Do You
Drink Tea?
We have the pleasure of calling your attention to the special importation of

GENUINE RUSSIAN RESERVE TEA, which we have just received, and are offering for the first time.
This is the true tea
of the Samovar, so famous in Russia and Europe, and for which the choicest growths of China are annually selected. It is of the Souchow variety, similar to English Breakfast
—only finer, as these teas are carried overland by caravans through Siberia & do not require the high

"firings" necessary to withstand the heat of the tropics
and prevent souring during transit. It gives a strong,
rich liquor, full of flavor and drinking
well hot or cold.
For iced tea it is especially desirable.
We shall be glad to have you try this delicious tea.

Corn is now being shipped West from the South. Last week 50,000 bushels were sold at Decatur, Ala., for shipment to Illinois. This is reversing the order; for heretofore the South has been buying corn from the West.

Mrs. Shaw, the whistler, says half an hour's whistling after each meal will cure dyspepsia. That may do for people who live on wind, as she does. But the sure-though dyspeptic couldn't get up a half-hour whistle to save his life.

Showing one of the happy effects of the establishment of sterilized milk stations in portions of New York City by Hon. Isador Straus, it is said that the mortality among children in those sections of the city has decreased 10 per cent.

In the town of Dexter, Mo., boys under seventeen years of age caught on the streets after 9 o'clock p. m., are run in, into the calaboose, and made to contribute $5 to the town treasury. This is dividing the penalty, as the boy goes to the jug and his pa pays the fine.

A Boston cornologist says that ill-fitting shoes are not nearly as much responsible for corns as ill-fitting and under-sized stockings and socks. Jerry Simpson never spent much time cultivating or nursing corns, although as a corn grower he claims to be a success.

Governor McKinley isn't altogether reliable in the statements he makes in his speeches, but he enunciated a rock-bottom truth the other day when he told the Populists in Kansas that the Republican or Democratic party would rule in this country, and that they had better scamper into one or the other of these parties.

McKinley is making the record on Messrs. Reed, Harrison and other Republican aspirants for the Presidency, as a speech maker. The other day in Kansas he made thirteen speeches in fourteen hours. As speeches they were not much but as record breakers they will do. But then it must be remembered that Kansas is a windy State.

The daughter of a preacher in an Illinois town fumbling around among some old papers in a closet, the other day, found a package which she took to her father. It contained $3,000 in bank notes, and a paper directing that the money be divided amongst the heirs of the writer, who died eighteen years ago. The heirs will not remain hidden as long as that package was.

With the issue of Sunday the Goldsboro daily Argus entered on its twentieth semi-annual volume, and takes satisfaction not only in reviewing the past, but in looking to the future, where the prospect is bright and cheering. We congratulate our contemporary on the success it has achieved and on the firm footing it has secured, both of which it has earned by energetic, able and faithful service to the State, to the Democratic party of which it is a devoted champion, and to the people of the section in which it is published, on whose interests it has always kept a vigilant eye.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

WILMINGTON } NOVEMBER
WELCOME } 26, 27, 28, 29,
WEEK } 30, and Dec. 1.

— Have you registered?
— The public schools (white and colored) opened yesterday with a large attendance in all.
— All Democrats should see that their names are properly entered on the registration books.
— The Norwegian barque Natvig, from Tybee, arrived at Southport yesterday, bound to Wilmington.
— Do you wish to see the present system of county government abolished? If so vote the Rep.-Pop.-Butler-Confusion ticket.

— The Williamston Sun: "The bright and sunny Wilmington STAR is twenty-seven years old. It is always welcome, and we wish it much success."
— Sunday morning at 8 o'clock there was 11 feet 3 inches of water in the river at Fayetteville; a rise of 4 feet 4 inches in the previous 24 hours.
— Jack Dempsey has been matched to fight Tommy Ryan, of Chicago, for $5,000. The fight will take place at New Orleans the latter part of November.

— The Newbern Journal appeared yesterday with new head-gear and almost with new clothes throughout. It looks neater and brighter, and the STAR tenders its congratulations.
— Have you changed your residence from one Ward to another since the last State election? If so, see that your name is transferred to the registration book of the Ward in which you now reside.

— Do you wish to see Marion Butler and some other Pop.-Replican elected to the United States Senate, thereby destroying the Democratic majority in that body? If so, vote the Mongrel ticket.

— The Steubenville, Ohio, Star says of Main's circus: "Walter L. Main's Show gave a most creditable exhibition, and was patronized by enormous crowds." Will exhibit in Wilmington October 15th.

