundless Area.

Lingual apparatus was resting easier yesterday as Chairite-Pantes became more familiar to the popular palate. All became possessed with the most commendable ambition to build up to the unique and pitching nomenclature. Several seemed to think at first the appellation of the infant should be simpler and more pronounceable to un-Greek tongues, but when the virility of the remarkably precocious kid was considered and the name began to fit rounder in the mouth, and be explicated with greater facility, all appeared to acquiesce.

Now, shoulders to the wheel, everybody. Get the elbow-touch and march right on to success over every superincumbent obstacle. Wilmington can do it, and she must and will do it. "United, we stand; divided, we fall," applies to every worthy endeavor that demands concert of action. Remember the fable of the bundle of twigs. While bound together they were irrefragable; separated, they were easily broken. But the grandeur of this occasion, with the far-reaching prospective benefits, bespeaks no internal bickering. All will make a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether.

The following is the Committee on Lights and Transparencies, not "transpiration," as was published yesterday: Thos. C. James, D. MacRae, Jr., H. A. Whiting, W. H. Green, J. R. Turrentine, F. W. Kerchner, O. Hicks, M. J. Corbett, O. M. Fillyaw, and W. R. Kenan.

This is the Reception committee that was appointed yesterday: Mayor A. G. Ricand, chairman; Hon. Geo. Davis, Hon. A. M. Waddell, D. B. Cutlar, Col. John D. Taylor, Dr. A. J. DeRosset, F. A. Newberry, Col. Roger Moore, James Sprunt, M. Bellamy, J. J. Macks, P. B. Manning, B. F. Mitchell, Col. E. D. Hall, F. H. Stedman, Geo. L. Martin, G. Z. French, E. P. Covington, C. W. Worth, E. S. Martin, W. A. Klach, B. F. Hall, Geo. Harriss, M. DeRosset, E. A. Newberry, Col. Roger Moore, Isaac Bates, A. Weill, E. S. Lattimer, Norwood Gips, H. M. Bowden, T. D. Meares, B. H. J. Abrams, G. W. Elliott, W. L. Smith, J. T. Harper, E. Peschau, DuButz Poisson, J. H. Taylor, T. C. James, J. L. Dudley, Washington Catlett, J. R. Nolan, J. R. Williams, M. M. Katz, J. A. Springer, Ed. Borden, J. H. Baldwin, Sol Bear, W. J. Gore.

Prayer and experience meeting of business and working men at 7:30 o'clock to-night at the Seamen's Bethel, to which the ladies and seafaring men are also invited.

The Lily Work of the Temple will be the subject of Rev. Mr. McClure's discourse at St. Andrew's Church to-morrow evening; services beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Willie Register and Joe Bishop took a turn over in Brunswick yesterday and brought back a long string of squirrels. They report that the woods are full of 'em and the sport exhilarating.

St. James' Episcopal Church is to be congratulated on securing the services for the choir of Miss Minnie Schwarz, soprano soloist. She is a vocal artist of rare merit, with a voice rivaling the lute at twilight.

A most intelligent gentleman suggests to a STAR reporter that it would be a fine thing for the city authorities to put sprinklers on the hose and sprinkle the streets, every morning—to which the STAR says amen.

The Y. M. C. A. Hall, in the new building, will be open during the Chairete-pantes, with some musical or other entertainment each night. The ladies are planning to make the Association building one of the most attractive places in town during that occasion.

A special to the Richmond, Va., Times, from Charlotte, N. C., says: "Rev. Dr. Peschau, of Wilmington, and Rev. Mr. Moses, of Monroe, are attempting to stir up an anti-Sam Jones movement in the State. The former has challenged the Rev. Sam Jones to a public debate. The meeting will take place here next week if Mr. Jones is willing."

RIVER AND MARINE. The schooner M. A. Achorn, from New York, arrived yesterday experiencing some severe weather on the voyage, lost sparker-boom and had her sails badly chafed.

