CHEEKY BRECKINRIDGE.

He is Advertised to Lecture in Charleston -An Exciting Incident of His Lecture in Cincinnata.

The News and Courier says: W. C. P. Breckinridge, Madeline Pollard's man, has been advertised to deliver a lecture at the German Artillery Hall, in this city. A letter just received from a College President in this State, an ex-Confederate soldier who lost one of his legs at Williamsburg, Virginia, a man who has nothing of the Puritan about him, but who has a heart and conscience. writes as follows: "What in the world are you going to

He ought to get the cold shoulder from so decent and self-respecting a city as Charleston. If Chicago can say we want none of him surely Charleston will spew him out of her mouth.' Breckinridge delivered his lecture i do with Breckinridge in Charleston?

Cincinnati, Ohio, last Thursday night. The following account of the performance and its attendant events is taken from the New York Sun:

"The box office at Pike's Opera House, where Col. Breckinridge lectured to-night, was the scene of an exciting fight. Attorney Gus Meyer, who represented Madeline Pollard in taking depositions here previous to the Washington trial, had a bill of $45 50 against Col. Breckinridge. This alternoon he se cured a writ of attachment from 'Squire Kushman, who instructed Constables Kinney and Valker to serve it, There had been rumors of an attempted attachment, and the box office was barri-

"A few minutes after 8 o'clock Kinney went up to the window as it to pur chase a ticket. At that instant Valker gave him a shove and K nney was sent clear through the barricade, knocking down the ticket seller, overturning the cash register and breaking a picture on the wall. Then began an exciting strug gle for the possession of the money which had rolled from the smashed re

"Kinney managed to pick up about $60. The struggle attracted Breckinridge's friends and about fifteen rushed in. Kinney was knocked down and kicked, his lips being cut. The ticker taker received a severe cut on the hand probably from flying glass.

"Just as quiet was restored Col. Breckinridge and his son Desha rushed in Both were greatly excited. " 'You robbers! shouled the Colonel. while Desh struggled to hit the constable, but was restrained by friends.
"'You come down to the Grand Hotel to-morrow.' yelled Desha, 'and give me "Kinney declined the invitation, and after counting the money he had seized returned $13 75 to Manager Ballenberg While the struggle was in progress two other constables, supposed to represent Madeline Pollard, were watching for chance to jump in. "Col. Breckinridge walked on the stage immediately after the box office fight and delivered his lecture on 'An Era of American History.' There was nothing striking in the discourse, and it met with a chilly reception. There were exactly two hundred in the audience, twenty-four of whom were women. A heavy guard was kept at the box office, but no further assaults were made."

A VERY GOOD SHOWING.

County's Democratic Commissioners Have Reduced their Debt $14,

[Newbern Journal]

On another page will be found the beginning of the annual report of the Commissioners of Craven County, showing the annual receipts and disbursements, present condition of the county finances, etc. It is a report which every voter and taxpayer should study. When the Democratic board took charge they found the county burdened with a debt of $165,000 saddled upon it by their Republican predecessors They have reduced this now to $50,945 53, and are now preparing to make another payment of $25,000 more. A few years more of such wise and economic management and the county will be free from debt and increasing even more rapidly in material prosperity. [Now, the question arises, will the Rep.-Pop. Legislature permit this good work to go on in Craven county?-STAR]

Meeting of Freight and Passengel Agents in Portsmouth-The Local Business of the Line to Be Developed.

The Norfolk Virginian gives the following report of an important railroad meeting held in Portsmouth: A very important meeting of the freight and passenger agents of the Seaboard Air Line was held at the Hotel Portsmouth, Portsmouth, Friday and Saturday. The meeting was significant in many ways. The representatives were called together by their superior officers, the general passenger agent and general freight agent, to report now at the close of this, the most prosperous year in the history of the Seaboard Air Line, the volume of business secured, to devise ways and means to secure a greater share of competitive business, to develop in a greater degree the local business of the line and to discuss the great question of immigration and colonization.

