WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 24. EDITOR STAR .- I am mortified by seeing and hearing of the false rumor of my withdrawal from the campaign for Congress in my District-the Third N. C. I will not withdraw. I am in the fight to the finish, and in to win, too. A convention of my party nominated me, in Clinton, N. C., August 22nd, last. I am a true and enthusiastic Republican of the stalwart stripe. I am making a campaign for protection to American industries. 'Tis principle with me, not the foolhardy policy of temporary suc-

A Tropical Storm

The following special bulletin, concerning the storm in the West Indies. was issued yesterday by the Weather Bureau:

WILMINGTON, N. C. October 24 .- 3.10 p. m.—The following information has been received from the Chief of the Weather Bureau at Washington, D. C.: Continue information signal at 2.40 p. m. Wilmington, Wilmington section, More-Washington and Hatteras. Northerly gales continue on the Florida coast; the storm is apparently central east or southeast of Nassau, probably moving northward.

Vessels sailing South will probably encounter severe gales off the Carolina coast, although wind may not be dangerous on the immediate coast. F. L. GRAHAM.

Observer Weather Bureau. WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 24, 11 p. m. The following is just received from Washington:

"Special report from Nassau indicates tropical storm central to East of that Island. North gales continue on Florida coast, but the winds continue light at all stations between Florida and Virginia. Present indications are that as the storm passes north the centre will be well east of the coast line. "GRAHAM."

Robeson County Fairs. The people of Robeson county are among the most enterprising in the State, as is shown by the fact that they will have two agricultural Fairs this Fall. The fifth annual Fair of the Border Exposition of the Carolinas will be held at Maxton, October- 81st and November 1st and 2nd, and the first annual exhibit of the Robeson County Agricultural and Live Stock Association will be held at Lumberton, November 20th to 23rd, inclusive. Both offer very attractive programmes and premium lists, and the indications are that both will be largely attended. The Fair at Maxton will doubtless surpass in excellence any of its predecessors.

Special Meeting Called to Consider Figan-

cial Matters. The Board of Aldermen met in special session yesterday. Mayor Fishblate said that the meeting was called to contrict, was in the city yesterday, on his sider the action of the Board of Audit and Finance and the Finance Committee town, and called at the STAR office. of the Board of Aldermen in the matter Being asked about the report that he of the application of Mrs. Graham, of would withdraw from the race, he said | California, to be paid for certain bonds he would settle that question once for of the City of Wilmington alleged to have been destroyed by fire.

The following resolution, prepared by the city attorney, Mr. P. B. Manning, was submitted after explanation made by Mr. George Rountree, representing Mrs. Graham:

Be it resolved, That the city of Wilmington give to Mrs. Bettie Graham, administratrix of W. P. Graham, deceased, its note in the sum of $3,000; said note to be dated the 17th of October, 1897, and to bear interest from date, at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum. The said note is given for three bonds of the said city of Wilmington, each in the sum of $1,000, numbered respectively 116, 129 and 180, issued under an act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, ratified the 27th day of February, 1867, which said bonds are alleged to have been burned, and the said note is given for the purpose of allowing the statute of limitation to expire on said bonds before the payment of the note, and the note must contain a condition to that effect, namely: that it is to be paid at its maturity provided the said bonds shall not have been presented to said city for payment before the maturity of the note. The Mayor is hereby authorized to execute and deliver said note and the secretary and treasurer of said city is authorized to attest the same and to affix thereto the seal of said city. Alderman Northrop asked if the bond account showed the proper credits for the amount of these missing bonds. It was stated that the books showed the proper credits but that the money was transferred to the general fund abcount during Mayor Fowler's administration.

Mayor Fishblate said that there ought to be something to show that the debt was not increased by his administration, otherwise at the close of the year it would appear as a deficit. After further discussion, on motion, the resolution was adopted. The following resolutions from the Finance committee of the Board were also adopted, viz: Resolved, That the city borrow the Atlantic National Bank the sum of | tified check to this city and I will waive $7,500, and the Mayor is hereby authorized to sign a note therefor, and the clerk and treasurer is authorized to attest the same and affix thereto the seal of the city. The said note to bear not exceeding 8 per cent. interest, and to run not exceeding 90 days from is date, the same being to renew one-half of the present note of fifteen thousand dollars, due October 18th, 1894, the other half having been paid. Resolved, That the city borrow from Murchison & Co. the sum of $7,500 and the Mayor is hereby authorized to sign a note therefor, and the Clerk and Treasurer is authorized to attest the same and to affix thereto the seal of said city; the said note to bear interest at a rate not exceeding 8 per cent. per annum and to run not exceeding 90 days from its date, the same being to renew one half of a note to Murchison & Co. for $15,000 due October 22. 1894: the other half of said note having been paid.

Mr. Hashager, of the firm of Vollers & Hashagen, appeared before the Boar and asked permission to erect a platform at their warehouse at the railroad depot on Nutt street.

On motion, the matter was referred to the Committee on Streets and Wharves, with power to act.

The Board then adjourned. Drowned in the French Broad.

The South Carolina papers contain full reports of the unfortunate death of Mr. T. C. Gower, of Greenville, who is credited with having done more to build up and develop that city than any one man. MORE FISTIC TALK.