— The Wilmington Amateur Musical and Musical Club will give an entertainment in Germania Hall Thursday evening, October 11th, at 8:30 o'clock. The proceeds will be for the benefit of St. Paul's Parochial school.

— For the accommodation of persons wishing to attend Main's great circus, the steamer Wilmington will make two trips from Southport to Wilmington next Monday, October 15th. She will leave here on the last trip at 11 p. m.

This is the Place.
— The Florence Times, is about right.
— The receipts of cotton Friday at this place were 54 bales, all of which were shipped to Wilmington.
— And this, from the same paper, is "mildling lar":
— "The total receipts of cotton at this place for the season amount to 1,328 bales, 177 of which were shipped to Norfolk, 97 to Charleston and 1,060 to Wilmington, which is just eleven times as much as was shipped to Charleston and about six times more than was shipped to Norfolk. Now, what port is it that is getting the cotton?"

AMUSEMENTS.
"Jane" To-night at the Opera House—"The Silver King" Thursday Night.
The following complimentary notice is from the Greensboro (N. C.) Daily Record of October 4th, about "Jane" which comes to the Opera House this evening:
The comedy—"Jane"—rendered at Bogart Hall last night kept the audience continually in a roar. The piece abounds in absurd situations and is full of fun from beginning to end. The company is an excellent one and was greeted by a full house, as it deserved.

THE SILVER KING.
The drawing powers of "The Silver King," which on next Thursday evening, the 11th, comes to the Opera House, are simply wonderful, considering that this is the tenth year of the play, and coupling this fact with the knowledge that the public is capricious and fond of turning its back on all things old, while continually clamoring for something new and diverting. The pathetic tale of the drama, told in Henry Arthur Jones' cleverest vein, has lost none of its appealing element. Manager Carl A. Haswin has staged the play in a more elaborate manner than ever before and engaged a company equally as strong as any of its predecessors.

OTHER ATTRACTIONS.
Mr. James K. Collier, business manager of the Opera House, says the public may rely upon exceptionally fine performances this season. Some of the attractions will be Lillian Lewis, Otis Skinner, Richard Mansfield, Robert Downey, Mrs. J. B. Potter and Kyrie Bellew, and Alexander Salvini, besides other shining lights of the American stage.

AGRICULTURAL FAIRS.
Fifth Annual Fair of the Border Exposition of the Carolinas at Maxton, October 31st and November 1st and 2d.
State Fair of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, at Raleigh, October 28th to 30th inclusive.
Fair of Cumberland County Agricultural Society, at Fayetteville, November 14th, 15th and 16th.
The first Annual Fair of the Robeson County Agricultural and Live Stock Association will be held at Lumberton November 30th, 21st, 22nd and 23rd.
Annual Fair of the Rocky Mount Fair Association, at Rocky Mount, November 7th, 8th and 9th.

ANOTHER HURRICANE.

Central Yesterday Near Pensacola and Moving Northward—Will Cause Dangerous Gale on the South Atlantic Coast.—A Cold Wave Coming from the Northwest.
Storm signals were displayed here Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock upon advice from the Chief of the Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C., that a hurricane from the West Indies was approaching the East Gulf. The wind veered at Port Eads was sixty miles an hour.

Yesterday at 4.40 p. m. a dispatch to the Weather Bureau station here reported the storm as central near Pensacola, Fla., at noon, with a wind of thirty-four miles an hour, from the northeast; barometer 29.34 inches and falling rapidly. The dispatch added: "This storm will cause dangerous gales on the South Atlantic coast south of Norfolk Tuesday and no vessel should leave port. It is dangerous for vessels to leave any Atlantic port sailing South."
The Bureau synopsis of the weather issued yesterday morning from the Wilmington station said:
"A very influential high area is moving in from the West, accompanied by a tolerably severe cold wave, temperature of 20 degrees being reported as far South as Nebraska. The indications now seem to be for frost in this vicinity after the weather clears after this storm passes—the middle or latter part of this week. Heavy falls are likely in Alabama and in South Dakota, with light showers in other sections."

Mr. Graham, weather observer, last night furnished the following information concerning the Gulf storm:
"The Gulf storm seems to be central this evening on the northwestern coast of Florida, moving steadily northeast. The present indications are that it will pass in over Georgia and the Carolinas, causing very heavy rains with high winds and tides on the whole Atlantic coast from Jacksonville north. It will probably be felt to a greater or less extent in this vicinity to-morrow, but just when the centre of the storm will reach us cannot now be said. It will not be safe for vessels to leave port in any direction.
"The wires are all down out of Pensacola and Port Eads, so that it is not possible to see how the storm is at those places, but this fact alone is an indication of its severity."
A dispatch last night at 11 o'clock, from the Chief of the Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C., reported that the storm was apparently central east of Pensacola, Fla., near the coast, and moving north of east. The conditions are threatening for the South Atlantic coast.

