In the matter of destructive earthquakes and storms Japan seems to be in the lead.

Now that the election is over the Chilian affair will wag along without any undue precipitation.

The racket in Brazil seems to be about a little veto. It would be a good thing for these countries if there was more veto and less racket.

If there be any Southern men still nursing the third party idea they can take a suggestive hint from the People's party pan out in the West last Tuesday.

The busy little bee don't figure much in the industrial statistics of this country but it gets in its work with about $10,000,000 worth of honey and wax yearly. Sulker Jones, of New York State, hasn't as far as heard from congratulated anybody, not even himself, and nobody has congratulated Jones, whose name is now Denis.

According to the Treasury statement just issued the increase in circulation last month was $33,816,125. This is about 50 cents per capita. Our 50 cents haven't arrived yet.

Out of 420,000 votes cast in Iowa last Tuesday, the great People's Party managed to squeeze in about 15,000. It didn't prove to be even a robust infant, but simply a bust.

Farmer Wheeler, of Iowa, can now give his undivided attention to his 600 hogs and $600 diamond breast-pin, while Gov. Boies will continue to run the Governorship in his usual way.

The Chilians seem to be going around looking for a coat tail to tread upon. Not satisfied with jumping on those American sailors in Valparaiso, they are inviting a dispute with Germany by insulting two German naval officers.

It is not at all improbable that Englishmen in Chili have been encouraging the anti American feeling, and it is stated that one reason why the little Republic bucks up so to Uncle Sam is because it is counting on the backing of England in the event of a racket.

If these head breaking denizens of Dublin and Cork can't restrain themselves, they might find a field for their pugnacity by going to China and taking a hand in the rumpus over there. In doing this they would at least not bring shame and trouble to their own country.

Mr. Neidringhaus, of St. Louis, the man who runs that little tin-plate shop, predicts that within twelve years this country will produce its own tin-plate cheaper than Wales can furnish it. This means, of course, that he expects the high tin tax to last twelve years, when the people will have paid in the aggregate $192,000,000, all of which will have been pocketed by the tin-plate frauds.

Next to the man that wins in a political melee the man to be congratulated is the fellow who takes his defeat cheerfully and philosophically, like a full-grown, well-built American citizen. That sort of a fellow never desponds, always comes up cheery and smiling for the next fight and generally wins in the long

It is considered a matter sufficient ly remarkable for publication that an Indiana man put his hand on a woodcock, and that it did not move nor

In his last speech in Massachusetts, Sam. Small, of Georgia, "thanked God" that he was not a Democrat. No one ever suspected God of having anything to do with Sam. Small's politics, nor Sam. of having stability enough to be anything very long. Where Sam. stands politically is a very small matter.

Until Death or Divorce.

The course of true love may not always run smooth, but it is apt to get there after awhile after a fashion. So the misfire wedding which failed to come off Wednesday evening before Judge R. H. Bunting's nuptial bureau got in on time yesterday morning at 10 o'clock between Frank Donaldson and Lizzie Walker, both of severe color.

Justice Bunting wouldn't tune the machine until the costs were pay by the groom, then he made the agitated pair stand up and join hands. Then he got up, cleared his throat and pulled down his yest and read the service. When Frank was expected to respond "I will," he said "Oh, yes," in erescindo. No salutation was passed between the officer of the State and the bride, but he said "I wish you unbounded happiness, good peace and greater prosperity; may roses cover your pathway and may your household increase forty fold." A colored friend then presented the happy, blushing bride with a yawping hunk of baker's bread and the wedding feast went merely on.

Mr. Robert Levering, manager of the Baltimore Coffee Exchange, received too messages from Rio by way of New York. One of them stated that the President of the new republic had dissolved Congress, and the other conveyed the information that a dictatorship and martial law had been declared. Love.

SOUTHPORT-CHICAGO.

Brunswick County Commissioners Order An Election on Tuesday, December 22nd, 1891, to Decide Whether the County Shall Subscribe $100,000 to the Brunswick, Western and Southern Railroad Company.

