Royal White Hart Lodge A. F. and A. M. At the recent centennial celebration of St. John's Lodge No. 1, A. F. and A Masons, of this city, Mr. J. M. Grizzard in a speech made some statements in reeard to the formation of a lodge of Masons in 1764 at Halifax, N. C., which so interested the members of St. John's No. 1 that a request was made by them of Royal White Hart Lodge No. 2 to forward them a copy of the original papers. A committee appointed by the latter Lodge having examined the records and papers, have forwarded copies from the records showing that by virtue of authority obtained from Cornelius Harnett, Grand Master of the lodge at Wilmington, a Free Mason's lodge was held at Marsh Swamp, in Halifax county, the first day of November, "in the fourth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord

George the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith. etc., etc." On the 18th of April, 1765, another meeting was held, by-laws were adopted, dates of meeting fixed, and the name,

"Halifax Royal White Hart Lodge," adopted. The remains of Cornelius Harnett are in the "old grayeyard" in the rear of St. James' church in this city, while the two lodges-St. John's No. 1, Wilmington. and and Royal White Hart, Halifax, N. C .- are still in operation,

Arrangements for the State Convention t be Held in Wilmington on the 20th of June Next. The Liquor Dealers' Association of Wilmington met Monday night to make arrangements for the annual convention of the Liquor Dealers, Distillers and Grape-Growers Association of North Carolina, which will be held in Wilmington June 20th next.

The Convention will be in session two days, and a large attendance is expected. SECTION 1.-Every owner or keeper of a dog shall annually, on or before the 10th day of June, cause it to be registered, numbered, described and licensed, in the office of the Clerk and Treasurer, and shall cause it to wear at all times around its neck, a collar dis-tinctly marked with the registered number and year, and letters "C. W.," and shall pay for such license, for a male dog one dollar, and for a female dog three dollars. All dogs not registered, numbered, described and licensed as aforesaid, shall be killed, and every owner or keeper of a dog who shall violate any of the provisions of the first Section of this Ordinance shall be fined twenty (%00) dollars for each and every offence. SEC. 2.-It shall not be lawful, from and after the passage of this Ordinance, to suffer any bull dog or bull terrier, either of the whole or hall breed, or any other fierce or dangerous dog, to go at largo or be It goes without saying that the delegates will be handsomely entertained while in the city. A trip to Ocean View, the Hammocks and Wrightsville, with dinner at the Island Beach Hotel, is on the programme.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

We, the liquor dealers of the city of built errie, either of the whole or half breed, or any other fierce or dangerous dog, to go at largo or be upon any of the streets, alleys or wharves of this city, at any time, without being provided with a good and sufficient muzzle, rendering it impossible for such dog to bite or snap, or, unless secured by a good and sufficient cord or chain, and one end thereof shall be held by some proper person, or, in case of neglect, each and every dog shall be considered as going at large and liable to be killed; and also in any case when any dog, although secured in the manner above mentioned, shall bite any person, the said dog shall be killed. Every owner or keeper of a dog who shall neglect or violate any of the provisions of Section two of this Ordinance, shall be fined twenty-five ($25) dollars for each and every offence. My 23 1t Chief of Police. Wilmington, New Hanover county, State of North Carolina, do cordially extend to all the liquor dealers, distillers and grape-growers-members or not members-to meet with us at the annual meeting of the Liquor Dealers, Distillers and Grape-Growers Association of the State, which meets in this city June 20th 1894; and as special rates have been made with the hotels and railroads, and at the watering places, they are also invited to bring their families, and we will do all in our power to sustain the reputation that our "city by the sea" has for hospitality.
