Congress yesterday—Tariff bill discussed in the Senate; the Behring Sea bill passed; the issue of bonds; the contested election case decided.

Bismarck is happy again. His doctor has given him permission to drink beer and smoke his pipe.

The New Orleans thief who stole bibles from four or five churches didn't propose to go into the mission-ary business.

Mr. George Gould will leave New York and take up his residence in New Jersey. Living is cheaper in New Jersey than it is in New York.

The first trio to take an aerial voyage was a sheep, a cock and a duck, which went up to a height of 1,500 feet in 1773.

Sunday was Bismarck's 80th birthday. As a token of regard a lot of his women admirers sent him a case of schnapps.

Miss Bunch, who ran for Superintendent of Public Schools in Arcola, Ill., got there, for she stood at the polls and pinned a bunch of flowers on each voter as he toddled up to the polls, and that got 'em.

A St. Louis young lady who wanted brilliant eyes invested in a lot of decoctions and now couldn't see a hole in the sun.

They have some very depraved thieves in Philadelphia. A gang of them failed in the attempt to rob a church of its silver communion service because they went about it in a bungling way and waked up the police.

It may be interesting to learn that there are 900 separate and distinct species of cockroaches classified in the British museum, and a Chinaman wouldn't kill one of them to save his cue.

A petition is in circulation in Central Kentucky, signed by some of the most prominent women of that section, praying Congress to expel W. C. P. Breckinridge, whose presence in Congress they pronounce "a dishonor to the womanhood of his State."

The appointment of Hon. Patrick Walsh, of the Augusta Chronicle, to succeed the late Senator Colquitt in the Senate is a fitting recognition of a very able man and a bustling good Democrat.

The late Senator Colquitt, of Georgia, had $10,000 insurance on his life. This, with his home on the suburbs of Atlanta, is all he has left his family. He did not pursue the dollar with as much zeal as some of the Senators who have managed out of the same salary to build fine homes in Washington and maintain them in lavish style.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. are busy as bees in preparation for the convention to be held here this week.

In the City Court yesterday, Grace McNeill, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $10 and costs.

The stage of water in the Cape Fear river at Fayetteville at 8 a. m. Monday, was 54; a fall of 1.0 foot in the previous 24 hours.

Mr. J. S. Boney shipped the first crate of strawberries this season from Wallace yesterday. They were consigned to a Philadelphia house.

Mr. Henry Latimer's steam yacht Pastime was damaged to the amount of $50 or $75 by collision with a vessel in the harbor a day or two ago.

Within the past two days orders for 238 of the Stoddard Portfolios were received at the STAR office. They are "going like hot cakes" now.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange, held yesterday, on motion, a cordial invitation was extended to the merchants and business men to attend the annual meeting of the Exchange, to be held next Tuesday, the 10th inst.

One of the most attractive exhibits in this line ever made in Wilmington may be seen in the windows of George R. French & Sons, the old and well known dealers in boots and shoes.

The entertainment for the benefit of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, to be given this afternoon and evening at the residence of Mrs. W. A. French, 107 South Front street, will be full of fun, and will no doubt attract a large crowd.

Marshall's Mammoth Minstrels which have given three successful amateur performances in this city will appear again and for the last time, on Friday night, March 13th, and at a matinee the following afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

The Greensboro Record says: Last Saturday afternoon a telegram was received here by the C. F. & Y. V. V. officials stating that a receiver had been appointed for that company.

These gentlemen knew that sooner or later the step would be taken, for it was plain to the eyes of all that it would be made in the interest due June 1st next, and prior to this time they would have taken the necessary steps themselves.

Talking with several of the more prominent officers of the road, we were told that the appointment of Mr. Gill is, as far as known, perfectly satisfactory to them, but there is one thing they cannot understand—why such action should have been taken so quietly.

Mr. Gill is trustee for the second mortgage bonds. It is not known, nor can it yet be surmised, what so suddenly brought about the appointment.

An interesting and amusing show at the Opera House.

The Opera House was crowded last night with an audience which was interested, amused and pleased.

The most interesting feature of the entertainment last night was the part performed by Zera Semon's little son about seven or eight years of age, who sang beautifully and articulated splendidly.

Zera Semon gives another entertainment at the Opera House to-night.

Exports Foreign and Domestic.

The schooner John H. Cannon cleared yesterday for New Haven, Conn., with 212,000 feet lumber.

MONEY IN FACTORIES.

Nothing the Matter With the Augusta Cotton Factories—Why Not Build Another Factory in Wilmington?

Another necessary stock for a cotton factory in Wilmington? We have one factory here now, under excellent management, and with a very bright future.

It would seem that there is money in cotton manufacturing in Augusta, and there is no reason to doubt that several factories might be operated profitably in Wilmington.

Besides, we need such enterprises to give employment to our idle population.

Read this encouraging report of the Augusta cotton factories from the Chronicle:

The cotton mills at Augusta are in a most flourishing condition and they all are having fine trade and doing an immense business, and reaping fair profits.

