- Capt. J. M. Horne, conductor on the A. C. L., returned home last night from attending the funeral of his mother in Edgecombe county.

- Among the arrivals in the city yesterday were C. L. Stevens, Southport; H. Jarman, Jacksonville; F. T. Mills, Whiteville; H. Butters, Hub; D. J. Lewis. Whiteville.

- Judge E. T. Boykin and his two sons, E. T. Boykin, Ir., and Swift Boykin, are in the city. During their stay they will visit the seashore and go on a big fishing excursion.

- Messrs. P. A. Blackburn, Paducah, Ky.; G. R. Dupery, Brunswick, Mo.; W. Buckner, Richmond; S. R.

Golibart, Suffolk; J. W. Webster, Detroit, were at The Orton yesterday. - Capt. J. H. Barnard, general manager of the Street Railway Company and family are summering at the Hammocks, though as a matter of fact, the Captain will do his summering during the day in town.

- Messrs. Ino. Taylor, E. B. Higgs, Baltimore; S. Perry, Jr., Richmond; S. J. Prescott, E. B. Cornell, J Nishwitz, D. Sullender, J. B. Collins, H. I. Kidd. New York, were arrivals at the Purcell yesterday.

- We regret to hear that there is little, if any, improvement in the condition of Mrs. Dr. T. H. Pritchard. She has no fever, but is suffering from nervous prostration, and her physician has forbidden her seeing any visitors.

- Rev. Dr. Pritchard is now a permanent resident of Wrightsville, it being his intention to reside there both summer and winter. He comes up to the city every day, however, on an early train and returns in time for supper.

a considerable increase in the number of passengers carried. "It's fun to the boys," but how about the "frogs?" - Four railroad men will lead the Men's Gospel meeting at the Y. M. C. A. to-morrow afternoon at 5 p. m. The singing is always made a special feature of these meetings, but to-morrow it is expected to be unusually interesting. - The Sunday School of Grace

M. E. Church will give their annual excursion to Carolina Beach next Tuesday, June 21st. They expect to carry a large crowd, outside of the Sunday School. They have been giving annual excursions for several years and have always had a most enjoyable time.

- The Atlantic Coast Line will sell round trip tickets on account of the colored firemen's tournament at Salisbury, N., C., at reduced rates. Tickets to be sold July 18th, 19th and 20th, with final limit July 21st. The rate from Wilmington will be $6.75. The dates of the tournament have been changed as above.

- The report of the closing exercises of the Cape Fear Academy, printed elsewhere, shows a remarkable degree of prosperity for this most excellent lass' unswerving devotion for the has been in office ever since there was a Republican party" and generally offices that paid well, too. A philosophical contemporary informs us that the best refrigerator for the body in warm weather is a cool and placed mind. This is so. The U. S. Senate Chamber is always cool, which is attributable to the presence of John Sherman, who never permits his mind to become heated, although he does sometimes on special occasions indulge in some what caloric language.
