Milk has advanced two cents a quart in Philadelphia. On account of the bad condition of the water the stock is running short.

One of the strong indications of a revival in trade is the demands upon the U. S. Treasury for bills of small denominations, which Treasury officials say are so great that the Government presses can't print them fast enough to meet the calls for them.

The largest vessel ever built in this country is now approaching completion at the Cramp shipyard at Philadelphia. She is a six-deck merchantman, built entirely of steel, 554 feet long, 63 feet beam, will carry 11,000 tons and has a speed of 20 knots per hour. She will be launched some time next month.

An enterprising colored citizen is going through Georgia raking in the dollars from the confiding colored brothers whom he proposes to send to Liberia cheap, $41 expenses all told. All they have to do is to pay him $1 dollar down, then start and pay the balance in $1 installments. He gets his dollar, changes his field of operations and the colored brothers see him no more.

If friends do not interfere the late election in Maine may lead to some unpleasantness. Mr. Boutelle claims that it was a Hawaiian rebuke to the Cleveland administration, while the friends of F. B. Reed insist that it was a Reed boost for T. B., while the Democrats think it is simply an illustration of the pig returning to his wallow.

Hon. Abram S. Hewitt, of New York, says the condition of mankind is better to-day than it ever was, which is doubtless true, for while inventive genius with its labor-saving machinery is doing much to multiply production and cheapen the necessities of life, and the comforts, too, the spirit of benevolence is spreading and the human family is being brought nearer and nearer together.

Senator Cullom, of Illinois, who is a candidate for re-election, admits that the duties in the McKinley tariff were too high, and that if the Republicans had carried the last election, instead of the Democrats, they would have reduced them. He took mighty good care, however, not to help the Democrats to reduce them. In the campaign of '88 they promised to reduce the tariff, and they kept their promise by giving us the McKinley monstrosity.

The New York Herald says great things are claimed for a new antiseptic discovered in Europe, called Izoal, an oily liquid derived from certain forms of coal. The Herald quotes a foreign medical correspondent as saying that "it is not poisonous, does not irritate wounds, and attacks neither the operator's hand nor his instruments. It is therefore a powerful, harmless and convenient antiseptic, destined, it is claimed, to be the antiseptic of the future."

CRIMINAL COURT.

Convictions and Sentences at Yesterday's Session.

The Criminal Court yesterday disposed of cases as follows:
Henry Faison, assault and battery. Verdict, guilty. Defendant fined one penny and costs, and the commissioners authorized to hire him out.
Wm. Brown; larceny. Verdict, guilty. Sentenced to 12 months in the Penitentiary.
Robt. Telfair submitted to a charge of assault and battery with a deadly weapon, and was sentenced to 6 months' imprisonment in the House of Correction.
Lilly Hicks was found guilty of larceny and sentenced to three years in the State Penitentiary.
Sophie Kelly, convicted of nuisance, was sentenced to twelve months in the County House of Correction.
Emma Hutchins was convicted of assault and battery with a deadly weapon and was fined one penny and costs, and the commissioners authorized to hire her out for the amount of fine and costs. The prisoner while being brought into the court house assaulted the prosecutor in open court. The court, therefore, fined the defendant $30 for contempt and authorized the commissioners to hire her out for the amount of this fine.
Alix Turner, charged with false person was found not guilty. Jordan Branch, Jr., was charged as prosecutor in the case, and adjudged to pay one-half the bill of costs.
Dave Jones, convicted of assault and battery with a deadly weapon, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the county House of Correction.
D. Ryan, convicted of larceny, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment in the State Penitentiary.

The trial of Ben Lane (white), charged with seduction, was set for trial Thursday (to-day) at 10 o'clock a. m.

Two Negro Criminals Captured.

Owen Huggins, a negro 23 years of age, charged with criminal assault upon a mulatto girl, was captured yesterday by officer B. F. Turlington, assisted by officers J. P. Flynn and Bryant Swann, at Scott's Hill, Pender county. The officers brought their prisoner to the city by train on the W. N. & N. railroad last evening and placed him in jail.

The crime with which Huggins is charged was committed last Saturday evening near the turnpike at Seventeenth street. Huggins was arrested soon after the assault by policeman Tietgen, but got away from the officer and left town that night.

Officers Turlington, Swann and Flynn also arrested at Scott's Hill a notorious negro thief—Joe Robinson alias Joe Slobber—who is wanted here for numerous larcenies.

Brunswick County Democratic Convention.

Brunswick county Democrats held their Convention at Lockwood's Folly yesterday. It convened at 12 o'clock. C. L. Stevens, of the Southport Leader, was elected Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee. The following nominations were made: For the Legislature, Fred Kidder; for the Senate, Rufus Galloway; Sheriff, W. A. Rouark; Register of Deeds, George McKeithan; Clerk of Court, R. L. Piver; Surveyor, J. H. Mintz; Coroner, McD. Turner.

COTTON FACTS AND FIGURES.

