

Casteria

For Infants and Children.

Casteria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Casteria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Casteria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I use Casteria in my practice, and find it specially adapted to affections of children."
ALEX. ROBERTSON, M. D.,
1067 M Ave., New York.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Casteria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the most stubborn and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. O'Connell,
Lowell, Mass.

The Morning Star.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

Durham Star: Mr. H. A. Reams receiving the sad intelligence of the death of his father-in-law, Mr. N. W. Allen, Mr. Allen lived in Person county, not far from Roxboro.

— Greensboro Workman: George H. Wyde, the bigamist, who was arrested in Kinston on Wednesday, and while being brought to this city by Deputy Sheriff Dupree, of Lenoir county, escaped from the train at University Station by jumping through the car window, was captured yesterday, brought to this city last night and lodged in jail.

— Salisbury Herald: Mrs. W. A. Griffith, mother of Dr. J. F. Griffith, of this place, died at her home in Forsyth county, Monday, November 23. Several Mormon apostles are in the county making an effort to establish a church and gather converts to ship to Utah. They were in the city yesterday, and were in the city to-day prosecuting their work.

— Greensboro Record: On yesterday morning, at 4 o'clock, Col. Jacob B. Balesy died at his residence on Walker avenue, in this city, at the age of 73 years. Just before the south-bound train, which was due here at 10:30 p. m. last night, reached Benaja, some citizens discovered on the track a large telegraph pole, which they succeeded in getting off before the train struck it. The pole was laid with the big end towards the incoming train and a disastrous wreck would have resulted.

— Charlotte Chronicle: Governor Holt to-day declined to grant a commutation of the sentence of Alfred Dawles, the Charlotte burglar. A strong petition for commutation was made, but the facts were clear against the prisoner. Dawles will be hanged next Thursday. — R. A. Brady, of Davidson College, died yesterday morning at 2 o'clock at the residence of his son, Postmaster Brady, in this city, after an illness of three weeks.

— Goldsboro Argus: Perhaps the oldest lady in Goldsboro died yesterday morning about 2:30 o'clock, Mrs. A. S. C. Powell. The deceased was 86 years old. — News reached this city yesterday of the sudden death of Mr. Henry T. Fields, a farmer of this county near the southern limit. His death occurred in the store of Mr. James Hatch at Mount Olive. Friday evening before closing hours he had been in the place that day and sold some cotton. The cause of his death we could not learn.

— Oxford Day: S. C. Holmes, an estimable young man, died in this city yesterday morning at five o'clock. He had been seriously ill for several weeks, and fell a victim to Bright's disease. He was about thirty years of age. The case of the State Agricultural Department vs. the Durham Fertilizer Company, be tried at the next term of Granville Superior Court, will be a lively one. We see it stated that Col. Al. Fairbrother, of the Durham Globe, has been subpoenaed. Sensational developments are expected.

— Charlotte News: The shortage in the receipts of cotton by wagon, at Charlotte, still grows in comparison with the receipts last year. The receipts last from September 1, 1890, to November 19, 1890, were just double the receipts for that period in 1891. For that date in 1890, the receipts here were 18,250. This year they are showing a decrease of 8,146. It is pretty certain that very nearly two-thirds of the present cotton crop of Mecklenburg has been marketed, and from the figures given it is apparent that this year's local cotton crop will not be much over one-half of last year's crop.

— Raleigh Visitor: We are informed that no tidings have so far, been received of the whereabouts of the wife of Levi Perry the colored woman who mysteriously disappeared a few days since. It was at one time supposed that she had been drowned, as it was reported she was seen on Thanksgiving afternoon in the immediate vicinity of a babbling creek. A careful search has been made, however, and the stream examined, with no success. The theory now is, that the unfortunate woman, being demented, had wandered off in the woods or perhaps met her death from exposure.

— Raleigh News and Observer: Senator Z. B. Vance and Mrs. Vance are on their ocean voyage home. They are expected to land at New York next week. — We regret to announce the death of Mr. P. H. Barbee, father of our esteemed townsman Mr. J. M. Barbee, which occurred at his home at Nelson, in Durham county, on the 25th inst. He was 65 years of age. He departed this life November 21st, 1891, at his home in Hertford county, North Carolina. Geo. T. Hays, in the thirty-seventh year of his age. He was about his duties at home all day as usual, and was stricken down at six o'clock p. m., and before three hours he had passed beyond the reach of all care and suffering.

