"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 South Cxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y. "I use Castoria in my practice, and find it specially adapted to affections of children."

ALEX. ROBERTSON, M. D., 1057 2d Ava., New York.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

SPIKITS TURPENTINE.

- Raleigh News and Observer: Seventy-seven convicts were brought down to the penitentiary yesterday from Cherokee county, where they have been working on the Ducktown railroad.

- Greensboro Record: A gentleman representing a New England barrel factory is negotiating for the location of a stave factory in Greensboro. The same firm will also manufacture tobacco boxes on a large scale. Murfreesboro Index: Mr. W. D. Downs, of Ahoskie, last week shot and killed a bald eagle with a twenty-two calibre rifle at a distance of 300 feet. This monster bird measured seven feet, six inches from tip to tip. and was about the size of a large turkey.

-Red SpringsFarmer and Scottish Chief; If our farmers will quit raising corn and turn their attention to raising wheat, corn, grasses, hogs, live stock. etc., the present low price of cotton will prove a blessing in disguise. The tendency is in the direction of diversified farming. — Salisbury Herald: The firm of H. & L. Wright, clothing dealers, closed their store at 10 o'clock this morning and made an assignment to Hon. Lee S. Overman and Mr. L. H. Clement. The assetts of the stock are between $12,000 and $13,000, and liabilities about

- Newton Enterprise: Mr. Cicero Cline tells us that he had a pumpkin vine in his garden which had on it 43 pumpkins. The largest in the lot weighed 27 pounds and the smallest 12 pounds; 30 of them averaged 25 pounds each, and the other 13 averaged 15 pounds each. - Asheville Democrat: An $18,-000 depot is to be built in Biltmore in the spring, - The Black Mountains were covered in snow for several days last week. None of it reached Asheville. -- We are pained to hear of the death of Mrs Nannie Kate Atinson, which occurred at the house of her husband, Mr. N. B. Atkinson, in this city on Tuesday last. - Raleigh Chronicle: Dick Shirley, wanted in South Carolina for sell-ing liquor without license, was arrested on a bench warrant in Halifax county. He will be sent to South Carolina where he is to be tried in the Federal Court. -Governor Holt yesterday appointed William Matthews Harris, 17 Grace Church street, London, and Thos. J. Hunt, 623 Walnut street, Philadelphia, commissioners of deeds for North Carolina, E. P. Pasour, of Gastonia, was appointed a notary public. - Oxford Ledger: Mr. John Fleming, of Hester, has yet on hand some of his crop of tobacco raised in 1859 sound and all right. — C. F. King says the business people of Tipton, a growing town in the southern portion of Geor-gia, Saturday presented Capt. W. H. Snow a deed to a four thousand dollar farm and a town residence as an inducement to have him locate there and grow tobacco, carrying out his modern ideas. The proposition was accepted, and a market will be established at Tipton next summer and factories started.

-Winston Sentinel: The burglars were out again last night trying their hands. We learn they attempted to enter the residences of Mr. George W. Hinshaw, Messrs. Tom and Henry Leak and Mr. John D. Watkins, but failed in each case. — Mr. Hill C. Linthicum, architect, has just finished a drawing for a $75,000 hotel, to be built in the central part of our city. It shows up finely and would not only be a handsome ornament to our town but would, when completed, fill a long felt want. It is of modern architecture and is exceedingly

-Charlotte Chronicle: Jackson Price, of Steele Creek, met with a disdressing accident. Several years ago he lost the sight of his left eye by being shot, and day before yesterday while chopping wood a piece of steel from the hatchet flew off, and struck him in the other eye, very likely putting it out and rendering him totally blind. Burglars entered the house of Mrs. Biggs on South Fourth street Friday night and stole $8,50 in money. Mrs. Biggs says when she awakened she saw two men standing beside her bed, one on each side, armed with a pistol and a knife. They threatened to kill her if she made the least outcry and demaded her money. She told them where it was. After pocketing the money they opened the cupboard and got all the vituals it contained. They then left telling her she could yell as much as she pleased, -Newbern Journal: Dr. D. W. Smith and the firm of B. J. Smith & Co., in which Dr. Smith is the company, have made an assignment to Mr. E. H. Meadows, of this city, for the benefit of their creditors. Liabilities about $8,000. Meagre collections owing to the poor cotton season is given as the cause of the failure. — More curiosities have been found in the bed of shell rock, fourteen miles up Trent river, from which the supply for the additional layer on the macadamized road is being procured. Capt. Dave Roberts brought in yesterday an old coin and a rusty, peculiar shaped and very ancient looking bone-handled knife. A part of the handle was broken off and gone, but the blade is entire, about seven inches in length, slightly curved, and with the point rounded and sharpened clear over the back. The theory is advanced that it is either Indian or Spanish origin. A Safe Investment. Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. Runaway.

New York World. A runaway horse, dragging after him a light wagon, went dashing down Fulton street, Brooklyn, at a breakneck speed yesterday afternoon. In the wagon was an elderly man and a small boy. The man placed the boy at the bottom of the wagon between his teet to keep him from falling from the swaving wagon. Pulling the reins had no effect, and around street corners the wild horse flew at a terrific speed. On Liberty avenue a crowd tried to follow the maddened animal and kept shouting at the man in the wagon to drop his reins and jump for his life. He did not heed their warnings but still clung with des-

As the wagon dashed past Pennsylvania and Liberty avenues, the little fellow broke loose from between the driver's legs and threatened to fall head first. Fearlessly placing the reins between his teeth, the driver, with blanched face, seized the little fellow in his arms and returned him between his legs.

Charles Peircy followed the runaway as close as possible in his carriage. Neer the corner of East New York and Rockaway avenues the horses through sheer exhaustion stopped and quivereg. Peircy drove up and asked the driver why he did not jump out. The driver quietly bent over, and taking in his arms the unconscious child, turned to Peircy

"Stranger, have you a little boy?" The man after having resuscitated the child drove away. He positively refused to give his name.
