

NEW TARIFF LAW.

INDICATIONS OF WHAT MAY BE EXPECTED FROM ITS WORKINGS.

Business Adjusting Itself to the New Conditions—Disposal of Employees in the Census Office.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, December 29.—The first six months of the current fiscal year (four months of which have come under the operation of the new tariff law) gives some indications of what may reasonably be expected in the months to come after the new tariff law has become effective in all its multitudinous details. The receipts for the six months have aggregated $100,000,000 and the expenditures in the same time have been $100,000,000, an excess of expenditures over receipts of $100,000,000. For the corresponding period of last fiscal year the excess of expenditures over receipts was $48,000,000. Less than $1,000,000 have been received from the newly imposed duty on sugar, which first appears in any appreciable amount in the receipts for December. Nothing, of course, has been received from the income tax, which does not go into effect until January 1, 1895. An annual revenue of $25,000,000 or more is anticipated, will eventually be derived from these two sources, which will bring the receipts for the balance of the year to $100,000,000. The expenditures as submitted to Congress, December receipts show an increase over November of $100,000,000 and over October indicating that business is adjusting itself to settled tariff rates. On the receipts for December $1,000,000 more than for November, an increase of $1,000,000 over November receipts from this source. The expenditures for December were $1,000,000 less than for November. Against the gratifying exhibits to be set off the fact that the old revenue continues to decline. At the close of business in the Treasury to day the balance was $98,319,000, implying a loss of $500,000 for the day, and a total loss since the gold reserve was reconstituted by the last issue of bonds of nearly $200,000,000.

SPOTS AND FUTURES.

Total Visible Supply—The Sun's Review of the Market for Cotton.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, December 29.—The total visible supply of cotton for the world is 4,826,751 bales, of which 4,494,551 bales are American, against 4,014,000 bales, and 170,702 bales respectively last year.

Receipts of cotton this week at all interior towns 238,274 bales. Receipts from the plantations 249,972 bales. Crop in sight 5,589,925 bales.

Cotton declined one to two points, but recovered this and advanced two to four points. The close was firm, with sales of 1,840 bales. Liverpool declined one to one and a half points, closing quiet and steady with spot sales of 7,000 bales at unchanged prices. There was a holiday here until January 3d. New Orleans declined three points. Port receipts to day were 40,113 bales, against 37,503 this day last week, and 43,997 last year. New Orleans receipts on Monday are estimated at 21,000 bales, possibly 20,000, against 21,948 this day last week, and 15,150 last year.

The Chronicle states that the quantity brought into sight during the past week was 403,163 bales against 338,406 for the same week last year, making a total of 1,840 bales against 1,754 bales for the same time last year. The increase in the amount in sight compared with last year is 1,358,000 bales. World's visible supply 4,826,751 bales against 4,014,000 bales last year and 4,629,255 in 1891. The American visible stock is 4,494,551 bales against 4,017,702 year ago and 4,294,956 in 1891. The figures show a total quantity in sight last year was 2,137,740 bales more than a year ago, 399,416 more than in 1893 and 194,496 more than in 1891.

Reports from the ports to day were 7,000 to France, 10,918 to the Continent and 14,900 to Great Britain. Augusta received 814 bales in 1 day last week and 213 last year. St. Louis 1,543 bales, against 1,859 this day last week and 2,013 last year. The New York warehouse stock is 97,000 bales, against 194,000 296,000, 190,000 and 6,000 bales the previous four years. The New Orleans cotton exchange makes cotton come into sight of this crop to day (119 bales) and 6,000 bales against 5,000 in 1893 and 4,687,000 in 1892 and 6,288,000 in the same period in 1891, the big crop year.

The firm says: The short interest is not supposed to be large outside of European houses. Outsiders are not inclined to increase their holdings, except the market gives way.

New Orleans is supposed to have been a fairly free market to day. There was some selling of January contracts in circulation. Cold weather is reported last night in the interior of the South; temperature four to twenty degrees. It is contended it will check the movement of cotton. A very decided falling off here is necessary to help prices. Port receipts in January 1895 were only 95,000 bales. Came into sight during the month 758,000 bales, whereas this month (December) it may be over 1,000,000 bales. In New York an early decline was due to disappointing Liverpool advices and the subsequent advance to light receipts and covering.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR PEACE BETWEEN CHINA AND JAPAN.

