OUTLINES.

Ex-President Cleveland's letter of acceptance—All leading issues plainly and patriotically set forth. Bold bank robbery in Washington—Five men go through a bank, and escape with their plunder. Justice Lamar had a slight attack of paralysis in Washington last week, but is now well. Removal of a consul guilty of bad conduct. Foreign News—French success in Dahomey—Cholera reports from various points. The cholera quarantine—Release of steamers and passengers; the disease almost stamped out. Richmond Terminal affairs. The Cotton Crop—Its condition in North and South Carolina, Virginia and Alabama. Gen. Stevenson at Roanoke, Va.—A large crowd meets him at the depot. Cotton futures market. Two sealing vessels seized by Russian; the vessels confiscated and 1,800 skins taken. A devastating cyclone in Brooklyn—Several houses destroyed and two boys killed and a man and a boy injured. Chicago market review. Boiler explosion in Alabama—One man killed. New York markets: Money easy at 2 1/2% closing offered at 3 per cent; cotton steady; sales to-day of 255 bales; middling uplands 7 1/2 cents; middling Orleans 7 1/2 cents; total net receipts at all United States ports 29,490 bales; wheat dull and firm; No. 2 red, 79 1/2@90 cents in store and at elevator; corn firm and quiet; No. 2, 53 1/4@53 1/2 cents at elevator; rosin dull but steady; strained, common to good, $1 29 1/4@1 27 1/4; spirits turpentine quiet and weak at 29 1/2@30 cents.

Chairman Simmons struck it when he said in that interview with the correspondent of the New York Times that S. Otho Wilson, Chairman of the Third party State Committee, bears about the same relation to the farmer proper that the "walking delegate" in the Northern cities does to the workingmen. By the way, S. Otho is putting on walking delegate style since he has become chairman. He has bought a silk beaver and spends most of the time when attending meetings slicking the fur to keep it smooth. The Democrats and People's party have fused in South Dakota. According to the terms agreed upon each party is to have two Presidential electors. In the election of 1890 the Alliance polled 24,591 votes, the Democrats 13,484 and the Republicans 24,487, which would give the combination if it works 8,585 majority. There have probably been some changes since then but the prospects of the fusion taking the State from Harrison are pretty good.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Pertinent Paragraphs Pertaining Principally to People and Pointedly Printed. Mr. Steve Jewett, of Cronly, spent Sunday in the city. Mr. Albert Creasy has returned to the city greatly improved. Mr. J. W. Britt, of the A. C. L., has returned from a trip to South Carolina. Mr. Tom Leslie, press agent of George Wilson Minstrels, arrived in the city last night. Mr. W. G. Childs, President of the C. N. & L. railroad, was a visitor in the city yesterday. Mr. W. E. Davis, now of New York, is here on a visit to his friends and relatives in this city. Mr. F. Rheinstein has arrived in New York from Europe, without detention at quarantine. Mr. G. Lynch, train master for the Atlantic Coast Line at Florence, S. C., was in the city yesterday. Mrs. Irving Robinson, of Bladen county, who has been visiting relatives in the city, returned home yesterday. Congressman B. F. Grady, of the Third district, passed through the city last night on his way to Jonesboro, where he speaks to-day. Mrs. W. H. Capell, wife of Mr. Capell, chief clerk of the Purcell, left last night on the fast train South for Shoccoe, Mississippi, to spend the winter with relatives. Mr. D. E. Chambers of the Baldwin Locomotive Works of Philadelphia, reached the city with two new large Baldwin engines for the A. C. L. south of Wilmington. Mr. Ed. W. Moore, who left Wilmington some time ago, to open a branch insurance office in Charleston, S. C., has returned, much to the gratification of many friends. Mr. Nash Bunting returned yesterday from a visit to his sister, Mrs. W. H. Murphy, of Wynne, Ark. He met several old North Carolinians in Arkansas and enjoyed his visit very much. Mr. G. T. Jones, proprietor of the Bargain Store, has just returned from a recent extended tour through the North and West. While gone he visited New York, Philadelphia and Kansas City. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Whitehead and Miss Eva Whitehead, left yesterday morning for Mt. Airy, to be at the bedside of Mrs. C. E. Borden, who is dangerously ill. Dr. Burbank has been there for the past week. Messrs. W. E. Cox, Jacksonville; J. D. Shaw, Rockingham; G. H. Corrie, Clarkston; S. B. Gregory, Enfield; O. J. Carroll, Raleigh; W. F. Shaffner, Salem; C. J. Hooper, Southport, were in the city yesterday. Charlotte Observer: "Superintendent Moncure, of the Carolina Central Railroad, who has moved into his new residence on North Church street, is well pleased with it. In securing him Charlotte possesses another good citizen."