The agents were honored by the presence of the president of the Sabbard Air Line, Mr. R. Hoffman; the new vicepresident, Mr. E. St. John; the general manager, Mr. John W. Winder; the general agent at Portsmouth, Mr. Carroll H. Smith, and the department heads. General Passenger Agent T. J. Anderson and General Freight Agent H. W. B. Glover. Mr. T. J. Anderson, general passenger agent, was by vote of the meeting, selected to preside, and he made an excellent presiding officer, holding the complete attention of every agent present by his happy speeches and vitty remarks. There were present also he freight and passenger agents from Boston New York, Pailadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Nortolk, Portsmouth, Durham, Raleigh, Fayetteville, Augusta, Liurens, Wilmington, Atlanta, Macon, Montgomery, New Orleans, St. Louis and Cincinnati The reports made showed gratifying increase of business from all points covered, the percentage of increase in many cases being little short of marvelous. Not the least significant feature of the gathering was the strong fraternal feeling and spirit of co-operation manifest, ed, and it is this element superinduced by the efficient management of the line by the capable general officers that will have the most decided effect on the showing that will be made in the future by passenger and freight agents. The meeting was addressed by the newlyelected Vice-President. Mr. E. St. John, who, in an excellent speech, assured the agents and officials that the management under him should be progressive one.

The representatives passed votes of thanks to Mr. T. J. Anderson, general passenger agent, and to Mr. H. W. B. Glover, general freight agent, for their strong co-operation in the past and for their progressive and efficient direction which had made such excellent results possible and which will serve to bring the Seaboard Air Line to the front in the sear future.

The meeting adjourned at 600 p. m. Saturday night, after voting to hold the next meeting at Atlanta, Ga., date not determined upon.

Porton's Original New Orleans Minstrels. The last half of the present theatrical season of 1894-'5 in this city, will be inaugurated to-morrow evening at 8.15 o'clock at the Opera House with an excellent production of 'minstrelsy by that famous and ever popular minstrel originator, Joseph Gorton, whose name s at the head of the "Original New Orleans Minstrels," and who gives a production this season which surpasses anything he has ever put upon the American stage. The Norfolk (Va) Landmark of December 26th last has the following notice of the troupe and their performance: Gorton's Minstrels-This aggregation of burnt cork people, under the manage-ment of Mr. C. H. Larkin, gave two performances at the Academy of Music yesterday to two large and well pleased audiences. The company is composed of clever comedians, singers and dancers, principal among whom are H. J. Yorkey, Armstrong and Bryne, Markham and Roberts and DeWitt Cooke, who are excelient. The show is bound to please, as every member of the company does something and does it well. The band with the company is first-class.

Applyersary Ball. The Howard Relief Social Club gave their anniversary ball at Adrian Hall last night. The ball opened at 9 o'clock with some sixty couples on the floor and the dancing continued until early this morning. At midnight, after the New Year quadrille, supper was served by Mrs. P. N. Fick. Mr. Henry Geischer led the dances, and the management of the ball, one of the most enjoyable of the season, was under control of the three Henrys-Duls, Geischen and Haar.

Newspaper Thieves. It is a fact beyond dispute that newspaper thieves follow the carriers of the STAR (on Sunday especially) and steal many of the papers soon after they are left for city subscribers. It will be easy to capture and punish some of these thieves if those to whom they offer to sell papers will assist in the work. When they attempt to sell a paper without the words "For Transient Sale" stamped on the margin, it may be taken as almost conclusive evidence that the paper has been stolen Of course, if people will continue to buy the unstamped papers the thieves will continue their wo k.

Fire broke out this morning about one o'clock, in an incubator, a large wooden structure, on the premises of Mr. E. P. Bailey, on Ann, between Third and Fourth streets. The Fire Department was called out by an alarm sent in from box No. 46. The fire was quickly extinguished, and the damage will not exceed $100. It is not known how the fire originated.

out on a habeas corpus. Some of the stockholders whom he had taken in took him out. Inspector Williams when asked by Mr. Goff, before the Lexow committee how he had made so much money, replied that he did it by buying Japanese real estate But as the laws of Japan prohibit foreigners from owning real estate in that coun-sertion to stand on. A contemporary remarks that Queen Victoria, who is failing rapidly, is "a grand woman and a wise ruler as well." She is a very good woman, but as for the "wise ruler" she has about as little to do with the ruling of Great Britain as she has with engineering the stars. If any one in this world has a sinecure it is the head of the royal family of England.

The Chicago Inter Ocean, Rep., objects to the income tax because it puts a premium on single blessedness, or single-cussedness, as it may be viewed. If, it says, a young lady with $10,000 income marries a man with a ditto income, they would have sortment to specify. Will have to be $12,000 as they did when they were single, the two incomes becoming merged into one when the twain become one. A fellow who would be unwilling to pay an increased income tax after taking in a nice girl and doubling his assets as well as his joys ought to be dumped into the lake, as a dolt who doesn't know a good thing when he gets it or as being too mean to appreciate it.
