Chicago is in some respects a queen town. The newspapers there say that milk goes up while everywhere else it goes down.

As we anticipated, in discussing the result of the case of the Itata when it came to trial, the Judge of the United States Court at Los Angeles has dismissed the case.

The late California earthquake shook things up pretty lively in the Sonoma section, where little springs were turned into gushers and artesian wells of no pretensions into first-class spouters.

Baron Hirsch has purchased 1,000 square miles of land from the Argentine Government, for which he paid $1,000,000. He has purchased it for the purpose of colonizing Hebrew refugees from Europe.

The latest dispatches from Chili are of a less sensational character than those that preceded. The indications now are that the Valparaiso affair will be adjusted without any serious racket.

As a matter of curiosity we'd like to know just what Benj. Harrison and Jam G. Blaine think of the ballot pan out last Tuesday. They both have a special interest in it, as it makes the situation much more interesting and complicated for

The shylock is the same in all countries. Think of men in a country where there are thirty millions of people in a starving condition cornering grain to raise the price as they are now doing in St. Petersburg. Siberia is too cold for them.

The board of directors of the Cumberland Glass Company advertise the payment of a dividend of 100 per cent. As the tariff on glass under the McKinley bill ranges from 68 to 142 per cent. it seems that they might get along with a little less protection.

Ignatius Donnelly has brought two more libel suits against the St. Paul, Minn., Pioneer-Press, one for $100,000 and another for $50,000. If successful in these, if he has the same luck that he had in the case for $100,000 decided last week, he will get $1.50.

Mr. C. Traver, of Texas, proved himself a level-headed gentleman, and that he had a solid grip on the Democratic idea when he said: "The greatest possible security in the possession of property, with the greatest possible freedom in its exchange is the measure of the greatest possible universal prosperity."

The town of Alexandria, Indiana struck a new idea to get rid of gang of roughs who frequented the streets and made going out very unpleasant for the ladies. It hired a prize shoulder hitter and inside of a week he had punched the head of every one of the roughs, and there wasn't one of them to be found anywhere with a search warrant.

case on the tapis in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Mr. La Follette, former Republican Congressman, charging Senator Sawyer with an attempt to bribe him to use his influence with a judge before whom a case in which Sawyer was interested was to be tried, the judge being La Follette's brother-in-law. In consequence of this the judge refused to try the case. Sawyer does not deny offering the money, but says it was only as-a retainer for his legal services. Perhaps on account of the family connection he valued the legal services too highly.

Jokes sometimes prove to be troublesome things, as a London paper discovered last week, which borrowed a bit of fun from a New York comic paper, which ran thus, "What caused the fire at Einstein's-a defective flue?" "No; the insurance," and found itself sued for $50,000-the next day by a sure-enough Mr. Einstein, whose store had just been burned down.

We are in receipt of the State and City supplement issued by the Commercial and Financial Chronicle, of New York, a book of 184 pages filled with statistical tables and facts in reference to the banks, debts and monetary matters of the States, counties and cities of the United States. As a record of ready reference it is invaluable.

CUMBERLAND FAIR.

Formal Opening-A Masterly Address by

Gov. Holt-A Splendid Exhibition in All Departments-Large Attendance-Alliance Day-Balloon Ascension, etc. FAYETTEVIELE, N. C., Nov. 4, 1891. -Nothing is wanting to make the 29th Annual Fair of the Cumberland County

Agricultural Society a splendid success. The exhibition is here. In all departments the exposition of the earth's products, of the outcome of man's industry, of the triumph of woman's handicraft, are ranged in the different halls of the great central building with matchless taste and in generous profusion. The showing of live stock is especially creditable, and is very gratifying to those who see in it substantial evidence of improvement in the methods of agriculture throughout this State.

The secretary states that in the number of entries, and the really fine quality of the articles, this Fair promises to surpass all its predecessors.

At 11.30 a. m. the procession, in charge of Chief Marshal W. B. D aughon and his assistants, and escorted by the splendid band of the Independent Light Infantry, attended to the grounds Gov. Holt, orator of the day, who has been the guest, at beautiful Tokay, of Hon. Wharton J. Green. At 12 m. his Excellency formally opened the Fair in an address so strong and masterly as to entitle him to a high place not only as the "business," but the "speaking" Governor of North Carolina.

