John Hambright, Colored, Executed for the Murder of Jenks Macobson.

SHELBY, N. C., Feb. 17.—John Hambright, colored, was hung to-day for the murder of Jenks Macobson, also colored, in January, 1892.

Over 3,000 people stood for several hours in a drizzling rain to see the execution.

While the prisoner was on the scaffold, rain fell heavy. The drop fell at 12:30 o'clock, and in eleven minutes physicians pronounced life extinct.

Hambright confessed the murder, but said he did not intend to kill Macobson.

PARSON LONEY.

The Colored Evangelist Arrested in Norfolk Charged with Organizing a Free Love Society.

Parson Loney, the negro evangelist, who created a sensation among the colored people of Wilmington a short time ago, and whose followers here still hold so-called religious meetings, has been arrested in Norfolk, Va., charged with organizing a free love society.

The Norfolk Virginian gives an account of his arrest, viz:

Yesterday afternoon, on information furnished by Rev. M. A. Levy, J. S. Summers and C. H. Williams, colored, warrants were issued for the arrest of Elijah Loney and associates, who are charged with organizing a free love society in this city.

Captains Mordica and Vellines and Detectives Prince, Pitt and Heppel raided 119 Riley street and captured the whole gang—three men and sixteen women, all colored.

Loney, a large, heavy negro, was seen in his cell at the station house. He said that he is an evangelist of the Holiness Band which was organized in California in 1881.

That he came to Virginia about a year ago, and has been in Norfolk about two months. He is the only colored evangelist connected with the Band. His associates are singers. He denies that he believes in free love, but has some remarkable ideas as regards marriage and divorce.

He is smart, educated and a dangerous man to any community. His choir rendered several musical selections at the station house, and sing well. Nine of the women are from North Carolina, the remainder are from Virginia.

Loney's possession was found a card, published in a North Carolina paper, denouncing matrimony and declaring that men and women should run off with other men's wives. The case will come up before Justice East this morning.

CORBETT, MITCHELL AND JACKSON.

Corbett Deposits Checks to Bind Matches With Mitchell and Jackson—A Purse of $75,000 Offered.

The New York Herald gives the following in regard to the "great events" now agitating sporting circles:

Champion James J. Corbett stands ready to defend his title of heavy weight champion of the world, which he won from John L. Sullivan, against "Charley" Mitchell, of England, or Peter Jackson, of Australia. He so declared himself through his manager, William A. Brady, and his trainer, "Billy" Delaney, yesterday by posting forfeits to the amount of $12,500 for finish fights with the talkative Britisher and the famous colored pugilist.

Brady and Delaney arrived from St. Paul, Minn., at a quarter to four o'clock p. m. yesterday smiling and happy. They came armed with two checks, one calling for $10,000 and the other for $2,500, both drawn on the Bank of the Metropolis and signed by Corbett, and also a paper with the Californian's signature empowering them to match him against Mitchell or Jackson.

POSTING THE FORFEITS. One hour after their arrival both men appeared at George Dickinson's office and stated that the object of their visit was to accept the challenges issued by the Australian and Englishman respectively on behalf of Corbett, and to post forfeits as a guarantee of the champion's willingness to defend the title.

Mr. Brady then handed Mr. Dickinson Corbett's check calling for $10,000, and said: "I leave this check with you on behalf of James J. Corbett, the heavy weight champion of the world, as a forfeit for a finish fight with Charles Mitchell, the recognized boxing champion of England, for the heavy weight championship of the world, a stake of $10,000 a side and the largest purse offered." Turning the twenty-five hundred dollar check over to Mr. Dickinson Manager Brady said: "This check stands as forfeit for a finish fight with Peter Jackson, of Australia, in the event of Mitchell flunking and under the same conditions."

WHAT CORBETT SAYS. Mr. Brady then pulled the following statement out of his pocket and read it over carefully:

In accordance with the plans laid out for myself on September 7 last I take this opportunity of announcing that I am now prepared to defend the title I hold. In evidence of my good faith I hereby deposit $10,000, and I have authorized William A. Brady and William Delaney to meet Charles Mitchell, of England, or his representatives, and arrange a match to box to a finish for the championship of the world, $10,000 a side and the largest purse offered by the Coney Island Athletic Club, the Olympic Athletic Club, of New Orleans, or the Crescent City Athletic Club, of the same city, the contest to be according to Marquis of Queensberry rules, the club to have no power to stop the same or to declare a draw. It must be to a finish.

On account of prevailing contracts and the deposit of $10,000, and I have to require to train, the battle will have to take place next December. If Mitchell accepts this proposition I insist on his depositing the whole amount of the side bet ($10,000) at once, and also that he agree to the final stakeholder when the articles are signed.

To PETER JACKSON.—I hereby accept Peter Jackson's challenge of recent date and to-day deposit the sum of $2,500 as a forfeit to bind the match under the following conditions: If Charles Mitchell does not accept my terms for a contest with him I am prepared to box Peter Jackson to a finish next December for $10,000 a side and the largest purse offered by the Coney Island Athletic Club, the Olympic Athletic Club, of New Orleans, or the Crescent City Athletic Club, of the same city. If Mitchell does accept the above proposition I will make a match immediately with Peter Jackson to fight seven months after I meet Mitchell for the amount mentioned in his challenge. If Mr. Jackson so desires I will increase my deposit to $10,000 at once, if he will do the same, said amount to be forfeited in case either of us shall not act in accordance with the agreement. I am prepared to sign this week, or, further, if Mr. Mitchell should sign to meet me, then "flunk," Jackson is at liberty to take his (Mitchell's) place in December next.

JAMES J. CORBETT.

NO CHOICE OF CLUBS. "Have you any choice of clubs?" I asked Brady.

"None whatever, Corbett only bars one organization—the California Athletic Club. He would prefer to fight in San Francisco, but as the only club of standing in that city—the Pacific Athletic Club—cannot compete in the matter of a big purse with the Coney Island, Olympic or Crescent City, the club offering the largest purse will get the match."

WANTS A $75,000 PURSE. "How large a purse do you expect will be offered for the battle?"

"About $75,000. The Coney Island Athletic Club has already offered a $50,000 purse, while Henry Lehman, of the Crescent City Athletic Club has promised a purse of $85,000. I received a telegram to-day from Newton, of the Coney Island Athletic Club, who is now in Columbus, Ohio, asking me to meet him Saturday and not to accept the bid of any rival organization until his club had made another for the match."

Delaney interpreted Brady at this point and said: "Corbett is so anxious to fight that he would put on the gloves with the Englishman for a purse of $5,000 in addition to the stake money."

The inspection committee having been requested to define a "machine barrel," after investigation, come to the following conclusion: A machine barrel is one whose staves and heads have been made, shaped, beveled and curved by machinery, and in case of dispute should conform to following dimensions and proportions: Length of staves should be 81 1/2 to 82 1/2 inches from croze to croze; heads should be 19 1/2 to 20 1/2 inches diameter and perfectly round. Diameter at bung inside barrel 23 1/2 to 24 1/2 inches. Head hoops should be not less than 1 1/4 inch iron; bilge and quarter hoops not less than 1 1/2 inch iron.