At the meeting yesterday of persons interested in the "Associated Charities" committee, were appointed to solicit subscriptions for the year beginning with the present month. To visit business men on Water and Nutt streets—Rev. Dr. Hoge, Col. Roger Moore, Mr. O. Pearsall, Front Street—Rev. Dr. Mendelsohn, Dr. S. P. Wright, Mr. J. C. Stevenson. Mr. P. B. Manning will visit the professional men.

The Association has done good work the past year; has relieved distress in many families and eliminated from the list of applicants all who are undeserving. The ladies of the different organizations interested in the work have labored assiduously during the year among the poor and have been largely instrumental in giving proper direction to the work of the Association.

Two Murderers.
The sheriff of Robeson county arrived in the city last evening from Lumberton with two murderers, recently tried, convicted and sentenced at Robeson court—Henry Hober, sentenced to be hanged December 31st, and John McCormac, sentenced to fifteen years imprisonment in the State penitentiary. Both appealed to the Supreme Court and the jail of Robeson county being considered insecure, the prisoners were ordered by the Court to be confined in the jail of New Hanover county.

Another prisoner brought here by the officers, deputy sheriffs Floyd, Freeman and Allen, sentenced to confinement in jail for violation of internal revenue laws.
The Police Raid.
The STAR reporter who accompanied the officers who made the raid on the gambling den Sunday morning, owing to the late hour, failed to publish the officers' names who stood up to the rack like men and showed nerve and grit that the entire police force should be proud of. Chief of Police R. B. Clowe, Captain R. M. Capps, Sergeants S. J. Bryan and W. C. Moore, officers W. B. Savage, G. M. Woodcock, C. E. Wood and S. B. Dudley. It has since been found that some of the shots took effect.

Mayor's Court.
The examination of the negroes arrested Saturday night for gambling, took place yesterday, J. M. Jarvis, Ed. Swain, Wm. Lloyd, W. W. Pittman and F. M. Murphy were discharged, and Wash Joye, John Brown, Henry Williamson and Wm. Clarke were remanded for a further hearing. Geo. Wilson, one of the party, charged with assault with a deadly weapon on policeman Savage, was held for the Criminal Court in default of bail.
W. L. I.
The Wilmington Light Infantry last night elected Mr. W. H. Northrop, Jr., Captain, to succeed Mr. W. N. Harris, who resigned on account of business. Mr. R. J. Price was elected Second Lieutenant, and success, Mr. Charles S. Granger, who has left the city. They were both elected unanimously. The newly-elected officers and their friends were served a nice bird supper and reception after the meeting.

The Late Jas. A. West.
The funeral of the late Jas. A. West, who remains reached here Saturday afternoon from Chapel Hill, took place yesterday afternoon from Mr. H. McL. Green's residence, conducted by Rev. P. H. Hoge. The pall bearers were Messrs. Ed. H. Munson, Chas. H. Robinson, Jr., Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., 3rd, Allie M. Hall, Andrew Howell and E. Payson Willard. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery.

Stonewall Jackson.
Mr. George R. Wendling is announced to lecture Friday night, Oct. 12th, at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, on Gen. Stonewall Jackson. A more popular subject could hardly have been chosen, and a more successful and entertaining speaker could have been procured. Mr. Wendling possesses a wonderful faculty of reaching the minds and the hearts of his hearers. He is a cultivated and successful lawyer. The box sheet will be opened at Yates' Thursday.

"A Splendid Record."
[Oxford Public Ledger.]
The Wilmington STAR, the oldest daily paper in the State, has entered upon its twenty-eighth year in an enlarged form. It has during these years a faithful exponent of Democratic principles and the perpetuation of a white man's government. A splendid record. Our best wishes are with the STAR, and we trust it will keep it up for many more years, longer without any change in its management.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Personals Pertaining Principally to People and Pointedly Printed.
— Mr. Geo. K. Mayo, of Tilley, is in the city.
— Mr. Leo Froman, of Philadelphia, is in the city.
— Mr. L. L. Jenkins has returned from Western North Carolina.
— Mr. H. R. Culley, of Tarboro, soliciting agent for the Atlantic Coast Line, is in the city on business.

