It is hard to get out of the old ruts. Three legislatures of Maryland have made ineffectual efforts to eliminate from the oaths in court the words "so help me God," and the ceremony of kissing the book, a relic of former ages that might be very well be dispensed with.

"Brother Joseph," who is devoting his life ministering to the lepers of Molokai, is an American, a native of Vermont, whose name is Ira P. Dut. and for Miss Hamme a pleasant visit. ton. For several years after the war he held a position under the Federal Government, as an adjudicator of claims against the Government in the border States.

Tobacco manufacturing has made a beginning in Louisiana. Experiments in cultivating the weed have proved so successful around the town of Calhoun that a $25,000 factory is to be built at once. That's the way to encourage the planter to plant, by furnishing him with a home market upon which he can count.

It is believed that every Democratic Senator (even Hill) will vote for the amended tariff bill now before the Senate, distasteful as it is to a large majority of them. And they are right in doing so if they can get nothing better. The Democrats would be in a pretty plight to go before the country in the next campaign without having passed any tariff bill at all.

CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Company K, Third Regiment N. C. Troops, at Six Forks. BURGAW, N. C., June 9, 1894.

The annual reunion and picnic of Co. K, Third N. C. Regiment, took place today at Six Forks, four miles east of Burgaw, and the attendance was said to be the largest of any of the reunions that have yet been held. In road carts, in ox carts, in buggies, in carriages, in wagons, on foot and on horseback, they came from all parts of the county to do honor to the surviving remnant of the gallant

At about 10 o'clock Dr. R. T. Sanders called the attention of the crowd and announced that the orator of the day would be introduced by Mr. J. T. Bland, who thereupon came forward and in a few well-timed remarks presented Mr. L. H. McClammy, "The Orator of Pender county," as Mr. Bland styled him.

Co. K.

Mr. McClammy held the closest attention of his audience for an hour or more while he delivered one of the most eloquent and appropriate addresses that it has been our good fortune to hear, and proved beyond question his right to the title bestowed upon him by Mr. Bland, as the orator of Pender county. After the speaking the dinner was spread on a long table and the large crowd invited to partake, which invitation was eagerly accepted. The day was fine, the crowd large and well behaved, the dinner just such as the good housewives of Pender know so well how to prepare, and taken altogether, this may be safely put down as the best reunion and pic nic that Company K has yet had.

Our townsman, Mr. J. T. Collins, whose recovery was reported several days ago, has been on the mend very slowly, not being able yet to be up and about.

Sheriff-elect W. W. Alderman was not ready with his bond on the first Monday and the Commissioners gave him two weeks in which to complete it.

RAILROAD NOTES.

No Summer Excursion Rates Yet-The Southern Railway and Steamship Association-A Railroad Man Says It Is a Failure.

The summer excursion rates, says the Savannah News, have not yet been put into effect by the railroads, although it was announced some time ago that they would go into effect on June 1st. The only excuse given is that there is some delay in the commissioner's office, and

Commissioner Slaughter's office force had been so reduced that he was unable to keep up with his work. As there is very little change in the rates from last year, however, the railroads say there is no reason why they should not have been given to the printer several weeks ago. The failure of the excursion tickets to be put on

There is a suspicion in the minds of railroad men that the failure of the excursion rates to be put on as announced is due more to the present condition of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association than anything else. The association has been travelling a rocky road for some time, and predictions are freely made that it will shortly dissolve altogether. There is to be a meeting of the association in Atlanta Wednesday which will probably decide whether the association will continue its existence. or whether the roads composing it will withdraw and each fight independently for all the business that is to be had. It

A prominent railroad man said vesterday that the trouble with the association is simply the same trouble that is affecting everything and everybody else

"Business has fallen off so," he said. that there is not now enough business to go around. Such being the case, there is an inclination among the railroads to a more active competition than is allowed by the association in order to obtain sufficient business to keep their rolling stock employed. The association has been held together with difficulty for some time, and a dissolution

Another railroad man said that the association is a failure, because the very roads which are the most active in maintaining it are roads which do the most cutting of rates. The question of the differential between the South Atlantic ports and the Virginia ports will come this week, and is likely to prove one of the most troublesome questions before the association. The railroads leading to the Georgia and Carolina ports wil insist that the differential be increased, while those leading to the Virginia ports will urge that the present low figures be continued. Railroad men contend that there is just as much rate cutting and rebate giving going on now as ever, and that the association has failed utterly to prevent this.

Great Gathering of Colored People a Few Miles Down the River.

The colored folks' camp-meeting at Gander Hall, a few miles down the river, closed vesterday afternoon with all the hubbub and noisy confusion that usually attend the wind-up of such affairs. There were great crowds of people in attendance each day of the meeting, and on Sunday an enormous gathering of thousands of men, women and children. The two steamboats that conveyed the crowds to and from the place of meeting-the Clarence and Wilmingtonhad all they could do to handle the multitude. It is said to have been the largest camp-meeting in years, notwithstanding many of the shanties-so-called"tents"in which the people lived, were destroyed by the storms of August and October last. So far as could be learned, there were no accidents and nothing occurred on the grounds to mar the enjoyment of those who participated. It is reported that a colored man who came up to the city for provisions for his family Saturday night, was taken sick on his arrival here and died Sunday morning; and that the families occupying two of the houses burned yesterday morning (reported elsewhere in the STAR) were at the camp meeting and knew nothing of their misfortune until their return to the city last evening.

No Rain-High Temperature. There was no rain yesterday in the North Carolina division of the cotton belt. In the New Orleans division the average rainfall was 30-100ths of an inch; Galveston, .10; Little Rock, .02; Vicksburg, .02. The average maximum temperature was highest in the Wilmington district, 93 degrees; and lowest in the Vicksburg district, 88. The maximum at Greensboro, N. C., was 98 degrees; at Charlotte, Lumberton and Weldon, 94; Goldsboro and Newbern, 90; and Wil-

The Fire Yesterday Morning.

Three houses on Eighth between Bladen and Harnett streets were in flames about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The fire broke out in a house owned and occupied by Cato Sneed, colored, and extended to two houses adjoining, one owned by Sneed and the other by S. Behrends, and both occupied by colored tenants. The house occupied by Sneed was completely gutted and the other houses were badly damaged. Mr. Behrend's house was insured for $200, with Mr. W. W. Hodges, and the two houses owned by Cato Sneed were insured with Charles H. Rob-

The Fire Department turned out promptly at the alarm from box No. 18, but when the firemen arrived at the place all three buildings were on fire.

Lawn Party and Festival.

A very pleasant lawn party and festival was given last night at the residence of Miss Lidie B. Whitney for the benefit of the First Baptist Church Lecture Room, which is nearly completed. A large crowd of ladies and young folks were present. Ice cream, cake, strawberries and other refreshments were served and a neat little sum was realized.