A SWINDLING SCHEME. A New York Sharpener Trying to Take Advantage of People Who Believe Themselves to be Heirs to Property in England. Quite a number of farmers from Pender and other counties in this State have been calling upon Mr. James Sprunt, British Vice Consul, recently, with reference to alleged enormous estates which had been left them in England. Two gentlemen from Pender county last week brought certificates to the effect that for one had already been secured $2,000,000 and another $1,000,000. It was only necessary, it was said, to complete some legal paper in order that they might enter upon their estates. Forms with legal headings, etc., were sent enclosed with signatures, and a request also made for $35 in each case in order to pay the taxes necessary on the papers. Mr. Sprunt pronounced these statements to be false beyond any question, and informed the gentlemen from the country that they were no doubt being swindled by adventurers. The name of the New York agent of the London alleged attorney was given as Joseph Leger, and the address in New York as the Dominion Agency, No. 461 Eighth Avenue. The vice-consul wrote at once to New York to investigate the matter, and received the following clipping from the Daily Tribune of last Friday. In the meantime the alleged lawyers in London are being overhauled and doubtless with the same result. It is believed that a number of people in this State have been swindled already, having forwarded money without consulting proper advisers. The following is the extract from the Tribune: A petty swindling scheme, based on the usual mythical estate in England, has been nipped in the bud by postoffice and police officials. This time money was not asked to carry on litigation for the vast property, but to pay taxes on the land which had already been awarded to the dupe. The swindler in this case is Joseph Leger, who some time ago established the Dominion Employment Agency, at No. 461 Eighth Avenue. A man who gave his name as Harris rented part of the second floor of the house, but Harris and Leger are undoubtedly one. Last week the man sent a number of his letters all over the country, apparently to persons who believed themselves to be heirs to English estates. He sent in the letters decrees of the Supreme Court, Chancery London, bearing the Court seal and the stamp of G. W. Rawlings, tax assessor. The letter in one instance read: I inclose the decree in your case, which establishes your title. Please send the $35 by registered letter, not by bank check, as it would require time to get it cashed, and I must report at once. There is only one other way to collect the tax, which would be by selling the property for taxes. Use inclosed envelope. Leger pretended to represent the British Government. Evidently, a lot of letters were sent out last week, for on Wednesday, replies began to come in. Over sixty arrived on that day, two of them registered. In the meantime, inquiries about the trustworthiness of Leger reached the police, the postoffice and the Tribune. The superintendent of Station E of the postoffice at Seventh Avenue and Twenty-eighth Street, made an investigation and reported to Acting Assistant Postmaster E. D. Morgan. Leger's mail was at once stopped and the case was reported to Washington.

A PREACHER IN TROUBLE. Rev. G. L. Stith (Colored) Arrested for Embellishment—His Escape While Under Bond. Rev. G. L. Stith, colored, pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church of this city, has disappeared under a very dark cloud. Stith was arrested last Friday night on affidavit of A. W. Wright, colored, charged with embezzling $38 from the latter. He was required to give bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance Monday (yesterday) morning at 9 o'clock before Justice R. H. Bunting. Hampton Saunders, a well known colored man, signed the bond and became surety for Stith, but when the case was called by the magistrate yesterday the parson failed to appear and could not be found, while current rumor had it that he had "got up and dusted." Judgment was thereupon given for the amount against the surety, Saunders, and execution issued against his property. Stith preached to his congregation at Shiloh Church last Sunday night. At 9 o'clock, his wife says, he was at home, and the last she saw of him he went into his "study" with some of the deacons of the church. The parson was something of a financier as well as preacher. He had been in the employ of the "Fidelity Building and Loan Association," (which has an agency in Wilmington) as solicitor and collector, and report says had been quite successful. A few months ago, however, he was found "short in his accounts," and was discharged by his employers; but, it is alleged, he continued to make collections in the name of the Association. To straighten up his affairs with the Fidelity Company, it is said he gave a mortgage on his "library" and inveigled a colored woman of his flock into giving a mortgage on her house for the same purpose. The Fidelity Company swooped down on his library and other household goods last evening. The parson owned a horse and dray which, it is said, he has mortgaged to a number of persons—to Mr. J. M. Walker for $43, to Tom Miller for $100, and to another party for 150.