— Mr. James A. Lockhart, Democratic nominee for Congress in this District, was in the city yesterday.
— Mr. Geo. W. Aiken and wife were among the arrivals in the city yesterday. Mr. Aiken is the general agent of Walter L. Main's circus.
— Messrs. W. H. Pyke, Southport; W. C. Mikel, Columbia; J. D. Black, McCall; H. Butters, Hub; Alex. Campbell, Fayetteville; W. H. Horne, Florence; W. W. Martin, Fayetteville; N. A. Currie, O. L. Clark, Clarkton; F. E. Floyd, H. C. Freeman, D. C. Sinclair, Lumberton; J. Y. Stanton, Williamston; C. S. Carr, Xenia, were among the arrivals in the city yesterday.

The Public Schools.
The public schools opened yesterday with greatly increased membership over any previous year since the schools opened. The number at the Union school was over six hundred and at Hemenway over four hundred. The Union annex on Nun street and Fifth street was also crowded. Prof. Noble says he can still make room for more.

The Teachers at the Union School are: Miss Nellie Cook, principal; Misses Bush, Bagby, Barnes, Webb, Adelaide Meares, Cameron, Fairly, Mrs. Moffitt, Misses Eliza Meares, Maggie Moffitt, Anderson and Jones.

At Hemenway—Mrs. Maria McLeod, Misses Kate Johnson, Lila Morrison, Lovisa Hill, Mary Bernard, Sophie Hines, Augusta McPherson and Annie Lee Rose.

Patronize Home Merchants.
Don't Do Your Shopping in the Northern Cities—Buy at Home.
Here are some views that are so wisely expressed by the Savannah News, and that apply so well to Wilmington, that the STAR takes pleasure in reproducing them:
The Morning News has frequently called attention to and condemned the custom, which is altogether too common in this city, of purchasing clothing in New York instead of at home. Men send to New York for suits of clothes, hats and shoes, when they could get just as good articles at home for about the same price, and many women go to New York in the Fall almost wholly for the purpose of shopping. It is true they have larger and more varied stocks to select from in New York, but after all, in almost everything they could be as well suited at home, and besides, if they patronized home merchants to a greater extent, they would enable the home merchants to carry larger stocks and a higher grade of goods.
In men's clothing little or nothing is to be gained by sending to New York for ready-made suits or made to order. All grades of goods can be obtained here, and there are tailors here who do first-class work.
We ought to have a little more home pride about this matter. Home merchants and working people ought to be sustained. Some of the very people who send to New York for their clothes are wholly dependent upon home people for a living.
Let us keep as much money as we can at home. Sustain home retail dealers and working people. They help to sustain the city by the payment of taxes, and they ought to be given every possible encouragement. Sending to New York for what we can buy at home is a bad practice and ought to be abandoned.

CITY BUSINESS FEATURES.
— The store of Messrs. Johnson & Fore will not open until 10 o'clock a. m. to-day, when their Fall opening of millinery and dress goods begins. The store will remain open until 9 o'clock p. m. They will be glad to see their friends and the public generally, gentlemen as well as ladies.
Magistrate's Court.
Joe Hill, Arthur White, Andrew Latimer, and "Son" Carter, (colored) snuff thieves, who stole $300 from the sale of Mr. W. S. O'B. Robinson about ten days ago, were arraigned before Justice Bunting yesterday, on the charge of larceny. Carter was discharged, and the others were sent to jail in default of $300 bail each.

The Driving Club.
The Gentlemen's Driving Club met last night at the court room. The meeting was called to order by R. B. Clowe. T. W. Clawson was requested to act as secretary. The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was dispensed with.
The committee on soliciting subscriptions and securing location for grounds reported progress.
On motion of W. A. Whiting, the committee was continued and requested to report at a meeting to be held Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Naval Reserves.
At a meeting of the Wilmington Division of the Naval Reserves last night it was decided to buy new uniforms, which will be exceedingly handsome and entirely different from those worn now. A letter was read from Lieutenant F. L. Tyler, of the United States Navy, high in praise of the kind treatment he had received during the cruise and the efficiency of the North Carolina Reserves. It was received with three cheers and a tiger.

CORBETT AND FITZSIMMONS.

Talking About the Match—Difference of Opinion—Light-weight Champion Jack McAuliffe's Idea.
The Herald says of the expected fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons.
Old and young sporting men yesterday continued to discuss the action of Corbett in covering Fitzsimmons' money, posted with the Herald, and expressed the hope that the match will be made without further wrangling. Many good judges said they did not see how Corbett could lose, while others who know Fitzsimmons well were of the opinion that "Lanky Bob" would make a game and clever fight, and had a great chance of knocking the champion out. Among those who believe that "Fitz" will defeat Corbett is Jack McAuliffe, the light-weight champion.

