Shelby Review: Year before last Mr. J. J. Price, of this county, hired a lot of hands, planted considerable cotton, bought his supplies, raised six bales of cotton and came out at the little end of the horn. Last year he decreased the acreage in cotton, increased that in corn, and with the help of a ten year old girl, he made two bales of cotton and five hundred bushels of corn. He has proven to his satisfaction that the way to make money in farming is to plant less cotton and more corn. His crop of corn last year was worth more than the six bales of cotton he raised the previous year and the cost of raising it was less than a fifth. And besides he had two bales of cotton as a surplus.

A FATAL FIRE.

Colored Woman and Her Two Children Burned to Death.

A colored woman and two children were burned to death last Thursday night near Harrell's Store, in Sampson county. Capt, Ward, of the Black river steamer W. T. Daggett, which arrived here yesterday, says the woman was employed as a field hand by Mr. J. F Caldwell. She and her two children, six and eight years old, lived in a small house just outside the village. About 11 o'clock Thursday night the house was discovered to be in flames, and people who were aroused and went to the place said they could hear screams from the inmates of the house, but were unable to render any assistance or to stop the progress of the fire. After the house was burned down the charred bones of the woman and two children were found in

Rev. Dr. Wilson. Rev. Dr. Wilson, former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, who came from his home in Tennessee to attend the funeral of Rev. Dr. Moran, was the guest while here of Mr. Charles H. Robinson, Dr. Wilson received many visitors yesterday. He had recently recovered from a severe illness and is not yet fully restored to his accustomed health and strength. Dr. Wilson has a strong hold on the affections of many in Wilmington-of all classes and all denominations-who will be glad to know that he contemplates visiting this city some time next summer.

The Courts.

Paul Leonard, colored, was fined five dollars and costs in the Mayor's Court vesterday for disorderly conduct.

Before Justice Bunting, Lum Travis was arraigned, charged with disorderly conduct, but the case was dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor.

Ella Henry, colored, charged with assault and battery, before the same magistrate, was found not guilty. The prosecutor, however, was sent to jail, in default of payment of costs in the case.

REYNARD RUN TO EARTH.

A Glorious Chase of Forty Minutes by the Pack of the Wilmington Fox Club.

MR. FIELD EDITOR: Perhaps there are some of the old-time "sports" still left who would like to hear a word now and then from the wild woods and the melodious music of twenty-five hounds. If so, "comrades," listen:

On Tuesday last I met at the kennel of the "Wilmington Fox Club" at first dawn of day-solitude. Poor boys! The spring time with its sleepy mornings has come and they cannot wake. As time was precious I did not wait for them, but let go the "dogs of war." It was a beautiful morning, the dew sparkling upon the grass. As I reached the open ground near Mineral Spring, it was grand-the fresh air, the sweet perfume of the yellow jessamine; the pack then bounding off on a hot trail caused me to halt in admiration and wonder why any one could be so indifferent as not to grasp the opportunity and enjoy these earthly pleasures during our short pilgrimage through life. Without a halt the trail was pushed to the Tom Eden branch, on the turnpike, Association, is in the city for the pur-when the sweet music of twenty-five hounds made it unraistakably plain to an old hunter's ear that Reynard was "up." They led directly for the Sound. Away they went, and away went "Dandy" and I; over the fences, ditches, logs and bushes, we flew in pursuit. 'Twas "Chilling the rocks and yelling again, Close on the hounds the hunter came."

They take up at a bay on the Masonboro turnpike, which was christened by a young damsel several summers ago with the appellation of "Lake of the Dismal Swamp." A thick undergrowth about twenty feet wide surrounds this lake, and in this the fox sought safety. There is no animal that I know of that has the sense of a tox. He can calculate time and distance better than any human being. Not once in a hundred is a fox caught going from one bay to another. So, after circling around it once, I was convinced by my knowledge of the distance to another bay, that he would never leave this one. So, dismounting from "Dandy," and with watch in hand, I timed them as they would "swing around the circle," and note the gradual gain on poor Reynard. In about the fifth round the chase end-- New York futures closed steady at | ed, and one more victory for the season was added to the forty-odd for the FUNERAL OF DR. MORAN.

"Fox Club."

Impressive Services Conducted by Dr. Wilson, Dr. Deems and Dr. Swindell -Interment at Oakdale.

Funeral services over the remains of the Rev. Dr. R. S. Moran were held vesterday morning at 10 o'clock in Grace M. E. Church. The Church was crowded long before the services began. At the hour appointed Rev. Dr. Deems and Rev. Dr. Jos. R. Wilson entered the Church arm in arm, and together ascended to the pulpit. They were followed by Rev. Dr. Swindell, Rev. Mr. Norman, Rev. Mr. Nash and other ministers. The pulpit and other parts of the church were appropriately draped in emblems of mourning, and the casket containing the remains was covered with floral tributes.

