GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Wheat Closed Firm and Higher on an Advance in Corn-Pork Products Higher at the Close. By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, September 8.-The halfholiday session and the Government report expectancy formed a combination in opposition to efforts at business in the grain markets to-day, that it was difficult to overthrow. No very great endeavors to trade were made, however, the crowd being satisfied to close up their deals for the week and wait future developments. At the beginning of panied by a rally to prices, corn receiving the credit for the improvement. Deover yesterday of 160 14c. Cash wheat was quiet and steady.

Corn-The crowd were a little to positive in their views vesterday. Pulling out a little too much "short" corn at the close to-day, were about to follow the same tactics, but found the demand fully capable of absorbing all offerings. This led to a complete turn in the sentiment, and with everybody wanting to buy the usual outcome was seen. Prices advanced firmly and at the close were almost at the top point. May corn opened from 55 to 54%, advanced to 55%, closing at 55%, 4%@16chigher than yesterday. Cash corn was steady, trading being at unchanged prices with the close nominally firmer.

The option in oats was easier and the close firm. The trade was of an inconsequential character with the tone merely responsive to that of the markets. May oats closed 140% higher than yesterday. Cash oats were steady with prices unchanged.

Packers were the best buyers of provisions around the opening to-day, some of the purchases being set down to Armour. Later, the support was withdrawn and offerings although moderate, nevertheless pressed on the market. causing some decline. The hog market was an item of strength early, but its effect wore off before the close, which was five cents higher than yesterday for January pork and ribs and 71/010c higher for January lard.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., September 8.—The American Pharmaceutical Association to-day voted to boycott manufacturers who furnish physicians with their manufactured products for use in dispensing prescriptions. This was done for the purpose of putting a stop to what the druggists look on with alarm as an encroachment on their own business. It is claimed by them that year by year the doctors are getting more and more into the habit of filling their own prescriptions and dispensing drugs from their own offices, greatly to the detriment of the prescription business of drug stores. The resolution authorizing the boycott was offered by Prof. Whitney, of Boston. It was adopted without a dissenting voice.

The Association also took action with reference to the recognition of the protession of Pharmacy by the Army and Navy of the United States. The pharmacists of each branch of the service are paid but $60 a month, and have no

CHINA AND JAPAN.

Hostile Armies Confronting Each Other, but Separated by an Impassable River-Europeans Entering the Chinese Naval Service.

By Cable to the Morning Star LONDON, September 8.-A dispatch to the Times, from Shanghai, says that the opposing armies of China and Japan are now separated only by the Imjin river, which is at present impassable, owing to the annual floods, but normally an easily fordable stream.

A dispatch from Hong Kong says that a large number of Europeans employed in the Chinese Customs Department are resigning their posts in order to join the naval service. The motive inspiring this change is the fact that Government is offering 150 taels (equivalent to about $160) a month and a guarantee of 5,000 taels in the event of death in the service. This rate of wages and insurance guaranteed by Sir Robert Hart the head of the customs department. The most of the customs emploves who are transferring their services in the respect described were formerly gunners and torpedo experts in the British navy.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—In official circles here it is not believed that the armistice negotiations said to be in progress beween China and Japan, refer to anything more than negotiations exchanged between the generals commanding the opposing armies in Corea.

COXEY'S CIRCUS.

t Will Be the Greatest Show on Earth. By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MASSILLON, O., September 8 .- Mr. Coxey was very busy opening his campaign to-day, and trying to find twenty farmers willing to donate twenty horses to help haul his circus over the roads. He has personally supplied twenty horses. Contribution boxes face the crowds as they enter the tent, and venders of "reform" literature, peanuts and lemonade are aboard. The failure of the general to have a parade was probably due to the immense amount of fun that has been poked at him. He said to-day, "I'm not running a circus yet." An inspection of the grounds, however, suggests that he is over modest, and has the "greatest show on earth." Browne's art beggars all description. Speaking began at 2 o'clock this afternoon and with an intermission for supper, will continue until ate to-night.