Friday is "Alliance Day," at which time Mr. Marion Butler, President of the State Alliance, and Hon. Harry Skinner are on the programme to speak. They will doubtless attract a large crowd.

We have never before had here such fine racing stock-horses with records of 2:16 and upward-and the trials of speed will be well worth looking at. The purses are liberal. Balloon ascensions will take place this evening and to-morrow. The german comes off to-nigh the Grand Fair Ball Friday night, and there are many lovely women present from all parts of the State to participate, and capture the susceptible heart by their Crowds are pouring into town every hour, and to-morrow-the great daythere will probably be an unprecedented attendance.

The Federal Court.

The United States Court, Judge A. S. Seymour presiding, met again yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. J. C. Daniels, Esq., of Goldsboro, was observed in Court. James G. Kenan, of Duplin county, was excused from further service as a juror and returned home.

The grand jury came into open court and presented a true bill against John Witherspoon, a colored boy, for breaking into a postoffice. The defendant claimed that his witnesses were not present and he had no money to pay for summoning them, whereupon the Court asked Marsden Bellamy, Esq., to draw the proper affidavit, setting forth these facts, and the case was then removed to the November term of the Court at Raleigh, and the government witnesses were recognized to appear there. On motion of the United States District Attorney, H. B. Register, of Whiteville, Columbus county, was appointed a United States Commissioner of the Circuit Court. Information was filed by the United States Attorney against Hillary Radford, of Wayne county, for using postage stamps after they had been once used. Attorney Daniel appeared for the defendant and submitted to a verdict of guilty. The United States Attorney stated that, considering the extreme youth of the defendant and some mitigating circumstances, judgment was not prayed, and the defendant was discharged upon payment of costs. The petite jury was discharged at 12 m., and the grand jury at 1 p. m. The Court will meet at 8 a. m. today for the purpose of signing bills, and adjourn for the term.

The Welcome Week a Fixed Fact - The Executive Committee Determined to Carry it Through.

The Executive Committee for Wilmington's Welcome Week met last night in the law office of Mayor Ricaud. There were present Maj. T. D. Love, chairman, Mr. G. G. Lewis, secretary and Mr. J. Allen Taylor, treasurer. Various matters were discussed pertaining to every branch of the work to be done and a course of action determined upon. It was resolved that the Welcome Week should be held at all hazards and the committee would go to work more earnestly than ever. They will urge the Finance Committee to lay the matter before the well-to-do citizens to subscribe. An encouraging amount has already been subscribed, but not sufficient to make such a display as would be worthy of North Carolina's chief and largest city.

Weather Forecasts.

The following are the forecasts for to-

For Virginia, warmer, southerly winds and fair, increasing cloudiness and light showers Thursday night, warmer and probably fair Friday.

For North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Eastern Florida, warmer. winds generally southerly, fair weather, warmer and generally fair Friday.

OPERA HOUSE.

'A Breezy Time," and a Good Time for Everybody.

A large audience was present at the Opera House last night to witness the rendition of the "Musical Farce Comedy entitled "A Breezy Time." This play is one of the best that has been presented in our city this season, and it is evident that the audience was more than pleased.

The whole performance from beginning to end was something entirely new, and it is hard to say what part was most admired, or what actor or actress did the best. Mr. E. B. Fitz, the manager, who played the most important role, is a comedian of rare ability, and his power on the stage was early discovered.

Miss Kathrine Webster soon became the favorite of the audience, and took well in both her roles as Daisy Lightfoot and Charles Fairweather. She proved herself to be 'a budget of fun,' indeed. The others who acquitted themselves handsomely were Mr. Thayer as Jack Danber, and Walter Mock as Smiley Spoons, John F. Birch as Blotz, Mrs. Dooly and Ambrosia Merrifield.

The dancing was fine and the music seemed to be almost without comparison in its line.

The ladies of the audience seemed to be the most pleased, and no company would again be more heartily welcomed to the city than this.

The next attraction at the Opera House is Milton Nobles, in his new play entitled "The Son of Thespis," which appears next Friday night.