—Spot cotton steady in Wilmington at 63-16c for middling; quiet at New York at 63c.

—Receipts here yesterday 1,094 bales; same day last year 522. Receipts since Sept. 1st

—New York futures closed steady and from 5 to 7 points lower than closing prices Tuesday. September opened at 6.48 and closed 6.41; October, 6.46 and closed 6.39; November, 6.51 and closed 6.43; December, 6.54 and closed 6.48; January, 6.59 and closed 6.54; February, 6.66 and closed 6.60.

A Strong Presentation.

Senator Ransom makes this point in discussing the new tariff law:
There are 1,700,000 people in North Carolina. At least 400,000 of these have accounts at stores. The average yearly store account is about $100. Take off of each of these 400,000 accounts 25 per cent. This means a saving to North Carolinians of $10,000,000 per year; one million more than the cotton crop is worth; twice as much as the tobacco crop. This means much more than an increase of the money per capita to $50. It saves the money in the pockets of the people.

WILMINGTON WELCOME WEEK.

Executive Committee Meeting—A Subcommittee Appointed to Secure Low Rates from Railroads—The Committee Encouraged at the Outlook.

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Wilmington Welcome Week Executive Committee was held last night at the office of the S. A. L., on Front street. The following members were present: Thos. D. Meares, W. J. Woodward, J. W. Martens, W. E. Springer, Thos. C. James, P. Pearsall, M. W. Jacobi, P. Heinsberger and Geo. G. Lewis.

The meeting was called to order at 8:30 o'clock by Chairman Thos. D. Meares. Mr. W. J. Woodward was elected permanent secretary.

Various matters of interest were discussed in regard to the prospects of a much better celebration than ever before, but before any steps are to be taken it was unanimously decided to see whether satisfactory rates could be obtained from the railroads.

Upon motion, the Chair appointed Messrs. Isaac Bear, P. Pearsall and J. W. Murchison a committee to confer with the railroad officials and report the rate which they agree to allow, at the next meeting. The sense of the meeting was that if very low rates could be obtained and everybody would do their part on subscriptions, the W. W. W. will be a success. If the merchants and business men do not take the proper interest, the Executive Committee would let the celebration slide. They didn't intend to beg anybody.

Upon motion of Mr. P. Heinsberger, Messrs. W. H. Bernard, J. W. Jackson and Josh T. James were added to the Executive Committee.

Mr. Wm. E. Springer was unanimously elected Treasurer.

Mr. J. W. Martens, Traffic Manager of the Wilmington, Newbern and Norfolk railroad, said that his road would give as low a rate as any other road, and spoke as being very much in favor of the movement.

Mr. Thos. D. Meares, Agent for the S. A. L., said that he favored the W. W. W. as he always had, and telegraphed the officials to-day to ascertain what rates could be quoted to the committee.

Mr. Thos. C. James, Agent for the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad, stated their General Passenger Agent, Mr. W. E. Kyle, was in the city and could be seen after the meeting.

The committee then adjourned to meet again Thursday night, the 27th inst., at 8 o'clock.

After the meeting a committee led by Mr. P. Pearsall, called on Mr. Kyle who said that he could almost assure them a rate not much more than one cent and a half per mile. His answers were encouraging and now the committee feels confident that a one cent and half rate will be secured from all roads entering Wilmington.

LIST OF JURORS

The Business Outlook.

Capt. A. D. Brown, who returned Tuesday from a three-weeks' trip to the North, where he had ample opportunity to see and talk with the leading business men in all branches of trade, gives a cheering account of the hopeful feeling prevailing in business circles generally. Not only has there been a marked improvement already, but conservative merchants look for a safe and steady trade hereafter. Capt. Brown reports a large attendance of Southern merchants in New York who express confidence in the future of business on account of the settlement of the tariff question and the splendid crops made throughout the South.

THE REV. POP. MARTIN.

He Appreciates the Real Beauties of Populism—The Impression He Made in Charlotte.

The News thus measures up the Rev. Pop. Martin, who delivered a populistic exhortation in Charlotte last Monday night:

If there is any one who has not yet heard a real simon pure Populistic speech, let him make it a point to hear Mr. Martin at the first convenient opportunity. You may think that you know all about Populism, but you can never fully appreciate its real beauties until you have heard Rev. Martin. He deals in the genuine article. He speaks Populism as she is spoke. Rev. Martin made his debut in Charlotte last night, and the rain didn't keep back the people. They were there and they were edified. Martin has not left his pulpit manners behind him; his speech is so like a sermon that one feels like he is in a revival meeting where converts are heard to draw and the preacher has all his horse power in use. After hearing Martin speak, one can readily understand how the prejudices of the ignorant are worked upon, and it passes belief that any man of intelligence could espouse the wildest doctrine expounded. He, of course, blamed the Democratic party for all the evils of the country and showed dense ignorance of political history. He did not forget to predict the bloody revolution which is coming. He pulled out the blank book showing what Congress has done, and then sashayed around to a pulpit stretch of oratory in which he eventually landed everybody in perdition by the aid of the money power. He stated as his platform that he wanted the government to issue paper money to swell the currency; he wanted interest wiped out, and wanted it made an indictable offence for anybody to require interest, and last of all, he wanted absolute Free Trade. It was a remarkable string of silliness, his speech was, all the way through.