Dr. Frank Ullery, Vice-President. and Capt. H. H. Dougherty, general manager of the Brunswick, Western and Southern Railroad Company, came up from Southport yesterday evening and the latter was seen by a STAR reporter and the following information was gleaned: These gentlemen, for the company. propose to defray all the expenses of an election in Brunswick county to determine whether the county would subscribe $100,000 to the capital stock of said company and offered to put up $1,500 as a guarantee of good faith that the company would comply with its promises. It agrees, if the county should subscribe, that the line shall be completed from Wilmington to Southport and five miles beyond in eight months and on to the South Carolina line within eighteen months.

The $1,500 has been placed in a bank

In consideration of the above, the Board of County Commissioners of Brunswick have ordered an election to be held on Tuesday, the 22nd day of December, on "for" or "against" subscription. It will be profitable to note what the company has already done as an evidence of their intentions. They are sain to have purchased about $45,000 worth of Southport and Brunswick county real property, paying $15,350 for Southport property, including a water front in the 227 acres acquired, and the property for a coaling station cost $12,000. This with other tracts foot up the $45,-000. This surely has the appearance of business as viewed by a business man. The company has already acquired about 300 feet of water front at Wil-

"And what will be the route to the West?" inquired the reporter of General Manager Dougherty. "Well," replied Capt. Dougherty we will cross near Upper Town Creek Bridge west of Wilmington, thence to Southport, and from there to Shallotte, in Brunswick county. From there we will go to Marion, S. C., thence to Greenville, S. C., and to Knoxville, Tenn., and there we will get connections to Chicago. By this route we will place Chicago 160 miles nearer to deep water than by any other. The men at the head of the company are abundantly able and most willing to carry out this scheme in every detail, and it will be pushed rapidly to completion." The officers of this road are Geo. L. Dunlap, President; F. B. Ullery, Vice President; J. D. Bellamy, Jr., Secretary and Treasurer; H. H. Dougherty, General Manager. Directors, Geo. L. Dunlap, Geo. H. Bliss, B. F. Uliery, Chicago; J. D. Bellamy, Jr., R. W. Hicks, W. E. Worth, Wilmington, N. C.; H. H. Dougherty, Newark, N. J.; E. B. Stevens, W. H. Pike, Southport. The President, Mr. Geo. L. Dunlap, is general manager of the Chicago and Northwestern R. R. Capt. H. H. Dougherty, the general manager, is a civil engineer and enjoys a wide celebrity in connection with the construction of the most famous cantalever bridges in this country and South America.

The road, when built, will have about seventy miles of railroad in Brunswick county, and the shops and terminals of the road will be at Southport.

An application for a subscription of $100,000 was also made to the County Commissioners of Brunswick by vice-President Morton, of the Cape Fear & Cincinnati R. R., to be determined by an election. But the B., W. & S. R. R. had the drop.

Mr. Geo. F. Bliss, of Chicago, treasurer of the Brunswick Southern & Western R. R., will arrive in this city Saturday night, and next week he and Dr. Frank Ullery will go to New York on matters pertaining to their road.

Death no Respector of Persons.

Many are the heartfelt regrets and warm sympathies expressed in this community at the sad and unexpected death of Mr. Du Brutz Poisson, who died at his residence in this city on Second street near Ann, of typhoid fever, about 11 a.m. yesterday.

He was in his twenty-seventh year and numbered all among his friends who are now mourners. His was a bright character of many noble traits, and his demise leaves an aching void. He was sick just a week. The funeral will take place this morning at 11 o'clock, from St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Mrs. Mary Love, wife of Mr. Thomas L. Love, was stricken with heart disease yesterday about 2 p. m., and died in a few minutes, at the residence of her husband in this city. Though she had been ailing for some time, the sudden end of her life was not expected, and when Mr. Love returned to dinner his wife was a corpse. Mr. E. J. Moore, recently deceased, was a brother of Mrs. OPERA HOUSE.

Milton and Dollie Nobles To-Night-"A Son of Thespis."

Under the above quaint title Mr.