Several of the factories have sold goods far in advance and others have orders on hand that will keep the mills running every second of the full time to keep up with the demand.

President James P. Verdery of the Enterprise factory told the Chronicle yesterday that he had received an order from a Northern house for 4,000 bales of goods at a fair profit and that it will keep him busy for some time.

The annual output of the Enterprise is about 8,000 bales; so it will take about six months to fill the order.

The value of the order is about $250,000.

President Thomas Barrett, of the Langley Mills, says he has a number of orders on hand and that the factory is kept running constantly on full time to keep up with the demand.

He says all the mills here and over the river are doing a splendid business and have no trouble in selling the manufactured goods which are favored in the market and more sought after than any other goods.

The foreign trade season is about over, but the trade in this country is very active right now.

Most of the goods manufactured here are shipped North.

President H. C. Hester, of the Graniteville Factory, recently received an order for 2,000 bales, which will take some time to fill.

The factory securities are considered the very best thing among the money people of this city for investment, and the stock is eagerly sought for on the market, and is very saleable, and sellers have no difficulty in disposing of their stocks at good prices.

None of the factories have failed to pay their usual dividends, and they are all making money.

The C. F. & Y. V. R. E. Receivership.

The Greensboro Record says: Last Saturday afternoon a telegram was received here by the C. F. & Y. V. V. officials stating that a receiver had been appointed for that company.

The information was a perfect surprise to everybody, officials of the road as well.

These gentlemen knew that sooner or later the step would be taken, for it was plain to the eyes of all that it would be made in the interest due June 1st next, and prior to this time they would have taken the necessary steps themselves.

PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT

At Point Caswell—To Aid in the Erection of an Episcopal Church.

POINT CASWELL, N. C., April 3. EDITOR STAR:—A very pleasing and nicely arranged entertainment was given at Point Caswell last Friday night for the benefit of a fund to assist in building an Episcopal Church at Atkinson, a short distance from here.

The entertainment was managed by Mrs. E. A. Hawes, assisted by Miss Farmer and Miss Jane Tillghast, of Fayetteville, N. C.

Miss Nellie Vollers took the leading part. The following young men participated: Upland Moore, J. R. Hawes, Lee Simpson, Jesse Lucas, Ed. Hollingsworth, Ed. Hawes, Fred. Simpson and Steve Hawes.

The occasion was a delightful one and a neat sum was realized.

FUNERAL SERVICES. Funeral services over the remains of the late Col. B. R. Moore were held yesterday at St. Thomas' Catholic church, conducted by Rev. Father Dennen, assisted by Rev. Dr. Kieran.

Besides the relatives there was a large attendance of friends of the deceased, including many members of the Bar of Wilmington, who followed the remains to Oakdale cemetery, where the interment took place.

The pall-bearers were Hon. O. P. Meares, Judge of the Criminal Court, M. Bellamy, Esq., Maj. J. O'Connor, Mr. H. C. McQueen, Mr. Junius Davis, Mr. George Rountree, Col. F. W. Kerchner, Mr. DuBrutz Cutler.

Rainfall for the day, 0.0 inch. Rain-fall for the month up to date, .04 inches.

FORECAST FOR TO-DAY. For North Carolina and South Carolina, fair, warmer, south winds.

THE NEGRO WATCH THIEVES.

James Miller and James Beatty, the colored boys arrested for stealing two gold watches from Mr. J. L. Winner, were brought before Justice J. M. McGowan yesterday for examination.

After an investigation of the case they were required each to give a justified bond in the sum of $25 for their appearance at the Criminal Court, and in default were committed to jail.

SHAKESPEAREAN RECITAL.

The Shakespearean recital given at the Young Men's Christian Association auditorium last night by Prof. Hannibal A. Williams, of New York city, under the patronage of Wilmington's lovers of classical literature was something entirely dissimilar to anything ever before produced here.

It is difficult to describe this unique and highly entertaining recitation. To the lovers of Shakespeare it was a revelation, and we are sure no one could better understand the intents and purposes of that master of the passions of human nature than by hearing this interpretation of the writings of that immortal genius, Shakespeare.

The entertainment being of a private nature only a select audience, of course, was present; those attending being a fair representation of Wilmington's culture and refinement.

Last night's reading consisted of "King Henry IV;" and while one indifferent to the charms of Shakespeare might not have been vastly entertained, still it can be truthfully said that the recitation was elevating, refining and altogether instructive.

STODDARD WORK COMPLETE.

All the Series, from One to Sixteen, Now Ready—Send Orders Before the Offer Is Withdrawn.

The Four Series, 13 to 16, to complete the Stoddard Art Album are now ready, and orders should be sent in at once, as the offer will soon be withdrawn.

To facilitate the work of closing up the Stoddard Portfolio scheme, to make way for something else, but one Coupon and Twelve Cents will now be required for each Series.