The meeting was largely attended and strong speeches condemning the butchery of the defenseless prisoners were made by some of the most prominent men in the city. Resolutions were adopted thanking Gov. Turney and Judge Cooper for the steps they have taken to bring the murderers to justice. A fund of $1,000 was raised for the widows and orphans of the murdered men and a committee appointed to solicit further subscriptions from the citi-

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. NEW YORK, Sept. 8.-Articles were signed this morning for a fight to take place at Sioux City between May 15 and and June 15, 1895. The articles were signed by W. A. Brady, manager of Jas. Corbett, at 11.30 o'clock to-day at the St. Dennis Hotel. The papers will be presented to Jackson at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.-Jackson, after havng read the articles signed by Brady, as manager for Corbett, said that they were "no good" and that he would refuse to sign them. NEW YORK, September 8 .- This norning at 11.30 o'clock, Mr. Lloyd, who represents the Sioux City Athletic Club met W. A. Brady, Corbett's manager, and Thomas O'Rourke, well known as Dixon's manager and who represents Jackson in this city, in his room at the hotel St. Dennis. There was no waste of time. Mr. Lloyd immediately drew from his pocket three typewritten copies of the agreement for a fight. "I come," he said, "as the representative of the Sioux City Club to arrange the contest. IT WAS NOT CHOLERA.

Thorough Investigation Made by the Marine Hospital Service of the Case Reported at Cumberland, Md.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.-A most satisfactory result has been reached by the thorough investigation instituted by the Marine Hospital Service in regard to the Bavarian Immigrant, Walther, who died at Cumberland, Md., with symptoms which local physicians took to be those of Asiatic cholera. Surgeon General Wyman sent Passed Assistant Surgeon Gedding to Cumberland to investigate the matter. The body was exhumed, and the result of a bacteriological examination showed that it was not a case of cholera. It was found that the man had carried with him a large quantity of improperly cook food, which contained a ptomaine (or putrefactive)

poison, which caused his death. OKLAHOMA DIVORCES

GOV, CAR INTERVIEWED

ON THE LYNCHING OF RAPE FIENDS. Will Stand by the Law Against Lynching -Buggests as a Remedy Confinement at Once of Accused Persons in the Peniten-tlary and as Speedy a Trial as Possible. By Telegraph to the Morning Star. RALEIGH, September 8.—Gov. Elias Carr has been not a little vexed lately by what he deems to be the unjust criticisms of many Northern papers upon his course in the case of Bob Madkins, colored, who was lately in danger of being tynched for the rape of a little white girl in Alamance.

The Governor called a special session of the court because he says he is on the side of law, and asks, if the papers don't like it, what would they have done? The Governor proposes a remedy for vnching in the South.

The following is the interview, which was rather in the shape of a conversation with Mr. W. E. Christian, a well-known newspaper man, than an interview, as the Governor is averse to interviews. "It was on July 9th that the court was called, was it not Governor?" court was called on the 4th of June to be held on the 9th of July." "Then the negro was captured on the th of June?" "Yes, sir."

4th of June?" "Then it was a month or over before they tried him?" "Yes sir; more than a "Then he was hanged two weeks after court adjourned." "One month after his sentence. "Did he apply for pardon at all?" "No; course you have read all the comments in Northern papers on lynching in the South. Joel Chandler Harris wrote quite a paper in the Forum about "I did not read it, but I heard it spoken of. What do you think will be the ultimate remedy that we will have to have in the South as to rape between the "I think we are having the races?" remedy row, sir, in having as speedy a trial as possible. And to remedy the matter as much as possible, I would suggest that it would be advisable to confine these rapists in the Penitentiary at once as soon as they are arrested until a court of justice can be held and give them a fair trial. That would put them beyond the reach of lynchers.

"Yet by what law can they get at that." "Well, we can have some special legislation, but the law would provide for that. I would not hesitate at all to permit the rapists to be taken at once to the Penitentiary, but I would suggest that as a remedy that some legal action be taken in regard to this, by the next Legislature.

You believe that would do away hereafter with all lynching?" "No sir, l don't. I can't say that, but I say it would be a step in the right direction to protect the man's life from lynching if he is put in the Penitentiary right away. or as soon as possible, and given as speedy a trial as possible. It is exceedingly fortunate for the white women of our country that those men that are rapists do not read the Northern papers. or they would mistake the conduct of the papers as endorsing their course."