Mr. Lockhart, in replying to Martin, filled his blank book and made him admit a great many things that Congress had done for the benefit of the people, and he took up and exposed such of Martin's fallacies as were not entirely too ridiculous to notice. It is painful in this age of progress and intelligence to think that things have come to such a pass that for decency's sake, dignity for the time being must be laid aside to knock over such fellows as Martin. The utterance of the present day are undergoing an ordeal that the statesmen of the past knew nothing of. But this is a free country, notwithstanding the cry of the Pops that we are all slaves, and everybody has a right to talk. The only thing to do is to enjoy it while it lasts, and then down with it at the polls.

RICHMOND COUNTY

Superior Court—Trial of E. J. Fuller For Murder Set For Saturday— Walter Whitley's Case—Senator Ransom. [Special Star Telegram.]

ROCKINGHAM, September 19.—E. J. Fuller has been arraigned for his second trial, which has been set for next Saturday. He looks well and seems to be very cheerful, some of his lawyers and several witnesses are on hand. It is generally conceded his trial will consume all of next week.

Walter Whitley, aged eleven, has also been arraigned for murder. As he stood up with his hand upraised, and answered "Not guilty," sympathy went out to him; but few who gazed on his mild countenance and youthful appearance could believe him guilty of that horrible crime. He claims that while hunting he accidentally shot a negro.

Senator Ransom will deliver an address here Friday.

The Business Outlook.

Capt. A. D. Brown, who returned Tuesday from a three-weeks' trip to the North, where he had ample opportunity to see and talk with the leading business men in all branches of trade, gives a cheering account of the hopeful feeling prevailing in business circles generally. Not only has there been a marked improvement already, but conservative merchants look for a safe and steady trade hereafter. Capt. Brown reports a large attendance of Southern merchants in New York who express confidence in the future of business on account of the settlement of the tariff question and the splendid crops made throughout the South.

THE REV. POP. MARTIN.

The News thus measures up the Rev. Pop. Martin, who delivered a populistic exhortation in Charlotte last Monday night:

If there is any one who has not yet heard a real simon pure Populistic speech, let him make it a point to hear Mr. Martin at the first convenient opportunity. You may think that you know all about Populism, but you can never fully appreciate its real beauties until you have heard Rev. Martin. He deals in the genuine article. He speaks Populism as she is spoke. Rev. Martin made his debut in Charlotte last night, and the rain didn't keep back the people. They were there and they were edified. Martin has not left his pulpit manners behind him; his speech is so like a sermon that one feels like he is in a revival meeting where converts are heard to draw and the preacher has all his horse power in use. After hearing Martin speak, one can readily understand how the prejudices of the ignorant are worked upon, and it passes belief that any man of intelligence could espouse the wildest doctrine expounded. He, of course, blamed the Democratic party for all the evils of the country and showed dense ignorance of political history. He did not forget to predict the bloody revolution which is coming. He pulled out the blank book showing what Congress has done, and then sashayed around to a pulpit stretch of oratory in which he eventually landed everybody in perdition by the aid of the money power. He stated as his platform that he wanted the government to issue paper money to swell the currency; he wanted interest wiped out, and wanted it made an indictable offence for anybody to require interest, and last of all, he wanted absolute Free Trade. It was a remarkable string of silliness, his speech was, all the way through.

Mr. Lockhart, in replying to Martin, filled his blank book and made him admit a great many things that Congress had done for the benefit of the people, and he took up and exposed such of Martin's fallacies as were not entirely too ridiculous to notice. It is painful in this age of progress and intelligence to think that things have come to such a pass that for decency's sake, dignity for the time being must be laid aside to knock over such fellows as Martin. The utterance of the present day are undergoing an ordeal that the statesmen of the past knew nothing of. But this is a free country, notwithstanding the cry of the Pops that we are all slaves, and everybody has a right to talk. The only thing to do is to enjoy it while it lasts, and then down with it at the polls.

RICHMOND COUNTY

Superior Court—Trial of E. J. Fuller For Murder Set For Saturday— Walter Whitley's Case—Senator Ransom. [Special Star Telegram.]

ROCKINGHAM, September 19.—E. J. Fuller has been arraigned for his second trial, which has been set for next Saturday. He looks well and seems to be very cheerful, some of his lawyers and several witnesses are on hand. It is generally conceded his trial will consume all of next week.

Walter Whitley, aged eleven, has also been arraigned for murder. As he stood up with his hand upraised, and answered "Not guilty," sympathy went out to him; but few who gazed on his mild countenance and youthful appearance could believe him guilty of that horrible crime. He claims that while hunting he
