A FORGER CAUGHT

And Sent to Jail in Default of Bail-He Attempted to Pass a Bogus Check on Williams & Murchison's Bank.

Wm. L. Johnson, a colored man about 85 years of age, was sent to jail from Justice J. M. McGowan's court yesterday, in default of $1,000 bail.

Johnson is charged with forgery, and the evidence against him is sufficient to the Criminal Court.

Yesterday morning a colored boy entered the banking house of Messrs. Williams & Murchison and presented a check for "forty dollars" payable to 'cash," and signed "L. B. Sasser," the name of the well known druggist on Market street. With the request the boy gave the cashier a note written on one of Mr. Sasser's prescription blanks, asking that the money be given the bearer, as he (Mr. Sasser) did not have time to come down to the bank. Mr. Grainger, the cashier, compared the signature on the check with signatures of Mr. Sasser on other checks and found that they were dissimilar. He questioned the boy, who said Mr. Sasser was at the postoffice. waiting for him to bring the money. The cashier went to the postoffice with the boy, who pointed out Johnson as the man who gave him the check. Johnson accompanied Mr. Grainger to the bank and asked that the money be given him, and then went off to telephone Mr. Sasser, as he said. During his absence, Mr. Grainger called up Mr. Sasser on the phone, who replied that he had not sent the check. In the meantime, Johnson came back and told the cashier that Mr. Sasser said, "send the money immediately." He did not get the money, however, and left the bank, but only to be arrested shortly afterwards on a warrant issued by Justice McGowan and served by police officer White. Mr. Sasser testified at the examination before the magistrate that he did not fill out or sign the check, and that it was apparently torn from his check book. Johnson, he said, had been in his employ a short time and had access to the place where his books and papers were kept.

DIPHTHERIA AND CROUP.

Dr. Chancellor's Report Upon Inoculation

as a Hemedy for These Deseases. WASHINGTON, October 25 .- The treatment by inoculation for diphtheria and croup, as practiced in France, is the subject of a special report to the Department of State by United States Consul, C. W. Chancellor at Havre. He says that by this method of treatment only one out of four diphtheria patients succumbs, whereas the figure is double for other methods of treatment heretolore employed. Consequently the Consul, who is a Baltimore physician of repute, says that it would seem very desirable that introduced and come into general use at the earliest period practicable in America, where many thousand children and and numerous physicians students and nurses die annually from diphtheria and croup. The consul gives in detail a history of the developement of the treatment by Dr. Pasteur and his assistant, Dr. Roux, who have been experimenting with i for five years, keeping it secret until they and had selected the animal (the horse) best adapted to transform the diphtheretic poison into an anti-toxine. A trial of the new treatment at one of the largest children's hospitals of Paris resulted in reducing the death rate from diphtheria from 51 70 per cent. to 24.33 per cent. In addition, it is stated that children vaccinated with the serum were protected from the disease, eyen while iving in close contact with diphtheria patients. As the Pasteur Institute cannot meet the great demands for the serum, movements are on foot in different localities to establish auxiliary stations. In slight cases one injection of the serum is sufficient, while the ordinary case yields to two. BY RIVER AND RAIL.

The Industrial Revival Has Made Encouraging Progress-Boots and Shoe in the Lead.

The Philadelphia Record, in its weekly review of trade, says:

shown well sustained activity in some departments, and less in others. The industrial rivival has made encouraging ensure his conviction when the case progress. The boot and shoe factories comes up for trial at the next term of are crowded with orders, and of the cheaper grades of goods productions are sold from one to three months ahead. Shipments from Eastern centers are larger than at the corresponding period in either of the two preceding years. Production of textile fabrics and the output of iron and steel continue to increase. The distribution of some lines of goods from first hands has fallen off little, owing to the advanced stage of the season, and on account also of the retardation of consumption by mild weather. The fall in cotton prices has unfavorably affected business and restricted credits in some parts of the South, although most of the reports from that section take a hopeful view of the business situation. The backward season, low prices for agricultural products and the increasing political excitement in many States fully account for the light shrinkage in the volume of business disclosed by the returns of bank clearings. Railroad earnings in October have decreased 38 per cent., but the decline is attributable to the fact that current comparisons are with the period last year, when the World's Fair passenger business was at its height.

A MURDERER ACQUITTED.

CoLendon, the Tillman Spy, Acquitted by a Tillman Jury at Darlington. DARLINGTON, October 27 -The long hours of the McLendon murder trial closed to-day, and the jury, at 11.30 tonight, after deliberating on the case for about five hours, brought in a verdict of "not guilty." The only surprise is that the jurors, who are Tillmanites, deliberated at all. The last witness was examined about 10 o'clock this morning and the peeches for the defence lasted until the Court adjourned for the afternoon ses-Solicitor Johnson made the only speech for the prosecution, and those who heard his argument are of opinon that this was the effort of his life. He spoke for three hours and held the absorbed and undivided attention of the entire audience, his speech gaining in strength and vigor until its masterly and brilliant close. To-night this speech is the topic that is being most discussed. Judge Norton's charge to the jury, from what can be learned, was against the prisoner and was somewhat lengthy. Dispassionate hearers of the testimony say that the evidence against McLendon could not have been stronger, and yet no one here has thought for a moment that a verdict of guilty would be brought against the murderer. As stated in the first of these dispatches the whole thing was worse than an empty mockery, and yet the farce had to be some through with in order that the usual legal forms should be observed.

The Washington Post has the followng concerning the Senatorial contest in "Advices received here from North Carolina indicate that Maj. Charles M.

Stedman will probably be elected to succeed the late Z. B. Vance in the Senate. Senator Jarvis might have had the short, and perhaps, the long term from the western part of the State, but he preferred to cross swords with Senator Ransom in the eastern section, in the hope of forcing the latter into retirement. While the struggle between Senators Ransom and Jarvis is being waged in the eastern district, the Stedman boom in the western district has grown to flourishing proportions. Maj. Stedman is a Democrat of the old school." Senator Ransom, who delivered one of his great speeches at Greensboro, Saturday, spent Sunday night in Wilmingron and went to Jacksonville yesterday, where he addressed a large meeting of Democrats and a considerable number of Populists. Although now in his 69th year, General Ransom is holding up well under the arduous work of the campaign. It is not uncommon for him to make two speeches day, covering about five hours, and it is conceded that his speeches attract larger crowds and exert more influence than those of any other canvasser in the county, to-day. POPS. ARE WITHDRAWING. They Couldn't Stand the Backet in Stokes

WINSTON, N. C., October 27 .- Cheering Democratic news comes from Stokes county to-day. All but two of the Third party candidates have withdrawn in favor of the Democrats. The two left are candidates for the Legislature and county treasurer. Both were formerly good Democrats. It is believed that they

The candidates who came down say the Populist party was getting too close to the Republicans to suit them; that the Republicans only want to use the Third party as the tool to get in office.
