LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

Hurrah for Cleveland and Carr. — The Third party is "in the soup." And the soup is made of three peas. — The British barque Augusta arrived at the Southport quarantine yesterday. — Some of the city churches have changed the hour for night services from 8 to 7.30 o'clock. — Hon. W. N. Robbins attended Grace M. E. Church on Sunday morning, and assisted in the services. — Grace Methodist Sunday School, last Sunday, adopted resolutions of respect to the memory of the late W. N. Jacobs. — Mr. J. Naumburg has completed his removal to 106 North Front street, where he has fitted up his store very handsomely. — Friday the 21st instant is a National holiday, as it is the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus. — Superintendent Donlan has Oakdale cemetery presenting a beautiful appearance, especially the section to the right of the entrance gate. — Lowry's excursion from Mount Airy to Wilmington will reach here tomorrow afternoon. A large crowd is expected, and will remain two days. — Read "Tariff in Pictures," in today's STAR. It will convince you that you are taxed, under the robber tariff, on almost everything, from the cradle to the grave. — Just four weeks from to-day Cleveland will be elected President of the United States, and four weeks from to-morrow night we'll put a crimson hue on the city. — The recent splendid victories should not make the Democrats overconfident. Work, work, work until the sun goes down on the 8th of next November. — Capt. O. A. Wiggins started fox hunting alone yesterday morning, but picked up the Third party (Mr. Melton) on the route and caught two foxes before 8 o'clock a. m. — Capt. A. D. Brown, who has recently spent some time in New York, says the Democrats will carry that State by a good majority, and they are confident of Cleveland's election. — Among the orders received yesterday for the Tariff edition of the STAR were one from Mr. J. F. Taylor, of Kinston, for fifty copies, and one from Mr. J. L. Powell, of Vineland, for one hundred copies. — Extra copies of the STAR are for sale at The Purcell, The Orton, Harris' news depot, and Lee's news depot, in "Brooklyn." Single copies ready for mailing may be had at the STAR office. — A few more orders for copies of to-day's STAR, containing "Tariff in Pictures," can be filled, but it is probable the whole extra edition will be exhausted in a day or two. Price, two cents per copy. — Don't forget the appointments of Hon. W. M. Robbins and Hon. C. W. McClammy at Bishop's Landing, Masonboro township, Wednesday, Oct. 12th, and at Seven-Mile Post, Harnett township, Thursday, Oct. 13th. — A gentleman who arrived here from Clinton Saturday night, says that notwithstanding the claims of the Third party to the contrary, that county will go Democratic by a decisive majority. The Democrats there are confident of success. — Col. E. D. Hall will discuss the issues of the day, to the people of Pender county, on Friday the 14th inst., at Old Piney Woods (or Columbia township). The Colonel says that he would like to meet all his old friends, and especially Confederate veterans. — The Wilmington Light Infantry are ordered out this afternoon to attend the funeral of their late comrade, Capt. C. D. Myers. Also, the members of Cape Fear Camp Confederate Veterans. The members of the Wilmington Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Co. No. 1, Fifth Ward Relief K. E. Co. No. 1, and Howard Relief K. E. Co. No. 1, are requested to attend the services at St. John's church at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Honorary members of these companies are also invited.

Orders for to-day's STAR have varied from five to four hundred copies, and are still coming in by every mail. We have, therefore, printed a very heavy edition to-day, and will have several hundred copies over after filling the orders now in. The campaign document, "Tariff in Pictures," has proved a great hit. — The STAR is requested to call the attention of the city authorities to the fact that last Sunday afternoon it was almost an impossibility for white citizens to use the board walk on Red Cross street, as the immense crowd attending the funeral of Ben Howard acted as if they had the exclusive use of the walk. — The STAR of to-day contains "Tariff in Pictures," the most popular campaign document ever circulated in the State, and a stirring address from Chairman Simmons. We have a few extra copies on hand, in addition to the large orders already received, at two cents a copy. Send orders at once. — The Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley R. R. will sell round trip tickets to Chicago on account of the dedicatory ceremonies of the World's Columbian Exposition Oct. 20th. The rate from Wilmington will be $33.55. Tickets will be sold Oct. 18 to 20th, with extreme limit to Oct. 27th. — Work was begun yesterday on the Sol. Bear building, northeast corner of Front and Princess streets, which is to be remodelled under a plan submitted by Mr. James F. Post, Sr. It will be a three-story building with a handsome store on the first floor. — There was an alarm of fire Sunday afternoon at 5.30 o'clock. The fire was on the roof of a small frame building on Ninth between Hanover and Brunswick streets. It was speedily extinguished and the damage was slight.

