OUTLINES.

The Rankin Manufacturing Co., of Nashville,- Tenn., has made an assignment; liabilities $133,000. Henry Curtis, negro, was hanged at Portsmouth, Va., vesterday for murder. - Indictments have been found in the U. S. Court at San Antonio, Texas, against officers of the Louisiana Lottery Co., and warrants have been issued for their arrest. - The revolution in Brazil is assuming proportions; the provinces of Para and Rio Grande do Sul have declared their independence, and the province of Bahia will soon follow; President Fonseca is moving to put down these revolts. - Cotton returns of the Department of Agriculture are not favorable to a high rate of yield. Boies' plurality for Governor of Iowa will be between 8,000 and 9,000. -New York markets: Money easy at 4@6 per cent.; closing offered at 4 per cent.; cotton dull; middling uplands 81/4 cents; middling Orleans 8 11-16 cents; Southern flour quiet; wheat lower and moderately active for export and milling; No. 2 red $1.051/2 in store and at elevator; corn unsettled and moderately active at 78@80 cents afloat; rosin steady and quiet; strained, common to good $1 321/2@ 1 40; spirits turpentine quiet and steadier at 36@361/2 cents.

There will be six contested seats in the next House of Representatives, three by Republicans and three by Democrats.

Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, says it was the free coinage brick that hit him, and laid him out.

President Da Fonscea seems to be getting up a lay out for Brazil similar to that which Balmaceda got up for Chili, which finally laid him out.

John McLean failed to wire his congratulations to McKinley and by a singular oversight McKinley failed to wire his thanks to John McLean.

The National Barber is the latest young shaver, in the journalistic line. It will doubtless abound in keen-edged remarks, but should avoid cuts.

It is a mistake about that 40,000,-000 gallons surplus of tangle-foot in Kentucky. We always regarded that statement, coming from Kentucky, as a staggerer.

Ohio claims about 1,100 square miles of Indiana territory, and Indiana to get even, claims a big hunk of Illinois, which includes Chicago and the World's Fair.

A New York chemist has discovered that there are 1,045 different and distinct nuisances on the water shed from which Gotham draws her supply of drinking water. No wonder the average New York man don't

Some Missouri men are very candid. One who was hanged last week said he expected to make that kind of an exit, and that if the authorities had attended to their business he should have been hanged thirty years before.

The Cincinnati Times-Star says James Gordon Bennett, owner of the New York Herald, has never voted. Since Mr. Bennett has become of age he has not lived in this country long enough at a time to realize that he was a citizen.

According to the census the population of Mississippi is 1,289,600 against 1,131,597 in 1880, showing an increase of only 158,003 in ten years. Eleven of the seventy-five countries show a decrease, attributed to the migration of the colored people.

Ohio has a queer way of encouraging the quality of stick and perseverance. They have just sent a man to jail because he tried twice to shoot himself and then to hang himself and failed. If they had let him alone a while longer he might have got the hang of it.

A Chicago man sued a railroad company for one hundred thousand dollars damages for the death of his wife, caused by an accident on the road. And thereupon the railroad's lawyers went to raking among the records and found that a short while before the accident he had filed a petition for divorce, from which it seems that some Chicago men put a higher valuation upon dead wives than upon live ones.

STILL AGLOW.

Wilmington's Welcome Week is Still Bounding Toward the Pinnacle of Glorious Success.

Everything relating to the details of the arrangements to amuse the thousands of visitors during the Welcome Week, from the 1st to the 5th of December, is moving merrily, easily, gracefully on to the goal of success.

The Fireworks Committee have closed a contract for the most magnificent pyrotechnic display ever beheld in the State, with the company who furnished the works and made the exhibition at the opening of the great Brooklyn bridge. They are at the head of all manufacturers of fireworks in the United States and they will send a man to display them. The designs will be new and decidedly entrancing. This exhibition alone will be worth a trip of hundreds of miles to view. .