Nobles has written what he confidently believes to be his best play. This play will be produced to-night. The story deals with the fortunes of a young man, who, in 1861 was the leading actor of a New York theatre. He is secretly married to a young society girl, the daughter of a banker. The bank becomes involved through the scheming of the junior partner, whose suit has been rejected by his senior's daughter. The forgeries that wreck the bank are skillfully contrived to appear the work of the actor, who has temporarily left the stage, and is filling the position of secretary to the banker. So direct does the evidence of his guilt appear that for a moment his young wife seems to doubt him. Crushed and humiliated he enters the army under an assumed name. Eighteen years elapse between the first and the subsequent acts. We next meet the actor as the "Palmy Day Tragedian," an old time actor, The character is of that serio-comic kind which Mr. Nobles has made famous. A daughter is born to the actor just after his departure for the seat of war. The wife and mother remains true to the memory of her husband. A meeting and reconciliation is finally brought about through the offices of Col. Tom Alchestra, of Texas; the Colonel is an ex-Confederate soldier who met the actor-soldier on the battlefield and between the old Federal and Confederate a warm friendship exists. Dollie Nobles will play the old actor's daughter. The scenes between the father and daughter, each ignorant of the other's identity, will furnish the pathos of the story. The first act, which is short, is entirely serious. In the subsequent acts Mr. Nobles gives free swing to his comedy characters, checking them only for the climaxes, all of which are States ports yesterday, 45,402 bales. - Receipts of cotton here yesterday ,445 bales; receipts the corresponding day last year, 506 bales. The market was steady with sales on a basis of 75%c. for middling.

- Savannah News: The convention which met in Atlanta for the purpose of agreeing upon a plan for reducing the amount of cotton produced does not seem to have done enything that will effect the object aimed at. The report that was adopted recommends that the cotton acreage be reduced one-third, and that on large plantations only twelve acres to the plow be planted. The recommendation is a good one, but will it have the effect which the cotton planters dessre? It is quite certain that t will not. Col. Livingston, who was a member of the committee which made the report, said in some remarks he made to the convention, that general practical co-operation in reducing the acreage was difficult to accomplish. It he had said that it was something that could not be accomplished he would have come near the mark. As far back as the oldest inhabitant can remember there has been talk about reducing the acreage of cotton whenever the price of cotton has been below the profit line. But the talk never had any effect as far as anybody could see in reducing the acreage.

Rev. Sam, Jones at Charlotte. Rev. Sam. Jones began his meetings in Charlotte Wednesday last. The Chronicle quotes him as saying:

"Well, I am here," said the speaker. 'I am going to say just what I want to; if I want to be vulgar I'm going to be, (but I never was in my life); if I want to cuss you out I'm going to do it. Don't talk about me being vulgar; any town the size of Charlotte that can stand fifteen nasty saloons can stand any-

Courts of Two Justices.

Robert Brandon, a colored barber, was up on a peace warrant sworn out beore Justice R. H. Bunting, by Mary Lane: colored, yesterday; Mr. John D. Bellamy of the legal firm of Marsden Bellamy & Son, appearing for the defendant. Upon the proper affidavit the case was removed to the court of Justice J. J. Fowler who, after hearing the evidence, bound the defendant in a bond of $50 to keep the peace.

A warrant was issued by Justice Fowler against a white man for assault on Robert Neal. M. Bellamy. Esq., represented the State, and A. J. Marshall, Esq., the defence. The case was removed on affidavit to Justice Bunting's court and, after a long and tedious trial, Justice Bunting unravelled it by adjudging the defendant guilty and imposing a fine of one penny and costs.

time the wreck will be removed. A small fish boat from Elizabeth City, N. C., loaded with supplies for Charles ton, S. C., and being unable to make the harbor owing to heavy weather, endeavored to get back to Elizabeth City. Finding that he would be unable to reach that point, Capt. Coleson put in to Brown's Inlet. When just about to cross the surf, the boat turned completely over, throwing everything out. Capt. Coleson lost everything but his boat, which is now lying at Dosher, St. George & Co's wharf, awaiting a purchaser.

Wilmington's Welcome Week, born out of the glorious motto "Chairete-Pantes," is waxing stronger with each day. The more the minds of citizens dwell on the joys and benefits to be derived by the city out of the jubilating occasion, the more anxious are they to make a grand success of it. Major T. D. Love, Chairman of the Executive Committee, Mr. J. Allen Taylor, Treasurer-indeed, all the leaders-say the thing must come off in grand proportions. No grass, rest assured, has the Finance Committee permitted to grow under their feet. The welcoming occasion will be a long stride in the right direction for Wilmington. Why, friends, far and near, are already getting out their Sunday clothes and saving their pocket money for a royal time with music galore, fireworks extraordinary, a trade's parade magnificent, trips to the ocean delightful and a welcome, the widest and warmest they ever enjoyed.
