Love of flowers is one of the characteristics of Southern towns. It is noted that in the town of Troy, Ala., a little place of 3,500 inhabitants, which means about 700 families, there are 104 flower pits and greenhouses, which would be one to every seven dwellings. The abundance and variety of flowers in Southern yards is something that always attracts the attention and comment of the stranger. But it is not hard to and VonGlahn. The late Chief of Police, Col. E. D. Hall, submitted through the Board an address to the force, which was read by Mr. P. B. Manning and ordered spread on the minutes and furnished the press for publication. The ex-chief speaks in general commendation of the members of the police force, and suggests that the city government make a law by which each officer on arriving at a certain age and whose record has proven satisfactory, be pensioned, at a nominal rate, at least enough to keep body and soul together. He suggests, also, in view of the fact that during the past severe winter, when there was much suffering among the poor of the city and many applications to the city authorities were made, and there was no way of affording alleviation for human suffering except by the individual efforts of members of the city government, that a liberal appropriation be made by the city government for charitable purposes, such appropriation to be placed in the hands of the Ladies' Benevelent Society for distribution. Mr. Thomas W. Strange asked Alderman Moore to place the following resolution before the board, which was read and adopted unanimously, viz: WHEREAS. It appears to this board that the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company and the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad Company on June 1st, 1892, owned the following property, subject to taxation in the city of Wilmington, which these corporations failed to list for taxation and which have not been entered upon the tax list or assessment roll for the current year it is ordered that the same be entered upon the said list at the following valuations, and that the said tax list be corrected accordingly Real estate-Warehouse owned by the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad (and used by the W., C. & A. R. R. Co.) value $25,000. One-half interest in lands in the city of Wilmington, owned by the W. & W. R. R. Co. and the W., C. & A. R. R. Co. for terminal purposes in common, value (half interest) $75,000. Office and buildings, used jointly by both the W. & W. R. R. Co. and the W., C. & A. R. Co., owned by the W. & W. R. R. Co., value (half interest) $20,000.

Cash on hand, June 1st, 1892, $539, Net income' from all sources, $371, 391.87.

Excess of rolling stock over rate, W. & W. R. R., value $500,000. Stock in other companies—Atlantic Coast Line sleeping car trust, $7,399.02; Westinghouse Air Brake Co., $1,300; North Eastern R. R. Co., $11,400; cash on hand owned by the W., C. & A. Railroad Co., $64,599. Stocks owned by the W. C. & A. R. R. Co.-Wilmington Railway Bridge Co., $10,000; Atlantic Coast Line sleeping car association, $87,300; Cheraw & Salisbury, $15,857.61.

And it is further ordered that the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company and the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad Company show cause before this Board on the first Monday in May, 1893, at ten o'clock, at the city court room, in the City of Wilmington, why the said tax list shall not be corrected and the payment of said taxes be enforced, together with such penalties as the law prescribes for failure to list. The Board then adjourned.

NAVAL STORES. End of the Crop Year-A Slight Falling Off in Receipts-Stocks at the Ports.

Yesterday, the 1st of April, was the end of the naval stores year. Report of the general round-up of the season shows a falling off in receipts of the various articles at this port, as compared with receipts for the previous year. Of spirits turpentine. there were received 57,536 casks, against receipts of 58,999 last year; rosin, 261,894 barrels, against 294,520 last year; tar, 67,142 barrels, against 68,798 last year; and crude turpentine, 14,855

How Henry Collins Committed Suicide Near Fayetteville, N. C. [Special Star Correspondence.]

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., March 31,-Henry Collins, colored, who has been for several years one of the best truck farmers of this county, committed suicide on his place about four miles west of Fayetteville this morning, by split ting his head wide open with an axe. He first attempted to shoot himself in the head with a pistol, but was prevented by his son, who discovered his intentions and took the pistol away from him The cause of the rash deed is unknown. His conduct for several days has indicated a weakening of his mind, and he has been carefully watched by his son. Collins was one of the most highly esteemed colored citizens of the county, and "the manner of his taking off" is regretted by both white and colored. He was a widower and his child-