Withheld from the European Powers—Japan Will Avoid Anything that Will Give China Cause to Ask for European Intervention—The Armenian Troubles.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

LONDON, December 29.—The Japanese Government has made no response to the fresh suggestions from the British Government that the terms upon which Japan is willing to treat for peace with China ought to be communicated to the Powers. On the contrary, the Japanese have persisted in maintaining a policy of reticence. The British Minister at Tokio has been unable to get the slightest scrap of information as to the subject of the conditions for which Japan will contend, and the Japanese Embassy in London is equally secretive. The latter it is true, has a positive denial of the situation, but it is partly of a negative and partly of a positive character. The Embassy is free, however, to say that the recent cablegrams attributing to Japan the design of forcing an alliance with China against the European powers. The leading principle of the peace negotiations between the two Eastern empires as far as Japan is concerned, will be a total abstinence from any demand which would involve the Japanese in European intervention. Japan, therefore will not stipulate for any territorial or commercial acquisitions in which the other powers are interested. As a part of a pledge for war indemnity and certain Chinese ports that have been closed to European trade, Japan will be taken by the Japanese as a pledge for the remainder of the indemnity, together with such a lien upon the Chinese coast as will not prejudice the interests of the other powers. In regard to Corea, it is probable that a Chinese Japanese dual control over that country will be proposed. This proposal is being divulged by the Japanese Embassy, and is a great deal more moderate than those described in the sensational cablegrams received here from Tokio and elsewhere and have the stamp of belief in diplomatic circles.

As the great body of the members of the Liberal party are resolved that there shall be some practical intervention in Armenia and have relied upon the Government to carry out their plans, there is great surprise among them at finding that the Foreign Committee of Enquiry, which is going to Armenia, is composed of dragoons. Russia's delegate, M. Maurov, has been a dragoon attached to the Russian embassy at Constantinople. M. Vivier, the French delegate, is an interpreter in the French Legation at Constantinople. The Turkish delegate, Mr. Shapley, is a Vice-Consul in Turkey. The personnel of the commission is thus entirely unimpressive, and it is not clear how the Government can expect to make an investigation. There is little hope now, continues the Speaker, of getting at the truth even if the dragoons should be allowed, as they will not be, to take an active part in the investigation. England ought to come to some agreement with Russia with regard to the investigation, and the Government should be allowed to make an investigation. England ought to come to some agreement with Russia with regard to the investigation, and the Government should be allowed to make an investigation.

While no official notification has yet been issued it is almost certain that a similar order will be made including the entire Interior Department, not only physicians.

THE FREEZE IN FLORIDA.

Oranges on the Trees Frozen Solid—Pineapples and Vegetable Crops Destroyed—Estimated at Two Million Dollars.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

JACKSONVILLE, December 29.—Dispatches to the Times Union indicate that the cold wave has been very destructive to the orange and vegetable crops. No section of the State escaped. Oranges on the trees are frozen solid and it is said there is now not a sound piece of oranges in the State. Peas, tomatoes and other vegetables are ruined. A dispatch from the east coast says that the pineapple crop is ruined. It is estimated that there were 2,500,000 boxes of oranges in the State, and that 2,000,000 of them are a total loss. POPULIST CONVENTION.

Adjourned Since the Platform Resolutions Adopted.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 29.—The afternoon session closed in a whirlwind of oratory with nothing before the Conference. Coxy had been quelled in an effort to be heard, but his loud issue speech was championed by Crosby, of Kansas City, who spoke for thirty minutes. Coxy was allowed to present it and it was by resolution recommended to the consideration of the People's party. At 7:30 o'clock the Conference reassembled and the National Executive Committee completed its address to the public, and the following resolutions, reported by the National Committee, were adopted.

In view of the fact that the State of Alabama is a slave State, and that the Republican form of Government, because of the rule of a political oligarchy which is perpetuated by money, is a mockery to the people, and that the Chairman of the National Committee, in his address to the public, has announced that he will support a committee of three to submit evidence to the press of the country and to Congress to substantiate the alarming and revolutionary condition, threatening the life of the country, and the existing autocratic Anarchy in the South, which will be averted only by the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the National Committee be authorized to issue a call for a convention of the People's party, to be held at the city of Birmingham, Ala., on the 15th day of January, 1895, for the purpose of adopting a platform and a constitution for the party, and for the election of a National Executive Committee.