THE THIRD PARTY. Weaver Strikes Fayetteville on His Wind-ing War with Mrs. Lease. [Special Star Correspondence.] FAYETTEVILLE, September 26.—Gen. Weaver and wife and Mrs. Lease arrived here at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Dr. Exum and Gen. Weaver will speak here to-morrow. A telegram announcing this fact preceded their coming, and there being a good many country people in town to-day, the news will be pretty generally spread, and no doubt every man of Third party tendencies will be here to-morrow. The speakers will be given a respectful hearing. Registration Notice. The registration books for the November election will be opened Thursday next at the various locations in the county, as described in the notice published in the STAR. In the First ward, on Fourth street, between Bladen and Harnett for the First Division; on Fourth street, between Brunswick and Bladen, for the Second Division; at No. 1115 Market street, for the Third Division. In the Second ward, at the County Court House; the Third ward, in the Giblem Lodge building. In the Fourth ward, at the Cape Fear Engine House. In the Fifth ward, at B. F. Swann's store, corner Front and Castle, for the First Division; at 808 Castle street, between Eighth and Ninth, for the Second Division. In Harnett township, at Macomber's store; in Cape Fear township, at M. G. Chadwick's residence; in Masonboro township, at Chas. W. Craig's residence; in Federal Point township, at Carolina Beach. The registrars are notified to call at the office of Mr. John Haas, Jr., Register of Deeds, and get their registration books. John C. Davis in Raleigh. Several gentlemen who have visited Raleigh recently say that John C. Davis, the noted swindler, was seen by them prowling around the streets of that city. A lawyer of Wilmington, who was in Raleigh when Gen. Stevenson was there, met Davis sauntering down one of the principal streets. He stopped Davis, shook hands with him and asked him about some of the Wilmington people. Davis didn't recognize his questioner, and didn't seem to know anything about anybody here. Another gentleman saw him in church last Sunday night in Raleigh, and said he seemed to be very happy and was singing "for all he was worth." This man should not be allowed to stroll around the streets of Raleigh alone, as he will have to be brought back to Wilmington and tried for the charges which now appear on record in the court house here against him if he recovers from the attack of insanity which developed as soon as his rascality was exposed.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted. Read the great letter of Grover Cleveland printed in the STAR to-day. Grover, Grover, read his letter all o-ver. Cleveland required only two thousand words to knock Harrison's eight thousand into a cocked grandfather's hat. There will be a special meeting of the Keeley Club this (Tuesday) evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance will be brought before the club. The British barque Gler cleared yesterday for Hull, Eng., with 2,300 casks spirits turpentine and 977 barrels rosin, valued at $32,702. Vessel and cargo by Messrs. Williams & Murchison. The welcome news reached here yesterday that there was no cholera either in New York or at quarantine being in the city. This should give a new impetus to business throughout the country. The following from the Charlotte Observer is "short but sweet": "The Wilmington STAR has just closed its twenty-fifth year. It is the oldest daily in the State and has never changed hands. And as it gets older it gets better." The Southern Express Company have moved into the Atlantic National Bank building, opposite the STAR office. They have a fine office on the first floor and private rooms on the second floor. "Westward the Star of empire takes its way." A correspondent of the New York Times says Chairman Eaves intimates that the Republican candidates for Congress in the Third, Fourth and Sixth districts will be withdrawn. Does Lawyer Caleb Periwinkle Lockey confess judgment or file a demurrer in this case? And now comes another Fayetteville correspondent and says, concerning the Stevenson procession: "If Troy had not put his shoulder to the wheel there would not have been any parade at all. Mr. Troy was at his place at the head of the procession, with Mr. Campbell in charge as First Adjutant." Our Fayetteville friends must settle this question among themselves. The STAR has now given both sides a hearing, and must decline any further communications on the subject.

GEORGE WILSON'S BIG SHOW. It Has Better Stars and More Features Than Ever Before. At last the favorite George Wilson and his superb company of minstrels come to answer the amusement of the great comedian's host of friends and admirers in this vicinity. The new big company, with the only Wilson at the head, will appear here at the Opera House on next Thursday night, September 29th. When speaking of Mr. Wilson it has become the custom of the press to mention him as an old friend. This is not at all astonishing when his long successful career is considered. He is now regarded as the star of stars, and no other performer in his line even dares to hint at putting his name in just-a-position with that of the great and only George Wilson. The company, collectively and individually, includes many of the most prominent comedians, vocalists, song and dance experts, musicians, special artists and bar-leaguers of the country, comprising in one grand organization all that is vest-ment and ultra gorgeous in the past realms of minstrelsy. At least it is regarded by newspaper critics as a little the biggest show that Mr. Wilson ever put out.

Senator Washburn, of Minnesota, says there is no enthusiasm for Harrison in his State, but neither is there any personal hostility to him. That is to say, Mr. Harrison is a sort of cypher, so to speak. But Mr. Harrison isn't the kind of man to inspire enthusiasm in States that are even warmer than Minnesota. The esteemed Globe Democrat, Republican, calls the esteemed Col. Shepard, Republican, of New York, "the incandescent idiot of the Mail and Express." It pays him a very warm compliment. There has been some difference of opinion as to whether Shepard was an idiot or an ass. His father-in-law, Commodore Vanderbilt, pronounced him a sample fool with two d's.

Storm at the North. There was a severe storm north of Richmond, Va., yesterday afternoon, between Washington, D. C., and New York city, but its effects were not noticeable here. During the forenoon the chief of the Weather Bureau at Washington telegraphed instructions to the station here to host the information signal. The storm was then central north of New England, moving eastward. Brisk to high northwesterly winds, increasing in force were the indications.