If it is, it is a great fight, and I would not miss it for a fortune. But, I tell you candidly, I don't think Corbett wants to fight. I speak from my knowledge of the man, and because of something that happened a few years ago. At the time I speak of, Otto Flotto was managing Corbett, and he thought money could be made by arranging a limited bout between James J. and Fitzsimmons. He talked to "Fitz" about it, and he accepted. Corbett was in New York at the time, if I remember correctly, and Flotto wired him of "Fitz's" acceptance. Jim's answer came at once, and was "Not on your life." Corbett has never relented. Corbett is a great fighter, and that's the reason I have my misgivings about the match. Corbett's plan of putting the fight off until July adds to this impression. It is terribly hot in New Orleans then, and but few people would care to take the trip. And I hardly think the Olympic Club will care to guarantee a purse of $25,000 to fight for in that month. If Corbett wants to really fight "Fitz" he should agree to meet him in February, when he knows the contest can surely take place.

Richard K. Fox received a telegram from London yesterday, advising him that the Bolshoiro Club of that city, would give a purse of $15,000 for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight.

A CURIOUS CASE.
The Troubles of Two Ladies and a Little Boy—The Coast Line Aids Them.
The Richmond Dispatch has the following:
The Southern Railroad Company was charged in the Police Court yesterday with importing paupers into Richmond. The case was quite a sad one, in which two ladies and a little boy—Mrs. Lizzie Gammill and her 10-year-old son, and Miss Emma Gammill, her sister—had become stranded here, without means to proceed further.
The ladies said they were journeying from Reading, Pa., to Cameron, N. C., when their train was stopped several days ago their pockets were picked. They lost their railroad tickets and every cent of money in their possession. The Mayor of Richmond was kindly procured passage for them to this city, and had told them to call on the Chief of Police here, who would forward them to their destination.
Major Poe, having no funds at his disposal for this purpose, swore out a warrant against the Southern Railway Company. When the case was called, Captain West appeared for the railroad. The Justice agreed to dismiss the case if the railroad company would take the money and give the ladies tickets to Richmond. This Captain West refused to do. His Honor thereupon stated that he would instruct Major Poe to re- port the Atlantic Coast Line to transport them to North Carolina as an act of charity, and in the event that the company's refusal the Southern Railway Company would have to return them to Baltimore. The case was postponed until this morning. Later in the day, however, Major E. T. D. Myers, general superintendent of the Atlantic Coast Line, gave the ladies tickets to Weldon. City Attorney Meredith donated $10 to assist the party from that point to Cameron. They left for the "Old North State" last evening.

DIED AT WELDON.
Mr. Thos. D. Mann, General Manager Atlantic Coast Line Hotels. [Star Correspondence.]
WELDON, N. C., Oct. 8.
Mr. Thos. D. Mann, General Manager of the A. C. Line hotels, died in this place yesterday morning, after several days' illness. He has suffered from the effects of rheumatism a number of years, and he also had Bright's disease. His remains were taken to Richmond this a. m., and will be interred in Hollywood Cemetery, where he has a child buried. His family reside in Philadelphia. He was about 65 years of age.

FROM WASHINGTON.

A Republican Sugar Boom—Benson's Campaign Work.
The Washington correspondent of the Charleston News and Courier writes as follows:
The Republicans are very much disappointed that the price of sugar has not advanced since the passage of the new tariff law. They counted on a considerable rise in price and thought it would be possible to scatter broadcast throughout the country documents showing that the Democracy had added a heavy tax on articles used liberally by very many families in the land. It seems that the Republicans issued three weeks ago literature which said sugar would advance, but as it has not the Democratic committee have circulated an interesting document showing that sugar is not as high now as it was one year ago when on the free list. The Trust overdid it, and there being a glut in the market, sugar is not only cheap now, but it is liable to remain cheap for many months to come.

RANSOM'S GOOD WORK.
Senator Ransom, of North Carolina, was one of the prominent Southern Democrats who visited the city this week. He did not tarry long, but while here he assured those whom he met that the outlook for the State was encouraging. The Senator has been making a great many speeches in the campaign, and has appointments which will carry him over most of the State between now and the close of the campaign. Those who have heard him discuss the issues of the day say he has done much to create not only enthusiasm among the North Carolina Democrats, but he has put the plain truths before the people in such a forcible style that many who were wavering and threatening to join the ranks of the Populists have returned to the support of the Democratic party, and the Senator has succeeded in convincing them that the present administration is just as the State is beginning to prosper and when the crops are good and there is every prospect of a revival of business, the Democrats have done more in a year than any party ever did before in so short a time, and that other and still better national legislation will follow at an early day.
