A PUBLIC EXECUTION.

JAMES JOHNSON HANGED AT ELIZA-BETHTOWN FOR MURDER.

Full 3,000 Persons Witness the Hanging -The Prisoner's Bold Demeanor on the Scaffold-His Statement and the Story of His Crime.

A special dispatch to the MORNING. STAR, from Elizabethtown, Bladen county, N. C., says that James Johnson, (colored), was hanged there yesterday in public, for the murder of Florence Sutton, a colored girl about ten years of age, in August last.

The drop fell at exactly 12 o'clock, noon, and in twenty-five minutes the doctors present pronounced Johnson dead. Fully three thousand people, white and colored, witnessed the execution, and everybody, especially the colored people, approved his sentence and the punishment he received for the brutal crime he committed.

Johnson smoked his cigar as he rode to the place of execution on his coffin, ascended the gallows without a tremor, and deliberately chewed tobacco as his funeral was preached. He then made a statement, protesting his innocence, placed his hands and feet in position and died without manifesting any dread. He confessed his crime when arrested and immediately after his committal; and only denied it on the gallows.

HISTORY OF THE CRIME. The story of the crime is soon told. Johnson lived in the same neighborhood with the girl's parents, and on the evening of Sunday, August 2d, 1891, while at her mother's house gave the child money to go to a neighbor, some distance away, and buy a quart of cider. Soon after he left the house; met the girl on her return and after criminally assaulting her, strangled her to death. The child not returning home, search was instituted, in which Johnston joined; but no trace of the missing girl could be found until the Monday following, when parties who had suspected Johnson, tracked him after a hard rain that had fallen Sunday night, and discovered the dead body of the child buried near the scene of the tragedy. Search was at once made for Johnson, but he had made good his escape, and it was not until the next day (Tuesday) that he was arrested by Mr. Frank D. Parker, at Newsom, some distance above Parkersburg. Mr. Parker saw Johnson pass his place that morning, and thinking that he looked very much like the man wanted he pursued and caught him. Johnson at first denied that he was the man wanted, but afterward said he was, and made confession of the crime in all indulged in at Parkersburg, but were not carried out. The prisoner was taken to Bladen and placed under a strong guard. He made another confession to Justice Shaw, implicating not only the father of his victim, but another negro, as having known of the crime-one Lawson Bryant by its horrible details. He made it fully and voluntarily, and after it was written out signed it in the presence of F. D.

Parker, J. P., and others. He also im-

crime. Threats of lynching were freely

Johnson was arraigned before Justices W. I. Shaw and Jas. N. Corbett, and after hearing the charge against him read. the defendant's plea was "guilty." Before entering judgment the court made a thorough investigation of the implied charges against Albert Sutton and Lawson Bryant, but tound nothing against Johnson was then placed in the custody of an officer, and under strong guard was sent to Elizabethtown jail. His trial followed some weeks afterwards, and he was convicted and sentenced to be hanged.

WILMINGTON'S WELCOME WEEK.

Citizens Endorse and Continue the Executive Committee.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of representative business men of the city of Wilmington held last night in the Mayor's office at the City Hall, to endorse the action of the Executive Committee of the Welcome Week.

Upon motion, Mr. R. M. McIntire was called to the chair and Mr. Walker Taylor was requested to act as secretary. On motion of Mr. J. H. Watters, a resolution was adopted, endorsing the Executive Committee, as it now stands, and that the Welcome Week be considered as permanent. It was decided, also, that the first week in December should be the time fixed for holding the annual festivities of Wilmington's Welcome Week.

Fifth Ward Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 gave a grand ball last night at their hall. Supper was served in most magnificent style. Foreman Lietgen and Mr. J. R. Yates acted as floor managers and did credit to themselves as well as their company. Dancing was kept up until an early hour this morn-

The hall was very neatly decorated add the members of the company appeared in new uniforms. About fifty couples were present.

Regular Monthly Meeting - Reports of Committees - Petitions, Etc.

The Board of Aldermen met last night in adjourned session with Mayor Ricaud presiding, and the following Aldermen present: Fowler, Thomas, Post. Fishblate, Nixon, Bell and Willis. The clerk, W. A. Willson, read the which were approved. Mr. Jas. F. Post, Jr., Chairman of the Fire Committee, recommended that Mr. R. C. Orrell's claim for one hundred and twenty-five dollars for a horse which died while in the city's service, should be paid.

Alderman Fishblate, of the Streets and Wharves Committee, reported progress in regard to a petition sent in by citizens against the Seacoast road not complying with their contract as to spur tracks on Tenth street. Alderman Fishblate, of the Pound Committee, stated that he and other members of the committee had two sites in view, in good places, but which one to take had not been decided upon. The other committees reported progress in matters in their charge.