DEATH OF CAPT. C. D. MYERS

After a Prolonged Illness—In the Fifty-eighth Year of His Age. After many weeks of painful suffering, which he bore with great fortitude, Capt. Charles D. Myers quietly passed from the turmoil of life to the stillness of eternity at his residence in this city, yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock. He was in the fifty-eighth year of his age. He had been confined to his house for a long time, and while his friends—and they were a host—hoped that his robust constitution would enable him to triumph over the disease which had fastened on his vitals, it soon became evident that his death was but a mere question of time, and so, when the sad event was announced last evening it was not altogether unexpected. So passes away a genial, generous, large-hearted man, whose kindly sympathies were always quick to respond to the appeal of the suffering or to the cry of distress. He had many friends—few men have had more—who loved him for the many noble qualities of his nature, and who will miss the warm pressure of his hand, his cordial greeting, his playful jest, his tender sympathy. He would make any sacrifice for a friend and for those he loved, for there was no selfishness in his composition, and he was open-handed as the day, and generous to a fault. A truly lovable man. Mr. Myers was born in Connecticut and came to Wilmington when a mere youth. Prior to the war he was engaged in the hat business on Market street and was quite successful, but at the commencement of hostilities he joined the Confederacy, heart and soul, and served faithfully throughout that weary struggle, until the flag he loved so well was furled in defeat. He was for several years after the war engaged in the grocery business with Mr. J. L. Boatright of this city, under the firm name of C. D. Myers & Co., and which at one time was the leading grocery house of the city, doing an extensive and lucrative business. Upon the dissolution of that firm he opened a produce broker's office on Water street, in which business he was engaged when stricken down by disease. He was also at one time Chief of the Fire Department of the city and proved himself a very efficient officer. In 1857 he married a daughter of our esteemed townsman, Dr. A. J. DeRoset, and leaves a widow and a large family of children to mourn the loss of a loving husband and devoted father. May the turf rest lightly upon him, for the earth covers not a more generous heart, nor one more entirely unselfish. The funeral services will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at St. John's church, of which he has long been a consistent member.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Dr. E. Porter, of Rocky Mount, was in the city yesterday. — Miss Jennie Colwell, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to Charleston, S. C., her home. — Mr. G. W. Westbrook, of Wrightsville, Democratic candidate for the Legislature for New Hanover county, is in the city. — Mr. J. W. Ragsdale, of the Auditor's office of the A. C. L., has returned from his visit to Saratoga and New York city, much improved in health. — The STAR had the pleasure of a visit from Hon. B. F. Grady last night. He is making a thorough and effective canvass of his district and will be elected. — Mr. D. F. Davenport, of Baltimore, a popular drummer and a staunch Democrat, was in the city last night and presented the STAR with one of his Cleveland roosters. — Messrs. R. E. Lee Brown, Chadbourne, N. O'Berry, Goldsboro; W. H. Pyke, Southport; C. M. Hawkins, Raleigh; W. B. Goodwyn, Scott's Hill; J. C. Horne, Warsaw, were in the city yesterday. — Mr. A. David has gone on a business trip to New York. A STAR representative advised him to find some enthusiastic Republican manufacturer who would sell him clothing to be paid for when Harrison is elected.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard's Resignation as Pastor Tendered and Accepted. Rev. Thos. H. Pritchard, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, made a formal tender of his resignation last Sunday as pastor of the Church with a view to accepting the call he had recently received to the pastorate of Tryon Street Baptist Church of Charlotte, N. C. The resignation was announced at a meeting of the congregation held immediately after the morning service, and was received with many manifestations of regret. Dr. Pritchard advised that immediate steps be taken to secure another pastor, as his resignation would take effect January 1st, 1893. The resignation was accepted, and Messrs. J. C. Stevenson, W. F. Williams and Dr. J. H. Freeman were appointed a committee to draft suitable resolutions in appreciation of his services as pastor of the church for the past nine years. Pender County Republicans. The Republicans of Pender county in convention at Burgaw Saturday nominated D. J. Cavanaugh for the representative in the Legislature, C. C. Woodcock for Sheriff, and John J. Eakin for Register of Deeds. Mr. L. Vollers, of Pender, who was in Wilmington yesterday, says Mr. Woodcock told him he would not accept the nomination nor the office if elected by Republicans. He is a straight-out Democrat—a yard wide, an inch thick and a mile long—and has never been anything else.