Mistire.

Frank Donaldson, a gay lathario of deep brunette type, was up yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Lizzie Walker, colored, for breach of promise of of marriage under the criminal statute, before Justice Bunting.

Rather than reap the penalty, Frank agreed to wed Lizzie, and the nuptial knot was to be tied until death or divorce by Justice Bunting in his court room at 6 o'clock yesterday evening.

The smiling prospective bride was willing, ready and waiting. Newspaper reporters and other invited friends were present and a dense crowd of colored curiosity seekers thronged the anteroom. Presently the expected groom arrived, conveyed by his father who had stood the bond for his son's appear-

All stood up with hats off. "Let me have the license," asked the Justice. "We ain't got no license," said the father, "kase we thought as how you'd | ton region yesterday. The temperature issue de license." "I can't issue a marriage license; you must go to the Register of Deeds, and I can't marry you without a license." Then all were bound over, or recognized to appear at 10 this morning, when the marriage will be duly solemn-

As the disappointed bride left, her lotte. features were wrought into mosaics, resembling a cross between a faint, a frown and an impending smile.

St. James' Home.

The STAR is requested to remind the friends of St. James Home and the citizens generally, that the "Annual Pound Party" in aid of that long established and valuable institution, will take place to-day, Thursday, Novem-

Contributions of supplies and articles of any kind for the use of the household, are solicited and will be gratefully received. Sister Cecilia and the other ladies in charge will gladly welcome all guests who may call during the afternoon and evening.

The Rev. John G. Fawcett, who has just commenced his duties as chaplain of the Mission, will also be present and will be pleased to see all who may feel an interest in the work. In furnishing free education to many children who could not otherwise have the benefit of such instruction and in promoting the moral and religious welfare of a large number of our people, as well as in dispensing regular charitable services to the sick and needy, the influence and work of "the Home" are so well known that it is scarcely necessary to say more than to call attention to them. Gifts of money are at all times highly appreciated and are needed for promoting the charitable objects for which the institution was established and has been conducted for more than twenty years.

COTTON FACTS AND FIGURES. - Net receipts at all U. S. ports yesterday 62,029 bales.

- Receipts of cotton yesterday 1,576 bales; same date last year, 1582. -Market quoted steady with sales on a basis of 8% cents for middling. - A large cotton buyer of Spartanburg, S. C., made a proposition to the Spartanburg Alliance to advance money on their cotton at 6 per cent and hold till next August. So strong is the faith in a short crop that they believe prices will go up. The cotton now opening is very light and the yield of lint is small. - The Manchester, England, Guardian, in its commercial article says the market is quieter with lessened demand. Large daily receipts of cotton at American ports are inducing merchants to act in an exceedingly cautious manner. Many of the offers indicate that foreign customers are looking for low prices prevalent during the Summer.

The Driest of Dry Weather.

The month of October just passed has been one of the driest of which the Weather Bureau has record. Over the greater portion of the States located in the central valleys throughout the Southern States, except along the immediate Atlantic coast, the rainfall for the month amounted to only about ten to twenty per cent. of the average, and in many portions of the Southern States there was a total absence of rain or only light showers, giving an inappreciable amount, leaving the ground very dry and the streams low.

Dry weather also continued generally throughout the Northern States, and the month closes leaving the winter-wheat crop in a critical condition, as the most of it was planted in dry soil and there has not been sufficient rain to give it strength enough to resist the cold of

The conditions may be greatly improved, however, by generous rains and moderate weather during November.

More than the usual amount of rain fell along the Atlantic coast from Boston to Hatteras and in southwest Florida, on the North Pacific coast, and over portions of Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, the Dakotas and Montana. No rain occurred in California, except in the extreme northern portion. At the close of the month snow covered the ground from northern Minnesota westward over northern Mon-

Cotton Region Bulletin. Fair weather prevailed over the cotwas low in most of the districts, the average minimum ranging from 34 to 56 degrees. In the Wilmington district the minimum temperatures reported were 34 degrees at Lumberton and Weldon, 32 at Cheraw, 36 at Florence, Ralegh and Wadesboro, 38 at Wilmington