Dr. Potter's report was then read, showing only 35 deaths the past month; 16 of which were whites and 19 colored. Two of which were still-born and one suicide, being smaller than the same month in the six preceding years. He recommends that the city have more thorough drainage and cleanliness. Chief Martin Newman's report showed only three alarms of fire the last month; one false alarm and two small fires. He recommends that the citizens have their chimneys inspected and placed in good order, as many fires are caused from defective flues and chimneys. He recommended, also, that an ordinance be passed making it a misdemeanor for any unauthorized person to send in more than one alarm for a fire; instancing several occasions when alarms had been repeated unnecessarily, causing excitement and great apprehension. The report was referred to the committee with instructions to report an ordinance as The following petitions were placed before the Board and disposed of:

Petition of Carolina Central Railroad Company, signed by the General Manager, John C. Winder, for permission to lay a track on the extreme west side of Nutt street about 300 yards long. It was referred to the Streets and Wharves committee to report at the next meeting of the Board.

Mr. J. J. Hawes, petition for a reduction in rent of beef stall in the new market. Referred to Market committee.

A petition signed by about twenty fruit dealers, not to allow vendors to sell fruit around the streets or any fruit vessel to sell under five hundred oranges to any person. Referred to the Finance Committee to report at the next regular Handsomely Said.

Mr. H. A. London, editor of the Pittsboro Record, who was "a reporter on the spot," thus handsomely refers to our W. W. W.:

"Wilmington Welcome Week was a grand success in every particular. The weather was favorable, the number of visitors was immense, and the entertainments and amusements provided for them were enjoyed to the utmost. The display of fireworks on Wednesday night was pronounced by many to have been the most beautiful and attractive ever seen in the South. The trades' display on Thursday night was the largest and best ever seen in this State. It consisted of about sixty floats, all very attractively designed and illuminated, and the procession was so long that it took over half an hour to pass any point. Never had so many persons visited Wilmington, every train on every road being crowded, and with many it was their first visit to their State's chief city. We predict, however, that it will not be

The Receivership. Under the new regulations, it seems the Receivership of a National bank is not such a "fat" office as has generally been supposed. Instead of a commission, as formerly, a salary is now paid which is about equal to that of a bank cashier. If this information, which was given a STAR reporter, is correct, the Receivership of the First National bank of this city will probably not be worth more than two thousand dollars per year. It seems to be the impression that Mr. W. S. O'B. Robinson, of Goldsboro, will "receive."

After estimating the crop of 1890-'91, including what remained in interior and upon plantations, at 8,900, 000 bales, he says: "The general outlook for the present season cannot be regarded as indicating that the spinners of the world will be likely to buy more cotton than during the season of 1890-'91."

- Florence, S. C., Times: The markets of the world are gorged, the supply in sight is immense, all of last year's surplus has to be carried over to swell this year's stock on hand. We have had poor crops here, but our cotton is only a drop in the bucket compared with the immense yield of the Mississippi Valley and the Texas prairies. Sell your cotton, pay your debts, and if you start with nothing else, next year you will at least start with a clear conscience.

Charleston Rice Market.

The Charleston rice market is said to be "not as bright" as it ordinarily is at this season. Although the local demand for rice is very good the prices are lower, by a half a cent a pound, than they were last season at this time. It is hoped that the January prices will be more satisfactory to both sellers and planters.

Up to last Saturday the rice movements in Charleston were as follows: Receipts this year 419,067, last year 454,376. Pounded 168,689, last year 267.465. Stock on hand 250,378, last year 186.911. Notwithstanding the small crop low prices have prevailed during the entire season. The weakness of the market is accounted for by the large stock of foreign rice now in America. It is thought that the small stock of domestic rice will eventually command better prices than at present.

Lucky Young Man.

A bright young man of Mecklenburg county has just celebrated his 21st anniversary. His mother's present was a handsome gold watch, "as a reward for his having reached manhood's state without ever having used an oath, taken a drink of whiskey or a chew of tobacco." Lucky boy! Now, suppose, instead of being a rural rooster, he had been a denizen of Charlotte, holding a responsible position on the Chronicle or News? In lieu of a watch he would have been presented with a twenty-five cent bible and the latest edition of Sam Jones's sermons.

Weather Forecasts.

The following are the forecasts for

For Virginia, for Saturday, generally fair weather, slightly colder, north winds, probably followed by light rain on Saturday night or Sunday.

For North Carolina, fair weather in north portion, showers in south portion, northeast winds, cooler in west portion, stationary temperature in eastern portion.

For South Carolina and East Florida, showers, northeast winds, slight change in temperature.

The Sportsman's Paradise.

A veteran Nimrod who knows a thing or two about birds informs a STAR reporter that Cleveland county is the hunter's paradise. He says a Shelby sportsman who never prevaricates except when estimating the number of birds he has himself killed, told him he would guarantee, with good dogs, to find forty coveys of partridges in Cleveland county in a single day's hunt. Now, here's the opportunity for the gunners who can spare a few days from their workshops and desks.

No statement of the firm's liabilities and assets could be obtained, but both are believed to be large, as the Messrs. It is understood the larger part of the firm's indebtedness is in Northern markets, with a few thousands scattered among wholesale dealers in Wilmington.
