

Castoria

For Infants and Children.

Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I use Castoria in my practice, and find it specially adapted to affections of children."
A. C. ROBINSON, M. D.,
107 3d Ave., New York.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

Lowell, Mass.

The Morning Star.

HE HAD BEEN THERE.

When a man ain't got a cent, and he's feeling kind o' blue,
An' the clouds hang dark an' heavy an' won't let the sunshine through.
It's a great thing, O, my brethren, for a feller just to lay
His hand upon your shoulder in a friendly sort o' way.

It makes a man feel curious, it makes the tear drop fall.
An' you feel a sort o' flutter in the region of your heart.
You can't look up an' meet his eyes; you don't know what to say,
When his hand is on your shoulder in that friendly sort o' way.

O' the world's a curious compound, with its honey and its gall,
With its cares and bitter crosses, but a good world after all.
And the good God must have made it—leastways that's what I say
When a hand rests on my shoulder in a friendly sort o' way.

—Selected.

SUNDAY SELECTIONS.

The clever thing to do is to find out people's merits.—Arthur Helps.

He that buys and lies, shall find the lie left in his purse behind.—Cervantes.

Nature has made occupation a necessity to us; society make it a duty; habit make it a pleasure.—Capelle.

He who chooses the right and shuns the base, has the Eternal for his friend, brother and father.—Zoroaster.

The great need of Christians is the clear discernment of the Son of God as leader in this mighty work.—Dr. Storrs.

I have had many things in my hands, and I have lost them all; but what I have been able to place in God's, I still possess.—Luther.

The Lord's manifestation becomes revelation to some and to others, not because of differences in God or in his manifestations, but because of differences of men.—Albion W. Small.

The lowly valley in which we meet our friends and business associates, ought to be just as verdant and well watered as those Sabbath elevations on which we see no man but Jesus only.—Dr. Theodore L. Cuyler.

Christ asks that our love should resemble his, if it cannot equal it. A peal of dew cannot hold the sun, but it may hold a spark of its light. A child by the sea trying to catch the waves cannot hold the ocean in a tiny shell, but it can hold a drop of the ocean water.—Stanford.

Justifying faith implies not only a evidence, or conviction, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself, but a sure trust and confidence, that Christ died for my sins; that He loved me and gave Himself for me. And the moment a penitent sinner believes this, God pardons and absolves him.—Wesley.

The effect of a burden upon us depends very much on how we carry it. If we stoop over, and carry it with a heavy heart, it becomes very great, and we break down under it. But if we manfully lift it up to the shoulder, and cheerfully meet our duty, the burden becomes lighter, and we ourselves become more erect and stronger in carrying it.—United Presbyterian.

Purity is power. The rose, among the sweetest and most beautiful of God's creations, is armed with thorns, nature's sharp bayonets for warding off attack. Purity is the defence of beauty; modesty is the safeguard of innocence. "Keep thyself pure." The severe chastity which repels familiarity is an absolute essential for the safety of the soul, as general attractiveness is for its beauty.—A. J. Gordon.

What is it to give? To give is to impart benefits freely, out of good will. Freely ye have received, freely give. Give yourselves—give as Christ gave—as the apostles gave. Pierce to the kernel those Christian paradoxes that we boast of, by losing love by duty, and receive by giving. Go where duty calls, where there is ignorance to be enlightened, suffering to be relieved, vice to be reclaimed, character to be improved. These are works that must be done by living men and women.—Mark Hopkins.

POLITICAL POINTS.

While McKinley has 21,511 majority for Governor in Ohio the other eight Republican candidates for State offices have majorities varying from 27,061 to 29,442. The highest majority on the State ticket is 7,911 larger than McKinley's.—Phil. Times, Ind.

General Russell A. Alger has again declared for Blaine. The General works this on a system. Whenever he feels that the newspapers are not taking due notice of him he goes out and declares for Blaine, as above. It always brings pleasing results, and it is needless to say that the General is glad he discovered the system.—N. Y. Advertiser, Ind.

Mr. McKinley is the logical candidate of the Republican party for the Presidency next year. He represents and embodies the idea of Protection in its pure and undiluted form. His election to the Governorship of Ohio gives him a boost that adds wonderfully to his availability. To nominate Mr. Blaine would be to forsake the line of policy laid down in the McKinley tariff, and to venture into the doubtful and debatable field of international dicker in the matter of tariffs. Between Harrison and Blaine the nomination may drop into the lap of McKinley.—Phil. Record, Dem.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Light-house.

Mrs. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at R. R. BELLAMY'S Drugstore.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

Roanoke Beacon: We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. J. E. Vincent, which occurred at Whaleyville, Va., on Tuesday.