— Tarboro Southern: Henry Walton, the man charged recently with killing Henry Baker, it would seem, has been getting into trouble again. A few days since he was with Theodore Fountain's store drunk, trying to kill Mr. Fountain because he had heard that that gentleman had expressed the opinion that he, Walton, was guilty of murder. One report has it that he did attack Mr. Fountain, but that he was over-powered and no harm done. At any rate Walton was caught and G. L. Hargrove met him and another man coming this way, Walton being tired in the buggy. He has never arrived at the jail, and the last seen or heard of him was on this buggy ride bound as he was. While it is natural to presume that he made his escape, several entertain the idea of foul play, involuntary suicide as suggested by the wags.

— Newbern Journal: A number of Northern visitors came in yesterday on the steamer Newberne of the O. D. line, to spend the winter in the city. Their decision to spend the winter here was brought about by an excellent article descriptive of this region which recently appeared in Forest and Stream, written by Mr. Charles Hallock, who himself is spending the winter here. News comes from the Pantego section of the killing of a monster bear that tipped the beam at 532 pounds. The huge fellow was killed by a tiled gun. He measured more than twelve inches between the eyes and his feet were 6 1/2 inches wide and 8 1/2 long. He was killed by a man by the name of Ed. Langly. Also last week a large cinnamon bear was killed by Wm. Jenkins, and a few days previous he caught in a trap a pure white squirrel for which he has been offered $9.00.

TWINKLINGS.

— Penelope—It's awfully mean of the men to say that you are just like us girls.
Dick—Oh, I don't mind it, you know.
Penelope (quickly)—Yes, but we do, Brooklyn Life.

— Mrs. Hen—Why don't you come out from under the barn? They are throwing corn out and all the fowls are there.
Mrs. Turkey—Thanks, I am here for my health at this time of year.—Minneapolis Journal.

— Tom—Do you intend to make any new resolutions next year?
Jack—No; I intend to use the old ones over again.—Yankee Blade.

— "If you have a minute to spare," began the peddler, "I should like every minute of my time, sir," said Mr. Skinnphint, severely, "is worth within a small fraction of four cents. Close the door as you go out."—Chicago Tribune.

— "I used to have the sweetest, prettiest little typewriter in the world," he said with a sigh.
"What became of her?" inquired his sympathetic friend.
"O, I married her," and he sighed again more profoundly than before.—Detroit Free Press.

— Dying Wife—I want you to promise me that you will marry again, John.
Husband—Do you really wish it?
Dying Wife—Yes; I don't want people to say I was the means of souring you on my sex.—Indianapolis Journal.

— Young Guesst—I thought you were advertising a great sale of popular prices?
Old Ienstein—Undso I vas.
Guesst—Do you call these popular prices? They're a good deal higher than they used to be.
Ienstein—Mine friend, ven I says bobular prices, I knows vat I say; I never dry any brices vot suits me petter.

— Old Lady—No use talkin', I used to say this higher education of gals was all folderl; but I see I was wrong. There's my granddarter, for instance. She's just a wonder.
Friend—I understand she graduated with high honors.
Old Lady—Yes, graduat d from Vassar, and she kin do what neither her mother nor me could ever hope to do if our lives depended on it.
Friend—Indeed! And what is that?
Old Lady—She kin tell the time a train is going to start by lookin' at a railway guide.—N. Y. Weekly.

A Little Girl's Experience in a High House.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at R. R. BELLAMY'S Drugstore.

SADLER'S COLLEGE.

BRYANT & STRATTON

FOUNDED IN 1864 by the present executive—27 years of continuous and successful management—increased annual attendance—now occupying four buildings—stands unrivaled in facilities for educating YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN for successful life. In deciding upon a school for their children, PARENTS should send them to THE BEST, because it pays. It may require the expenditure of a few dollars more at first, but it will prove the cheapest in the end. CHEAP tuition is very dear, because it means cheap teachers, cheap surroundings, inferior facilities, and offers no opportunities for securing POSITIONS for its pupils and graduates. This institution is the highest standard of excellence has placed in desirable positions more young men and women from Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, than all similar institutions combined.