After an anthem by the choir, the solemn services were opened by Dr. Deems who read a passage from the Scriptures. Dr. Wilson then addressed the congregation and in the course of his remarks said that some years ago himself and Dr. Moran had made an agreement, the survivor to attend the funeral of the other. Rev. Dr. Deems followed Dr. Wilson in a short address in eulogy of the deceased, and he in turn was followed by Rev. Dr. Swindell. The service at the grave was conducted by Dr. Deems. While they were covering the vault the hymn "God be with you till we meet again" was sung. The benediction was pronounced by Dr. Wilson.

Accidentally Shot Himself. Police officer Kunold accidentally shot himself yesterday evening about six o'clock, but the wound, happily, is not likely to give him serious trouble. The officer was on duty in "Brooklyn," and meeting officer Turlington at the corner of Fourth and Brunswick streets, the latter asked officer Kunold to give him pistol-cartridge. Having no loose cartridges with him, officer Kunold, wishing to oblige a brother officer, attempted to extract one of the cartridges from his own pistol, using his pocket-knife, but while picking at the cartridge it exploded. The ball struck officer Kunold in the lelt leg above the knee and passed through, making a flesh wound.

The injured man was attended by Dr. Schonwald, and was then taken to his

The handsome steam yacht Oneida. owned by Mr. E. C. Benedict, of New York, took her departure yesterday for Bermuda, after a visit of several weeks at this port. Accompanying Mr. Benedict on the trip, are Mr. E. H. Booth and Mr. Keep, of New York, and Mr. B. G. Empie, of this city. The party after visiting the Bermudas, will sail for New York, expecting to reach there in about ten days.

The Oneida left her anchorage at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and steamed slowly down the river. A large number of ladies and gentlemen, friends and acquaintances of the gentlemen on board, gathered at the river side to witness the departure and wave farewell to LIQUOR:DEALER'S LIABILITY.

Supreme Court Decision of Interest to Saloon Keepers. The Supreme Court of North Carolina endered a decision in a "whiskey" case from Charlotte that is of interest. The case was tried in the Criminal Court at Charlotte.

It was proyed that one of Mr. Kittelle's clerks sold whiskey on Sunday and to minors. Judge Meares ruled that Mr. Kittelle was responsible for the act of his clerk, although he had given orders that no whiskey should be sold on Sunday nor to minors. The charge of Judge Meares was against Mr. Kittelle and he was fined $50. His lawyers took an appeal, and were confident that Judge Meares' charging would be overruled. The decision was "no error," the court sustaining Judge Meares.

The Supreme Court held that under our statute which permits license to sell liquors to be issued only to persons of good moral character, that such licynse is a personal trust and the licensee is indictable for sales to minors or on Sundays whether made by him or his clerks. It is held that the licensee is held responsible for the criminal negligence in not preventing illegal sales by clerks and that in employing them the licensee becomes guarantor of their observance of the law, and that if this were not so it would be a virtual repeal of the license law, since a licensee can employ as clerk one to whom the commissioners may have refused license to retail as unfit for the trust and if the employer is not responsible for such clerk the public receive no protection from the commissioners having examined into the character of such applicant and having refused him license. The opinion is fortified by many similar decisions cited from other States.

Wilmington Presbytery.

The Presbytery of Wilmington, in session at Burgaw this week, closed its sessions yesterday. Rev. Mr. McClure, of St. Andrew's Church, was made Moderator. A pleasant and profitable meeting was held. Delegates to the General Assembly, at Hot Springs, Ark., were appointed as follows: Rev. Peter McIntire, principal; Rev. P. H. Hoge, D. D., alternate; Ruling Elder I. R. Faison, principal; W. H. Sprunt, alternate.

The Truck Trade.

Palmer, Rivenburg & Co., of New York, report prices as follows: "Vegetable market active. Peas $4.00 to $5.00; beets $1.50 to $2.00; asparagus $5.00 to $6.00; cabbage $2.75 to $3.25; celery 50c to 75c; lettuce $2.00 to $4.00; spinach $1.00 to $1.50; kale 75c to $1 25; eggs, Southern, 131/c to 14c; duck eggs 26c

Strawberries.

Mr. D. M. Summerell, of Armour, Columbus county, exhibited a sample of the strawberry crop yesterday in the STAR office. The plants were full of fruit in all stages of growth, and some of the berries full ripe. After all the drawbacks the crop in the Wilmington section, it seems, will be a fine one, but a little later than usual.