General Greely, chief signal officer of the army, has submitted his annual report of the operations of his army corps for the past fiscal year. In an appendix to the report on military and seacoast telegraph lines Major Dunwoody says that the seacoast lines have suffered material interruption during the year on the line from Cape Charles, Va., via Norfolk to Hatteras, N. C. The value of the seacoast line he says has been demonstrated during the past year. Shortly after the loss of the Oregon inlet cable there occurred in the immediate vicinity three shipwrecks, involving the loss of nineteen lives, emphasizing the importance of telegraphic communication along the coast of North Carolina.

The Choir Selected. Mention has been made in the STAR that Rev. A. D. McClure, Pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, would deliver a sermon Sunday morning on "The Lilies on the Pillars of King Solomon's Temple." The ability and eloquence of the preacher will doubtless attract a large congregation, especially of Masons, who will be especially interested in the character of the sermon.

There will be a special choir for the occasion selected by Mr. C. H. Robinson, consisting of himself and Messrs. H. M. Bowden, R. H. Grant, Fletcher Manning, Jas. D. Smith, Whit Toomer, U. M. Robinson and Capt. Geo. Welsh. Mr. E. P. Boatwright will preside at the organ.

The choir is requested to meet in the Lodge room at 8 o'clock this evening for rehearsal.

NOVEMBER WEATHER.

Forecast for the Month as Computed for the Wilmington Station.

The weather chart for the month of November, issued by the local office of the United States Weather Bureau, and which is computed from observations taken here during that month for the past twenty years, shows that the following will probably be the weather conditions at this place during the month in question:

We have slightly warmer weather during the first three days, then a cold change between the 4th and 7th, warmer until the 12th, slight cool changes between the 18th and 19th, still cooler between the 19th and 23rd, then a few days warmer, followed by a decided cold change during the last three days of the month.

The highest temperature during any November was 83° in 1877 and again in 1879; the lowest temperature was 23° in 1880.

We have rain most frequently on the 2nd and 3rd, 8th, 9th and 10th, 18th, 19th and 20th, and 28th and 29th; averaging .09 of an inch per day.

The greatest daily rainfall, in any November, was 2.78 inches on the 14th and 15th, in 1888.

Cloudless days occur about one in every three.

The prevailing wind is northeast, and it blows at an average velocity of seven miles per hour.

The highest hourly velocity of wind in any November was 48 miles from the northeast in 1874, and again in 1877.

OPERA HOUSE.

Mrs. Tom Thumb and Company—Matinee Performance.

Every child in this city should be taken to see Mrs. Tom Thumb and company this afternoon at the grand school matinee. Every school child presenting one of the cards gratuitously distributed yesterday will be admitted at reduced rates—so let every child take a trip to fairy land with the Lilliputians this afternoon. This will, it is announced, be the little lady's farewell visit to this city. Her company includes the Connt and Countess Magri, (the latter being Mrs. Tom Thumb), Count Rosebud, Baron Littlefinger, the original Lilliputians, in a new musical farce comedy, "The Rivals," a company of refined vaudeville artists, and the Royal Japs. Performance begins at 3 o'clock. Admission 25 and 50 cents.

Heavy Gale. Edward Russell, mate of the British steamer Garland, loading at the Champion Compress dock, reports heavy gales and seas on her voyage to this port. She left West Hartlypyol on the 3rd of October, and on Sunday night a hard blow came up and grew worse Monday, the gale increasing in violence and continuing until the 14th. During this time the sails were shattered to shreds, and the seas were high and heavy. Friday, 23rd October, it was especially squally and the seas threatened everything on board and at 9 a. m. a section of the main shaft broke. This was spliced, again broke and was patched up and the rest of the trip was made "dead slow." The Garland did not reach this port until last Tuesday, and her sail still show the marks of her rough voyage.

COTTON FACTS AND FIGURE S. Total net receipts of cotton yesterday at all U. S. ports 49,068 bales. Spot cotton was quiet in New York yesterday, with middling uplands quoted at 8 3/4c.

Receipts of cotton at Wilmington yesterday, 1,922 bales; same date last year 1,480.

Spot cotton declined one-eighth in this market; sales yesterday at 7 3/4c for middling. Quotations same day last year 9 3/4c.