The traveling salesmen, seventy-five in number, will be represented in the Trades Parade, and this will be a gorgeous and unique feature, as the drummers never "get left" when they fairly hump themselves. They will hold a meeting at an early date and perfect all arrangements. Look out for the gay and festive mercantile meanderers. The amount of personal pulchritude they will project into the parade will be a "fetching" feature.

All merchants desiring to have floats in the procession are requested to hand in their names to Mr. J. F. Post, Jr., chairman of the Parade Committee, or to Mr. E. H. Sneed, chairman of the sub-committee on floats.

WILFRED CLARKE

And the Ford English Comedy Company. Lovers of the legitimate drama will have a rare dramatic treat at the Opera House to-night. The occasion will be the presentation of Dr. Goldsmith's great comedy "She Stoops to Conquer," by the English Comedy Company from the Grand Opera House. Baltimore, under the personal direction of Manager Ford. The star comedian is Mr. Wilfred Clarke, a nephew of Edwin Booth, and son of the eminent John S. Clarke. The press everywhere are warm in the praise of this company and their work in starting English comedy. The proper study of mankind is man, in life and on the stage-the mirror of life; what he is, is still greater than what he can do, the master-work of nature is paramount to any one of his, though he pile Pelion on Ossa and outrival Hercules. The dynamic forces of humanity, their action and reaction, their spring and their recoil, their struggle and effects, their triumphs and defeatsthese will keep vitality in a play in spite of time and change. It is these forces which make the old English comedy go, This is particularly true of "She Stoops to Conquer," which is classic, and ranks with "As You Like It," and Sheridan's "Rivals." It is spoken of as being rendered by this company with every attention to artistic detail, and will doubtless draw a large audience from the most cultured circles of Wilmington.

Cruelty to Animals. A spirit of humanity was observed yesterday in front of Justice Bunting's office. A crowd was inspecting a spectral, bay dray horse that had the appearance of having been long divorced from a sufficiency of provender. His sides and back under the badly packed cart saddle were denuded of big areas of skin and festering running sores had formed on the raw places. For the alleged brutal treatment of night. It is thought to have resulted this animal George Applewhite, alias Williams' colored, was arrested on a warrant and his case set for this morning at 10 o'clock, by Justice Bunting.

John Holmes, colored, was also arrested for cruelty to another beast and was bound over for trial at the same time. Rocky Mount Fair.

A correspondent of the STAR, writing from Rocky Mount, says there will be a debate on the Sub-Treasury plan on Friday, Nov. 18th. Mr. A. H. Williams, of Oxford, a member-elect from the Fifth Congressional district, will speak in advocacy of the proposition, and Mr, H. C. Bourne, of Edgecombe county, will speak in opposition.

A Captured Wild Cow Delighteth the Multitude.

She was a sort of brindled, mullheaded cow, and had jumped ashore from the ferry boat and was placing huge hunks of real estate between herself and her pursuers.

Up Market and down Front streets she cavorted, with low head and high tail, as the crowd pursuing gained accretions as the procession passed swiftly onward. The cow was hemmed in and captured near Front street market.

Then the crowd closed in. One man got a halter on the animal's head, another ringed the tail and the procession guided by a policeman or two passed in this fashion up Front street. Thus the large and variegated crowd were mightily amused for half an

Gone to Castle Hayne, Col. P. F. Faison, President of the Board of Directors of the State Penetentiary, and Messrs. W. J. Hicks, Warden, and T. L. Emry, spent Monday night in the city and went up to Castle Hayne yesterday morning.

The owners of the Castle Hayne phosphate beds have applied, so the reporter learned from Capt. T. L. Emry, for a hundred convicts to work these beds and these gentlemen came down, for the purpose of inspecting the character of the work, and, if everything is satisfactory, to contract with the owners for the convicts.

They were not, as was reported, looking for a farm to lease near this city, for the purpose of employing convicts upon