"There are two classes of white people in the South, Governor, it seems to me. Bishop Havgood took a stand against ynching out and out, and Joel Chandler Harris said that there were a class of people in the South who were in favor of it. I suppose you would stand by the law out and out against lynching?" would stand by the law out and out against lynching, I want to do nothing that will encourage lynching in any shape

"You knew very well that this man would be lynched unless some heroic remedy was offered?" "I felt that way; can say to you that some time ago pardon was asked for a colored boy, who, it is alleged, had raped a colored girl of six years. There was an application for pardon of this man made by some of the very best white people in that county, including a member of the board of health, the county commissioners, etc., a number of the court officials, stating that the man had had his trial: that the girl it she had been old enough would have given her consent, but as she was too young it was not valid in law, and hence the man was found guilty. I declined to commute his sentence to imprisonment for life, until his own colored people in addition to the white people in a very strenuous and strong petition asked me to do so." "How old did you say the boy was?" "Well, he was a mere boy, of a very weak mind. The Judge who tried the case stated that the man was of a weak mind.

and was not cognizant of the crime that he had committed." "Well, the punishments that are inflicted do not seem to lessen the crime of rape? "Well, you cannot tell how many more there would be but for this punishment.'

"Now as to the burning in Paris, Texas, you are opposed to all such "Yes, I stand by the law. The things?" law is adequate.' "Well, in this case the law would not have been adequate if it had not been provided for by your special provision? I will do everything that I can to prevent lynching, and at the same time shall throw no impediment in the way of bringing criminals to justice at the earliest moment." "Those Northern papers do not seem to pass very severe comments on lynchings when they take place up there. They did not have much to say about those Northern lynchings, therefore it seems that it is really more in sectional spirit on the part of those editors, than from any object they have to bring the criminals to quick justice?" "Yes sir, and I would like to say in connection with bringing these men to the Penitentiary, that I shall recommend to the next Legislature that executions take place inside the Penitentiary, in order that the criminal class there may be more impressed than others.' "You say that you are going to recom-mend that?" "I am going to recommend that to the next Legislature," "And will you also recommend that special legislation be made to put these people into the Penitentiary to prevent ynching." "Yes to prevent lynching. and I will also urge that there be as speedy a trial as possible." "What is your feeling, Governor, about the criticism of these Northern papers?" "I think it is very unjust, and I consider it exceedingly fortunate for the white women of the country that those who are guilty of the crime of rape don't read the Northern papers, or there would be more rapes committed: and if they condemned the fact of raping more and lynching less, it would have a better effect."

"And at the same time you do not want to condone lynching at all."

Mr. Christian then read an article from Northern paper criticising Gov. Carr's conduct in regard to lynching, and inferring that he upheld such action. Gov. Carr said that he did all in his power to suppress them, and if the papers would suggest a remedy instead of criticising his course, it would be better. "May I ask you about politics, Gov-I surmise not. Politics are in a ticklish state here just now, and any word would be imprudent from me except to urge all to stand by the old Democratic party with might and main."

The Great Crops-Outlook for Manufacturing-General Prospects Brighter Than

Those of Any Other Section. The New York Sun has a long article devoted mainly to the new Southern Railway Company, but with the annexed paragraphs of more general interest: From all parts of the South come excellent reports of material progress. The Southern corn crop is greater than ever before; the cotton crop is large and o fine quality. In Texas the latter is the largest that the State has raised, and the prospect of the market is assured. While cotton is now cheap it will not do to overlook the fact that six cents a pound for cotton nowadays is a very different thing from what it was a few years ago. People have not yet learned to take into consideration the fact that the modern bye-products of cotton are worth nearly two cents a pound more, so that the farmer's six cents is really equivalent o eight cents.

The corn crop is so large that the South will this year have a surplus instead of being compelled to import corn for her own consumption. The outlook for her manufacturing industries, and her cotton mills in particular, is better than ever before in her history, and in every substantial and material element of business the general condition of the South is most encouraging and satis-

Taken for all in all, the business prospects of the South are, at the present moment, brighter than those of any other part of the country. It depends upon the people of the South themselves these conditions are to continue. What they need is unintermittent industry and a sound respect for law. If they have the good sense to adjure populism and socialism, and anarchism, and see to it that the rights of property are observed in behalf of great and small, rich and poor, they can be as prosperous as they please. There is no appreciable limit to their resources, and with industry and honesty going hand in hand, there should be no limit to their development