"TWO OLD CRONIES"

At the Opera House To-night. The Philadelphia Press says of this play: Anderson's Union Comedians, in a new version of "Two Old Cronies," attracted a large and appreciative audience to the Arch last night. Although this popular musical farce has been seen here frequently in the past, it has never been presented with the vivacity and attractive costuming which characterized it last night. Miss Gussie Hart, a sinuous, agile and entertaining comedienne, is deserving of special mention. The "Two Old Cronies," Messrs. E. M. Ryan and John Sheehan, were very clever and exceedingly funny. The Sisters Hollywood, two pretty girl dancers, received three encores, and were compelled to decline a fourth recall from the enthusiastic upper galleries. Mr. Frederick Carberry, Miss Lotta Hollywood, Miss Elvira Frenelli and Mr. Will Sherman, the specialty artists who added spice to the performance. Good singing, clever dancing and witticisms, and some odd extravaganzas in make-up and costumes, are leading features of the piece, which changes its scene of action with sufficient rapidity to satisfy the most ardent admirer of this class of burlesque. Reserved seats on sale at Yates'.

Stocks of naval stores at the ports at the close of the week are reported as follows: Spirits turpentine—New York, 640 casks; Charleston, 2,421; Savannah, 13,075; Wilmington, 5,289. Total, 21,425 casks. Rosin—New York, 18,081 barrels; Charleston, 5,918; Savannah, 88,961; Wilmington, 58,813. Total, 161,177 barrels. Tar—New York, 3,779 barrels; Wilmington, 4,717. In the Wilmington district the lowest temperature reported was at Lumberton—88 degrees; at Charlotte and Cheraw 40; Weldon, 42; Wilmington 48. The average was 48 degrees. Club Meeting. The regular weekly meeting of the Young Men's Central Democratic Club will be held at the City Court Room to-night. There is business of importance to be transacted, and it is earnestly requested that every member be present. Turn out, boys, and join the procession. Easily One of the Best. Shelby Review. The Wilmington STAR completed the twenty-fifth year of its publication a few days ago. The STAR is not only the oldest daily in the State, but it easily ranks as one of the best. We wish for it continued success.

DISCUSSION AT CLINTON.

Mr. John D. Bellamy Jr., discussed political questions of the day last Saturday at Clinton in behalf of Democracy, with Mr. Cy. Thompson, Third party elector for the Third Congressional district. There was a large number of the voters of Sampson county at the meeting, about two-thirds of whom were Third party men. From all accounts, Mr. Bellamy's speech was an effective one. He opened the debate, and in his remarks after reminding Mr. Thompson that he (Thompson) was a member of the State Democratic Convention that nominated Carr for Governor, asked who he intended to support. Mr. Thompson replied that he would vote for Mr. Carr for Governor and Mr. Grady for Congress.

COMMON SENSE TEACHERS

That a blood purifier, in order to thoroughly purify the blood, must have alternative powers. The entire system must be cleansed, and all traces of disease removed, before nature can effect a cure. We say and can prove that the only remedy on earth that possesses the combined qualities of an anti-septic, alternative and blood purifier, is RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER. It is the only medicine that can be taken in large enough quantities to stop fermentation, destroy microbes (the germs of disease), and not in any way cause harm to the patient. It contains no drugs whatsoever, but is a water charged with powerful germ-destroying gases. As a Spring medicine, it is unequalled. Fifty-page book free. ROBT. E. BELLAMY, Agent, Wilmington, N. C.