Pugilistic Plunger Gourdain Offers to Have His $10,000 Check Cashed in Order to Back Fitz Against Champion Corbett. The New York World says: L. A. Gourdain, the New Orleans pugilistic plunger, has another proposition for Jim Corbett and his moneyed friends. He now is anxious to have the World cash his $10,000 certified check and make his deposit in ready money. When he heard the objections Al Smith and Manager Brady had to a check yesterday, he sent the following letter to the New Orleans Item; Editor Daily Item-

Dear Sir: In reading the Times Democrat of this date I see Al Smith, Corbett's backer, says a certified check is of no value for betting purposes. In order not to embarrass Mr. Smith I have wired the World to cash the check, so that Mr. Smith will have the pleasure of covering the real money. My proposition is not for a $10,000 bet, but for $50,000 or more. This amount is named in order to cover any loss that Corbett might be laid liable to by cancelling theatrical engagements to meet Fitzsimmons in February. Any fair proposition from Corbett will be accepted by me. I want to take Mr. Corbett at his word, and therefore I insist on the side bet of $50,-

I see by the Picayune that Brady is also opposed to the certified check Now, Brady has evidently forgotten that Corbett says he is a bank clerk. Il Corbett ever held that position Brady has not yet learned from him that certified checks are recognized all the world over as spot cash. However, a desire to comply with Mr. Brady's request has to some extent influenced me to convert the check into cash. Mr. Smith also wants me to come to New York. Well. if my money is there in responsible hands what cares Mt. Al Smith? Now, if Mr. Smith-wants to show his good faith let him cover my money. The locality will received my attention later.

In regard to the statement that it was an Olympic Club scheme, I will state that I am not directly or indirectly connected with the Olympic Club of this city. Can Mr. Smith say the same for himself and Mr. Corbett about the Florida club? With me any fair club and any fair referee can decide my money.
Mr. Jim Wakely says he does not care to violate the laws of the State of New York or he would bet me $54,000 or $75,-000 that Corbett would win from Fitzsimmons. That is a poor argument. Why does he not cover my money in New York or send it to New York? Does he think nothing can be done outside of New York? If he will agree that it is possible to arrange such a matter outside of New York let him send a cer the penalty if there be any attached in covering the same.

L. A. GOURDAIN. Al Smith could not be found up-town last night, but the general opinion among sporting men was that the appearance of the cash would put a new face on Gourdain's offer. The arguments that a certified check was not a good tender for a bet, brought forward by the friends of the alleged Florida Athletic Glub, no tonger hold water. As it is now, none but the two principals can change the date and place of the fight, but $50,000 in sight, at even odds, is sufficient rea-son for Corbett to ask for a change of place and time. Fitzsimmons is on record as wanting a fight in February, and he could hardly demur to Corbett's request to have the fight in accord with the conditions of Gourdain's offer. One of Corbett's backers and earnest supporters is out to accept the bet. This is Jim Wakely, the old-time backer of Sullivan. "Should the date and place of the fight be changed to New Orleans in February," said he, "now that Gourdain says cash will be put up, I am ready to take $20,000 of his bet, and if Corbett don't want the rest I will find takers for the $30,000 in one day. Or, if Gourdain will let the bet go on the fight as now arranged. I will take as much of the bet as I can get and post the money with a stakeholder. The money, under the latter condition, would be up for nearly a year, but the interest could go with the main stakes."

The Rabbit Foot Again. To understand better the following it should be known that Yost is the Republican candidate for Congress in the Tenth Va. District, and is making a hopeless fight against Henry St. George Tucker, Democrat. And, it may be added that it is fortunate for Tucker that the trap refuses to spring.

I've just heard a good story told on lake Yost. My informant tells the story thus: "I was going through the Lexington cemetery a few days ago, and in an unfrequented spot of the city of the dead I found a box trap, made to catch rabbits in. I thought it an out-ofthe-way thing to find in a grave yard, and as I went out of the cemetery, meeting the sexton, I asked him what such a thing was put there for, and he informed me that a county Republican had offered to pay a nice price for the left hind foot of a grave-yard rabbit, which he was going to send to Yost, and that it was good luck and would insure the defeat of Tucker and the election of Yost. The trap is yet unsprung.

General Manager Heiskell,

Mr. M. F. Heiskell, who has so ac ceptably filled the position of Superintendent of the Wilmington Street Railway for the past three years, has been appointed General Manager of that popular enterprise, which has contributed so much to the comfort and convenience of the people of this city. Mr. Heiskell's thorough practical knowledge of all the details of electric railway management give him special fitness for the position, and the STAR joins the long procession of friends who are glad to greet him as General Manager Heiskell.

The Bennettsville Postoffice Robbery. A press dispatch to the STAR last night from Washington says: The Chief Postoffice Inspector was informed to-day from Wilmington, N. C. that the postage stamps seized by the postoffice detective at Laurinburg had been identified by the postmaster at Bennettsville, S. C., from which place they were stolen. The robbers have not yet been arrested, but their John Davis, colored, was fined five names are known and warrants are out for their arrest.
