There are constant calls for the record of Ed. Smith, the champion of Colorado, who is matched against Joe Goddard for a purse of $10,000, the fight to take place before the Olympic Club on March 3.

Smith's record is a marvel of successful battles fought on both sides of the Atlantic. He is of Scotch and Irish parents. Born in Birmingham, England, and will be 24 years old next St. Patrick's day. Smith's early days were spent on Wharf street where he was recognized ence in a roar of laughter from the beginning until it was finished. Those taking part in this were "Aunt Martha," Katie Bell;" Jack Cole," Carrie May Von-Glahn; "Grand Mother Cole," Davy Duffy: "Syrus Gordon," Robert Post. The stage delivery of Misses Carrie VonGlahn, Katie Bell and Davy Duffy, was exceedingly good and showed very fine training. Between the acts Miss Alma Williams favored the audience with a few very fine instrumental selections on the plano.
