OUTLINES.

Washington News—Gifts of gold to the Treasury Department; news of the stranding of two vessels, and safety of the crews.

Gov. Pennyroyer of Oregon, is in a rage, and all because the Democrats, in spite of his orders to the contrary, took the only cannon that belonged to the State, put it upon the wheels from which he had it dismounted, rolled it down near his house, filled it half full of powder, banged away and proceeded to celebrate President Cleveland's inauguration.

A farmer in Maine is making money by raising swans, which are not hard to raise. The average hatch yields from three to six young swans, which are worth when about fourteen months old, the age at which they mature, from $40 to $75 a pair.

Arrangements are being made so that President Cleveland's speech at the opening of the World's Fair in Chicago may be heard by telephone in New York. It is getting the thing down pretty fine, when a man can talk to an audience and be distinctly heard over a distance of 900 miles.

Mr. Dahlberg, of Des Moines, Iowa, is the proud possessor of a petrified man, which was found in the Bad Lands of Dakota. It is perfect, which is somewhat remarkable considering the locality it came from.

Mr. Chauncey M. Depew advises young men to study politics, join a party, go to meetings and throw their influence for honesty and decency. And where would the Republican party be then, Chauncey?

Mr. Wade Hampton has been offered his choice between United States Railroad Commissioner and Register of the Treasury, and has accepted the latter.

Portland, Maine, Tom Reed's home, has gone Democratic, and the Republicans, who are dazed by it, say they can't understand it. A good many things have happened lately that they can't understand.

Secretary Carlisle says he never knew until he became Secretary of the Treasury how many friends he had in making him what he is. But he is beginning to find out.

State Comptroller Wemple of New York, estimates that $2,500,000,000 of personal property in that State escapes taxation. According to his last report $404,173,588 of personal property was assessed, less than one-fifth of the amount which escaped.

Murat Halstead, formerly of Cincinnati, now of Brooklyn, rises to predict that Cleveland's administration will be a failure. As a prophet Murat is not a distinguished success. Somehow or another his prophecies that Mr. Harrison would walk Mr. Cleveland's log last Fall didn't pan out.

Mr. Hyams, the builder of that Mitchell county battle, must have moved his base of operations over to Tennessee. The latest is a report of a fierce and bloody fight in a church at Doden, in that State, over the attempt of a female member of the flock to introduce crinolines in that moral vineyard.

A New York man was excused from jury service in New York last Monday because his nineteenth little boy had the croup and his twenty-first child wasn't well. There was nothing said about the others, the Judge doubtless concluding that the man who had twenty-one scions to look after, with the nineteenth little boy requiring special attention, did duty enough for one citizen.

England will send over a large number of detectives to watch the English crooks that may come to the World's Fair, and to protect English visitors and exhibitors. Some other foreign countries will do likewise. Principal cities in different States of this country have been requested by the Fair management to do the same. All this is very thoughtful, and will, doubtless, have some effect in limiting the operations of the crook fraternity.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

An entire new registration is required for the city election for the present month.

An old landmark, the small store corner of Chesnut and Sixth streets, has been removed.

The schooner Kate V. Aiken, wrecked on Charleston bar yesterday, was a frequent visitor at Wilmington.

"Seeking to See Jesus" will be the subject of Rev. A. D. McClure's discourse at St. Andrew's church tomorrow evening.

Rev. W. S. Rone's (Presiding Elder) appointments are at Cerro Gordo to-day and Sunday, and at Whiteville on Sunday night.

Messrs. Williams & Murchison cleared the Norwegian barque Snar yesterday for London, Eng., with 4,781 barrels rosin, valued at $6,310.11.

No matter how often you have voted before or how long you have lived in the ward, you have to register again to vote at the coming city election.

Prayer and experience meeting of working and business men as usual at 8 o'clock to-night at the Seaman's Bethel. Seafaring men and ladies are also invited to attend.

The STAR is requested to say that commencing with to-morrow night and continuing until further notice, the Sunday night services at Grace M. E. church will begin at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Fairfax Irwin, of the Marine Hospital service, some years ago stationed in Wilmington, has been detailed under the quarantine act passed by Congress, to inspect vessels at Marseilles, France, before their departure for the United States.

The protracted meeting at Fifth Street M. E. church has closed and the meeting at Bladen Street M. E. church was to have closed on Tuesday night last, but there was so much interest manifested at the regular weekly prayer meeting Wednesday night—that being about sixteen penitents at the altar for prayer—that service was again held last night.

Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium. More interest is being shown in the gymnasium now than ever. Young men are constantly joining for the benefits to be had in this department of the association work. "Basket ball" continues to interest everyone as much as ever; the game is truly a fine one, as it exercises nearly every muscle in the body. Professor Clayton will have a fine new ball in a day or two and then the young men will go at the game with renewed vigor. Through the kindness of Mr. D. G. Worth the gymnasium department will have the use of the vacant lot on Nut street next to the Worth building. It will be utilized for outdoor sports, such as running, pole-vaulting, shot putting, jumping, tennis, basket ball, etc. The lot will be immediately cleared of all rubbish and put in readiness for use.

Fatal Accident. Jos. Sweat, a colored boy about eighteen years old, of this city, was fatally injured near Burgaw last Thursday night. He was "stealing a ride" on the tracks of one of the cars of No. 48 train on the W. & W. railroad, and as the train pulled out from Burgaw fell on the track. Both of his legs were cut off above the knees and he died a few hours afterwards. He was attended by physicians summoned by the railroad authorities, but their efforts to save his life were unavailing. His remains were brought to Wilmington yesterday and turned over to his relatives for burial. The boy's family say that he ran away from home in company with two colored boys.

Knights of the Golden Eagle. The Supreme Chief of the World of the Knights of the Golden Eagle arrived in the city yesterday morning and was met at the depot by a committee from Stonewall Jackson and Concordia Castles, and after being shown around the city in the forenoon, Mr. S. W. Holden and Mr. Isaac Northrop, as a committee, accompanied him to Wrightsville and Ocean View, where an oyster roast was tendered him. Last night a joint meeting of Concordia and Stonewall Jackson Castles was held at the latter's room, where he addressed the Knights. They are well pleased with his visit and hope he will come again soon.

The Choir for the Moody Meetings. Forty-three persons will comprise the choir for the Moody meetings, under the direction of Rev. A. D. McClure. Nearly all the churches are represented. They met last Thursday night at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, for practice. Monday night they will meet at the same place, and next Wednesday at the Congress, where the meetings will begin the Saturday following.

State Guard Appointments. Gov. Carr has appointed the following officers in the N. C. S. G.: Major and Assistant Adjutant General—William B. Grimes. Major and Assistant Surgeon General—Dr. S. Westray Battle, of Asheville. Major and Assistant Quartermaster General—E. W. Manning, of Wilmington.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Fortnight Paraphrase Fortnightly Principally to People and Pointedly Printed.

Mr. H. A. Kure is on the sick list.

Mr. Wm. J. Penny is sick at his home in this city.

Mr. W. H. Gilbert says he is a candidate for alderman in the Second ward.

Mr. H. P. West is not a candidate for aldermanic honors in the Second ward.

Mr. J. S. Newton, of South Washington, N. C., was a visitor at the STAR office yesterday.

Mr. Jno. S. James, father of Mr. Josh. T. James, of the Review, celebrated his 87th birthday yesterday.

Messrs. Bruce Williams, Burgrave, M. Dew, Stevenson, Newburn, J. J. Adkins, Sam. S. Drew, Ed. F. Davis, Southport, were among the arrivals in the city yesterday.

Tea Orders for Lent. In order to still further popularize the cheap advertising department of the STAR, headed "Business Locals," the charge is reduced to 10 cents per line, but no advertisement will be taken for less than 25 cents. There are many advertisements that can be condensed into three lines, for which the charge will be only 30 cents for each insertion, while five lines (about forty words) will cover a large majority of the announcements that should properly go in the cheap column.

The "Business Locals" are all leaded, and occupy a prominent position in the STAR; and the reduction of one-third in the rate formerly charged places this department within the reach of all classes.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The Southern Passenger Association will hold a meeting at St. Augustine to-day for the purpose of discussing rates to the Chicago Fair, and also the question of withdrawing unlimited tickets.

Two of the first locomotives constructed in Europe are en route for the World's Fair. They were built at Durham, England, in 1837 and 1838. They are queer pieces of mechanism as compared with those at present in use, having vertical cylinders and connecting rods; with fire-boxes and smoke-boxes in front. The locomotives are accompanied by a tender and an old-fashioned passenger coach upholstered in satin.

