Washington News—Mrs. Cleveland's first reception; a veto; the income tax; the war in Honduras.

It is said the committee on appropriations in the House of Representatives are bent on economizing and will reduce the appropriations $35,000,000 in the aggregate.

A Cincinnati man says he has discovered a solder with which dentists can solder teeth to aluminum plates.

Ninety-three cotton manufacturers of Oldham, England, have made a profit the last two years of less than one per cent.

They have evolved a sweet potato in Florida which grows from a bush, not a vine. It doesn't grow from the branches, however, but like a respectable Irish potato, in the ground.

Some of Senator Voorhees' Indiana admirers have started a little Presidential boom for him. They did it at the Congressional Convention which met last Monday at Richmond, in that State.

Bob Ingersoll is in favor of annexing not only Hawaii but the West Indies, the Bermudas, the Bahamas, the Barbadoes and any other patches of land that may be lying around loose.

"Tiny Tim," the smallest man in the world, who was for a long time a big attraction in Barnum's Circus, has gone to the bad.

The most interesting cabbage-head we have struck for some time is reported from the town of Ellwood (O.).

A SPLENDID OFFER.

All readers of THE DAILY STAR should avail themselves of the splendid opportunity offered them of securing the Stoddard Art Album at a purely nominal price.