Cotton Region Bulletin. Fair weather prevailed yesterday all over the cotton region. Frosts were reported at many places in the morning, but the temperature averaged higher than on the day before.—The minimum in the Wilmington district was 80 degrees at Cheraw, 89 at Weldon and Newbern, 84 at Goldsboro and Newbern, and 80 at Florence and Raleigh.

PERFORMANCE BY MRS. GEN. TOM THUMB'S LILLIPIANS.

The performance given by the above at the Opera House last night was something rare and entertaining. The programme was well arranged, and these interesting little folks soon became favorites with the audience, who frequently encored them.

Count Magri, in his female impersonation of the Duchess of Devonshire, was simply great, and the pantomimical musical extravaganza, "The Rivals," in which Countess Magri was the beloved, Count Magri the disappointed lover, highly entertained the audience with their fun and humor, rendered with such ease and simplicity.

The Japanese performance was much admired, and the violinist, Amelia Sarti, was several times encored.

Upon the whole this company has proven by its last night's performance that it is one of the most entertaining that has visited the city this season.

They will give a matinee this afternoon and another performance to-night, with an entire change of programme.

The children will find the performance especially amusing, and no one should miss seeing these little folks.

Reported Suicide of Mr. Barnes, Cashier of the Bank of Marlborough, S. C.

The following particulars of the suicide of Mr. J. H. Barnes, cashier of the Bank of Marlborough, at Bennettsville, S. C., Wednesday night, were given to a STAR reporter yesterday:

Wednesday night Mr. Barnes seemed depressed and told his wife he intended to destroy his life. She becoming alarmed hurried to a neighbor for assistance, but when they returned the bloody body of Mr. Barnes was found lying on the floor with a recently discharged pistol lying near. He had placed the muzzle of the weapon in his mouth and sent the ball up through his brain, killing himself almost instantly.

All his accounts were perfectly straight, and it is conjectured that troubles of a domestic character induced the suicide.

Mr. Barnes was a man of high character and a most exemplary citizen, and intelligence of his suicide tell on the public ear like a thunder-clap from a cloudless sky.

Mr. G. B. Lee, of Rocky Point, brought his child, Robert, two years old, down yesterday evening to have a coffee-bean extracted that the little fellow had accidentally swallowed and that had lodged in his windpipe.

Immediately upon arrival the child was carried to the office of Dr. Wood by his father and uncle, B. C. Borden. Dr. Wood called in Drs. Love, Thomas, Burbank and Jewett to assist in the delicate operation. Chloroform was administered to the child and an incision made just over and into the wind pipe. Then they probed up into the mouth and down as far as possible without finding the coffee-bean. The child was under the operation over two hours when he was taken to the Sutton House, accompanied by Dr. Jewett.

What the doctors will do to-day is not known. The child was in a stupor at a late hour last night.

Bound To Be In It. The STAR stated yesterday that every business of respectable proportions was bound to be in the parade with its float. Not one can afford to get left, and sure enough, not one intends to be left. If the court is acquainted with her own identity.

It was suggested yesterday that the stevedores, who represent an important function of business life at this season, should be represented in the parade, as they always are in other seaport towns. The following additional firms handed in their names to the committee yesterday, announcing their intention to have their business floats in the parade:

F. A. Newbury, Carolina Insurance Company, M. S. Willard, Paterson, Downing & Co., Tide Water Oil Co., T. J. Gore, Geo. L. Morton, B. F. Keith, Jr., Braddy & Gaylord, Southern Carriage Repository, and J. C. Stout, contractor.

Yesterday's Weather. The records of the Weather Bureau give the following report of the range of temperature, etc., yesterday: At 8 a. m., 49°; 8 p. m., 53°; maximum temperature, 69°; minimum, 42°; average 48. Prevailing wind, southeast. Total rainfall, .00.

Weather Forecasts. The following are the forecasts for to-day: For Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, generally fair, slightly warmer, southerly winds.

For Eastern Florida, light rain, stationary temperature, and northeasterly winds.

DIED. HEWLETT.—In this city, yesterday morning, at 7:40 o'clock, AARON T. HEWLETT, aged 49 years and 7 months.

The funeral will take place Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, from the residence, No. 515 Nun street, thence to Masonboro Sound.