There will be a large gathering of railroad men and telegraphers in Charlotte on the second Sunday in April. The meeting will be composed of members of the Order of Railroad Conductors, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, and Order of Telegraphers. The engineers will come from the towns of Columbia, Florence, Asheville, Wilmington, North Danville, Laurinburg, Fayetteville and Elberton. The conductors will come from Columbia, Wilmington, Raleigh and Asheville; the firemen from Columbia, Asheville, Charleston and Danville, and the telegraphers from Rawesville, Denmark, Columbia and Wilmington. The meeting will be held in Masonic Temple.

One of the most important railroad projects now in contemplation, with almost a certainty of its completion, is the railway proposed to connect Alaska primarily, and the United States secondarily, with Cape Prince of Wales, the extreme northwestern part of Alaska. Though remote from this section, the question is interesting. It will make it possible for a traveler to reach London and other points in Europe by virtually an all-rail route. Among the many articles of import which would be cheapened by the completion of this line the most important would be tea. The route has been surveyed. The distance from Victoria, B. C., to Cape Prince of Wales is 3,346 miles. Years ago Senator Stanford gave it as his opinion that a trans-continental road could be built and profitably operated over this route and across the Behring straits to Russia, there connecting with the Russian railroad, which will be completed to the straits in about three years. The scenery along the line is magnificent.

James Freeman, a colored man about forty years of age, was badly hurt yesterday morning. Freeman drives the large two-horse truck belonging to the Carolina rice mills, and while engaged in that duty yesterday fell from his seat to the roadway on Nut street. The wheels of the truck passed diagonally over his body from the right hip to the left shoulder, with terrible effect, blood gushing from his mouth and nose. Freeman was taken up unconscious and carried to his home on Walnut between Front and Second streets, and physicians were called to attend him. The truck had a load on it of about 3,000 pounds in weight.

Last night Freeman was conscious, and there was some hope that he would survive the injuries he received.

AT THE Y. M. C. A.

A Busy Day—Various Meetings—The Secretary's Monthly Report.

Yesterday and last night was a busy time at the Young Men's Christian Association building. The attendance at the various meetings, &c., was as follows: At the boys' gymnasium class, 17; young men's gymnasium class, 10; monthly meeting of Board of Directors, 10; union choir practice for the Moody meetings, 43; meeting of Sunday School superintendents to arrange for holding a county convention, 6. Total number of visitors, 155.

At the men's meeting to-morrow afternoon, Rev. W. T. Jones will speak, and all men are invited. A prayer meeting for boys between twelve and sixteen years of age will be held at ten o'clock. The Social Committee has invited all the sinners of the city to meet them to-night for a few social pleasures.

Some of the figures for February as taken from the report of the general secretary, Mr. Thos. C. Diggs, are as follows: Daily average attendance, 81; at daily noon meetings, 8; Sunday Gospel meetings, 44; boys' meetings, 17; gymnasium attendance, daily, 27; baths, 255; present membership, 328.

North Carolina Appointments and Disappointments. The Washington correspondent of the Richmond, Va., Times says:

It is virtually conceded that the North Carolina positions for the Eastern district will go as follows: District Attorney, Charles B. Aycock, of Goldsboro; United States Marshal, the drummer's candidate, O. J. Carroll of Raleigh, and Collector of Internal Revenue, F. M. Simmons. The collectorship of the port of Wilmington is a subject of contention between Messrs. F. W. Kerchner and W. R. Kuanan. Both are gentlemen of the highest plane, and both are recommended by a host of staunch admirers.

The appointment of Mr. Collins as Consul-General to London has blasted the hopes of Editor Hale, of the Fayetteville Observer, but it is not unlikely that he may be otherwise tendered a position commensurate with his talents.

The appointment of Judge Gray to the Mexican mission drops out of line quite a long list of aspirants. Virginia fails in this case to enjoy the success of Mr. Basil B. Gordon, and North Carolina regrets the perished ambitions of two of her ex-Congressmen, Messrs. Robbins and Green.

The New Pastor of the First Baptist Church. It is stated that Rev. W. B. Oliver, the new pastor of the First Baptist Church, of this city, will preach his farewell sermon to his congregation in Fayetteville next Sunday night. He will arrive here with his family some time next week, and preach his first sermon to the congregation here on the ensuing Sunday morning. He will reside in the house at the northeast corner of Dock and Fifth streets.