Wadesboro Messenger-Intelligencer: It is a remarkable fact that out of a white population of about 900 there has been only one death in Wadesboro during this year.

Durham Sun: Mr. R. H. Fleming, a prominent citizen of Creedmoor, fell from a building yesterday and was very badly hurt. One arm and several ribs were broken.

Statesville Landmark: The Presbyterians of Statesville are to have a new church building—they have taken hold of the matter with a spirit which leaves no doubt upon this point.

Rocky Mount Argonaut: The low price of cotton is causing many of our farmers to hold. The estimate for the crop of this year is nearly as large as that of last year, which was the largest ever made.

Kinston Free Press: Burwell, the three-year old son of Mr. J. B. Temple, whose clothing caught fire and badly burned him Wednesday morning week, died the next day from the injuries received and was buried Friday.

Elizabeth City Carolinian: The peanut crop is reported fairly good. The town of Roper, over the Sound, is rapidly becoming a live industrial center. It contains about 150 buildings, four lumber mills, and gives employment to 500 people.

Clinton Caucasian: Mr. Frank Lewis died at his home in Clinton, last Friday, after a very painful sickness.

The Colored Fair, of Sampson county, will be held December 16th, 17th, 18th and 19th, 1891, on the grounds of the Sampson County Agricultural Society.

Charlotte News: A gold mine has been discovered on what is known as the Bett's place, about three miles southwest of Asheboro. The property on which the mine is located was recently purchased for its timber by the Asheboro Lumber Company. They have put hands to work to open up the mine.

Monroe Enquirer: Mrs. Tabscott was found dead in her bed Tuesday morning. She was 83 years of age and was one of the landmarks of the town. The remains are to be interred this afternoon.—The young man Allen who was scalded in the accident on the G. C. & N., near Abbeville Tuesday night of last week, died of his injuries. He was a son of Mr. Ermon Allen, of Concord, formerly of Peace Creek.

Windsor Ledger: While Mr. W. J. Myers, who lives about four miles from Windsor, was digging mail on his farm last week he found seven feet underground the half of an iron staple four inches long. This shows conclusively that when that part of this county was under water somebody dropped the piece of iron overboard on a boat. The presence of mail is evidence of the land being under water at some remote period.

Wilkesboro Chronicle: We had but a light crop of chestnuts and no acorns this season. One may ride for miles through the country and not see a single acorn in the road—something never noticed before by our oldest inhabitants. They were all killed by the big May frost. There were wild grapes and the persimmon crop was nearly a failure. Yet the opossum crop is abundant, and they are fat, too. That rather explodes the idea that possums and persimmons go together.

Rockingham Rocket: We have never seen business men wear such a gloomy countenance in view of the financial outlook of the country. They say business has been dull to dull to 15 years. On Wednesday morning of last week, Mr. Thomas Gibson, aged about 72 years, was found dead in the road near Ghio. On the evening prior, he parted with some friends a short distance from where his body was found, and it is supposed he died Tuesday evening. The cause of his death is not known, but supposed to have been heart disease.

Wilson Advance: Cotton is not coming in very rapidly. Farmers are holding for better prices. In a private letter to the editor, Mr. W. F. May, of Hunts, Nash county, says the cotton crop is shorter than in 1889, or not more than one half of a crop will be made in this section. Mr. Samuel Thorne, of Airlee, Halifax county, has lost his gin house by fire. He also lost forty bales of cotton. This is the second similar loss he has sustained in the past two years. Wilson's inventive genius, Messrs. Dave Nolly and Joseph Kavan, have jointly invented and patented a picket fence as a fence. The pickets are strung on wires, which being crimped hold them steady and secure.

Chatham Record: Mr. James N. Green, of Hickory Mountain township, died last Sunday morning, aged about 49 years. Mr. C. C. Condon of Albright township, informs that the farmers of that section have finished sowing their wheat, and that their corn crop is above the average, but the cotton and tobacco crops are below the average. On last Sunday morning Ben Buchanan and Abraham Spivey, of this county, were turkey hunting and the latter was accidentally shot by the former, but fortunately the wound was not serious. They were calling like a turkey, and Buchanan thinking Spivey was a turkey, shot at him. He died, on the 15th inst., Jonathan Moon, aged 101 years, 7 months and 28 days. He was born and lived in Albright township, was accidentally burned to death. He was in the kitchen by himself and it is supposed that he ventured too near the fire, for he awoke, and although he uttered immediately ran to him and extinguished the flames, he was fatally burned and lived only 88 hours.
